

St. Louis Blues

2009-2010 Media Guide

WHATEVER IT TAKES.

How to pay homage to a hat trick.

Step one: Wait until a player scores three goals in one game.

Step two: Remove hat from head. Grasp brim firmly in throwing hand.

Step three: Launch your offering with a flick of the wrist.

How to make sure you're at the game – because throwing your hat at the TV just isn't the same.

Step one: Go to Ticketmaster.com where they've got more ways to get you into the game, including buying and selling seats from season ticket holders and other fans.

Step two: Get ready. (Odds of witnessing a hat trick are 1 in 18.)

Based in New York City, SCP Worldwide is a growing sports, entertainment and media enterprise operated by some of the industry's most successful executives. The firm is built on a model of selecting undervalued franchises, venues and real estate opportunities and building them into robust business ventures. SCP Worldwide owns a diverse array of properties that include the National Hockey League's St. Louis Blues, Scottrade Center, the famed Kiel Opera House in St. Louis as well as the Blues' AHL affiliate Peoria Rivermen. The company also owns and operates Major League Soccer's Real Salt Lake and its home - Rio Tinto Stadium - a multi-purpose, open-air facility in Sandy, Utah as well as KALL700 Sports Radio in Salt Lake City.

Additionally, the company holds a significant interest in Running Subway, the New York-based live entertainment company which recently opened the Discovery Times Square Exposition space and manages the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame Annex in Soho, NY. SCP also owns the much heralded Tupelo-Honey Productions, a multi-disciplined, full-service television and broadband production company. SCP also maintains a relationship with world-renowned soccer franchise, Real Madrid, the 30-time La Liga champion. Further expanding their reach within the soccer community, SCP also owns the media rights to the South American World Cup Qualifiers, a competition that is one of the pre-cursors to the 2010 World Cup. Additionally, they own an interest in fantasy sports website www.rotohog.com.

SCP Worldwide (www.scpworldwide.net) consists of proven sports, media, entertainment and finance executives including David W. Checketts, its chairman and founding member and his partners, Michael McCarthy, Kenneth Munoz, Steve Potter, Dean Howes and Carl Vogel.

David W. Checketts

Principal Owner and Chairman, St. Louis Blues Chairman, SCP Worldwide

David W. Checketts founded SCP Worldwide (SCP) in September 2001. One of the most heralded sports, media and entertainment executives he currently serves as Chairman of this fast growing company.

Under his direction and leadership, SCP has acquired an impressive stable of assets. In June 2006 the company acquired the St. Louis Blues of the National Hockey League, Scottrade Center and Kiel Opera House as well as purchasing the Blues' AHL affiliate Peoria Rivermen in July 2008. In 2004, SCP acquired the twelfth Major League Soccer (MLS) franchise launching Real Salt Lake and in October of 2008 opened, to critical acclaim, Rio Tinto Stadium – a 20,000 seat multi-purpose open air facility in Sandy, Utah. SCP owns Salt Lake City sports-talk radio station KALL700 Sports, has a controlling interest in Running Subway, an entertainment production company, and owns Tupelo-Honey a heralded media production company.

The 53-year-old Mr. Checketts created his sports media company after a successful ten-year career at Madison Square Garden (MSG). As President and Chief Executive Officer for seven years, Mr. Checketts oversaw all operations of one of the most powerful sports and entertainment companies globally, including the "World's Most Famous Arena" and its three sports franchises, the New York Knickerbockers of the NBA, the New York Rangers of the NHL, and the New York Liberty of the WNBA – along with the award winning MSG Network and FOX Sports Network. In 1997, while at his post, Mr. Checketts took on the ambitious acquisition and comprehensive restoration of New York's historic Radio City Music Hall. Although MSG, under his leadership, was awarded with many accomplishments such as being named Arena of the Year for six straight years, the achievement he takes most pride in is the establishment of the MSG "Cheering for Children" foundation which created after school programs for thousands of New York City school children.

Mr. Checketts began his career at Madison Square Garden as President of the New York Knicks in March 1991. In the four seasons he served as President, the team finished twice in first place, made it to the Eastern Conference Finals twice and captured the Eastern Conference Champion Title in 1994. During this time, the team set records in attendance, ratings and revenues including setting the all-time sellout streak of 460 games at The Garden. Forbes named the Knicks the most valuable franchise in the NBA.

In his role as Governor of the Knicks (NBA), Rangers (NHL) and Liberty (WNBA), Mr. Checketts was instrumental in all three leagues development and mission. For the NBA, he was part of both the Planning Committee and the Labor Relations Committee which including being a lead negotiator in the Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA) in 1999. For the WNBA, he was one of the founding partners and served on the League's Operating Committee.

Prior to joining the Knicks, Mr. Checketts spent one year as General Manager of NBA International, working with NBA Commissioner David Stern on building a presence for the league in broadcasting and licensing around the world.

In 1983, Mr. Checketts was named President and General Manager of the Utah Jazz. At 28 years old, he became the youngest chief executive in the history of the NBA. During his six year tenure, the team captured two Midwest Division titles and enjoyed a multi-million dollar economic turnaround.

Mr. Checketts did his undergraduate studies at the University of Utah and earned his MBA from Brigham Young University (BYU) in 1981, where he graduated with top honors. Upon completion of his studies, he joined the Boston based consulting firm, Bain & Company.

Mr. Checketts serves on the Board of Directors of JetBlue Airways, International Management Group (IMG) and Republic Mortgage. He plays an active role with each company, serving as the Chairman, Compensation Committee for JetBlue.

He resides in Connecticut with his wife Deb. They have six children and four grandchildren.

Michael McCarthy Vice Chairman/Alternate Governor, St. Louis Blues Partner, SCP Worldwide

Mike McCarthy, who joined SCP Worldwide (SCP) in July 2005 as partner, serves as the Vice-Chairman and Alternate Governor of the St. Louis Blues, where he oversees day-to-day operations for the National Hockey League franchise and Scottrade Center. Additionally, Mr. McCarthy played an instrumental role in SCP Worldwide's purchase of the Peoria Rivermen and is the Chairman of SCP's highly acclaimed sports, entertainment and media production company, Tupelo Honey Productions.

Prior to joining SCP Worldwide, Mr. McCarthy most recently served as President of Madison Square Garden Networks Group, a position he held during his 23-year career with the organization. During his tenure, Mr. McCarthy oversaw the sports and news production and programming that led to an extraordinary 75 Emmy Awards and 250 Emmy Award Nominations.

In addition to the many Emmy Awards, Mr. McCarthy's creativity and programming prowess were recognized as he and his staff garnered many other accolades throughout the industry, including the national Cable ACE Award, International Festival Award, two-time Pro Max Marketing Awards, Bandies Award and The Mark Award.

Mr. McCarthy started at Madison Square Garden Networks as an intern in college, and worked his way upward as a Production Assistant, Producer, Senior Producer, Executive Producer to the Vice President of Programming and Production, where he was able to shape MSG Network into the premier sports regional network in the country. He steadily moved up to Senior Vice President of Programming and Production and was given the responsibility of overseeing Fox Sports New York, where he transformed the regional network into another award-winning regional sports leader.

