EXPERIENCE

2008-PRESENT Allan Hancock
Athletic Director
1998-2008 Barstow
Head Women's Basketball Coach
1994-97 Utah
Assistant Women's Basketball Coach
1992-1994 St. Cloud State
Women's Basketball Graduate Assistant

Since being named the associate dean of kinesiology, recreation, and athletics in May 2008, Ensing has overseen several facility improvements including a new track and field complex, as well as new fields for baseball, softball, soccer, and football.

Under her watch, Hancock sports programs have enjoyed tremendous success at the conference level and in the postseason. In total, the Bulldog teams have racked up 10 conference titles and have made 21 playoff appearances since 2008 (including four bowl game victories for football). Hancock has also seen 31 individuals claim conference crowns and one individual state title in their respective sports.

During her tenure, more than 200 student-athletes have earned scholarship opportunities to continue their athletic and academic careers at four-year institutions, including several Division I programs.

Prior to Hancock, Ensing served as the women's basketball coach and a physical education instructor at Barstow College from 1998-2008. She also served as the interim athletic director during her final year at Barstow College.

Ensing served as an assistant women's basketball coach at the University of Utah (NCAA Division I) from 1994 to 1997 and was a graduate assistant coach for the women's basketball program at St. Cloud State University (NCAA Division II) in Minnesota from 1992 to 1994.

Ensing earned a Master of Science degree in athletic administration from St. Cloud State University and a Bachelor of Science degree from Southern California College (now Vanguard University) in Costa Mesa.

BRANDMAN UNIVERSITY
 BA - Organizational Leadership

ALLAN HANCOCK COLLEGE
 AA - Liberal Studies

Rick Aguilar was tabbed as the Director of Football Operations/Event Manager in the July. He returns to the coaching staff at Hancock in 2023 after spending nearly a decade on the sidelines for the Bulldogs.

Throughout his tenure, the Lompoc native worked his way up to the Defensive Coordinator position while leading the Bulldogs' defense to a No. 4 ranking in the state after allowing just 78.9 rushing yards per game in 2017.

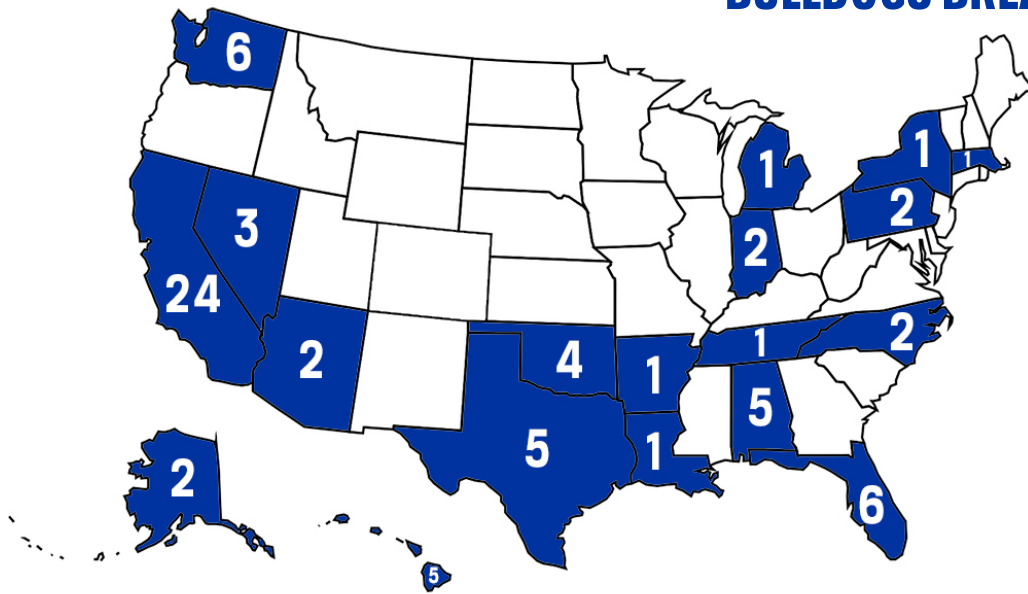

In 2016, his crew led the state against the run after allowing just 64 rushing yards per game. Prior to returning to the Bulldogs, Aguilar served as a Special Education Teacher and an Assistant Football Coach at Lompoc High School (2019-2022) and Pioneer Valley High School (2022-2023).

The Lompoc High School alum obtained his undergraduate degree in Organizational Leadership from Brandman University in 2017 and his M.S. in Coaching & Athletic Administration from Concordia University-Irvine in 2019.

Aguilar was an All-Conference linebacker for the Bulldogs in 2004-05 before moving on to play as a member of the defensive line at Missouri Southern State University in 2006.

RETURNING HONOREES

SAIPALE FUIMAONO

2022: Received First Team All-State and First Team All-League nods for his work on the offensive side. The freshman from American Samoa saw action in all 11 games last season and served as a primary pillar for the Bulldogs' offensive line. Fuimaono became the seventh offensive lineman to receive an All-State designation for the program through the last 10 years.

ALEX SUTTON

2022: Was a Second Team All-League selection as a tight end after closing his freshman season with 106 on 11 catches.

JOEY GARZA

2022: Redshirt

2021: Was a Second Team All-League honoree as a freshman after serving crucial roles on both the offensive and defensive sides of the ball through nine games of action.
