* In order to accommodate the four-Justice dissenting opinion in National Federation of Independent Businesses v. Sebelius, each of the dissenting Justices in that case have been credited for authoring one dissenting opinion in that case (except Justice Thomas, who is credited as authoring two dissents in the case). However, in order to acknowledge that only two dissenting opinions were produced in the case, the total total number of dissenting opinions and the total number of opinions for the Term have been manually adjusted to count only two opinions from that case.