Mr. McCarthy became Executive Vice President, and later President, where he served on the Madison Square Garden Executive Board. He also served on the CTANY Board. One of Mr. McCarthy's legacies at MSG Networks was as an active member of the Cheering for Children Board, where he was very instrumental in the charity that aided after-school programs for children in the metropolitan New York area.

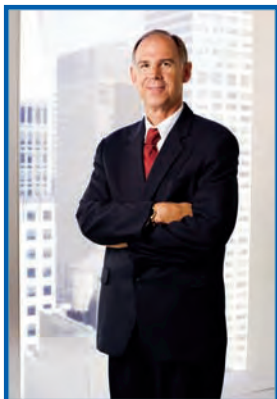

As the leader of Madison Square Garden Networks Group, Mr. McCarthy had the responsibility of overseeing the entire operation of MSG Network, Fox Sports Net New York, MSG Radio, MSG ITV and MSGNetwork.com. He managed budgets of $386 million in revenue and $235 million in expenses, while overseeing over 200 staff and another 300 freelance employees.

Mr. McCarthy was responsible for the day-to-day operations of Production, Programming, Ad Sales, Marketing, New Media, Technical Operations and Public Relations. He oversaw and directly negotiated talent contracts, along with IBEW, IATSE, DGA and AFTRA union contracts.

Besides being recognized for excellence in sports production, Mr. McCarthy was also an innovative leader of the most technically advanced regional networks, including the introduction of High Definition Television (HDTV) in 1998 when his network aired the first regularly scheduled sports events covered in HD.

Mr. McCarthy also managed and created highly popular, Emmy award winning New Media initiatives of sports content for the Cablevision digital set top box (DSTB).

Mr. McCarthy resides in Fairfield, Connecticut with his wife Allison and their two children, Jeremy and Maggie.

Kenneth Munoz
Alternate Governor, St. Louis Blues
Partner, SCP Worldwide

Kenneth Munoz joined SCP Worldwide, as a partner, effective July 15, 2005. Since SCP's start-up in 2002, Mr. Munoz has acted as its counsel, negotiating and concluding a number of acquisitions and related sports, media and entertainment transactions that helped create the company SCP is today. Mr. Munoz was the critical player for SCP in its acquisition of the St. Louis Blues in 2006, as well as the complicated equity/debt structure utilized to complete this transaction. He is a co-investor with SCP in Running Subway, LLC, and serves as its Chairman.

Mr. Munoz most recently served as senior counsel in the New York office of the law firm of Sidley Austin Brown & Wood from 2002 to 2005. His practice focused on general corporate matters in the industries of sports, media and entertainment. His client base included arena owners, sports team entrepreneurs and major sports leagues. Mr. Munoz represented team owners in each of the National Basketball Association and the National Hockey League.

He also represented major arenas in the two largest U.S. markets, the Forum in Los Angeles, and Madison Square Garden in New York, in respect of numerous transactional matters – ranging from capital structuring transactions, to concessions/arena manager agreements to sponsorship partner agreements to general corporate advice.

Before joining Sidley in May 2002, Mr. Munoz was Executive Vice President, Business Affairs and General Counsel for Madison Square Garden, L.P. for sixteen years. In this position, Mr. Munoz supervised a department of eight attorneys responsible for all relevant legal and business affairs matters facing MSG including entertainment and television business negotiations, player contracts, labor relations and litigation. He was also in charge of all new business development activities for MSG, including mergers and acquisitions. Prior to being named General Counsel in 1986, Mr. Munoz held several legal and business affairs positions with the company.

During Mr. Munoz's twenty four year career at MSG, Mr. Munoz helped put together many of the brand-building transactions and corporate moves that created the $1 billion company it is today, including the company's 1997 acquisition of Radio City Productions. In 1988, Mr. Munoz led negotiations that resulted in MSG's unprecedented contract to telecast New York Yankees games through 2000, a deal valued at the time at more than $500 million. In more recent years, he helped establish the New York Liberty, the company's WNBA team and expanded MSG entertainment programming businesses. His appointment to the National Hockey League Board of Governors on behalf of the Blues was preceded by 16 years of the same service on the Boards of the NHL and the NBA during his MSG tenure. He also serves as a Governor on behalf of SCP's Major League Soccer franchise, Real Salt Lake and is also a member of the League's Labor Relations committee.

Prior to his in-house positions at MSG, Mr. Munoz was an associate in the New York offices of the law firm, Fulbright and Jaworski.

Mr. Munoz graduated from New York University School of Law (J.D., 1975) and obtained his B.A. from the State University of New York – New Paltz in 1972. He is a member of the New York State Bar Association and its Entertainment, Arts and Sports Law Section, and is active in alumni affairs of NYU Law School, participating in its annual Speaker's Roundtable. Mr. Munoz resides in Douglas Manor, New York with his wife, Maryann. They have three children and one grandchild.

Carl Vogel
Partner, SCP Worldwide

Carl Vogel, one of the most experienced executives in the media and telecom business with over 25 years of increasing responsibility across the cable television, satellite, telecom and content sectors, joined SCP Worldwide as Partner in May, 2009. Mr. Vogel's experience ranges from structuring complex financial transactions, mergers and acquisitions, attracting necessary investment capital in both public and private markets to content creation, program network negotiations and cable and satellite network operations. Mr. Vogel has close personal relationships with the top leaders in the media and telecom sectors in North America and has a long track record of success. Mr. Vogel, who will be based out of Denver, Colorado, has a reputation for integrity, candor and independence with the investment community and is well known and respected on Wall Street and Capitol Hill.

Mr. Vogel is currently a member of the Board of Directors of Dish Network Corporation (DISH; NASDAQ) and an advisor to its Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and Founder. Thomas H. Stillman

Minority Owner, St. Louis Blues

Tom Stillman was announced as a minority owner of the St. Louis Blues on March 29, 2007. This was the first foray into professional sports for Mr. Stillman, a former lawyer who is now chairman and CEO of Summit Distributing, a St. Louis-based beer distribution business.

Mr. Stillman was born and raised in Minneapolis, Minnesota. He attended Middlebury College in Middlebury, Vermont, where he played hockey and soccer, graduating in 1974. He later went on to law school, graduating from the University of Minnesota School of Law in 1978.

Following graduation, Mr. Stillman went to work for the New York law firm Dewey, Ballantine, Bushby, Palmer & Wood (now Dewey & LeBoeuf). In 1985, he joined the firm's Washington, D.C., office. In 1988, he moved to the U.S. Department of Commerce, where he was Chief Counsel for Export Administration, responsible for legal aspects of national security-based controls on sensitive exports. In the same year, Mr. Stillman married Mary T. Danforth in Washington, D.C.

In 1993, Mr. Stillman and his family moved to St. Louis. In January 1994, he left the legal profession and entered the beer distribution business with the acquisition of St. Louis Beer Sales. He now serves as the chairman and CEO of the company, renamed Summit Distributing in 2001.

Mr. Stillman serves on the boards of the St. Louis Blues 14 Fund, the St. Louis Sports Commission, and the Nature Conservancy in Missouri.

Tom and his wife Mary reside in St. Louis with their three children, John, Isabelle, and Anna.

John Davidson President of Hockey Operations

John Davidson became the seventh president in franchise history on June 30, 2006. Since his arrival, the organization has signed players such as Paul Kariya and Keith Tkachuk while continuing to develop a solid young team. Davidson has also made deals which has brought Brad Boyes, Chris Mason and Andy McDonald to St. Louis.

