The British Nationality Regulations, 1948.

[Made 14TH DECEMBER, 1948.]

[Coming into Operation 1ST JANUARY, 1949]

In pursuance of the power conferred upon me by subsection (1) of section twenty-nine of the British Nationality Act, 1948 (a), I hereby make with the consent, so far as Regulation 19 is concerned, of the Treasury the following Regulations—

PART I.—CITIZENSHIP OF THE UNITED KINGDOM AND COLONIES BY REGISTRATION.

1. An application for registration as a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies made under subsection (1) of section six of the Act shall be in the form set out in the First Schedule hereto.

Form of application for registration under section 6 (1) of the Act.

2. An application by a woman for registration as a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies made under subsection (2) of section six of the Act shall be in the form set out in the Second Schedule hereto; and the oath of allegiance required by the said subsection to be taken by an applicant who is a British protected person or an alien shall be subscribed and attested in the form set out in the said Schedule and as so subscribed and attested shall be included in the form of application.

Form of application for registration under section 6 (2) of the Act.

3. An application for the registration of a minor child of a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies as a citizen thereof made under subsection (1) of section seven of the Act shall be made in writing, and shall include the following particulars, that is to say—

Form of application for registration under section 7 (1) of the Act.

(a) a statement whether the applicant is a parent or guardian of the child and, if he is a guardian, how he became a guardian;

(b) a statement showing that a parent of the child is, or if deceased was, a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies;

(c) a statement of the reasons for which it is desired that the child should be registered as a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies.

Form of application for registration under section 12 (6) of the Act.

4. An application for registration as a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies made under subsection (6) of section twelve of the Act shall be in the form set out in the Third Schedule hereto.

Authority to whom application for registration as a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies is to be made.

5. (1) An application made in accordance with Regulation 1 of these Regulations on the ground of ordinary residence, whether or not it is also made on the ground of Crown service under His Majesty's government in the United Kingdom, shall be made—

(a) if the applicant is ordinarily resident in the United Kingdom, to the Secretary of State at the Home Office in London;

(b) if the applicant is ordinarily resident in any of the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man, a colony, a protectorate, a protected state to which the provisions of section eight of the Act relating to protectorates are extended by Order in Council made under section thirty thereof, or a United Kingdom trust territory, to the Governor.

(2) An application made in accordance with Regulation 1 of these Regulations on the ground solely of Crown service under His Majesty's government in the United Kingdom and an application made in accordance with Regulation 2 of these Regulations shall be made—

(a) if the applicant is resident in any of the places mentioned in sub-paragraph (b) of paragraph (1) of this Regulation, to the Governor.

(b) if the applicant is resident in a country mentioned in subsection (3) of section one of the Act in which there is a High Commissioner for His Majesty's government in the United Kingdom, to the High Commissioner in that country;

(c) in any other case, to the Secretary of State at the Home Office in London.

(3) An application made in accordance with Regulation 3 of these Regulations shall be made to the authority specified in the last foregoing paragraph, so however that references therein to the place of residence of the applicant shall be construed as references to the place of residence of the minor child in respect of whom the application is made.

(4) An application made in accordance with Regulation 4 of these Regulations shall be made—

(a) if the applicant is resident in a country mentioned in subsection (3) of section one of the Act in which there is a High Commissioner for His Majesty's government in the United Kingdom, to the High Commissioner in that country;

(b) in any other case, to the Secretary of State at the Home Office in London.

(5) An application for the registration of a minor as a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies made under subsection (2) of section seven of the Act shall be made—

(a) if made by or on behalf of a minor resident in any of the places mentioned in sub-paragraph (b) of paragraph (1) of this Regulation, to the Governor;

(b) in any other case, to the Secretary of State at the Home Office in London.

6. The registration of a person as a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies in accordance with the foregoing provisions of these Regulations shall be effected as follows:—

Place of registration of citizens of the United Kingdom and Colonies.

(a) if the application is made to the Secretary of State, in London at the Home Office;

(b) in any other case, at such place as the person to whom the application is made may direct.

PART II.—NATURALISATION AND RESUMPTION OF BRITISH NATIONALITY.

7. (1) An application for a certificate of naturalisation shall be made in writing, and shall show whether the applicant is a British protected person or an alien and, if he is a British protected person, shall state the protectorate, protected state, mandated territory or trust territory from which he derives his status as a British protected person and his connection therewith.

Form of application for naturalisation.

