Celebrating 50 Seasons

VIKINGS STEP UP COMMITMENT TO ENVIRONMENT

In conjunction with the NFL's Green Team, the Vikings unveiled an organization-wide initiative in 2009 dedicated to helping sustain our environment and using renewable energy resources.

The Minnesota Vikings are committed to developing sustainable business practices, utilizing renewable energy sources and implementing environmentally-conscious programs in an effort to lessen our tax on the environment and improve the quality of life in Vikings Country. It is our corporate responsibility as a global citizen to:

- Accept our responsibility to help preserve and replenish our environment
- Educate ourselves and others on the environmental issues we are facing
- Evaluate our consumption of natural resources and energy expenditures
- Develop reasonable alternatives and solutions to bring about a positive change to our impact on the environment

Renewable/Sustainable Stadium Proposal

One goal behind the Vikings new stadium proposal is to create an environmentally-responsible venue by leveraging existing infrastructure and land, implementing green initiatives and striving to become the first LEED-certified NFL stadium. By selecting the current Metrodome site, existing materials can be reused, as can current transportation systems and utility infrastructure. Two opportunities for the new stadium include:

- Re-using the crushed concrete from the Metrodome alone would save nearly 10,000 truckloads of new concrete.
- The unique angle of the proposed retractable roof will be designed to accommodate future Photovoltaic technology (solar panels).

Modular Green Roof at Winter Park

Plastic trays with plants have been placed in front of the air conditioning intake on top of the Winter Park practice facility as an energy-saving measure. The plants create a cooler environment on the roof so that the air conditioning intake temperature in the summer months is around 80 degrees instead of the normal 120 degrees it is without the plants. The result is less energy used during the months when the facility needs to be cooled, which in turn decreases costs and protects the environment.

Zero-Waste Playground Build

The Vikings helped take some "green" ideas off site with the 4th Annual Minnesota Vikings Playground Build in June, 2009. With the help of Toro Company and KaBOOM!, the Vikings participated in a zero-waste playground build at Crestview Elementary School in Brooklyn Park. All materials from the old playground were reused or recycled and all unused material during the build was also recycled.

Waste-Reduction Recycling Program

A recycling program has been instituted at Winter Park that has reduced waste output by 67 percent.

New Lighting System

T5 fluorescent lights have replaced the metal-halide lights used at the facility since 1991, resulting in a 30 percent decrease in energy costs. The new lights also have increased brightness and longevity.

Use of Sustainable Earth Cleaning Products

Corporate Express, the Vikings cleaning products provider, offers friendly commercial cleaning products that provide superior performance. Many of the products are certified by the EPA and Green Seal.

Sustainable Construction Projects and Reduced-Flow Plumbing Fixtures at Winter Park

There is a focus on using recycled materials for new construction projects, reduced-flow plumbing fixtures and energy-efficient lighting. The players' clubhouse area and athletic training area were renovated with reduced-flow plumbing fixtures in 2008.

VIKINGS STADIUM VISION

ELEMENTS OF THE PROPOSED NEW STADIUM INCLUDE:

- 65,000 seats, expandable to 72,000 for Super Bowl and other events
- Up to 7,500 club seats and up to 150 private box suites
- 20,000 parking spaces within one-quarter mile of the new stadium
- Vikings Game Day Plaza comprising approximately 144,000 square feet of land area
- Vikings Hall of Fame and Vikings Team Store

STADIUM CONSTRUCTION BENEFITS ECONOMY DURING TOUGH ECONOMIC TIMES

Presented to the House Local Government Committee on 2/23/09

In February 2009, the Metropolitan Sports Facilities Commission released the findings of a jobs and economic impact analysis by Conventions, Sports & Leisure, International (CSL), which showed the construction and operation of a new stadium and the Minnesota Vikings franchise provides significant economic benefits to the State of Minnesota.

Key findings of the CSL report included:

- The construction of a new stadium will support approximately 13,000 jobs, including 7,500 construction and trades workers that would be utilized during the building process.
- Upon completion of the stadium, 3,400 full and part-time jobs will be supported by the economic activity generated by a new stadium and the Vikings.
- The economic activity from a new stadium will generate over $21 million per year in tax revenue, which includes the $18 million annually generated by the Vikings. In 2009, the Vikings paid more than $18 million in taxes in Minnesota, through property, income and sales taxes.

VIKINGS STADIUM VISION

As committed as the Vikings are to bringing a Super Bowl championship to the fans and to the State, the franchise is equally devoted to securing a long-term home for the team in Minnesota. The Vikings remain one of just a few NFL franchises without a stadium solution, a top priority for both the organization and the National Football League.

Due to the challenges of the Metrodome, the team currently ranks at the bottom of the NFL in stadium revenues, making it difficult for the Vikings to remain competitive. With just 10 games left in the Metrodome following the 2010 season and a lease set to expire after 2011, there is urgency for State leaders to act.

Following the conclusion of the 2010 Legislative Session, the Vikings expressed their disappointment to State leaders for their lack of action on the stadium issue. While the team respects the challenges and priorities facing the State of Minnesota, the delay has now pushed the issue into the final year of the lease and has added significantly to the overall cost. Recently, however, a bi-partisan group of legislators has stepped up to work on securing the future of the team in Minnesota, acknowledging that having an NFL team requires a stadium solution. The Vikings are working with that group, as well as with business, labor and community leaders on resolving the issue in 2011.