Davidson, a former goaltender for the Blues and the team's first-round draft choice in 1973, boasts an impressive hockey career on and off the ice, including many years as an analyst for the Madison Square Garden (MSG) Network and various national hockey broadcast partners in the United States and Canada. On June 2, 2009, The Hockey Hall of Fame announced that Davidson will receive the Foster Hewitt Memorial Award for outstanding contributions as a hockey broadcaster and he will be officially inducted on Nov. 9, 2009.

In recent years, his extraordinary abilities as a hockey analyst for MSG were rewarded with four prominent and important honors. The NHL and U.S. Hockey honored Davidson in March of 2004 when he was presented with the Lester Patrick Award for his contribution to American hockey. In May of 2001, he received his second career New York Emmy award for "Outstanding On-Camera Achievement." He first won the award in April of 1995. In December of 1994, he was an integral part of MSG's Rangers broadcast team that was named winner of the CableACE award for "Outstanding Live Event Coverage." In June of 1999, Davidson exceeded the on-ice festivities prior to Wayne Gretzky's final NHL game.

From 1990-93, Davidson served as NBC's analyst for the NHL All-Star Game. He has worked as the lead analyst for Olympic hockey coverage in the 1992 games in Albertville, France, the 1994 games in Lillehammer, Norway, the 1998 games in Nagano, Japan, the 2002 Winter Olympics in Salt Lake City and the 2006 Winter Olympics in Torino, Italy.

Davidson contributed to ABC's coverage of the NHL in 1994 as their top commentator and from 1995-1999 served on the number-one broadcast team with FSN's Mike Emrick for FOX's coverage of the regular season, All-Star Games, Stanley Cup playoffs and finals. He also worked as an analyst for OLN and NBC during the 2005-06 season.

In addition, Davidson, who was born in Ottawa, Ontario and raised in Calgary, Alberta worked for TBS at the 1990 Goodwill Games, several All-Star Games and Stanley Cup Finals for OLN, NBC, ESPN and SportsChannel, the 1991 Canada Cup for "Hockey Night in Canada", and the 1996 World Cup of Hockey for FX. He served as ESPN's studio analyst for the 1993 Stanley Cup playoffs. Davidson also served as a panelist on "After 40 Minutes," which airs after the second period of "Hockey Night in Canada" telecasts on CBC.

Davidson enjoyed a successful career with the Calgary Centennials in junior hockey and was picked as a first-round draft choice in the 1973 draft by St. Louis. That same year, he became the first goaltender to go directly from junior hockey to the NHL. After two years with the Blues, Davidson was dealt to the Rangers in June of 1975 and led a remarkable run to the Stanley Cup Finals with the club in 1979.

Due to various injuries, Davidson retired in 1983. He went directly to MSG Network for one season, before joining "Hockey Night in Canada," where he served for two seasons. Davidson rejoined MSG Network for the 1986-87 season and worked alongside play-by-play man Sam Rosen until the 2005-06 season.

John and his wife Diana, are the parents of two daughters: Lindsay and Ashley.

Peter McLoughlin

CEO of St. Louis Blues Enterprises

Peter McLoughlin was named chief executive officer of St. Louis Blues Enterprises, a newly formed division of the St. Louis Blues and Scottrade Center operation, on July 6, 2006.

Under McLoughlin's direction, St. Louis Blues Enterprises encompasses all business operations of the Blues and Scottrade Center, including sales, marketing and finance. From negotiating a long-term arena naming rights deal with St. Louis based investing firm Scottrade in time for the 2006-2007 season to spearheading a creative marketing campaign that helped generate 31 sellouts in 2008-2009, McLoughlin has been integral in restoring the Blues' brand in St. Louis and throughout the NHL community. Other major accomplishments during McLoughlin's tenure include dramatic increases in season ticket and sponsorship sales, the return of team broadcasts to KMOX Radio, a new long-term and comprehensive broadcast agreement with Fox Sports Midwest, fund-raising on behalf of the United Way and The Fourteen Fund, increases in television ratings (ranked 7th last season among all U.S. teams), a 2009-2010 marketing campaign featuring iconic St. Louis personalities, and innovative team promotions and game night presentation elements that have made Scottrade Center a destination beyond the game itself. McLoughlin also helped SCP Worldwide with the acquisition and current operation of the Peoria Rivermen, the Blues' affiliate in the American Hockey League.

For 21 years prior to joining the Blues, McLoughlin served in a variety of executive roles at Anheuser-Busch, which is widely considered one of the world's premier companies in the areas of consumer marketing and sports sponsorship. McLoughlin was Vice President of Corporate Media and served as an officer of the company while at Anheuser-Busch, where he negotiated sponsorship and strategic alliances on behalf of Budweiser, Bud Light and other global A-B brands that included 15 Super Bowls, five Summer Olympics, four Winter Olympics, World Cup soccer and a host of professional team and league partnerships here in the U.S. and abroad. McLoughlin was integral in the development and execution of national and local media plans on behalf of Anheuser-Busch, leading negotiations for national broadcast media placement, local media buying, sports team sponsorships and stadium signage, Internet media strategies, international media strategies and media research.

Prior to joining Anheuser-Busch, McLoughlin spent more than six years at NBC Sports. From July 1979 to March 1984, he served as a senior unit manager at NBC Sports, where he managed production budgets and supervised on-site production of network programming such as Major League Baseball, the NFL, NCAA basketball, the World Series and the French Open tennis tournament. From March 1984 to October 1985, McLoughlin worked in NBC Sports Sales.

McLoughlin serves on the board of directors for the St. Louis Regional Chamber and Growth Association (RCGA), Regional Business Council (RBC), United Way of St. Louis, and St. Louis Sports Commission. He is a 1979 graduate of Harvard University.

Peter and his wife Kelly have five children and reside in St. Louis.

Larry Pleau

Senior Vice President & General Manager, St. Louis Blues

Larry Pleau was named general manager on June 9, 1997, becoming the 10th general manager in team history.

During Pleau's 12-year tenure as general manager, he has successfully re-established the organization's talent basis, while steering the team towards challenging for the Stanley Cup. The Blues have posted a 428-364-110 record since his arrival, while capturing the Presidents' Trophy during the 1999-2000 campaign. The team also posted a 260-153-63-16 record from 1997-1998 to 2002-2003, marking the best six-year span in franchise history. Pleau served as the assistant general manager of silver medal-winning Team USA at the 2002 Winter Olympics in Salt Lake City and was named general manager for Team USA for the 2003 and 2004 (bronze medal) IIHF World Championships and at the 2004 World Cup of Hockey. He was named The Sporting News "Executive of the Year" following the Blues success in 1999-2000, when the team posted a 51-20-11 record and in 2000 was inducted into the United States Hockey Hall of Fame.

After Pleau arrived in St. Louis, the team has acquired players through trades such as Keith Tkachuk, Brad Boyes, Doug Weight, Scott Mellanby, Dallas Drake, Andy McDonald and Chris Mason. In addition, the club has made key free agent signings such as Paul Kariya and Bill Guerin. Pleau also has been involved in each of the Blues' drafts and under his watch the team has drafted Barret Jackman, Jay McClement, Erik Johnson, Roman Polak, David Perron, David Backes, T.J. Oshie, Patrik Berglund and Alex Pietrangolo.

