INTRODUCTION

This discography began as a draft for the Classical Division, Philips Records in 1980. At that time the late James Burnett was especially helpful in providing dates for the L'Oiseau-Lyre recordings that he produced. More information was obtained from additional paperwork in association with Richard Alston for his book published to celebrate the conductor's 70th birthday in 1997. John Hunt's most valuable discography devoted to the Staatskapelle Dresden was again helpful. Further updating has been undertaken in addition to the generous assistance of Philip Stuart via his LSO discography which he compiled for the Orchestra's centenary in 2004 and has kept updated.

Inevitably there are a number of missing credits for producers and engineers in the earliest years as these facts no longer survive. Additionally some exact dates have not been tracked down.

Notes

1. Operas whose names are in upper case are complete (or near-complete) recordings.
2. Words with a blue background (e.g. Dresden) are awaiting further amplification.
3. Dates (months) in brackets after catalogue numbers denote the month of review in Gramophone magazine and are therefore approximate dates of issue.
