

Drawing tulips - step by step guide

What would a spring motif be without tulips? With these step-by-step instructions, you will get a template that you can use to easily draw the beautiful heralds of spring.

⚠ For this drawing you need a pencil, a drawing pen and colors that suit your taste.

Step 1: Flower

head First draw the calyx with a pencil. In particular, groups of three have a harmonious effect on the viewer.

Step 2: Petals

Refine the flowers with curved lines that represent the demarcation of each petal.

Step 3: Stems

Now draw the stems of the flowers, which come together just above the ground. Make sure you swing naturally.

Step 4: First final contours

Take your drawing pen and trace the pencil template. For the buds, make sure to keep the top edge looking natural. Then carefully erase any pencil residue.

Step 5: Leaves for the stems

Draw the straight leaves of the tulip and pay attention to a natural curve and a slight bend.

Step 6: Coloring

In the last step you can color your tulip. Use different shades of green for the leaves and stem and also use gradations in the coloring for the flower in order to achieve the most natural possible result.
