Harewood Card

Newsletter

AUTUMN/WINTER 2003/4

Directors Introduction

2003 has proved to be another quite extraordinary year for Harewood – starting with receiving Silver for 'Large Visitor Attraction of the Year' in the national Excellence in England awards. Lord Harewood's 80th birthday year was celebrated widely, not least in the two Yorkshire Television documentaries charting his fascinating life and times. Visitor numbers are on target to exceed last years' figures (themselves record-breaking)...and the Harewood Card membership has reached record levels in its 10th anniversary year! We are hugely grateful to you for your continued support and enthusiasm for Harewood, and hope you thoroughly enjoyed your visits this year.

And with daily opening extended until November 16, there is plenty of time for you to continue to do so in 2003, and return sooner than ever in 2004, when we will open the grounds from February 11 – making the Card even better value than ever.

Terry Suthers, Trust Director

Royal Academy Schools Show

DAILY 7-16 NOVEMBER AND WEEKENDS UNTIL 14 DECEMBER

The annual Schools Show is the public exhibition of work by Royal Academy postgraduate students – an opportunity to see some of the most promising up and coming contemporary artists in the country. This year, for the first time ever, the sponsors, Walker

Lucy Williams The Second Phase

Morris, are bringing the exhibition outside London to Yorkshire, with a selection of works showing in the Terrace Gallery.

An associated programme of educational activities for trainee teachers and secondary students has been supported by Arts & Business, under the New Partners scheme.

Schools Calendar Competition display

At the other end of the arts education spectrum, Walker Morris also run an annual calendar competition for the region's primary schools! Look out for the colourful winning entries on display in the Courtyard Gallery from mid October.

Opening Times

Harewood will remain open daily for an extra two weeks this season – until 16 November 2003. The Grounds will then be open weekends until 14 December 2003 (Grounds 10am-4pm, Terrace Gallery 11am-4pm, Old Kitchen 12pm-4pm, Bird Garden 10am-3pm or dusk if earlier, last admission to the Bird Garden 2.30pm).

Next year the Grounds will reopen a month earlier than normal on 11 February 2004. The House will reopen on 17 March 2004.

Great Trees & Birds of Harewood 19 OCTOBER 2003

Come and experience this lovely autumnal event, with guided walks through some of Harewood's woodland areas collecting seeds and learning more about Harewood's flora! This year RSPB staff and volunteers will be showing you how to make a simple, low-cost bird feeder and giving out advice leaflets on attracting wildlife to gardens. Throughout the day there will be demonstrations of woodland crafts (including arborists at work) and an opportunity to buy many tree related goods.

There will be lots to do for children, with a storyteller, a chance to make scarecrows, badges and gift cards, leaf drawing and colouring as well as a scarecrow, bark and brass trail.

YORKSHIRE POST

As we work with the Yorkshire Post on a number of events that we know you enjoy, we hope that you will also welcome the enclosed letter from the editor of the Yorkshire Post containing offers exclusive to you.

Belowstairs work in progress

Even as this Newsletter is being put together, work continues apace belowstairs in the House on preparations for next season's exciting new development, building on the popularity of the restored Old Kitchens. Thanks to a major award from the Heritage Lottery Fund to document, conserve and interpret Harewood's hidden collections, around 1,000 previously unseen objects and documents will be on display for the first time. You can look forward to exploring the labyrinthine corridors and the former Servants' Hall and Housekeeper's Room, and being invited to peer into dedicated cases and cupboards, discovering how the servants used to live and work and the secrets of Harewood's exquisite craftsmanship. Plus a new display dedicated to Lord Harewood's mother, HRH Princess Mary, Princess Royal.

The House, including these fascinating displays, reopens on 17 March – more details next Newsletter.

Recent Awards

Harewood has had a busy year on the awards front. The season commenced with the fantastic news that Harewood had won Silver in the category 'Large Visitor Attraction of the Year' in the national Excellence in England Awards. The Education Department has recently been awarded a Sandford Award for its outstanding and original education programme, while our gardens department came second (by only one point) in Yorkshire in Bloom 2003. At this year's White Rose Awards the Marketing Department won 'Tourism Website of the Year'.

