CHART CONFIDENTIAL
By Paul Tuch
paul.tuch@nielsen.com

Aided by high-profile TV appearances last week, including serving as mentor to the contestants on "American Idol," Usher lands the Hot Shot Debut on the Billboard Canadian Hot 100 at No. 23 with "OMG" (Sony Music). The song, which features the Black Eyed Peas' Will.i.am, concurrently starts as the top new entry on the Hot Digital Songs chart, bowing at No. 14 with 5,000 downloads sold. "OMG," which is bubbling under the CHR/Top 40 chart, is the first single from "Raymond V Raymond," which debuts on the Top Albums list at No. 4 (6,000 units). His three prior albums—"8701" (2001), "Confessions" (2004) and "Here I Stand" (2008)—all entered at No. 1.

Charity single "Wavin' Flag" (Universal) from the Canadian collective Young Artists for Haiti spends its fourth consecutive week at No. 1 on the Hot 100 and Hot Digital Songs charts, while edging up the Hot 100 Airplay list 5-4 (15.5 million in audience, up 15%). The track's Hot 100 reign equals the longest for a song by a Canadian act, matching Nikki Yanofsky's "I Believe," the song that "Wavin' Flag" supplanted at No. 1, and Avril Lavigne's "Girlfriend," the No. 1 title when the chart launched in March 2007.

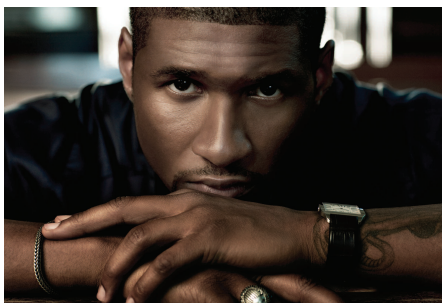

"Break Your Heart" (Universal), the first Hot 100 entry for Taio Cruz, holds at No. 2 with Greatest Gainer/Airplay honours, logging a 20% increase in audience to 13 million impressions and rising 7-6 on Hot 100 Airplay. The cut pushes 7-5 on CHR/Top 40 and vaults 38-21 on Hot AC.

Timbaland's "If We Ever Meet Again" (Universal), featuring Katy Perry, scores Greatest Gainer/Digital accolades, jumping 12-9 on the Hot 100. The song leaps 12-3 on Hot Digital Songs with an 80% increase in downloads (11,000 sold). The song is his seventh Hot 100 top 10, a sum trailing only Rihanna's 11 and Justin Timberlake's eight.

Two songs from veteran artists grow on the Hot 100 without benefit of digital sales. The reunited Stone Temple Pilots lift 85-71 with "Between the Lines" (Warner), which blasts 10-2 on Rock, while Christina Aguilera's "Not Myself Tonight" (Sony Music) debuts at No. 86 after its first week at radio.

The following songs reached BDS Certified spin levels in March. 50,000 spins: the Black Eyed Peas' "I Gotta Feeling" (Universal) and Shaye's "Happy Baby" (EMI); 40,000 spins: Beyoncé's "Halo" (Sony Music), Nickelback's "If Today Was Your Last Day" (EMI), Avril Lavigne's "My Happy Ending" (Sony Music), David Guetta's "Sexy Chick" (EMI) and Simple Plan's "Untitled" (Warner); 30,000 spins: Britney Spears' "Circus" (Sony Music), Cascada's "Evacuate the Dancefloor" (EMI), Michael Bublé's "Haven't Met You Yet" (Warner), Lady Antebellum's "Need You Now" (EMI), Theory of a Deadman's "Not Meant to Be" (Universal), John Mayer's "Say" (Sony Music), Howie Day's "Collide" (Sony Music) and Gretchen Wilson's "Redneck Woman" (Sony Music).

Usher claims the Hot Shot Debut on the Hot 100 and bows at No. 4 on Top Albums.

