

Higher Doctorate Admission Requirements Schedule

Higher Doctorate	Admission Requirements
Doctor of Science	(a) holds— <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) a Bachelor of Science or equivalent science degree of at least 15 years standing and a Doctor of Philosophy of at least 7 years standing approved for this purpose by the Dean, Graduate School; or (ii) a qualification of at least 15 years standing in a field other than science approved by the Dean, Graduate School and has adequate scientific training; and (b) has carried out the work associated with the candidature for the degree at this University or has otherwise a substantial connection with this University that in the opinion of the Dean, Graduate School the person should be accepted as a candidate.
Doctor of Veterinary Science	(a) holds— <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) a Bachelor of Veterinary Science or equivalent veterinary degree of at least 15 years standing, approved for this purpose by the Dean, Graduate School; and (ii) a Doctor of Philosophy or a Veterinary Specialty Diploma or Veterinary Specialty Fellowship with at least 7 years standing approved for this purpose by the Dean, Graduate School; and (b) has carried out the work associated with the candidature for the degree at this University or has otherwise a substantial connection with this University that in the opinion of the Dean, Graduate School the person should be accepted as a candidate. The Dean, Graduate School, in exceptional circumstances, on the grounds of published work, may decide that a person need not comply with clause (a)(ii).
Doctor of Agricultural Science	(a) holds— <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) a Bachelor of Agricultural Science or Master of Agricultural Science of at least 15 years standing and a Doctor of Philosophy of at least 7 years standing (being a doctorate awarded for research in a branch of Agricultural Science); or (ii) holds a qualification of at least 15 years standing, in a field other than Agricultural Science, approved for this purpose by the Dean, Graduate School and has adequate training in Agricultural Science; and (b) has carried out the work associated with the candidature for the degree at this University or otherwise has a substantial connection with this University that, in the opinion of the Dean, Graduate School, the person should be accepted as a candidate.
Doctor of Engineering	(a) holds a Bachelor of Engineering (Honours) from this University of at least 7 years standing; or (b) holds a Master of Engineering, Master of Engineering Science or Master of Engineering Studies from this University of at least 3 years standing; or (c) holds a Doctor of Philosophy from this University (being a doctorate awarded for research in a branch of engineering); or (d) holds from another tertiary education institution— <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) a qualification of at least 7 years standing, approved for this purpose by the Dean, Graduate School to be at least equivalent to the degree of Bachelor of Engineering (Honours) from this University; and (ii) has carried out at this University a substantial part of the work associated with the proposed candidature or otherwise has a substantial connection with this University over a period of not less than 5 years that the applicant should, in the opinion of the Dean, Graduate School, be accepted as a candidate.

Higher Doctorates Admission Requirements Schedule

Higher Doctorate	Admission Requirements
Doctor of Laws	(a) holds— <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) a Bachelor of Laws or equivalent laws degree of at least 15 years standing; or (ii) a Doctor of Philosophy of at least 7 years standing approved for this purpose by the Dean, Graduate School; or (iii) a qualification of at least 15 years standing in a field other than law approved by the Dean, Graduate School and has appropriate training in the field of law; and (b) has carried out the work associated with the candidature for the degree at this University or has otherwise a substantial connection with this University that in the opinion of the Dean, Graduate School the person should be accepted as a candidate.
Doctor of Economics	(a) holds— <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) a Bachelor of Economics or equivalent economics degree of at least 15 years standing and a Doctor of Philosophy of at least 7 years standing approved for this purpose by the Dean, Graduate School; or (ii) a qualification of at least 15 years standing in a field other than economics approved by the Dean, Graduate School and has adequate scientific training; and (b) has carried out the work associated with the candidature for the degree at this University or has otherwise a substantial connection with this University that in the opinion of the Dean, Graduate School the person should be accepted as a candidate.
Doctor of Medicine (Research)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) holds a Bachelor of Medicine, Bachelor of Surgery from this University of at least 7 years standing; or (b) holds a Master of Philosophy or Master of Medical Science from this University of at least 3 years standing; or (c) holds a Doctor of Philosophy from this University (being a doctorate awarded for research in a branch of medicine); or (d) holds a qualification of at least 7 years standing, approved for this purpose by the Dean, Graduate School, and has a substantial connection with this University that, in the opinion of the Dean, Graduate School, the person should be accepted as a candidate.