

Bill No. XXXIX of 2003

THE CITIZENSHIP (AMENDMENT) BILL, 2003

A

BILL

further to amend the Citizenship Act, 1955.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Fifty-fourth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Citizenship (Amendment) Act, 2003.

Short title and commencement.

(2) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint:

Provided that different dates may be appointed for different provisions of this Act and any reference in any such provision to the commencement of this Act shall be construed as

(e) illegal migrant means a foreigner who has entered into India

(i) without a valid passport or other travel documents and such other document or authority as may be prescribed by or under any law in that behalf; or

(ii) with a valid passport or other travel documents and such other document or authority as may be prescribed by or under any law in that behalf but remains therein beyond the permitted period of time;'

(ii) after clause (e), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

'(ee) "overseas citizen of India" means a person of Indian origin being a citizen of a specified country, or an Indian citizen, who is registered as an overseas citizen of India by the Central Government under sub-section (1) of section 7A;'

(iii) after clause (g), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

'(gg) "specified country" means a country specified in the Fourth Schedule;'

Substitution of new section for section 3.

Citizenship by birth.

3. For section 3 of the principal Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

"3. (1) Except as provided in sub-section (2), every person born in India—

(a) on or after the 26th day of January, 1950, but before the 1st day of July, 1987;

(b) on or after the 1st day of July, 1987, but before the commencement of the Citizenship (Amendment) Act, 2003 and either of whose parents is a citizen of India at the time of his birth;

(c) on or after the commencement of the Citizenship (Amendment) Act, 2003, where—

(i) both of his parents are citizens of India; or

(ii) one of whose parents is a citizen of India and the other is not an illegal migrant at the time of his birth, shall be a citizen of India by birth.

(2) A person shall not be a citizen of India by virtue of this section if at the time of his birth—

(a) either his father or mother possesses such immunity from suits and legal process as is accorded to an envoy of a foreign sovereign power accredited to the President of India and he or she, as the case may be, is not a citizen of India; or

(b) his father or mother is an enemy alien and the birth occurs in a place then under occupation by the enemy."

Amendment of section 4.

4. In section 4 of the principal Act, for sub-section (1), the following sub-sections shall be substituted, namely:—

"(1) A person born outside India shall be a citizen of India by descent —

Provided that if the father of a person referred to in clause (a) was a citizen of India by descent only, that person shall not be a citizen of India by virtue of this section unless—

(a) his birth is registered at an Indian consulate within one year of its occurrence or the commencement of this Act, whichever is later, or, with the permission of the Central Government, after the expiry of the said period; or

(b) his father is, at the time of his birth, in service under a Government in India:

Provided further that if either of the parents of a person referred to in clause (b) was a citizen of India by descent only, that person shall not be a citizen of India by virtue of this section, unless—

(a) his birth is registered at an Indian consulate within one year of its occurrence or on or after the 10th day of December, 1992, whichever is later, or, with the permission of the Central Government, after the expiry of the said period; or

(b) either of his parents is, at the time of his birth, in service under a Government in India:

Provided also that on or after the commencement of the Citizenship (Amendment) Act, 2003, a person shall not be a citizen of India by virtue of this section, unless his birth is registered at an Indian consulate in such form and in such manner, as may be prescribed,—

(i) within one year of its occurrence or the commencement of the Citizenship (Amendment) Act, 2003, whichever is later; or

(ii) with the permission of the Central Government, after the expiry of the said period:

Provided also that no such birth shall be registered unless the parents of such person declare, in such form and in such manner as may be prescribed, that the minor does not hold the passport of another country.

(1A) A minor who is a citizen of India by virtue of this section shall not cease to be a citizen of India if within six months of attaining full age he makes an application for registration as an overseas citizen of India under this Act and until such application is disposed of by the Central Government."

