

2011-2012 PRESIDENT'S TROPHY SUMMARY / STANDINGSTRINITY BRINGS SCAC PRESIDENTS TROPHY BACK TO SAN ANTONIO

After losing the all-sports trophy in 2005-06 to then conference foe DePauw University, the SCAC bell has escaped Trinity University's grasp ever since as the Tigers have finished as runner-up in the all-sports trophy race for the last six years. That, however, all changed this past weekend.

With spring sports victories in men's and women's tennis as well as second-place finishes in softball and women's track and field, the Tigers claimed their first Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference (SCAC) President's Trophy since the 2004-05 academic year. It is Trinity's 12th overall all-sports victory. The Texas Tigers, who took a narrow 15-point lead into the spring championships weekend, finished with 790 total points to defeat second-place Centre College by 40 points.

The Colonels, who took home championships in men's track and field and women's golf finished with 750 points in the all-sports race. In its first year eligible to compete for conference championships, Birmingham-Southern College won the school's first-ever SCAC titles with victories in men's lacrosse, baseball and softball this past weekend. With those three championships, in addition to second-place finishes in men's track and field, men's golf and women's golf. The Panthers finished with 677.5 total points, good for third place in the all-sports race. Rhodes College was 2.5 points back of Birmingham with 675 points. The Lynx took home their fifth consecutive women's track and field title this past weekend. Colorado College, who won the women's lacrosse title on Sunday, finished fifth with 502.5 points. Southwestern University was sixth with 490 points and Sewanee-The University of the South finished seventh with 465 points. Coming in eighth place was Millsaps College with 422.5 points and Hendrix College followed in ninth with 330 points. Oglethorpe University, on the heels of its 10th SCAC men's golf title, jumped from 12th place after the winter season to a 10th place all-sports finish with 265 points. Rounding out the standings, first-year member University of Dallas finished 11th with 192.5 points and Austin College totaled 190 points for a 12th place finish.
