O'Reilly Celebrates Expansion into Puerto Rico

Two locations for The Friendliest Parts Store in Town and a distribution center

BAYAMÓN, Puerto Rico (May 21, 2023) – To serve both do-it-yourself and professional service providers in more places, O'Reilly Automotive, Inc. (“O'Reilly”) (Nasdaq: ORLY) has expanded into Puerto Rico, opening its first distribution center and two retail stores in Hatillo and Bayamón.

O'Reilly cut the ribbons on the facilities today, celebrating those who've worked to bring the retailer to the island. “This expansion would not be possible without the outstanding dedication of our team members,” said Greg Johnson, O'Reilly chief executive officer. “We're known for our teamwork and enthusiasm, so it was no surprise to me how excited our team members were to bring our services to a new area, with many traveling to the island to help with training and setup.”

The new stores and distribution center have created dozens of jobs, and O'Reilly is looking to fill even more positions. Applicants can search for jobs in stores at <https://orly.cc/3lez3EU> or in distribution centers at <https://orly.cc/3Olv8d5>

The Puerto Rico distribution center is attached to the Bayamón store and features more than 128,000 square feet of warehouse and office space.

“We always strive to get the right part to our customers where and when they need it,” Johnson said. “We also pride ourselves on stepping out from behind the counter to help customers with everything from wiper blade installation to battery testing and more. At O'Reilly, you'll find the friendliest, most knowledgeable Professional Parts People.”