Building a new home for Vikings football will dramatically improve the fan experience at games, help the franchise meet basic NFL program requirements and generate the revenue needed to keep the team competitive over the long term. Addressing the issue now will also give the State a publicly-owned, multi-use facility to be used year round, keep the Vikings in Minnesota for the next generation and provide much-needed employment and economic activity.

HOW YOU CAN HELP:

Much work remains between now and the 2010 Legislative Session, and the Vikings need your help. You can help by:

- Joining Minnesota Momentum, the grassroots coalition of stadium supporters (www.minnesotamomentum.com).
- Contacting your elected officials and encouraging them to support a stadium solution in 2010.

VIKINGS CHILDREN'S FUND

There have been many changes on and off the field for the Minnesota Vikings since the team's inception, but the organization's steadfast commitment to children has always remained the same.

In light of the organization's commitment to community, the Vikings Children's Fund (VCF) was established in 1978 and has since raised over $8 million to give back to those in need. The VCF is a means for Vikings players, coaches, cheerleaders, staff and their families to focus their community support to help children. The VCF distributes grants to health, education and family services organizations benefiting children.

In 2009 the VCF provided more than 120 grants to nonprofit organizations, including $205,000 to the University of Minnesota Department of Pediatrics. In total, the VCF has donated more than $5 million to support the University of Minnesota Department of Pediatrics, which boasts highly-skilled pediatricians and excels in break-through research.

To learn more about the VCF - or to make a donation - please call Patrick Leopold at (952) 828-6500. If your charitable organization is interested in applying for a VCF grant, log on to Vikings.com to download a grant application form. Grant applications need to be mailed by the end of March each year for fall awards.

VIKING CHILDREN'S FUND FACTS AND FIGURES

- The University of Minnesota Department of Pediatrics has been awarded over $4.5 million to support research fighting childhood diseases.
- The Vikings Children's Fund supported over 50 organizations in 2009.
- The Vikings Children's Fund has supported over 300 child-related organizations across Vikings country since the inception in 1978.

The Vikings have a long-standing tradition of cooperation and progress in the areas of child and family health with the University of Minnesota. The Vikings donation to the Department of Pediatrics in 2008 was a signature moment for the Vikings Children's Fund and the University.

The Vikings Youth Football mission statement is to grow, support and promote youth football through fair play, health/wellness and academics. Innovative programs reach youngsters and encourage them to be their best on and off the field through the High School Player Development 7-on-7 Tournament, Youth Football Camps, USA Football Coaching School, equipment and field grants, the Vikings All-State Football Team and Minnesota Mr. Football, the High School Coach of the Week Program and the High School Coach of the Year.

CLOCKWISE: The Vikings welcome youth football teams from across the state to play before Vikings games as part of the Vikings of the Future program...The Vikings honor an All-State team annually and recognize the squad at halftime of a home game...Giving youth coaches first-rate coaching tips keeps the future of the game bright and is the goal of the Vikings youth coaching and player development programs.

VIKINGS IN THE COMMUNITY

THE MINNESOTA VIKINGS "ON THE FIELD AND IN THE COMMUNITY – YOUR SPECIAL TEAM"

The Minnesota Vikings are more than a football team. The coaches, players and staff are your neighbors. Their wives or husbands may be your co-workers. Their children attend school with your children. The Vikings are a part of our community. Many schools, hospital charities and civic groups have been impacted by player involvement, staff participation and family volunteerism.

The Vikings organization is your neighbor too, as a corporate citizen actively involved in policy and service to Minnesota. The Vikings community relations department and Vikings Children's Fund handle a broad range of requests including player appearances, in-kind donations, partnering with non-profit groups on fundraisers, the production of public service announcements and team philanthropy. Since its inception in 1978, the VCF has donated more than $4.5 million to the University of Minnesota Department of Pediatrics. The VCF has maintained a commitment to youth and families by distributing funds toward youth development, family services and education support—total of over $8 million given back to our community.

VIKINGS IN THE COMMUNITY

CLOCKWISE: Sidney Rice reached out to a local family whose daughter was battling cancer and invited them to the Vikings-Cowboys game in the Divisional Playoffs. Rice had the family attend the closed Saturday practice at Winter Park the day before the game where they met Rice's teammates and shared encouragement. Rice went on to tie an NFL record the next day against Dallas with 3 TD catches in a playoff game...Phil Loadholt and Bryant McKinnie visited Owatonna elementary school students to deliver a message about living an active lifestyle and staying physically fit as part of the Vikings "You Made the Team" Community Tour, a program that has visited 12 communities in the past 3 years...Adrian Peterson and Brett Favre welcomed special visitors to a Vikings practice at Winter Park. During his storied career, Favre has granted over 200 Make-A-Wish experiences and continued to work with the organization during the 2009 season with the Vikings.

VIKINGS IN THE COMMUNITY

CLOCKWISE: The Vikings came out in force to promote environmental awareness at Jenny Lind School in Minneapolis, joining students in a tree-planting activity at Bohanon Park. The event highlighted the Vikings Planet Purple initiative aimed at focus on the environment. The Vikings have been on the leading edge of environmental awareness in the work place. Organization-wide the team has reduced waste, increased re-using of resources and making a strong effort to be energy-conscious...Chris Clark and teammates joined the Minnesota Department of Natural Resources' MinnAqua program to get kids from the FAIR School involved in fishing at Fort Snelling State Park. The players helped young people learn proper casting techniques, fishing safety and conservation principles...Visanthe Shiancoe and Sidney Rice travelled with Vikings owner Zygi Wilf to Austin, MN as part of the ongoing "You Made The Team" Community Tour. The Vikings taught lessons about living a healthy and active lifestyle to children at a gathering at the YMCA.