Pleau began conducting summer player mini-camps for the organization's top prospects during his time as general manager. His fan/media-friendly approach has gained him respect around the league as one of the most aggressive-thinking general managers in hockey today.

Pleau spent eight seasons with the New York Rangers organization, as assistant general manager and vice president of player personnel. He joined the Rangers in 1989 as assistant general manager of player development. During Pleau's tenure in New York, he worked along side general manager Neil Smith to help steer the Rangers to the 1994 Stanley Cup. While with the Rangers, Pleau was responsible for drafting such players as Doug Weight, Tony Amonte, Sergei Zubov, Alexei Kovalev, Todd Marchant and Mattias Norstrom.

Prior to joining the Rangers, Pleau spent 17 seasons with the Hartford Whalers organization in various capacities; as a player, assistant coach, head coach, general manager, minor league general manager and head coach. As Whalers general manager he was instrumental in drafting Ray Ferraro, Ron Francis, Kevin Dineen and Ulf Samuelsson.

Pleau played three seasons with the Montreal Canadiens (1969-1972), winning the Stanley Cup in 1971 and an Avco World Cup in 1972. He was the first player signed by the Hartford Whalers of the World Hockey Association. Pleau played center/left wing for the Whalers from 1972 until his retirement in 1979 and appeared in 468 regular season games for Hartford, amassing 157 goals and 215 assists for 372 points. He also competed nationally for the 1968 United States Olympic Team, the 1969 U.S. National Team and for Team USA in the 1976 Canada Cup Tournament.

Pleau and his wife, Wendy, have two children: son, Steve, and daughter, Shannon; and three grandchildren, granddaughter, Lily and grandsons, Ryan and Jake.

Doug Armstrong

Vice President of Player Personnel

Doug Armstrong was named Vice President of Player Personnel for the Blues on May 29, 2008.

Armstrong spent 17 years with the Dallas Stars organization and the last six seasons as the club's general manager. From January 25, 2002, to the start of the 2007-08 season, Armstrong led the Stars to the third most regular season point total (427), collected the third-most wins (190) and the second most home victories (110) and points (240) in the entire NHL. Dallas won two Pacific Division Championships (2002-03, 2005-06) and qualified for the playoffs four times over the span.

Armstrong was a part of the Stars' organization since the club moved to Dallas in 1993 and helped lead the franchise to two Presidents' Trophies, two Western Conference titles and the 1999 Stanley Cup championship.

Armstrong acquired players along with several draft selections while maintaining a top level team during his tenure in Dallas. He acquired the fourth most draft selections in the first three rounds over six seasons for the Stars.

Prior to being named the team's seventh General Manager, Armstrong served nine years as the Assistant General Manager under Bob Gainey. As Gainey's assistant, Armstrong worked on contract negotiations and season scheduling, and handled the day-to-day operations of the hockey department.

On the international level, Armstrong is the Associate Director of Player Personnel for Team Canada at the 2010 Winter Games in Vancouver. He most recently served as the General Manager for Team Canada and won the silver medal at the 2009 IIHF World Championship in Switzerland. He was the Assistant General Manager for Team Canada at the 2002 World Championship and 2008 World Championship (silver medal). Armstrong served as a special advisor to Steve Yzerman for Canada that won gold at the 2007 World Championship in Moscow. Armstrong participated in Canada's run to winning the gold medal with Andy Murray as head coach. Canada went 9-0 during the tournament for the first time since 1937 when the World Championships were held in London, England.

A native of Sarnia, Ontario, Armstrong is the son of NHL Hall of Fame linesman Neil Armstrong who was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1991.

Armstrong and his wife Kelly, son Blake, and daughter Kayla, live in Creve Coeur, Missouri.

Al MacInnis Vice President of Hockey Operations

Al MacInnis was named Vice President of Hockey Operations for the Blues on November 6, 2006. He crafted a remarkable 23-year career in the National Hockey League between the St. Louis Blues and Calgary Flames that has rightfully earned him a spot among the greatest defensemen in the history of the game. On June 28, 2007, MacInnis was selected to the Hockey Hall of Fame and was officially inducted on November 12, 2007. A native of Port Hood, Nova Scotia, he spent 10 seasons donning The Note, amassing 452 points (127 goals, 325 assists) in 613 games played. He finished his career with St. Louis ranking fourth on the Blues' all-time assists list (325), sixth on the points list (452), seventh on the games-played list (613) and third on the shots-on-goal list (2,266). St. Louis made the playoffs each season he played with the team, reaching the Western Conference Finals in 2000-01. He led the Blues to the first ever Presidents' trophy in franchise history in 1999-2000, posting the NHL's best regular-season record. MacInnis' number 2 sweater was retired by the Blues on April 9, 2006.

MacInnis won the 1999 James Norris Memorial Trophy as the NHL's best defenseman and the 1989 Conn Smythe Trophy while leading the Calgary Flames to the Stanley Cup Championship. A two-time Olympian for Team Canada, he captured the gold medal at the 2002 Olympic Winter Games in Salt Lake City. MacInnis was a 13-time NHL All-Star, and was named to the NHL First All-Star Team four times. He was also a seven-time winner of the hardest-shot competition at the NHL All-Star Game. MacInnis currently ranks third among all-time NHL defensemen in points (1,274), assists (934) and goals (340). He also ranks 33rd on the all-time NHL list in points, 14th in assists and 24th in games played.

Jarmo Kekalainen Assistant General Manager & Director Of Amateur Scouting

Jarmo Kekalainen is entering his eighth season with St. Louis and oversees the Blues' participation in the National Hockey League Entry Draft, and assists President John Davidson and Senior Vice President and General Manager Larry Pleau with all facets of hockey operations. He is also involved with the Blues' professional scouting efforts. Kekalainen, 43, originally joined the Blues in September of 2002.

During his tenure in St. Louis, the Blues have drafted David Backes, Erik Johnson, Roman Polak, David Perron, T.J. Oshie, Patrik Berglund and Alex Pietrangolo. Prior to arriving in St. Louis, Kekalainen served in several capacities with the NHL's Ottawa Senators over the course of seven seasons, including as director of player personnel for three years. During this time he was responsible for overseeing the amateur draft and was instrumental in selecting Ray Emery, Christoph Schubert, Jason Spezza, Antoine Vermette and Anton Volchenkov. Earlier he acted as the club's European scout for four seasons and during that tenure, the team drafted Martin Havlat and Marian Hossa.

While with Ottawa, Kekalainen simultaneously served as IFK Helsingin's general manager in the Finnish Elite League from 1995 to 1999, guiding the club to the league championship in 1998.

During a three-year career as a player in the NHL the native of Kuopio, Finland skated in a combined 55 games with the Boston Bruins and Ottawa Senators. Over the 1989-90, 1990-91 and 1993-94 seasons Kekalainen collected five goals and eight assists for 13 points. Prior to making his NHL debut with the Bruins, the forward spent two seasons at Clarkson University where he recorded 80 points (35 goals, 45 assists) in 71 games. Following the 1988-89 campaign he was named to the Eastern College Athletic Conference First All-Star Team, scoring 44 points in 31 games.