Volunteering at Harewood

Harewood House Trust greatly appreciates its team of volunteers, who you may have noticed stewarding the house, giving talks, gardening, driving the buggy or helping with children's activities. With the opening of the 'belowstairs' project next year, we will need even more volunteers to help us interpret the collections and chat to visitors. If you have some time to spare and love working with and meeting people we would like to hear from you – previous experience isn't necessary but a smile and a love of Harewood is. It is an excellent opportunity to make new friends and to possibly learn a new skill and you can give as little or as much time as you wish. If you think you might be interested in joining the Harewood Volunteer Team please give Sarah Irwin Davis a call on 0113 218 1039.

The Harewood Card at Events

Events – of discounts and disappointments

We are constantly trying to expand and enhance our events programme, which we know plays a major part in your enjoyment of Harewood. In our discussions with event organisers, we always try to ensure free or discounted entry for Harewood Cardholders. The good news is that we are usually successful! The 'bad' news is that there are inevitably variations in discounts between events, and even between the same events in different years. Please always check the details on each event in the general leaflet and in this newsletter, to avoid confusion or disappointment.

Sadly, this year we had other cause for disappointment, in the cancellation by the event organisers of their planned Summer Flower Show. Unfortunately, whilst we made every effort to publicise the cancellation – via the website and through posters displayed on the noticeboards onsite – we realise we did not reach everyone before visiting.

In the future we would like to be able to email you with any changes in the programme and highlight any upcoming events that you may enjoy. If you would like to receive information by email please contact the Card Desk with your Name, Card number and email address on harewoodsales@tiscali.co.uk or 0113 218 1000 (we do not pass on your details on to third parties).

Introduce a friend to the Harewood Card, and if they mention you by name and card number, we will give you a £5 voucher to spend at Harewood (so if you recommend enough people you can have your card for free!).

Please do not lend your Harewood Card out to anyone as it is only valid for your own personal use and is not valid for anyone not named on the card. Constant monitoring and frequent other 'spot-checks' can prove extremely embarrassing when a Card is used fraudulently. The Trust reserves the right to withdraw Cards being used inappropriately.

Gift Aid

Thank you to all of you who have agreed to Harewood claiming Gift Aid on your Harewood Card purchases. This money, reclaimed from the government, is making a big difference to Harewood and allows us to serve you better.

Christmas is coming, the geese are getting...

...lonely, so why not adopt one, or one of the other 100 species in the Bird Garden. It's a Christmas Gift with a real difference for family and friends with the proceeds helping towards looking after one of Harewood's many more species of birds. You will receive a certificate signed by Lord Harewood, a plaque on the bird's enclosure, Stock Press newsletter twice a year and an invitation to a special summer event. Adoptions start at £20.

Alternatively you could buy a Harewood Card which is the ideal Christmas gift to enjoy all year (and to make it even better you can also get a £5 discount for introducing a friend to the scheme).

For more present ideas Harewood's Christmas Shop has an excellent range of seasonal stock with everything from decorations to gifts.

You can also find lots of gift ideas at Live Crafts which makes a welcome return on the 5-7 December (Friday 12pm-9pm, Saturday and Sunday 10am-5pm). There will be a multitude of different stalls in fully carpeted and heated marquees, an ideal opportunity to buy those individual Christmas Gifts away from the hustle and bustle of town. This event is FREE for Harewood Cardholders on Friday and Saturday with £1 off on Sunday.

Seasonal Vacancies 2004

Harewood will soon be recruiting it's team of seasonal staff for 2004. If you are friendly, confident and have the ability to give the best customer care, then there are a variety of interesting positions including Visitor Services Assistants (Full Time Supervisors and Part Time Assistants to work at Visitor Reception and the Harewood Card Desk), Site Services Assistants (setting up and breaking down events and site maintenance), and Events Assistants (on a casual basis to help car parking and ticketing). For more information please call 0113 218 1010 or visit www.harewood.org

Questionnaire

In planning future developments at Harewood it is invaluable to hear from our most regular visitors. Please take a few moments to fill in this questionnaire, to give us your views. All completed questionnaires received by 14 December 2003 will be entered into a prize draw to win a special spa day with beauty treatments at Thorpe Park Hotel & Spa (www.shirehotels.co.uk or 0113 264 1000). Good luck and thanks for your help!
