BSA

In Bareilly district, the BSA or the Basic Shiksha Adhikari takes care of the primary education in the government schools. She/he has a team of BEO(Block Education Officer) earlier known as ABSA to overlook the primary education sphere in the block. BEO office is usually situated in a government school compund and she/he inspects the schools regularly. The schools usually have a staff of the principal(Pradhan adhyapak), teachers (adhyapaks), Shiksha Mitra, PTI teachers to educate the children. There is also a SMC or School Management committee of which the village elected head – Pradhan is also a member.

DIOS

The secondary education or the Madhyamik Shiksha is taken care of by the DIOS or the District Inspector of Schools. The jurisdiction of DIOS is not just limited to government schools but also extends to government aided and government recognized institutions. The work of DIOS includes:-

- (1) Inspection of School/Colleges
- (2) Inspection of duties of teachers and other employees of Schools and Colleges.
- (3) Disposal of Financial Matters.
- (4) Maintenance and Distribution of the grant received for the payment of the Salary for the Employees of Schools and Colleges.

DIET

There is also a government DIET(District Institute of Education and Training) in Faridpur tehsil which gives the BTC. Basic Teaching Certificate (BTC), a two year certificate program is necessary for becoming a government teacher in primary or elementary schools. In addition to DIET Bareilly district has total 6 colleges for BTC.

HIGHER EDUCATION IN BAREILLY

With a large number of professional institutes Bareilly is an education hub. Bareilly has a number of universities and research institutes, including M. J. P. Rohilkhand University, the Indian Veterinary Research Institute (IVRI) and the Central Avian Research Institute (CARI)—the latter two in Izzatnagar. The city alo has Management institutes like Lal Bahadur Shastri Institute of Management and Technology sister branch of (LBSIM, Delhi), law, medical and other colleges.

Bareilly has many medical private and government colleges having undergraduate and P.G. courses. Bareilly College, in the heart of the city, was built in 1837 and is among the oldest educational institutions in India.

The M. J. P. Rohilkhand University (1975), Bareilly College (1837) and private colleges and universities comprise Bareilly's higher-education system. Established in 1889, the Indian Veterinary Research Institute is dedicated to livestock research. With a faculty of 275, in addition to research, the institute offers instruction, consultation and technology transfer at the post-graduate level to students from India and abroad.