VIKINGS IN THE COMMUNITY

CLOCKWISE: Fred Evans, Ryan Cook and Heath Farwell showed they're cool with tools at the Vikings annual Playground Build. The entire organization came together to build a new playground for students at Nellie Stone Johnson school in Minneapolis... Cullen Loeffler and teammates partnered with Cheerful Givers to pack 300 birthday gift bags with toys, books and treats for less fortunate families in the Twin Cities. Cheerful Givers was founded with the goal of giving every child a happy birthday...Vikings alumni are active in the community and serve as ambassadors for the team. Pro Football Hall of Famer John Randle visited the Blue Earth County Fair in Amboy, MN during the summer of 2009...Rookie CB Chris Cook got an early start working with the Twin Cities community, helping at the annual Vikings Punt, Pass and Kick event with Special Olympics Minnesota. Cook and teammates showed competitors the finer points of each skill at Winter Park in June 2010.

VIKINGS IN THE COMMUNITY

CLOCKWISE: Vikings present and past, Chad Greenway and Ring of Honor inductee Chuck Foreman, assisted with the annual Memorial Blood Centers drive...The Vikings routinely welcome troops at practice and were visited by Air Force Technical Sergeant Chuck Smisek during the 2009 season. Smisek returned the favor by presenting the team with a United States flag that had flown over Kirkuk, Iraq in honor of the Vikings to defensive backs Asher Allen and Antoine Winfield... E.J. Henderson was recognized for his commitment to community by being named the Minnesota Vikings 2009 Community Man of the Year. Henderson has long been active with several outreach programs, but stepped his volunteerism up to a new level as he expanded programs through his E.J. Henderson Youth Foundation to benefit underserved Twin Cities urban youth, an effort that was aided by a $100,000 personal donation. Henderson joined teammates in June 2010 visiting National Guard troops at Camp Ripley in northern Minnesota, getting an up-close look at Guard life.

ZYGI WILF

OWNER/CHAIRMAN

Zygi Wilf and his partners have relied on consistency and investment in building a winner in every aspect of their six-year ownership of the Minnesota Vikings. The Wilf family and the ownership group has worked diligently at making the Vikings an important part of the fabric of the Upper Midwest.

The Vikings are fresh off a 2009 season that took them to the steps of the NFL's biggest stage for the first time in a decade and captured back-to-back division titles for the first time in 32 years. The club won the NFC North Division for a second straight year and advanced to the NFC Championship in one of the most exciting and successful seasons in team history. The team featured 10 players who earned Pro Bowl berths.

As the franchise enters the 2010 season, a strong foundation has been established for success on the field and with civic and corporate leadership in the community. Over the last five years, the team has enhanced its already strong reputation as an NFL leader in community relations activities and has raised its level of involvement in the region. Under the stewardship of the Wilfs, the franchise has taken strides forward on the initiative for a state-of-the-art, multi-use stadium as the centerpiece of an economic development package for the state and region. The Vikings ownership is committed to investing in the state's economy and is dedicated to a world-class showcase for Minnesota's sporting future.

Wilf leads an ownership group that closely mirrors the structure that has led the Wilf family to national prominence in their business ventures with Garden Homes Development, a nationwide leader in retail, commercial and private residential development. Joining Wilf in the Vikings venture are his brother, Mark, cousin, Leonard, and nephew, Jeffrey, along with several associates from outside the family.

The journey for Wilf from avid New York Giants fan sitting in the bleachers of Yankee Stadium in the 1960s to taking over the leadership of one of the NFL's proudest franchises has been marked by bold and well-founded business decisions, commitment to family and employees, and dedication to community.

Throughout the Wilf family's rise to prominence in real estate development, the consistent focus on philanthropy and never losing touch with family roots has been a foundation and philosophy.

Building a championship team with character has been at the core of the Wilf ownership group's growth as NFL owners. The Wilf family has stayed close to their roots, donating generously to heart-felt causes at home and throughout the world.

Wilf, the son of Joseph and Elizabeth Wilf, emigrated with his parents from Europe to the United States in the early 1950s and settled in New Jersey.

Zygi attended nearby Fairleigh Dickinson University, earning a bachelor's degree in economics and later graduated from New York Law School in Manhattan. Wilf, 60, and wife, Audrey, have four children.

Vikings owner Zygi Wilf presented 2009 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee Randall McDaniel to the home crowd at halftime of the Vikings-Packers game on Monday Night Football on 10/5/09. As the Wilf Family enters their 6th season as stewards of the Vikings franchise, the connection between the team and the fans has never been stronger.

MARK WILF

OWNER/PRESIDENT

As the Vikings approach the 2010 season, team President Mark Wilf has played a key role in the development of the business aspects of the club and organizing the leadership of the franchise to mirror the proven family model that the Wilf family has implemented in other successful ventures. As President, Mark manages day-to-day operations and directs all business departments of the Vikings.

The Vikings will play their 50th season on the field in the fall of 2010 and the Wilf family ownership group enters its 6th in supervision of the franchise. Following a 2009 season that saw the team reach its 7th NFC Championship Game and first since 2000, as well as winning back-to-back division titles for the first time in 32 years, Wilf continues to strive for the franchise's first Super Bowl title. The connection between the fans and the team continues to deepen as the "You Made the Team" Community Tour grows more popular and purposeful.

