

Residential Schools

Up to date details of Bahá'í Schools can be accessed at <http://www.bahai.org.uk/ssi/>

Scottish Summer School 2003

(Under the auspices of the Bahá'í Council for Scotland)

19th Bahá'í Land Gathering
Northern College, Aberdeen
26th July - 2nd August

“These Precious Days”

For more information, please contact
Registrar: Bill Davidson (<mailto:bill@lorna999.fsnet.co.uk>)
or Lynne Roberts (<mailto:lynnieonline@yahoo.co.uk>)

Welsh Summer School 2003

Swansea, South Wales, 26th July - 2nd August

Songs of the Spirit

The theme of the Summer School's main programme will be centred on Bahá'u'lláh, 'Abdu'l-Bahá, the Guardianship and the Universal House of Justice. The arts will be central to all activities especially in the children to youth classes. Accommodation in the student village is selfcatering.

Tariffs for the full school - per person.

Cost of a room in a house/flat with 4, 5, 6 or 11 rooms. All rooms are single, apart from a few twin rooms.

Adult/Child to Youth	£ 75
Houses for the Youth only (15-21yrs)	£ 65
Children 3 and under	free

For registration forms and further information contact:
Registrar: Sue Cave (mailto:welsh_summer_school@hotmail.com).

Northern Ireland Summer School

Theme: “Nurturing Souls”
July 14 - 20 inclusive

Come and join us at the beautiful Lorne Conference Centre in Craigavad on the shores of Belfast Lough.

Beautiful, serene setting, a stimulating range of presentations and workshops, incorporating the arts with programmes for adults, junior youth, youth and children with, of course, lots of craic!

Registrar: Sina Rezvani <mailto:sina@rezvani.co.uk>