Jarmo and his wife, Tiina, have two daughters, Emilia and Sofia.

Kevin McDonald

Assistant General Manager/Director Of Professional Scouting & Peoria Rivermen General Manager Of Hockey Operations

Kevin McDonald joined the Blues organization prior to the 2001-02 season as a professional scout. He scouted professional talent for the Blues for two seasons before the organization promoted him to director of professional scouting in 2003. In June 2005, he was given the added responsibilities of being the general manager of hockey operations of the Blues' American Hockey League affiliate, the Peoria Rivermen. McDonald was influential in bringing Brad Boyes to St. Louis and adding depth players such as Brad Winchester, Mike Weaver and Tyson Strachan last season. In May, 2009, McDonald was named assistant general manager for the Blues.

As the director of professional scouting for the Blues, McDonald oversees the professional scouting department to ensure that the organization maintains a detailed profile of every player in both the NHL and AHL, as well as a familiarity of the best players in other professional hockey leagues. He also works closely with Blues President John Davidson and Senior Vice President and General Manager Larry Pleau in coordinating the transfer of players between the Blues and the Rivermen and in acquiring professional hockey players.

The 2009-10 season is McDonald's 22nd season working in the NHL. He began his career in professional hockey in 1988 as a member of the communications department of the New York Rangers. McDonald served in a variety of capacities in that department, including Director of Communications. Following the 1993-94 season, when the Rangers won the Stanley Cup, he moved into the Rangers' hockey operations department and worked as an assistant to Rangers General Manager Neil Smith during the lockout-shortened 1994-95 season. From 1995 to 2001, McDonald served as a professional scout for the Rangers, traveling throughout North America and Europe to evaluate professional hockey players.

A native of Lawrence, Massachusetts, McDonald holds a master's degree in sports management from the United States Sports Academy in Daphne, Alabama, and a bachelor's degree in communications from Boston College. He resides in North Andover, Massachusetts, where he lives with his wife Lauren, his two children Sean and Kayleigh and his three step-children Joseph, Jenna, and Daniel.

Andy Murray Head Coach

Andy Murray, one of hockey's most respected coaches with many years of experience at both the National Hockey League and International level was named the 22nd head coach in the history of the St. Louis Blues on December 11, 2006. His first game as head coach for the Blues was on December 12, 2006 versus Chicago and posted his first victory in a 4-1 win at Pittsburgh on December 19, 2006.

In the 2008-09 campaign, Murray guided the Blues to a 25-9-7 record in the second half of the season which led the NHL, jumping from 15th place in the Western Conference standings to the #6 seed and returning the club to the playoffs for the first time in five years. The Blues' playoff surge was one of the finest in NHL history, earning nearly 59% of their points since January 19, the highest such rate by any playoff team since 1940. Murray was a runner-up for the 2009 Jack Adams Trophy, given annually to the NHL's Coach of the Year.

Murray won his 300th NHL game on February 19, 2009 in a 2-1 overtime win at Nashville and coached in his 200th game behind the Blues bench on March 7, 2009 at Florida. He became the sixth Blues coach to reach 100 wins after a 3-1 victory on April 10 vs. Columbus. Murray currently ranks fifth on the Blues' all-time games coached list (218) and is fifth in wins (101).

Since taking over behind the St. Louis bench, Murray has guided the club to a 101-85-32 (.537%) record. In his first 12 games as Blues head coach during the 2006-07 season, the team did not allow a first period goal, which tied an NHL modern era record for most consecutive games without allowing a first period goal since the Los Angeles Kings accomplished it during the 1974-75 season. Murray coached in his 500th career NHL game on January 20, 2007 at San Jose in which the Blues won 1-0.

Prior to arriving in St. Louis, Murray coached the Los Angeles Kings from 1999-2006 and is the all-time franchise leader in wins (215) and games coached (480). In 2001-02, Murray became the second fastest Kings coach to record 100 wins as the Kings earned at least 90 points and made the playoffs for the third straight season, all under Murray. The 95 points earned by the Kings were the most since the 1990-91 campaign and the fourth most in team history. The Kings also lost less than 30 games for the second straight season, the first time the franchise has accomplished that feat.

During the 1999-2000 season, Murray's first as an NHL head coach, he guided the Kings to a second place finish in the Pacific Division and the fifth seed in the Western Conference. The Kings that season were the third most improved club in the NHL (+25 points from 1998-99); the team accumulated an impressive 94 points; and Murray became one of just three first-year head coaches in club history to win at least 39 games in their first full season behind the Kings' bench, with the 39 wins representing the most the team had accumulated since 1992-93 (in an 84-game schedule).

Murray has over 30 years of coaching experience, including seven seasons as an NHL assistant or associate coach with the Winnipeg Jets (1993-95), Minnesota North Stars (1990-92) and Philadelphia Flyers (1988-90). As an assistant coach in Minnesota, Murray reached the Stanley Cup Finals in 1991.

In addition to his NHL service, Murray has a tremendous amount of international coaching experience. He is the only head coach to lead Team Canada to three IIHF World Hockey Championship titles. Murray captured gold medals in 1997, 2003 and in 2007. In his gold medal run in 2007, Canada went 9-0 during the tournament for the first time since 1937 when the World Championships were held in London, England.

Murray was the head coach of the Canadian National Team from 1996-98 and guided his squad to a two-year 77-29-14 record. During the 1998-99 season, Murray split time as head coach for Shattuck-St. Mary's in Faribault, Minnesota, where he led the prep school to a 70-9-2 record and the Midget Triple A USA Hockey national championship and as general manager at Koln of the German Hockey League.

As an assistant coach for Team Canada in 1996, he collected silver medals at the World Cup of Hockey and the World Hockey Championship. Murray also served as an associate coach for Team Canada under Marc Crawford at the 1998 Olympic Games in Nagano, Japan. Additionally, he has a record six gold medals as a coach for Canada at the Spengler Cup Tournament in Davos, Switzerland.

From 1976-78, he served his first head coaching position with the Brandon Travelers of the Manitoba Junior A Hockey League. He moved on to become head coach for Brandon University from 1978-81 and led the Bobcats to a league championship and the No. 1 ranking in Canadian University hockey during his final year. In 1981 Murray moved to Switzerland, where for the next seven years he coached several Swiss-A Division teams, including Kloten Zurcher and Zug, with success.

In 1987 he returned to North America as an assistant coach for the Hershey Bears of the American Hockey League and helped guide the Bears to the 1988 Calder Cup championship. In 1992, Murray returned to Europe to coach Lugano in Switzerland and then at Eisbaren Berlin in Germany.

Andy and his wife Ruth have three children (all hockey players): sons Braden (currently in the Los Angeles Kings' organization) and Jordan (a student/athlete at the University of Wisconsin), and daughter Sarah (a student/athlete at the University of Minnesota-Duluth). They split their time during the summer between Faribault and Manitoba.

Assistant Coach/Goaltending Coach

Rick Wamsley joined the Blues as an assistant coach/goaltending coach on July 7, 2006. Before arriving in St. Louis, he was working for the Columbus Blue Jackets organization where he served as a goaltending coach and pro scout since 1999. Prior to joining the Blue Jackets, Wamsley spent six seasons as a member of the Toronto Maple Leafs organization. While in Toronto, he served as a pro and amateur scout in 1998-99 and was an assistant coach under Pat Burns from 1996-98. Wamsley joined the organization as a goaltending consultant immediately following a 12-year playing career that ended during the 1992-93 season.