Along with dramatic facility upgrades at Winter Park since taking over the team, the ownership group has prided itself on improving the identity and atmosphere associated with the franchise. The Vikings have been a valuable part of the fabric of life in the region since beginning play in 1961. The Wilf family takes pride in building on the strong tradition of community involvement the franchise has been known for.

The Wilfs lead an ownership group that closely mirrors the structure that has led the Wilf family to national prominence in their business ventures with Garden Homes Development, a nationwide leader in retail, commercial and private residential development.

An NFL franchise is a valuable commodity to a community and the Wilf ownership group recognizes and embraces the role as a civic leader. Under Mark Wilf's direction, the Vikings have taken a more prominent role as a business and community leader and have embraced their fans and partners locally and worldwide.

Another lifelong fan of the NFL, Mark brings the same passion and desire to succeed in professional football as his elder sibling, Zygi. Throughout their professional lives, the brothers have worked tirelessly to involve everyone associated in their businesses as members of the family. The Minnesota Vikings are especially close to the family's heart with the opportunity to be actively engaged in the game they grew up passionately following. Mark Wilf has been actively involved with the Wilf family's Garden Homes Development enterprises and has served as a principal in the family business.

A long-time fan of college and professional football, Wilf is no stranger to the game or the thrill of competition. During his collegiate years, Mark served as the radio voice of Princeton Tigers football and basketball. Wilf earned his bachelor's degree from Princeton University and later graduated from the New York University School of Law. The Wilf family tradition of generous philanthropy and advancing causes with special meaning has been passed through the generations.

Wilf, 48, and wife, Jane, have four children. The couple is actively involved in several causes close to the heart of the Wilf family.

The Wilf Family has provided the foundation for the Vikings to climb among the leaders in the NFL. The Vikings have won back-to-back NFC North titles in 2008 and 2009 and the club has 22 victories in those seasons, the most in the NFC over that span and the 2nd-most in the NFL.

LEONARD WILF

OWNER/VICE CHAIRMAN

Leonard Wilf joins cousins Zygi and Mark Wilf with the Vikings ownership group as Vice Chairman of the team for the sixth season in 2010. Away from the Vikings, Wilf also serves as President of family-owned Garden Homes Development, a nationwide leader in retail, commercial and private residential development based in New Jersey.

Wilf earned his bachelor's degree, Cum Laude, from Boston University. Following his undergraduate work, Wilf graduated with a law degree from Georgetown University.

During his tenure at Georgetown, Wilf was editor of the Georgetown Law Review. Wilf went on to receive a Master of Law in Taxation from New York University.

Active with several professional and civic groups, Wilf is Vice Chairman on the Board of Trustees of NYU and the NYU

Law School. He is a member of the New Jersey, New York and American Bar Associations. Wilf serves as Chairman of the American Society of Yad Vashem, a Board Member of New York Presbyterian Hospital and Allen-Stevenson School. He is an involved member of the International Council of Shopping Centers, New York Athletic Club and Friars Club.

Wilf and his wife, Beth, have four children and are active members of the community through the First Tee Program, Central Park Conservancy and Metropolitan Opera. ## LESTER BAGLEY

VICE PRESIDENT OF PUBLIC AFFAIRS & STADIUM DEVELOPMENT

Lester Bagley brings more than two decades of public affairs experience in his role as the Vikings Vice President of Public Affairs and Stadium Development. Currently in his 6th year as a vice president, Bagley oversees the team's public relations, public affairs, community relations and charitable giving initiatives. Along with a prominent role in external relations, he also directs internal communications for the team and has spearheaded the efforts to restructure the Vikings Children's Fund and enhance community outreach and youth football programs.

Bagley also leads the Vikings quest to finance and build a new stadium, an effort that is a top priority for the team and the National Football League. With the Metrodome lease set to expire after the 2011 season, Bagley and the Vikings are working with elected officials, business, labor and community leaders in an effort to construct a new publicly-owned facility as part of a broader economic development proposal. Building a new home for Vikings football will enhance the game day experience for fans and generate the necessary revenue to keep the team competitive over the long term. Bagley is charged with overseeing the public affairs and stadium development team that is working diligently to bring Minnesota this world-class, multi-purpose venue.

Over the last several years, Bagley has been instrumental in the Wilf ownership group's efforts to enhance the Vikings presence in the Twin Cities community and throughout the state. He leads the Vikings "You Made The Team" Community Tour, which connects the team with Vikings fans and charitable causes throughout Greater Minnesota. This ownership initiative has taken Vikings players and personnel into 12 different communities across the state over the past three years. Bagley also helped develop the Vikings Board of Advisors, a club initiative aimed at increasing the organization's interaction with Minnesota's CEO-level civic and business leaders.

Before joining the Vikings, Bagley operated Bagley Public Affairs from 1999-2005. The Minneapolis firm specialized in issues management, public relations and public affairs. From 1993-99, Bagley served as associate director and helped lead the Minnesota Business Partnership, the public policy organization comprised of the chief executive officers of 100 of Minnesota's largest companies. He also spent five years working in public affairs and public relations in Washington D.C.

A native of Barron, WI, Bagley began college at the University of Minnesota before graduating from the University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA) with a bachelor's degree in political science. He served as a White House intern and studied at Oxford University during his undergraduate days.

Bagley currently sits on the boards of the Public Affairs Council, Athletes Committed to Educating Students (ACES), the Minneapolis Regional Chamber of Commerce, Meet Minneapolis and the Vikings Children's Fund.

