

*The Honorable
Imam W. Deen Mohammed*

"My Dream is the same as (the dreams of) faithful and loving Jewish, Christian and Buddhist leaders. Our dream is the dream of Scripture. We want to see human society be the best it can possibly be."

*A View Of The Foremost Leader
Of Muslims In America*

W. Deen Mohammed, is the director of the nonprofit ministry, "The Mosque Cares," and the President of CPC/Comtrust LLC (Highlighted in a 1999 issue of the Wall Street Journal). Imam Mohammed's clear representation of true Islamic faith, practice, humanitarian service, and leadership for the establishment of Muslim life in the United States are well documented. In February, 1975 upon the passing of his father the Honorable Elijah Mohammed, Imam Mohammed was unanimously elected the new leader of the Nation of Islam by its leaders and general membership. Through over 25 years of emphasis on the Qur'an, tradition of Mohammed the Prophet, and an inspired strategy reflected in a program of gradual and moderate change designed to correct erroneous religious influences and satisfy the requisites of a truer Islamic identity, he succeeded in transforming the volatile "Black Muslims" into a progressive society of Muslim Americans. They are estimated to be at least 2.5 million people today.

Outdistancing narrow concerns, W. Deen Mohammed's leadership continues to build upon this new and solid religious foundation with concrete plans into the next century for the strengthening of families, neighborhoods, and communities. What better tribute to the Honorable Elijah Mohammed and his harvest of followers and admirers by the son that succeeded him than to have developed and extended the life of his greatest legacy: to build an honest identity for a people who were displaced from their natural human dignity.

A View Of The Foremost Leader Of Muslims In America

- June-2003, Sojourner-Douglass College in Baltimore, MD., conferred its Honorary Doctor of Humane Letters Degree upon Imam Mohammed, who's life achievements were said to have exemplified the mission & purpose of the college.
- April-2002, Reverend Dr. Lawrence E. Carter Sr., of Morehouse inducts Imam Mohammed into the Martin Luther King Jr. International Board of Preachers.
- October-1999, at the invitation of Pope John Paul II, along with world leaders, he addressed an assembly of over 100,000 on the "Eve of the New Millennium" in Rome.
- November-1999, he attended the World Conference of Religions for Peace Assembly VII in Amman, Jordan where he was elected an International President in the United States for W.C.R.P.
- November-1999, he participated in the Jubillenium Interfaith Conference for World Peace in Tiberias, Israel.
- May-1998, he participated in the Conference on Religion & Peace in Auschwitz, Poland, from the Center for Christian-Jewish Understanding of Sacred Heart University, under the direction of Rabbi Joseph H. Ehrenkranz.

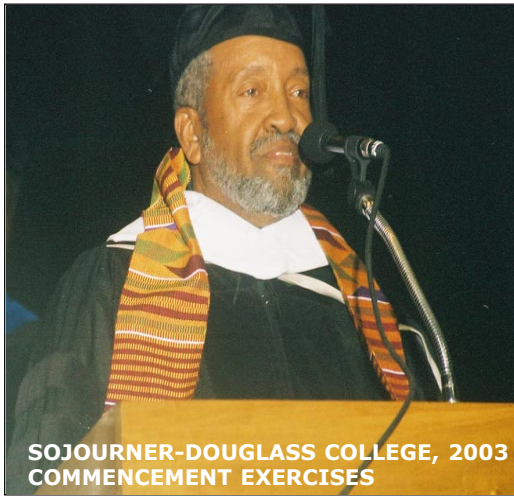

IMAM MOHAMMED'S INTRODUCTION TO POPE JOHN PAUL II,
BY CARDINAL WILLIAM KEELER IN 1996

"All the people of the great religions have been informed by their scriptures of a time coming that is going to require of each of us to respect a relationship with our fellow man that enables us to work together for a world of peace and a world of prosperity."

- June-1998, Imam Mohammed was invited by the leader of the world-wide Focolare Movement, the Hon. Chiara Lubich, to Rome to address the Muslim Friends of the Focolare Conference. Representatives from 24 nations participated.
- January-1997, the Imam was appointed to President Clinton's religious advisory council under the auspices of the U.S. State Department.
- November-1996, in support of the human rights efforts of Reverend Samuel Ruiz Garcia, Bishop of San Cristobal de Las Casas he traveled to Mexico as a member of the Peace Council. Other well known members of the Council include the 15th Dalai Lama, and Reverend Desmond M. Tutu.
- In 1996, he was invited by Egyptian President Hosni Mubarak to address the Supreme Council of Affairs in Cairo on the theme: "Islam and the Future of Dialogue between Civilizations."
- December-1996, he led a delegation of American Muslims to Jerusalem, the West Bank and Gaza, to take part in talks with Palestinian leader, President Yassir Arafat.
- March-1995, he engaged in the first public dialogue between top U.S. leaders of Islam and Reformed Judaism and delivered a keynote address at an historic Muslim-Jewish Convocation, along with Rabbi Alexander M. Schindler, President of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations and head of the Synagogue movement of Reform Judaism in the U.S. and Canada.
- May-1995, the Forbes Forum officials invited Imam Mohammed to address their prestigious annual conference on the topic "How to Save Our Youth."
- December-1994, Hartford Seminary saluted Imam Mohammed for his work in improving Muslim, Christian, and Jewish relations with the distinguished "Cup of Compassion" award.
- February-1992, Imam Mohammed became the first Islamic representative to deliver an invocation on the floor of the United States Senate.

"My interest is to see people appreciating their own life and creation."

*F*or nearly 30 years Imam, Dr. W. Deen Mohammed has addressed societal issues critical to the progress of humanity, sharing a unique perspective inspired by the Islamic faith and the best aspirations reflected within America's diverse legacy of leadership. His addresses have been delivered in many national and international forums, including ones held on prestigious colleges and universities. A short list of those colleges and universities is featured here:

- Duke University
- Morehouse College
- Emory University
- Georgetown University
- Yale University
- Harvard University
- Fordham University
- Smith College
- Sacred Heart University
- University of Notre' Dame
- Florida State University
- University of Miami
- UCLA
- University of Massachusetts
- University of Texas
- University of Pennsylvania
- Ohio State University
- University of Pittsburgh
- Washington University

*A View Of The Foremost Leader
Of Muslims In America*

Imam Dr. W. Deen Mohammed is a true pioneer in the area of substantive public dialogue- promoting cooperative strategies to surmount historic, religious, ethnic, and political obstacles. At the foundation of his nonprofit ministry "The Mosque Cares," rests the interest in community development and for building relationships across the boundaries of race and religion. The ministry also serves as a charity, making contributions to agencies and organizations of goodwill.

Invitations to address audiences on such topics as Religion, Religion & Government, Religion & Public Life, Philosophy, Sociology, Ethics, Diversity, History or any specific interest of a host institution are welcomed. Most visits are cosponsored by University departments, student or professional organizations, and private donors, with sponsors being responsible for an Honorarium, Transportation, and if necessary, Accommodations.

To secure a visit by Imam Mohammed to your university or organization, or for more information, please contact "The Mosque Cares" authorized affiliate in your area or call or write to:

WDM Ministry, "The Mosque Cares"
P.O. Box 1061
Calumet City, IL 60409
Phone: (708) 798-6750
E-Mail: WDMinistry@aol.com