

Division I Championship

NCAA Division I Football Championship History

1978 At the 72nd NCAA Convention (January 1978) in Atlanta, the membership voted to establish the Division I-AA Football Championship and a statistics program for the division. The format for the first I-AA championship, held in Wichita Falls, Texas, was a single-elimination, four-team tournament. Florida A&M defeated Massachusetts, 35-28, in the title game. The game was televised by ABC.

1981 The championship expanded to include eight teams in a single-elimination tournament.

1982 The championship expanded to include 12 teams. Eight teams played first-round games at campus sites, and the top four teams, seeded by the Division I-AA Football Committee, received byes.

1986 The championship field expanded to its current format of 16 teams with each team playing a first-round game.

1987 Louisiana-Monroe defeated Marshall, 43-42, in the closest game in championship history.

1989 A then-record 25,725 fans watched Georgia Southern down Stephen F. Austin, 37-34, in the championship game at Allen E. Paulson Stadium in Statesboro, Ga.

1990 Georgia Southern won its fourth I-AA championship, adding to its titles in 1985, 1986 and 1989.

1991 Youngstown State won its first national championship with a 25-17 victory over Marshall. Penguin head coach Jim Tressel joined his father, Lee, as the only father-son combination to win NCAA football titles. Lee Tressel won the 1978 Division III championship at Baldwin Wallace.

1992 A then-record crowd of 31,304 in Huntington, WV, saw Marshall return the favor with a 31-28 win over Youngstown State for its first I-AA title.

1993 The I-AA championship provided for a maximum field of 16 teams. Six member conferences (Big Sky, Gateway, Ohio Valley, Southern, Southland and Yankee) were granted automatic qualification for their respective winners. Youngstown State won its second I-AA title with a 17-5 victory over Marshall before a crowd of 29,218 in Huntington, WV.

1994 Youngstown State won its third national title in four years with a 28-14 victory over Boise State.

1995 Montana won its first Division I-AA title before a championship record crowd of 32,106 in Huntington, WV.

1996 Marshall, making its fifth visit to the championship game since 1991, won its second Division I-AA title with a 49-29 victory over defending champion Montana before 30,052 in Huntington, WV.

1997 Youngstown State won its fourth national title in the 1990s with a 10-9 victory over McNeese State in Chattanooga, Tenn.

1999 Georgia Southern closed out the century with another national title, posting a 59-24 victory over Youngstown State. The Eagles won their fifth title, surpassing Youngstown State's four championships and taking over the division lead in crowns.

2000 Georgia Southern rallied past Montana, 27-25, to claim back-to-back titles for the third time in its Division I-AA history.

2001 Montana won a defensive duel with Furman, 13-6, to claim its second title.

2002 Western Kentucky won its first Division I-AA championship with a 34-14 victory over McNeese State, which lost in the final for the second time (1997 in 10-9 loss to Youngstown State). Coach Jack Harbaugh, father of former Chicago Bears and Indianapolis Colts quarterback Jim Harbaugh, won his first NCAA title.

2003 Delaware won its first NCAA crown since winning the 1979 Division II championship. The Blue Hens outscored their opponents by a combined margin of 149-23 and posted the first championship-game shutout with a 40-0 blanking of previously unbeaten Colgate. It was the first NCAA title for head coach and former Delaware linebacker K.C. Keeler, who had five second-place finishes at Division III Rowan.

2004 James Madison was the second straight champion to come out of the Atlantic 10 Conference, after defeating Montana, 31-21. The 2003 champion was Delaware. The Dukes also made history on their way to the championship game, becoming the first team to advance to the title contest with three straight wins on the road. James Madison won preliminary-round games at Lehigh, Furman and William and Mary.

2005 Appalachian State made it championship number eight for the Southern Conference as the Mountaineers rallied from a 16-7 halftime deficit to defeat the University of Northern Iowa, 21-16. The two teams played in front of a crowd of 19,219.

2006 Division I-AA is now known as the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) and Division I-A is now the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS). Since the NCAA does not sponsor a championship for the FBS, the tournament to determine an FCS winner is now called the Division I Football Championship. Appalachian State became the first repeat champion since Georgia Southern in 1999 and 2000. The Mountaineers scored two fourth-quarter touchdowns to break a 14-14 tie and take a 28-17 victory over Massachusetts in front of a crowd of 22,808, the highest attendance in the championship's 10-year run in Chattanooga.

2007 Appalachian State becomes the first team to win three straight Division I football championships with a 49-21 win over Delaware in the title game. The attendance of 23,010 is the highest since the championship moved to Chattanooga.

2008 After knocking off three-time defending national champion Appalachian State in the quarterfinals, unseeded Richmond picked up its first Division I football national championship with a 24-7 victory over Montana in the title game. Under first-year coach and Richmond alumnus Mike London, the Spiders took a 21-0 lead into halftime and never looked back in finishing the season 13-3. Montana, making its second championship game appearance in the past five years and third in the past nine years, finished the year 14-2.

2009 Making its first Division I championship game appearance, Villanova fell behind 14-3 midway through the second quarter, but the Wildcats scored 20 straight points and held off Montana for a 23-21 victory. Montana finished as runner-up for the second straight season, the third time in six years and the fourth time since 2000. Villanova's Matt Szczur rushed for 159 yards on 14 carries and caught four passes for 68 yards. Szczur also rushed for two touchdowns, including a three-yard run with 11:04 in the game to clinch the victory.

2010 The championship expanded to 20 teams and the title game moved to Frisco, Texas, marking the first time it was hosted in a new venue since 1997. Eastern Washington overcame a 19-point deficit with 20 unanswered points in the final 16:48 of the contest to claim a 20-19 victory over Delaware in the championship game. On its final possession, Delaware had a chance as the Blue Hens drove the ball to the Eastern Washington 39-yard line. But, on fourth and 10, a pass play came up one yard short, allowing Eastern Washington to clinch its first national title.

2011 After winning five NCAA Division II national championships, North Dakota State claimed its first FCS title in 2011. After moving to the higher division in 2004, the Bison played in its first FCS playoffs in 2010 and won two games. Down 6-3 in the third quarter of the 2011 title game, Brock Jensen threw a touchdown pass after a successful fake punt for the first touchdown of the game. He added another in the fourth quarter on a 1-yard keeper after a long interception return. The Bison held on to beat top-seeded Sam Houston State, 17-6.

2012 North Dakota State becomes the first team to defend its title since Appalachian State won three straight from 2005 to 2007 by defeating Sam Houston State, 39-13, in a rematch of the 2011 tournament final. The sold-out game at FC Dallas Stadium marked the first time that the same two teams battled in consecutive years since Montana and Marshall did so in 1995 and 1996.