Bagley's wife, Wendy, who has a bachelor's degree from the College of St. Catherine, has served on the staffs of three successive Minnesota governors. The couple resides in Minneapolis with their sons, Michael and Charles.

ROB BRZEZINSKI

VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

As Rob Brzezinski enters his 18th season in the NFL and 12th with the Minnesota Vikings in 2010, the team's strategic salary cap management has significantly contributed to the retention of core players, the addition of key free agents and the overall talent and depth of the team. Brzezinski joined the Vikings in 1999 as Director of Football Administration and was promoted to Vice President of Football Administration in 2001. He was elevated to his current position as Vice President of Football Operations in 2002.

The foundation of the Vikings team that has won the most games in the NFC (22) since 2008 and has won back-to-back NFC North titles remains strong in 2010 due to careful and calculated planning and being prepared for the unexpected in the modern NFL.

The Vikings have been aggressive and have had success in recent free agency and via trade, adding future Pro Bowlers in nearly every offseason since 2004 with CB Antoine Winfield (2004), DT Pat Williams (2005), G Steve Hutchinson (2006), DE Jared Allen (trade, 2008) and QB Brett Favre (2009). The Vikings also acquired key players on the 2008 and 2009 NFC North title teams through free agency with LB Ben Leber, RB Chester Taylor and K Ryan Longwell all joining Hutchinson in the 2006 free agent class, TE Visanthe Shiancoe joined the club in 2007 and WR Bernard Berrian in 2008 and in 2009 retained free agent special teams standout Heath Farwell, who went on to earn Pro Bowl honors that season.

Prior to joining the Vikings, Brzezinski spent the previous six seasons (1993-98) with the Miami Dolphins where he advanced to the position of Staff Counsel/Salary Cap. Brzezinski has been involved with teams that have finished .500 or better in 14 of his 17 seasons in the NFL, have made the playoffs 9 times and have won a Division title 4 times. During the salary cap era of the NFL (1994-2009), both the Dolphins and Vikings are among the NFL's best in winning percentage and playoff appearances.

In his current role, Brzezinski works closely with Head Coach Brad Childress and Vice President of Player Personnel Rick Spielman on football-related strategic planning. Brzezinski is also responsible for salary cap management, negotiation of player contracts, football operations and administration, team operations, medical and training staff, equipment, video, and player development. He has also represented the Vikings at the League meetings.

Brzezinski has NFL management experience in nearly every area critical to operating a successful NFL franchise. He has worked as the top football executive, has experience running a player personnel department, and has researched, developed and implemented processes and technology for the efficient management of pro and college scouting, including the college draft. Brzezinski also has experience in managing the business operations of an NFL franchise and, while in Minnesota, has transformed a substantial salary cap deficit into a long-term competitive advantage. Brzezinski has had the privilege of working for some of the most successful and decorated head coaches in NFL history, including Don Shula, Jimmy Johnson and Dennis Green. In 2006, Brzezinski played a significant role in the head coaching search and interview process that resulted in the hiring of Brad Childress, the first of 10 head coach hirings in the NFL that season.

Brzezinski is a member of the NFL Management Council's Club Services Committee, which has developed new technology and systems for player contract reporting, salary cap management and information management. In 2004 Brzezinski was invited to participate in the NFL-Stanford Program for Managers at the Stanford Graduate School of Business, a program developed by the NFL to promote development of leaders within the League.

In Miami, Brzezinski assisted in managing business affairs, which included salary cap administration, player contract negotiations, operations and legal affairs. In his tenure, the Dolphins compiled a 55-41 regular-season record and made the playoffs four times.

Brzezinski earned degrees from Nova Southeastern University in Fort Lauderdale, a Juris Doctorate in 1995 and a Bachelor of Science in education in 1992. In addition, Brzezinski is a member of the Florida Bar. Brzezinski and his wife, Leah, who has earned a doctoral degree in education, have 4 children: Ki, Jae, Grace and Anna. The Brzezinski family resides in Edina is very active in the community raising money and awareness for adoption-related causes.

STEVE LACROIX

VICE PRESIDENT OF SALES & MARKETING & CHIEF MARKETING OFFICER

Steve LaCroix enters his 10th season with the Vikings in 2010 as the team's Vice President of Sales and Marketing & Chief Marketing Officer. LaCroix oversees all aspects of Vikings generated revenues, including corporate sales, sponsorships, media sales, ticket sales, suite sales and hospitality. LaCroix also leads the team's marketing, radio and television programming, websites, new media initiatives, merchandise and e-commerce operations, community and special events, marketing partnerships, advertising, branding, promotions, fan relations and game day activities.

The Vikings business efforts kept pace with the success of the team on the field in 2009. The team reached a precedent-setting naming rights partnership for the home field of the Vikings, renaming the facility Mall of America Field at Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome. As the only remaining tenant, the Vikings also launched a rebranding of Mall of America Field by securing entry gate signage naming rights partnerships with Caribou Coffee (Gate F) and Minnesota Army National Guard (Gate H). LaCroix has led the team to record-setting sales revenues each year in his tenure with the Vikings and cultivated new partnerships with the business community throughout Minnesota and the Upper Midwest. In 2009, the Vikings continued their home game sellout streak to now reach 126 straight games.

The Vikings were poised to make the most of legendary free agent Brett Favre signing with the team in mid-August. The team sold over 4,000 season tickets and 15,000 single-game tickets in the 72 hours after Favre's signing. The Vikings already large TV and radio audiences received a boost as well. The Vikings-Packers game on Monday Night Football in at Mall of America Field was the most-watched event in the history of cable TV and the game at Lambeau Field four weeks later was the 2nd-most-watched regular season game in NFL history.

