Job Shadow Program

- Assignment Editor job shadowed a Photojournalist in February.
- Multimedia Journalist job shadowed a Anchor/Reporter in August.
- Multimedia Journalist job shadowed Special Projects department in August.

Purpose: To provide eligible employees with a day-long opportunity to learn about other jobs in the organization.

- Who is eligible to apply:
 - Employees who have been with the station 1 year or longer – full or part-time
 - Employees considered “in good standing” at the time of application
- How the program works:
 - Employees notify their supervisor of their interest in the program, specifying the department and position of interest
 - If eligible, the applicant’s supervisor coordinates the shadowing with the supervisors of the department/position request

- The day/time for the shadowing will be selected by the supervisors involved, giving consideration to time of year, demands of the departments, etc.
- Details:
 - Employees who shadow will be compensated as normal, and the time worked will fall within the bounds of a regular work week
 - 1 shadow experience per year, per person
 - Those selected agree to conform to the dress and behavior expectations set as the standard by the supervisors in the department/position they are shadowing

We sent multiple all staff email reminders about the Job Shadow program in both February and August.