During his playing career, Wamsley posted a 204-131-46 record and a 3.34 goals against average with the Montreal Canadiens, St. Louis Blues, Calgary Flames and Toronto Maple Leafs.

Wamsley was drafted as the Canadiens' fifth pick, 58th overall, in the 1979 Entry Draft and he made his NHL debut with Montreal in 1980-81. He became a full-time goaltender the following season and posted a 23-7-7 record with a 2.75 goals-against average with the Canadiens. That year, Wamsley shared the William M. Jennings Trophy with teammate Denis Herron as the duo allowed the fewest goals against in the NHL.

Wamsley spent three-plus seasons with Montreal before being traded to the Blues in 1984. His four seasons (1984-88) in St. Louis produced a 75-59-15 record, including 23 wins in 1984-85 (23-12-5, 3.26 goals-against average) and 22 wins in 1985-86 (22-16-3, 3.43 goals-against average). Wamsley currently ranks fifth on the Blues all-time goaltending lists in games played (154), minutes played (9,064) and ranks sixth in wins (75). He was between the pipes in "The Monday Night Miracle" when St. Louis staged a dramatic come-from-behind victory in game six of the 1986 Campbell Conference Finals by scoring four unanswered goals to defeat Calgary, 6-5, in overtime.

In March 1988, he was traded to Calgary and the highlight of his stint with the Flames came in 1988-89 when he helped the team capture the lone Stanley Cup championship in club history.

Wamsley was born on May 25, 1959 in Simcoe, Ontario. He and his wife, Lori, are the parents of three daughters, Kelly, Colleen, and Megan and have one granddaughter, Emma. The family resides in St. Louis.

Ray Bennett
Assistant Coach

Ray Bennett joined the St. Louis Blues coaching staff as an assistant on December 13, 2006. He served seven seasons as an assistant coach with the Los Angeles Kings from 1999-2006. While with the Kings, Bennett was involved in all areas of tactical and technical play while specializing in video analysis, computer assistance and statistical support.

Bennett was the manager of high performance/video for the Canadian Hockey Association and National Team and also served as their manager of coaching/initiation programs and as an assistant for Canada's National Women's Olympic Team, which earned a silver medal at the 1998 Winter Olympics. He was also an assistant coach responsible for video for Canada's silver medal winning National Junior Team at the 1999 World Championships and the gold medal winning Canadian National Women's Team at the 1999 World Championships.

Bennett has also been head coach at Red Deer College and has worked for the Spokane Chiefs, the World Junior Hockey Championship Association, Hockey Canada, the Moose Jaw Warriors and the Alberta Amateur Hockey Association.

A graduate of the University of Alberta, Ray is a native of Innisfail, Alberta. He and his wife Karla have three children, Kale, Kassie and Max.

Brad Shaw
Assistant Coach

Brad Shaw was named an assistant coach for the Blues on July 11, 2006. Shaw joined the Blues from the New York Islanders organization where he served as an interim head coach and assistant coach. Prior to joining the Islanders, he spent three seasons (2002-2005) as the head coach for the American Hockey League's Cincinnati Mighty Ducks and posted a record of 44-31-4-1 in 2004-05. Before Shaw joined Cincinnati, he was the head coach with the Detroit Vipers of the former International Hockey League, an assistant with the Springfield Falcons of the AHL and an assistant with the Tampa Bay Lightning in 1999-2000.

Shaw made his NHL debut in 1985-86 with the Hartford Whalers and spent 11 of the following 15 seasons as a defenseman around the league. He was sent to the Blues in a trade with Washington on March 18, 1999, where he would play in 12 games and finish his playing career. Shaw played in 377 career games with Hartford, Ottawa, Washington and St. Louis, recording 159 points (22 goals, 137 assists).

Brad was born on April 28, 1964 in Cambridge, Ontario and he and his wife, Mary, are the parents of three children, Taylore, Brady, and Caroline.

Nelson Ayotte Strength And Conditioning Coach

Nelson Ayotte is entering his fifth season as the strength and conditioning coach for the Blues. He is recognized as one of the top sports performance training coaches in the world. Ayotte is a level five Canadian National Certified Coach which is the highest level possible. Out of one million coaches only 76 have finished the program since 1974. Ayotte has been chosen as Canadian coach of the year in 1998, Quebec Coach of the year in 1998, 1999, and 2000, coach of the year of the Canadian Military Land forces in 2002 and has served as coach at over 20 world cup competitions. He has coached athletes on the biathlon Canadian National Team, US Olympic track and field, hockey (NHL), football (NFL), basketball (NBA), baseball (MLB), golf (PGA) and many amateur and youth sports. Ayotte was head strength coach at Poliquin Performance Center during 2002-2004. Nelson has been an innovator of sports training and physical fitness with several supplement lines and training systems to his credit.

Nelson and his wife Esther have two children, Jeremy and Nicolas.

Scott Masters Video Coach

Scott Masters is entering his fourth year as video coach with the Blues. He was a volunteer assistant coach for the Denver University hockey program prior to coming to St. Louis. Before going to Denver, Masters served a four-year stint with the NHL's Florida Panthers.

He joined the Florida Panthers in 2001 and in 2004 after being promoted to video coach, he became youngest coach in the league at 26 years old. He produced live breakdowns and analysis of team games with real time communication to the Panthers bench. Masters reviewed and analyzed game film of individual players, team and opponents. He also scouted National, American, Junior and NCAA hockey league games while at Florida.

Masters served a four-month stint as a coach for the Boston franchise in the Original Stars Hockey League in 2004. He managed Boston's 12-man roster, including four NHL all-stars, in the inaugural 4-on-4 elite eight-team league.

The Arvada, Colo., native earned his communications degree from Colorado State in 2000. Masters played for CSU's hockey team for three seasons. Masters was a media relations student assistant from 1998-2000 at Colorado State and was the sports information contact for men's ice hockey at the University of Massachusetts from 2000-01.

Scott and his wife Carrie reside in Ladue, Mo and have one daughter, Ryanne.

Bruce Affleck

Executive Director of Broadcasting and Blues Alumni

Bruce Affleck is entering his third season as the Executive Director of Broadcasting and Blues Alumni.

A native of Penticton, British Columbia, Affleck attended the University of Denver and was later selected by the California Seals, 21st overall, in the 1974 NHL draft. He was traded to St. Louis in January of 1975 and played defense for five seasons with the Blues. Following his time with the Blues, Affleck played for the Vancouver Canucks and New York Islanders.

After hockey, Bruce worked with W.M. French Realtors, a corporate relocation firm. He again joined the Blues in 1987 as sales manager and later would be named Vice President of Sales for the Blues and Scottrade Center. He also handled the color radio broadcast duties and eventually becoming a color television analyst with KPLR-TV and FOX Sports Midwest until the 2001 season.

Affleck has been heavily involved with many charities since his playing days, some of which include the March of Dimes, St. Louis University Lupus Foundation and the St. Louis Blues Fourteen Fund, which is the Blues' charitable trust. He also helped start the Blues Alumni Association, which provides an annual four-year scholarship to graduating seniors in the St. Louis area and the St. Louis Amateur Hockey Hall of Fame.