(2) Every such application shall contain sufficient information to satisfy the Secretary of State or the Governor, as the case may be, that the applicant possesses the requisite qualifications for naturalisation in respect of residence or Crown service, good character, knowledge of the English or other appropriate language and intention with respect to his residence or occupation in the event of a certificate being granted to him, and such further information as the Secretary of State or the Governor may require in order to determine whether the applicant is a fit and proper person to be granted a certificate of naturalisation.

Form of certificate of natura-
lisation.

8. (1) A certificate of naturalisation granted by the Secretary of State shall be in the form set out in Part 1 of the Fourth Schedule hereto and shall be signed by an officer of the Home Department not below the rank of Assistant Secretary.

(2) A certificate of naturalisation granted by the Governor of any of the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man or a colony, protectorate, protected state of United Kingdom trust territory shall be similar to a certificate granted by the Secretary of State, except that it shall be signed by the Governor or by a person authorised by him in that behalf.

(3) Where in accordance with the provisions of subsection (2) of section ten of the Act the Secretary of State has given his approval to the grant of a certificate of naturalisation by the Governor of a place mentioned in the last foregoing paragraph, the approval of the Secretary of State shall be signified by adding to the certificate a statement to that effect, which shall be signed by a person authorised by him in that behalf.

Oath of allegiance for purpose of
lisation.

9. (1) The oath of allegiance required by subsection (1) of section ten of the Act to be taken by a person to whom a certificate of naturalisation has been granted shall be subscribed and attested in the form set out in Part II of the Fourth Schedule hereto and as so subscribed and attested shall be endorsed on the certificate of naturalisation to which it relates.

(2) The oath of allegiance required as aforesaid shall be taken within one calendar month of the date of the certificate of naturalisation to which it relates, or within such extended time as the Secretary of State or the Governor who granted the certificate, as the case may be, may permit, and if the oath is not taken within the said time the certificate shall have no effect:

Provided that permission shall not be deemed to have been given under this paragraph unless a statement to that effect is endorsed on the certificate and signed by a person authorised by the last foregoing Regulation to sign a certificate of naturalisation.

(3) The oath of allegiance required as aforesaid shall be registered—

(a) if the certificate of naturalisation to which it relates is granted by the Secretary of State, in London at the Home Office;

(b) in any other case, in such place as the Governor who grants the certificate may direct.

(4) Where the oath of allegiance is registered in accordance with the directions of the Governor under the last foregoing paragraph, he shall cause a copy of the oath and of the certificate of naturalisation to which it relates to be sent to the Home Office in London.

10. (1) A declaration of intention to resume British nationality made under subsection (2) of section sixteen of the Act shall be in the form set out in the Fifth Schedule hereto.

Declaration of intention to resume British nationality.

(2) The declaration shall be registered in London at the Home Office.

PART III.—RENUNCIATION AND DEPRIVATION OF CITIZENSHIP OF THE UNITED KINGDOM AND COLONIES.

11. (1) A declaration of renunciation of citizenship of the United Kingdom and Colonies made under subsection (1) of section nineteen of the Act shall be in the form set out in the Sixth Schedule hereto.

Declaration of renunciation of citizenship.

(2) The declaration shall, subject to the provisions of the said section nineteen, be registered in London at the Home Office.

12. (1) When it is proposed to make an order under section twenty or section twenty-one of the Act depriving a person of his citizenship of the United Kingdom and Colonies, the notice required by subsection (6) of section twenty or subsection (2) of section twenty-one thereof to be given to that person may be given—

Notice of proposed deprivation of citizenship.

(a) in a case where that person's whereabouts are known, by causing the notice to be delivered to him personally or by sending it to him by post;

(b) in a case where that person's whereabouts are not known, by sending it to his last known address.

(2) Where the Secretary of State has given notice as aforesaid and the person to whom it is given has the right, on making application therefor, to an inquiry under subsection (7) of section twenty of the Act, the application shall be made—

(a) if that person is in the United Kingdom at the time when the notice is given to him, within twenty-one days from the giving of the notice;

(b) in any other case, within such time, not being less than twenty-one days from the giving of the notice, as the Secretary of State may determine:

Provided that the Secretary of State may in special circumstances at any time extend the time within which the application may be made.

(3) Where the Governor of any of the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man or a colony, protectorate, protected state or United Kingdom trust territory has given notice as aforesaid, the provisions of the last foregoing paragraph shall apply with the substitution for references to the Secretary of State of references to the Governor and the substitution for the reference to the United Kingdom of a reference to that island, colony, protectorate, state or territory.

