Historical Note:

The Cane Creek Baptist Association organized in 1857. It included congregations in a wide area of southeastern Missouri. The 42nd annual meeting of the Cane Creek Baptist Association of Baptist Churches met with the Naylor Baptist Church in Ripley County, Missouri on September 29 through October 1, 1904. The Association included 28 congregations and 1,661 members. The largest churches were Poplar Bluff, Doniphan, and Grandin. The 91st annual meeting met with the Antioch Baptist Church on October 1-2, 1953. There were 15 member congregations, the largest being Antioch Baptist Church with 143 members. The 130th annual meeting met with the Emmanuel Missionary Baptist Church at Poplar Bluff on October 2-3, 1992. The Association had 21 member congregations, the largest being Providence, Walnut Grove, and Independence.

Arrangement:

The collection has been arranged in its original order.

Scope and Content Note:

The collection contains booklets with the proceedings of the 42nd (1904), 91st (1953), and 130th (1992) annual meetings of the Cane Creek Baptist Association. The 1904 booklet contains minutes, lists of ordained ministers and licentiates, committee reports, the constitution, articles of faith, rules of decorum, and the order of business. The 1953 booklet is a photocopy of the original. It includes the constitution, rules of decorum, articles of faith, order of business, proceedings, reports, obituaries, and a list of pastors. The 1992 booklet contains a historical record with information about the annual meeting for every year for which data was available, beginning in 1857. Also included are the articles of faith, constitution, bylaws, rules of decorum, order of business, reports, obituaries, and a church directory. A name index is available in the administration folder.
