1. INTRODUCTION

Figure 1 is an example of a static figure, committed directly to the repository. By placing the figure in the `static` directory, the user informs `showyourwork` that this figure doesn't have an associated script, and no rules need to be executed in order to produce it.