Bruce and his wife, Cecily, reside in Chesterfield and have two children, J.Q. and Shannon and are expecting grandchildren this fall.

John Kelly

Television Play-by-Play

John Kelly, 48, returns for his fifth season as the television play-by-play voice of the Blues on FOX Sports Midwest.

Kelly spent nine seasons with FOX Sports Rocky Mountain, where he announced Colorado Avalanche games when the team relocated to Denver. He has called games in the NHL for 16 seasons and prior to that he called American Hockey League games on radio with the St. Catharines Saints and Adirondack Red Wings. Kelly started his NHL career as the radio voice of the New York Rangers during the 1988-89 campaign. From 1989-90 through 1991-92, the St. Louis native worked the Blues' radio and television simulcasts. Kelly moved on to the expansion

Tampa Bay Lightning in 1992-93 where he spent three seasons as the play-by-play voice on the radio and television simulcasts and then headed west to Colorado for the Avalanche's first season in 1995-96. During the 1997-98 NHL season, he announced play-by-play for the Fox national broadcasts. He also broadcasted NHL playoff games during the 2005-06 season.

Kelly's past also includes broadcasting experience in baseball, basketball and soccer. While in Florida, he announced games for the Orlando Predators of the Arena Football League. He spent the summer months from 1993 to 1996 as the hockey play-by-play announcer at the annual U.S. Olympic Festival.

No stranger to the profession, Kelly comes from a family with a rich background in hockey announcing. His father, Dan Kelly, was the radio and television voice of the Blues for 21 years and was inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame in 1989. John's younger brother, Dan Jr., called games on radio for the Blues from 1997-2000. His uncle, Hal, also was a hockey broadcaster, working with several NHL teams when hockey began airing on television.

John, born in Canada, is a graduate of Southern Illinois University – Edwardsville with a degree in communications. He and his wife Jennifer, a St. Louis native, have three children, Patrick, Megan and Grace.

Darren Pang Television Color Analyst

Darren Pang, one of the premier announcers in hockey, is in his first season with FOX Sports Midwest as the analyst on St. Louis Blues telecasts. Pang will work alongside John Kelly in the television booth, forming one of the most accomplished broadcast teams in the NHL.

Pang, 45, provides commentary for national NHL telecasts on NBC and has served as a studio analyst for Canada's TSN network. He came to FOX Sports Midwest after four seasons as the Phoenix Coyotes' TV analyst. Prior to the Coyotes, Pang spent 12 years covering hockey for ESPN, ESPN2 and ABC. He has also provided radio color analysis for the NHL Network during the playoffs. In addition, Pang worked as an ice level reporter for the men's hockey coverage in Nagano, Japan during the 1998 Winter Olympics on CBS and for NBC's coverage of the 2002 Winter Games and will work as a studio analyst at the 2010 Olympics in Vancouver with TSN/CTV.

Previously, Pang served as the Chicago Blackhawks post-game show host from 1990-92. From 1992-97, he hosted the pre-game, between period and post-game call-in shows for Blackhawks games. He also served as a color analyst, studio analyst and reporter for CCHA telecasts on SportsChannel Chicago from 1989-94 and was an analyst for IHL games on Prime Network from 1989-93.

The Meaford, Ontario player played three NHL seasons, all with the Blackhawks, from 1984-85 to 1988-89. He played in a total of 81 games, compiling a 27-35-7 record and 4.05 GAA. In 1987-88, he was named to the NHL All-Rookie Team and finished third in the race for the Calder Trophy.

Pang and his wife Lynn have two children: son Tyler and daughter Samantha. The family resides in St. Louis, MO during the season and Peoria, AZ during the offseason.

Bernie Federko Television Color Analyst

Bernie Federko, 53, returns to FOX Sports Midwest for his ninth season and first in his new role as an ice-level analyst between the benches for home games and co-host of FOX Sports Midwest's Blues Live pre-game and post-game shows. Prior to broadcasting for television, he spent four years as an analyst on the Blues' radio broadcast.

Federko, a 14-year NHL veteran played for the Blues for 13 seasons (1976-1989). He holds club records for games played (927), assists (721) and points (1,073) with the Blues. Bernie retired from hockey after the 1989-90 season and was officially inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame on November 4, 2002. His #24 sweater was retired on March 16, 1991 by the Blues and hangs from the ceiling at Scottrade Center.

Bernie and his wife Bernadette have three sons, Jordan, Dustin and Drew. The Federko's reside in St. Louis.

Dan McLaughlin

Television Analyst

Dan McLaughlin, 35, enters his 11th season as an analyst for FOX Sports Midwest on the St. Louis Blues television broadcasts after serving two seasons on the Blues' radio network. His role includes pregame, intermission, and postgame analysis for the Blues. He also appears on FOX Sports Midwest as the play-by-play announcer for the St. Louis Cardinals, a role he has held for 10 seasons.

A 1996 graduate of Lindenwood College, McLaughlin will also enter his 11th season as the play-by-play announcer and analyst for the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament on FSN and also the MVC "Game of the Week." He also returns for his eighth year as the play-by-play announcer for the University of Missouri Tigers men's basketball team. McLaughlin has worked national telecasts for men's and women's college basketball games on FSN.

Besides from his television duties, McLaughlin also works at KMOX Radio hosting sports talk shows. He has also captured the "Air Award" as best sportscaster in St. Louis. McLaughlin is involved in several local charities as well as hosting "The Dan McLaughlin Golf Tournament to benefit the Special Education Foundation".

Dan and his wife Libby reside in St. Louis and have four children, Luke, Avery, Olivia and Barrett.

Jim Hayes

Television Host and Reporter

Jim Hayes serves as a host and reporter for FOX Sports Midwest, covering the St. Louis Blues and St. Louis Cardinals for the network's pre-game and post-game shows and live game coverage. He also contributes to the network's coverage of the St. Louis Rams and local college and high school sports.

Hayes came to FOX Sports Midwest in 2000 as a reporter for the Midwest Sports Report and began covering St. Louis-area sports in 2001. He previously worked for WPHL—

WB17 in Philadelphia where he was a sports anchor and reporter for two years at WPHL, covering hard sports news throughout the region and shined in featuring the 'lighter side' of sports.

Hayes is a 1984 graduate of the State University College at Geneseo, N.Y. He has been nominated for regional Cable Ace and regional Emmy awards.

Pat Parris

Television Host

Pat Parris serves as the primary host of FOX Sports Midwest's St. Louis Blues and St. Louis Cardinals pre-game and post-game shows.

Parris first joined FOX Sports Midwest in 2001 as an anchor for the Midwest Sports Report. Before joining FOX Sports Midwest, Parris was the sports anchor for WTKR-TV in Norfolk, Va. Previously, he spent four years as a sports anchor at WTAE-TV in Pittsburgh.

Parris, a 1987 graduate of Drake University, also has worked as a television sports reporter at KTXH-TV in Houston, KCCI-TV in Des Moines and KGUN-TV in Tucson, Ariz.

Chris Kerber Radio Play-by-Play

Chris Kerber, 38, returns for his ninth season as the Blues radio play-by-play on the Blues' radio network.

