

Bahá'í Journal UK

Journal of the Bahá'í Community of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland
October, 2001 / 158BE

Focus on Children

In July the Thomas Breakwell School (South East) held its eleventh Prize Giving and sports day in Horsham. Over 100 students, parents, and family and friends and visitors to the school attended the ceremony.

Leila Mahmoodi and Vasim Abbas display a poster made for the talent show which took place to celebrate the end of the term of first year of the Cardiff Thomas Breakwell School

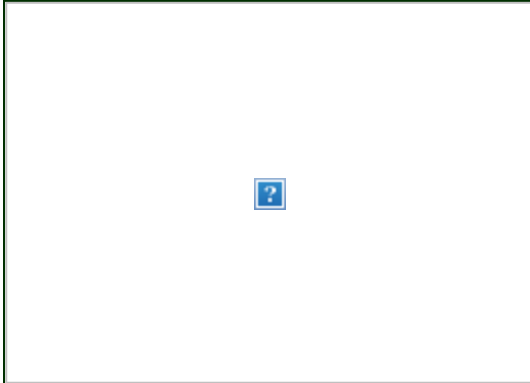

Focus on Children

Children from the George Townshend classes in Barnet celebrated the end of the school year with a play based on the Conference at Badasht.

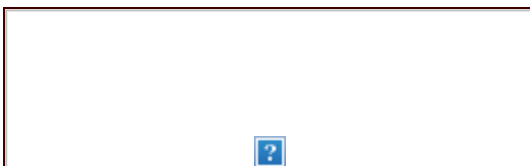

Sara Talebloo played the part of Táhireh, and Ali Tunay played Quddús (above). A violin recital was given by Azita Mehdinejad (below).

Both the participants and the audience enjoyed the event very much.

The big weans at the Bahá'íland gathering, Aberdeen.

Children's class, led by Janet Cundall, at the Aberdeen

Bahá'íland gathering