(4) Any notice given in accordance with the provisions of this Regulation shall, in a case in which the person to whom it is given has the right, on making application therefor, to an inquiry under subsection (7) of section twenty of the Act, include a statement of the time within which such application must be made.

Cancellation of registration of person deprived of citizenship.

13. Where an order has been made depriving a person who is a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies by registration of that citizenship, his name shall be removed from the register of citizens of the United Kingdom and Colonies in which it is entered.

Cancellation and amendment of certificate of naturalisation in case of deprivation of citizenship.

14. Where an order has been made depriving a person naturalised in the United Kingdom and Colonies of his citizenship of the United Kingdom and Colonies, the person so deprived or any other person in possession of the relevant certificate of naturalisation shall, if required by notice in writing given by the Secretary of State or any Governor having power to deprive persons of that citizenship, deliver up the said certificate to such person and within such time as may be specified in the notice, and the said certificate shall thereupon be cancelled or amended.

PART IV.—SUPPLEMENTAL.

Variations in form of application or declaration.

15. Where a person wishes to make an application or declaration under any of these Regulations and the form set out in the Schedule referred to in the Regulation is, in the opinion of the Secretary of State or other authority to whom the application is to be made or to whom the declaration is to be sent for registration, unsuitable to the particular case, the Secretary of State or that other authority, as the case may be, may authorise the application or declaration being made in some other form.

Certificate of citizenship in case of doubt.

16. A certificate of citizenship in case of doubt given under section twenty-five of the Act shall be signed by an officer of the Home Department not below the rank of Assistant Secretary.

17. An application or declaration made in accordance with Regulation 1, 2, 3, 4, 7, 10 or 11 of these Regulations shall not be accepted or registered and the oath of allegiance required by subsection (2) of section six or subsection (1) of section ten of the Act shall be of no effect unless it is signed in the presence of or administered by one of the following persons—

Persons
application or declaration may be made or by whom oath of allegiance may be administered.

(i) In England, Wales or Northern Ireland—

Any justice of the peace or any commissioner authorised to administer oaths in the Supreme Court;

(ii) In Scotland—

Any sheriff, sheriff-substitute or justice of the peace;

(iii) In the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man or any colony, protectorate, protected state or United Kingdom trust territory—

Any judge of any court of civil or criminal jurisdiction, any justice of the peace or magistrate, or any person for the time being authorised by law, in the place where the applicant, declarant or deponent is, to administer an oath for any judicial or other legal purpose;

(iv) In any country mentioned in subsection (3) of section one of the Act or in Eire, or in any mandated territory or trust territory administered by the government of any such country—

Any person for the time being authorised by law, in the place where the applicant, declarant or deponent is, to administer an oath for any judicial or other legal purpose;

(v) Elsewhere—

Any consular officer of His Majesty's government in the United Kingdom or, if there is no such consular officer, any person authorised by the Secretary of State in that behalf:

Provided that if the applicant, declarant or deponent is serving in His Majesty's naval, military or air forces, the application or declaration may be signed in the presence of, or the oath administered by, any officer holding a commission in any of those forces, whether the application, declaration or oath is made or taken in the United Kingdom or elsewhere.

18. A document may be certified to be a true copy of a document for the purpose of subsection (2) of section twenty-seven of the Act by means of a statement in writing to that effect signed by a person authorised by the Secretary of State or the Governor in that behalf.

Evidence

Fees.

19. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Regulation, the fees specified in the Seventh Schedule hereto may in the United Kingdom be taken and shall be applied in the manner set out in the said Schedule.

(2) Of the fee payable in respect of the grant of a certificate of naturalisation, one pound shall be payable on the submission of the application for a certificate and shall in no circumstances be returned, and the balance shall be payable on the receipt of the decision to grant a certificate:

Provided that where a husband and wife apply at the same time for certificates and are residing together at the time of the applications and the balance is paid in respect of the grant of a certificate to one of them, no balance shall be payable in respect of the grant of a certificate to the other.

Inter-pretation.

20. (1) In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires, the following expressions have the meanings hereby respectively ascribed to them, that is to say—

“the Act” means the British Nationality Act, 1948 (b);

“Governor” has, in relation to a protected state to which provisions of the Act are extended by Order in Council made under section thirty thereof, the same meaning as in the Order;

“protected state” includes any place to which provisions of the Act are extended by any such Order as aforesaid.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889 (c), shall apply to the interpretation of these Regulations in like manner as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Short title and commencement.

21. These Regulations may be cited as the British Nationality Regulations, 1948, and shall come into operation on the first day of January, 1949.