In LaCroix's tenure, he has led a variety of additional new initiatives. The team has introduced a new, more modern design of the Vikings traditional uniforms and the addition of throwback uniforms. The club has brought radio and television broadcast rights in-house, created the Vikings Entertainment Network (VEN) and started year-round weekly television and radio programming. The team has had multiple full re-designs of Vikings.com, opened three Vikings Locker Room official retail stores and constructed two club seating offerings (TicketExchange Touchdown Club and Samsung Legends Club) that created the first premium seat offering at Mall of America Field. Fans have been treated to the introduction of Viktor the Vikings, the team's official mascot, and the Skol Line drum line. Several new fan events, including Inside the Vikings, State of the Vikings and Vikings Fan Forums connect the club with the fans. The team will engage in the 50th Season Celebration in 2010, honoring the Vikings history.

LaCroix has served on the NFL Club Business Working Group comprised of eight club executives to help shape strategies for implementing league and club initiatives. LaCroix has served for several years on the Steering Committee of the National Sports Forum, the sports industry's leading annual conference. In 2005, LaCroix was invited to participate in the NFL-Stanford Program for Managers at the Stanford Graduate School of Business, a program developed by the NFL to promote development of leaders within the League.

LaCroix's charitable involvement includes serving as Treasurer of the Viking Children's Fund, which has raised over $9 million since 1978 benefiting children's health, education and family services throughout the Upper Midwest, including the University of Minnesota Department of Pediatrics. LaCroix also serves on the Local Advisory Board of Clear Channel, as well as the Board of Directors, Executive Committees and Marketing Committee Chairs of Hunger Related Events/Taste of the NFL - a national hunger relief organization and Summit Academy OIC - a Twin Cities non-profit vocational and educational training center.

Prior to joining the Vikings, LaCroix worked as the Director of Sponsorship Sales for Pacers Sports and Entertainment in Indianapolis, IN from 1999-00. His main responsibilities included overseeing the corporate sales efforts for the National Basketball Association's Indiana Pacers, the WNBA's Indiana Fever and other sports and entertainment events held at Conseco Fieldhouse, for which he negotiated the naming rights deal.

During LaCroix's tenure with Pacers Sports and Entertainment, which began in 1991 as a sales representative, the organization saw dramatic increases in sponsorship, ticket sales and other major corporate partnerships.

LaCroix earned his bachelor's degree at the University of Iowa and his master's at Western Illinois University. Steve and wife Sue, who holds her bachelor's degree in nursing from the University of Iowa, have two children, Katie and Alex. The LaCroix family resides in Minnetonka.

STEVE POPPEN

VICE PRESIDENT OF FINANCE &
CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Steve Poppen begins his 12th season with the Vikings in 2010, currently serving as Vice President of Finance & Chief Financial Officer. Poppen joined the Vikings in 1999 and is responsible for all financial aspects of the team including business planning, budgeting, day-to-day financial and administrative operations, human resources, information technology, facilities, new stadium project financing and is the team liaison with the Metropolitan Sports Facilities Commission.

A native of Watertown, SD, Poppen spent eight years before joining the Vikings as a Certified Public Accountant in the business assurance group of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP in Kansas City. In 2006 Poppen participated in the NFL-Stanford Program for Managers at the Stanford Graduate School of Business, a program developed by the NFL to promote growth of leaders within the League. Poppen helped engineer the dramatic renovations to Winter Park during the 2006 off-season that featured a total remake of the locker room and equipment facilities and upgrade of the athletic training areas. In 2009, he joined the NFL's Green Committee to enhance environmental awareness among clubs. Poppen has been key in the Vikings Planet Purple internal initiatives to operate the franchise in a more Earth-friendly way.

Poppen received his bachelor's degree in accounting from Evangel University in Springfield, MO in 1991. An active member of his community, Poppen serves on the board of Minnesota Teen Challenge, a faith-based drug and alcohol rehabilitation program for Minnesota adults and teens. Poppen serves on the board of the Minneapolis Downtown Council, an organization promoting business development in downtown Minneapolis, and holds a position with the Minnesota State Fair Foundation board of directors and serves as the chair of the Audit Committee. The State Fair Foundation was created to preserve and improve the historic Minnesota State Fair buildings and grounds and support State Fair educational, scientific and agricultural programs.

Poppen and his wife Christy, who holds a bachelor's degree in elementary education from Evangel, have four children, Natalie, Andrew, Nathan and Avery. The Poppen family resides in Chanhassen.

RICK SPIELMAN

VICE PRESIDENT OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

With two decades of NFL personnel experience, Rick Spielman begins the 2010 season with the Vikings on the heels of some of the most successful player acquisition periods in team history.

The Vikings have won consecutive NFC North titles the past 2 seasons, a feat not accomplished by the Vikings since 1977-78. The Vikings have won the most games (22) in the NFC over the past 2 seasons and have made a series of strong moves in free agency, drafting and trades. Spielman begins his 20th season as an NFL executive with his 4th franchise in 2010. Spielman's teams have won 5 divisional titles and advanced to the playoffs 8 times. Spielman assumed the Vikings' Vice President of Player Personnel role on May 30, 2006 and is responsible for overseeing the Vikings' pro and college scouting departments.