In addition to broadcasting Blues games, he also called St. Louis Cardinals baseball games during the 2006 season.

Prior to joining the Blues, Kerber spent four seasons calling the action for the Springfield (Ma.) Falcons in the American Hockey League. In addition to his play-by-play and host duties for the Falcons, he acted as the team's director of media relations from 1996 to 1999 and was promoted to director of marketing and communications for the 1999-2000 season.

A 1994 graduate of Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, Kerber did play-by-play for the men's hockey team on WMSR, the student radio station. After graduating with a B.S. degree in Marketing, Kerber handled the play-by-play and PR duties for two seasons for the Birmingham (Al.) Bulls of the East Coast Hockey League before joining Springfield.

In addition to calling all the regular season and post-season games, Kerber will continue to host a pre-game show, post-game programs, coaches and players shows as well as fan activities to help promote Blues hockey.

Chris and his wife Kristie reside in St. Louis and have two daughters, Emily Grace and Gabriella.

Kelly Chase Radio Color Analyst

Kelly Chase, 41, will be entering his eighth season as analyst for the Blues radio broadcasts. Chase brings an interesting mix of insight and analysis to the booth along with fellow broadcaster Chris Kerber.

He leaves behind a 12-year NHL career, which included eight years as a member of the Blues. Chase officially retired from the NHL on July 28, 2000. He finished his career with 458 games played, 17 goals, 36 assists and 53 career points. Chase ranks second on the Blues' all-time penalty minute list with 1,497 minutes and finished his career with 2,017 total penalty minutes.

In 1998 Chase received the King Clancy award from the NHL, which is given to the player who has made a noteworthy humanitarian contribution to his community. In 1993 he established the Gateway Locomotives, which teaches the sport of hockey to handicapped individuals. Chase is also a part owner of the three-time (2007, 2008, 2009) National Champion St. Louis Bandits of the North American Hockey League.

Kelly and his wife Raelynn have three sons, Will, Ben, and Luke.

Bob Plager

Community Relations and KMOX Radio

Bob Plager joined the St. Louis Blues in their inaugural season in 1967-68 as a player and has served various capacities within the organization. He currently works in the Blues' community relations department and also is an analyst on KMOX during Blues home games and on post-game shows.

Plager became the 16th Head Coach in Blues history on May 1, 1992.

Plager also served as the Head Coach for the Rivermen during the 1990-91 season, leading the club to a 58-19-5 record and captured the Turner Cup as the champion of the International Hockey League. During that season, the Rivermen broke 40-plus IHL records and Plager was voted by his peers as the Coach of the Year.

Plager has also served the franchise as Director of Professional Scouting, Vice President and Director of Player Development, a Special Assistant to the General Manager, Assistant to the Director of Hockey Operations, Head Coach for Salt Lake City of the Central Hockey League and was a scout for the Blues handling special assignments.

After the 1977-78 season, Plager retired after playing 14 seasons in the National Hockey League. He was a fierce competitor known best for knocking opponents to the ice with his famous hip check. Plager made his NHL debut with the New York Rangers during the 1964-65 season and was traded to St. Louis on June 6, 1967. Plager currently ranks fifth all-time on the Blues with 615 games played and ranks eighth with 762 penalty minutes. In his 14 year NHL career, he played in 644 games, registered 146 points (20g, 126a) and tallied 800 penalty minutes.

Bob resides in St. Louis and has two children, Melissa and Bobby.

Davis Payne
Head Coach

Davis Payne, 38, was named the 15th head coach of the Peoria Rivermen on July 8, 2008 after serving one year as an assistant with the club. In his first year as an American Hockey league head coach, Payne guided the Rivermen to a 43-31-2-4 record and returned Peoria to the postseason following a two-year drought. Prior to joining the Rivermen before to the 2007-08 campaign, Payne had spent a total of seven seasons as a head coach in the ECHL. Most recently, Kamloops, BC native established a .691 winning percentage over four years as head coach for the Alaska Aces, the Rivermen ECHL affiliate.

The 2006-07 ECHL Coach of the Year, Payne led the Aces to the 2006 ECHL Kelly Cup Championship and also guided the club to three consecutive trips to the Conference Finals; it was the first time in 15 years and only the second time in ECHL history that a team advanced to the ECHL's Final Four in three straight seasons. Thirty-eight of Alaska's 48 lifetime playoff wins had came under Payne's direction, with his winning percentage in the playoffs (38-21, .644) nearly matching that of his four regular seasons in Alaska.

Payne, who owns a 289-142-45 (.654 winning percentage) in seven seasons as an ECHL head coach between Alaska and the Pee Dee (SC) Pride, remains second all-time in ECHL history with 50 postseason victories, 12 of which came during his three years with Pee Dee.

A graduate of NCAA Division I Michigan Tech, Payne appeared in 22 NHL games with the Boston Bruins during his eight-year playing career that spanned 464 games with 324 points (155g, 169a). He was originally drafted by the Edmonton Oilers in the seventh round of the 1989 NHL Entry Draft.

A native of Kamloops, BC, Payne and his wife Jane have two daughters, Allison and Lydia.

Drake Berehowsky
Assistant Coach

Drake Berehowsky, 37, joined the Peoria Rivermen as an assistant coach on August 11 after having previously served in the same role for the Barrie Colts of the Ontario Hockey League. Berehowsky's major functions include contributing to the development of Blues prospects through on-ice instruction, conditioning work, video breakdown, advance scouting, and player evaluation, among other duties. He also supervises the play of Rivermen defensemen during games. While with Barrie, a team Berehowsky played Junior B for, the Colts went 58-67-6-5 and made the playoffs each year. This is his first professional coaching assignment

In 16 professional seasons as a player, the former first round pick accumulated 549 regular season games in the National Hockey League scattered between six different teams. Taken 10th overall by the Toronto Maple Leafs in the 1990 NHL Entry Draft, he was a force for two seasons on the North Bay Centennials blue line and was named a First-Team All-Star and the CHL Defenceman-of-the-Year in 1992. After scoring 27 points in 28 games for the AHL's St. John's Maple Leafs, Berehowsky was recalled mid-way through the 1992-93 season by the Maple Leafs.

In April 1995, Toronto shipped him to the Pittsburgh Penguins for defenseman Grant Jennings. He spent some time in the minors with Cleveland (IHL), San Antonio (IHL), Carolina (AHL) and Hamilton (AHL) until joining the young Edmonton Oilers in 1997-98. In 1998, Berehowsky was claimed by the Nashville Predators in the expansion draft. In 1999-2000, he set career highs with 12 goals and 32 points. At the 2001 trade deadline, the Predators dealt him to the Vancouver Canucks where he spent the early part of the 2001-02 season before joining the Phoenix Coyotes midway through the year.

After parts of two seasons with the Coyotes, Berehowsky signed with the Pittsburgh Penguins in the summer of 2003, his second stint with the club. Upon his arrival, Berehowsky went on to register 21 points (5-16-21) in 47 games before being acquired by the Toronto Maple Leafs in the second half of the season for Ric Jackman. He played briefly in Sweden and Germany before retiring following the 2005-06 season.

Born in Toronto, Berehowsky and his wife Lori have five children: daughters Dylan (5), and Dawson (2); sons Duke (4), Daniel (3), and Dalton (1).