The most popular songs by emerging Canadian artists according to all-format airplay audience impressions measured by Nielsen BDS and digital sales data compiled by Nielsen SoundScan. To qualify for this chart an artist must a) be Canadian and meet the CRTc 'A' definition (music or lyrics principally performed by a Canadian artist) and b) the selection must qualify as Canadian content (CanCon). Artists are considered emerging until 12 months after the date their first Canadian Hot 100 charting entry reaches the top 40. Artists that pre-date the Hot 100's June 2007 launch are judged on the historic CRTc regulations for Hit and Non-Hit. Once an artist has a title disqualified on these points, their entire catalogue is disqualified. ● Titles showing an increase in overall points over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. ♣ Indicates CanCon. ©2010, e5 Global Media, LLC.

HAIL THE VILLAIN HAS NO 'FEAR'

ARTIST SPOTLIGHT
By Paul Tuch

"Take Back the Fear," the debut single from hard rock quartet Hail the Villain, begins its trek toward the Canada Rock chart, where it's currently bubbling under.

The band, which hails from Oshawa, Ontario, began in 2003 when Bryan Crouch left school and recorded an album under the moniker Mr. Nobody Soon. Crouch played the majority of the instruments himself but needed to form a band to perform the songs live. He enlisted childhood friend Chad Taylor to play bass and brought in guitarist Joseph Stamp and his friend Drew Dockrill to play drums. After a short time as the support band, the three began writing with Crouch and became full-time members.

For the next couple of years, the group worked on its songs, but things came together after meeting producer Darryl Romphf. With 12 songs recorded for the album, the act came up with creating the CD artwork like a comic book and with the help of a production house, shot an animated video for "Take Back the Fear." It also created a comic book and a Web site.

In 2009, the band signed with Warner Music Canada and inked a deal with Roadrunner Records for a U.S. release. The album "Population: Declining" is due this summer. The band is currently touring with Sevendust south of the border.

OK Nozuka

By Robert Thompson, Billboard Canadian Correspondent
 robertthompson8@sympatico.ca

Justin Nozuka's publicists sure know how to raise expectations. In the soulful Canadian's official bio, Radiohead and Jeff Buckley are identified as influences on his second album "You I Wind Land and Sea," released April 14 through Warner Music Canada.

Nozuka says he became interested in both acts after the release of his first album, "Holly" (Warner Music Canada), which sold 12,000 copies in Canada and 77,000 in the United States, according to Nielsen SoundScan.

"They are two artists that have a real essence of spirit in their music," he says. "I think that's why so many people can relate to them, because there's so much expression in what they do."

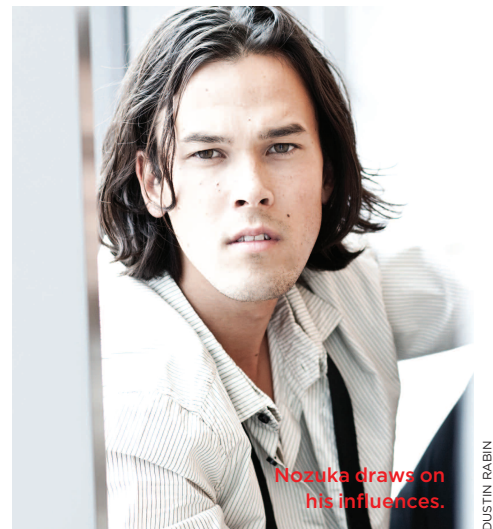

Nozuka says their influence came through in the production of "You I Wind Land and Sea."

"I learned so much from both of them, about keeping the songs naked," he says. While his debut featured session players, this time around Nozuka utilized his regular touring band, which has played with him for the past three years. He says that brought a significant difference to the approach of recording and to the sound of the album.

The singer also participated in the Young Artists for Haiti benefit single, "Wavin' Flag" (Universal Music Canada), a cover of the track by K'Naan. Artists Sam Roberts and Kardinal Offishall were in the studio when Nozuka recorded his part for the track, which tops the Billboard Canadian Hot 100 for a fourth week. "The environment was really nice and it was really cool to meet people that have become friends," he says.
