EXCELLENT ISSUE NO. 2

In The Name of God, The Merciful, The Compassionate

Introduction

Preamble (Explanatory Memorandum) for the Amended Basic Law

Based on Article (111) of the Basic Law, which provides that the Legislative Council has the authority to amend the Basic Law by securing a majority of two-third of its Members. The Council believes that it is necessary to amend the Basic Law, to allow the creation of the Prime Minister Position in the Palestinian National Authority, to transfer his authorities, jurisdiction, and all legal and political controls which regulate his work, as well as define and clarify the form of relationship that links him with the the President of the Palestinian National Authority and the Legislative branch.

This amendment requires re-arrangement of some provisions of the original law. Accordingly, the Title which deals with the authorities of the President of the National Authority is now Title Three in the Amended law. On the other hand, the Title which deals with the Legislative branch has been moved under another title which is Title Four.

However, Article Five which deals with the Council of Ministers, includes the method of forming the cabinet by the Prime Minister, how it obtains the confidence of the Council, the authorities vested in the Council of Ministers and its head, and the form of the relationship between the Prime Minister and the President of the National Authority.

The Council decided during the review of the Amended Law that it is not necessary to add paragraphs or provisions that deals with Prime Minister's presentation of every thing related to the formation, resignation, or ousting the cabinet, to the President of the National Authority, on the basis that it is a political tradition, that does not necessitate putting it in a separate article in the text of the law.