5. In section 5 of the principal Act,—

(a) for sub-section (1), the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"(1) Subject to the provisions of this section and such other conditions and restrictions as may be prescribed, the Central Government may, on application made in this behalf, register as a citizen of India any person not being an illegal migrant who is not already such citizen by virtue of the Constitution or of any

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Citizenship Act, 1955 which provides for the acquisition of citizenship, after the commencement of the Constitution by birth, descent, registration, naturalisation and incorporation of territory under certain circumstances, and also provides for the termination and deprivation of citizenship, was among those 109 Central Acts identified for a review by the Commission on Review of Administrative Laws constituted by the Central Government under the Chairmanship of Shri P.C. Jain in 1998. Subsequently, the High Level Committee on Indian Diaspora constituted by the Central Government, inter alia, recommended the amendment of this Act to provide for the grant of dual citizenship to persons of Indian origin belonging to certain specified countries. The Central Government has accordingly decided to make provisions for the grant of dual citizenship and has taken the opportunity of introducing a scheme for the compulsory registration of every citizen of India, and for this purpose to issue national identity cards.

2. The above objects are proposed to be achieved, inter alia, by amending provisions of the Citizenship Act so as to—

(i) make acquisition of Indian citizenship by registration and naturalisation more stringent;

(ii) prevent illegal migrants from becoming eligible for Indian citizenship;

(iii) simplify the procedure to facilitate the re-acquisition of Indian citizenship by persons of full age who are children of Indian citizens, and former citizens of independent India;

(iv) provide for the grant of overseas citizenship of India to persons of Indian origin belonging to specified countries, and Indian citizens who choose to acquire the citizenship of any of these countries at a later date;

(v) provide for the compulsory registration and issue of a national identity card to all citizens of India;

(vi) enhance the penalty for violation of its provisions, as well as the rules framed under it; and

(vii) to omit all provisions recognizing, or relating to the Commonwealth citizenship from the Act.

3. The Bill seeks to achieve the above objects.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 4 of the Bill seeks to amend section 4 of the Citizenship Act, 1955(hereafter referred to as the Act) relating to citizenship by descent. The said amendment, inter alia, empowers the Central Government to lay down, by rules, the form and manner in which registration of birth at an Indian consulate shall be made and the form and manner of declaration by parents for registration of births of children at such consulates.

2. Clause 5 seeks to amend section 5 of the Act relating to citizenship by registration. The proposed sub-section (1) of section 5 empowers the Central Government to make rules laying down the conditions and restrictions to register as a citizen of India any person who is not an illegal migrant.

3. Clause 7 of the Bill seeks to insert new sections 7A, 7B, 7C and 7D in the Act relating to overseas citizenship of India. Sub-section (1) of proposed new section 7A empowers the Central Government to prescribe, by rules, the conditions and restrictions for making application by certain categories of persons for registration as “overseas citizen of India”.

4. Proposed new section 7C empowers the Central Government to make rules relating to the manner of declaration of renouncing overseas citizenship of India.

5. Clause 8 of the Bill seeks to amend section 8 of the Act relating to renunciation of citizenship, inter alia, to empower the Central Government to lay down by rules, the form and manner of making declarations by children on attaining full age for resumption of Indian citizenship.

6. Clause 12 of the Bill seeks to insert a new section 14A in the Act relating to issue of national identity cards to all citizens of India. Under new section 14A the Central Government may make rules to lay down the procedure for compulsory registration of citizens of India, the form and manner in which such applications may be made and the documents, other particulars and fee which may accompany such applications.

7. The matters in respect of which rules may be made under the aforesaid provisions are generally matters of procedure or administrative details and it is not possible to provide for them in the Bill itself. The delegation of legislative power is, therefore, of a normal character.

Interpretation. 2. (1) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) “a Government in India” means the Central Government or a State Government;

(b) “citizen” in relation to a country specified in the First Schedule, means a person who under the citizenship or nationality law for the time being in force in that country, is a citizen or national of that country;

(c) “citizenship or nationality law”, in relation to a country specified in the First Schedule, means an enactment of the legislature of that country which at the request of the Government of that country, the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, have declared to be an enactment making provision for the citizenship or nationality of that country:

Provided that no such notification shall be issued in relation to the Union of South Africa except with the previous approval of both Houses of Parliament;

(d) “Indian consulate” means the office of any consular officer of the Government of India where a register of births is kept, or where there is no such office, such office as may be prescribed;

(e) “minor” means a person who has not attained the age of eighteen years;

(f) “person” does not include any company or association or body of individuals, whether incorporated or not;

(g) “prescribed” means prescribed by rules made under this Act;

(h) “undivided India” means India as defined in the Government of India Act, 1935 as originally enacted.