The Vikings boasted an NFL-best 10 players who earned Pro Bowl honors in 2009 and the team featured the NFL's Rookie of the Year for the 2nd time in the past 3 seasons when Percy Harvin followed in the footsteps of Adrian Peterson from 2007. Harvin was part of a 5-member 2009 Vikings draft class that also featured fellow All-Rookie team honoree RT Phil Loadholt and had all 5 members start at least 1 game during the season.

The 2009 Vikings benefitted from talent and depth built over recent seasons. Of the Vikings 10 Pro Bowlers in 2009, 9 of the players were drafted, acquired by trade or free agency or received contract extensions under Spielman's watch.

Spielman has climbed the ranks of NFL personnel departments with Detroit, Chicago and Miami, ascending to General Manager of the Dolphins for the 2004 season. Spielman's tenure with all 3 franchises has been highlighted by drafting impact players throughout the seven rounds and making key trades and free agency acquisitions.

He began his NFL career as a scout with Detroit in 1990 and worked with the club in college scouting for 5 seasons before adding pro scouting duties in 1995 and '96. He moved to Director of Pro Personnel for the Bears from 1997-99 before joining the Dolphins in 2000 as Vice President of Player Personnel. He was promoted in 2002 to Senior Vice President-Football Operations/Player Personnel and eventually General Manager in 2004. Spielman left the Dolphins during the 2005 off-season and worked with ESPN as an NFL analyst before joining the Vikings. While with Miami for 5 seasons, the team had a winning record 4 times, won the AFC East in 2000 and went to the playoffs in 2000 and 2001 but missed the playoffs in 2002 and 2003 despite 9-7 and 10-6 records respectively. The team drafted its top WR, Chris Chambers, in 2001 and traded for RB Ricky Williams in 2002. Williams posted the top two single-season rushing marks in Miami history with 1,853 yards in 2002 and 1,372 in 2003.

The Dolphins' 2005 draft class included 1st-round RB Ronnie Brown, who led the team in rushing with 907 yards and ranked 2nd among all NFL rookies. Joining the impressive rookie group was LB Channing Crowder (3rd round) and CB Travis Daniels (4th round), who both went on to start 14 games in 2005 and finished the season ranked 2nd and 5th on the team in tackles respectively. During his 3 seasons with Chicago the team amassed some of the talent that has propelled the team to the top of the NFC North and found gems late in the draft. The 2000 draft class featured the core of the Bears defense in future years with 6-time Pro Bowler and NFL Defensive Player of the Year LB Brian Urlacher selected in the 1st round and Pro Bowl S Mike Brown, the Bears all-time leader in defensive TDs, drafted in the 2nd round. The team selected perennial Pro Bowl C Olin Kreutz in the 3rd round of the 1998 draft and followed with a 3rd-round find in 1999 by taking WR Marty Booker. The team uncovered 4th-rounders LB Roosevelt Colvin (1999) and LB Warrick Holdman (1999) along with CB Jerry Azumah in the 5th round (1999). The team traded a 7th-round pick in 1999 to arch-rival Green Bay for KR Glyn Milburn, who went on to the Pro Bowl that season. Spielman got his first taste of NFL personnel analysis as a college scout with Detroit from 1990-94 and added pro scouting responsibilities for his final 2 seasons (1995-96) in the Motor City. The Lions enjoyed one of the finest stretches in franchise history in the early 1990s, winning a pair of NFC Central titles in 1991 and 1993 and the team advanced to the playoffs in 1991, '93, '94 and '95. The trio of consecutive post-season berths was a first for the team. The 1991 team set a franchise record with a 12-4 regular season mark, hosted and won a playoff game for the first time since 1957 and advanced to the NFC Championship Game against Washington, losing out on the chance to play in Super Bowl XXVI at the Metrodome. The Lions drafted well during Spielman's tenure, selecting the core talent for the team and several players who earned regular Pro Bowl accolades. The club drafted WR Herman Moore in the 1st round of the 1991 draft and he went on to four Pro Bowl berths while defensive linemen Robert Porcher and Luther Elliss were 1st-round picks in 1992 and 1995 respectively and each earned multiple trips to Hawaii. The 1995 draft class was especially deep, featuring Elliss, TE David Sloan (2nd round), LB Stephen Boyd (3rd round) and FB Cory Schlesinger (6th round). Elliss, Sloan and Boyd have been Pro Bowlers while Schlesinger was a 3-time Pro Bowl alternate. The team drafted Lions career scoring leader K Jason Hanson in 1992 (2nd round), who has earned a reputation as one of the top kickers of his era.

Following Spielman's playing career at Southern Illinois from 1983-86 he was invited to training camp with the San Diego Chargers (1987) and Lions (1988). As a collegiate player, Spielman was a 1st-Team All-Gateway Conference honoree as a junior and part of the 1983 NCAA Division I-AA national championship team as a redshirt freshman. His younger brother, Chris, was a Pro Bowl LB and a 2nd-round pick of the Lions in 1988. He played 11 NFL seasons with Detroit (1988-95) and Buffalo (1996-98).

Spielman has a bachelor's degree from Southern Illinois and a master's from Ohio State. He and his wife, Michele, have been active with children's charities. The couple has adopted six children, Juan, Luis, Ronnie, J.D., Omie and Whitney.

KEVIN WARREN

VICE PRESIDENT OF LEGAL AFFAIRS & CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER

Kevin Warren's extensive background in athletics and unique perspective in both law and business have been instrumental to the Wilf family ownership group for the entire 6 seasons of their stewardship of the Minnesota Vikings.

