

The Path of Peace

A Mail Art Project for A LOTUS IN FLOWER - Art Festival 2005

The first Art Festival co-ordinated by the Network of Buddhist Organizations

The Festival will take place throughout Britain next year between June 11 and June 24

As my contribution I am organizing an online interactive event on my website. Simply add your images or words about Peace to the graphic you will find there and send it back to me.
Please do not think you have to be a Rafael or a Picasso, just do express your feelings any way you like.

To participate visit <http://www.nottwo.org.uk> and follow the link to Path of Peace Mail Art Show or go directly to :

<http://homepage.ntlworld.com/nottwo/Text/path.htm>

Your works will be shown on the same page as they arrive

Let's extend the Path of Peace throughout the world