Warren enters his 12th season in the NFL and his 6th with the Vikings in 2010. Warren is the Vikings' Vice President of Legal Affairs & Chief Administrative Officer with responsibility for various day-to-day business operational and administrative issues, special projects, legal affairs and strategic planning, while also serving as the Vikings' primary liaison with the NFL.

The 2009 Vikings won a 2nd-straight NFC North title and advanced to the NFC Championship game for the 1st time in a decade. Off the field, the popularity of the team reached new heights. The club entered into a new naming rights partnership for Mall of America Field at HHH Metrodome during the season and launched naming rights deals for individual gates at the stadium.

Prior to joining the Vikings, during 2003-05, Warren worked with the international law firm of Greenberg Traurig, including working with the Wilf ownership group during their acquisition of the Vikings. Warren spent 2001-03 with the Detroit Lions as Senior Vice President of Business Operations & General Counsel. While working with the Lions, he was recognized by Crain's Detroit Business on their "40 Under 40" list, recognizing the top 40 Detroit business leaders under the age of 40. Prior to joining the Vikings' NFC North rivals in Detroit, Warren worked from 1997-2001 with the St. Louis Rams, including the Rams' Super Bowl XXXIV championship over the Tennessee Titans. During his tenure with St. Louis, Warren served as Vice President of Football Administration in 2001 after working as Vice President of Football Programs & Football Legal Counsel from 1997-2000.

Following his graduation from law school, Warren's first exposure to sports law came when he worked with an Overland Park, KS law firm that specialized in representing universities charged with NCAA violations. Warren also worked as a sports and entertainment attorney/agent, representing various professional athletes and entertainers.

Warren's involvement in athletics helped pave the way for his future career. A native of Tempe, AZ, Warren attended Grand Canyon University in Phoenix where he earned his undergraduate degree. While at Grand Canyon, he excelled both in the classroom and on the basketball court. Warren scored over 1,100 points during his career at Grand Canyon and earned GTE/CoSida Academic All-America as a senior along with NAIA Academic All-America honors as both a junior and senior.

Warren earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Grand Canyon University in 1986, his master's degree in business administration from Arizona State University in 1988, and his Juris Doctorate degree from the University of Notre Dame

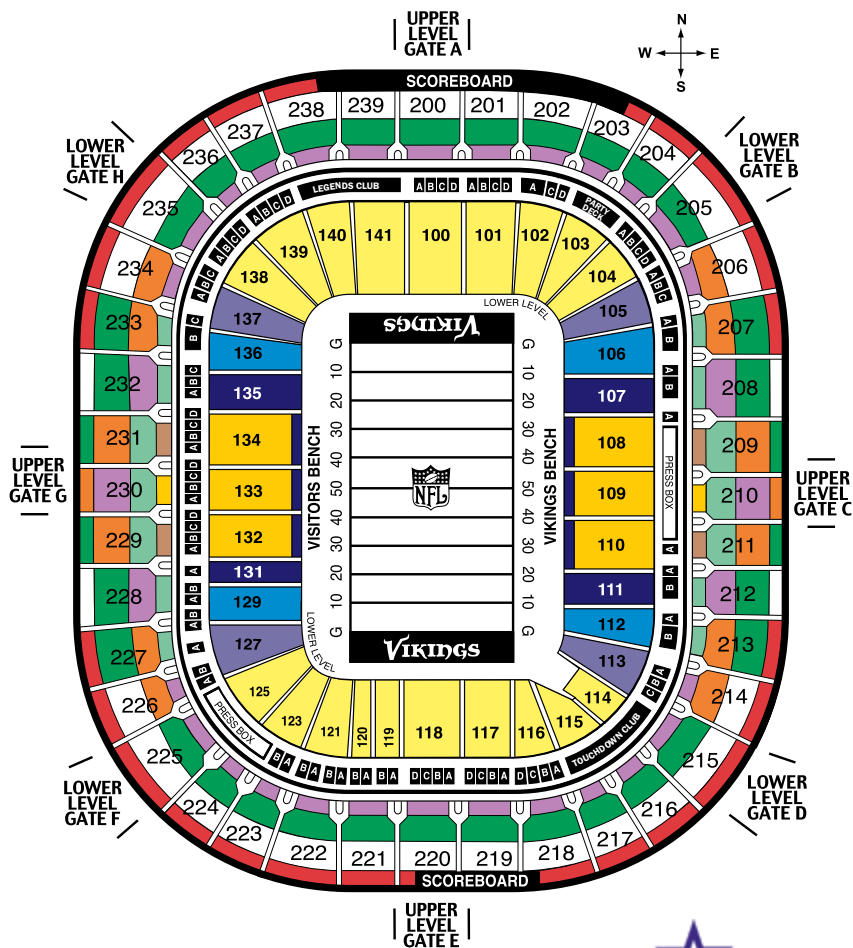

School of Law in 1990. Warren is a member of the Kansas and Michigan Bar Associations.

Several members of Warren's family have helped fuel his lifelong passion for sports, including his father, the late Dr. Morrison Warren, Sr., who played professional football for the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1948 during the era of the All-American Football Conference, before the league was merged with the NFL. The senior Warren would go on to be the first African-American President of a major college bowl game when he was named President of the 1982 Fiesta Bowl. Warren's oldest brother, Morrison, Jr., was one of the first African-American scholarship athletes at Stanford, playing football for the Cardinal in the early 1960s, before a severe knee injury cut short his promising athletic career.

An active member of the Twin Cities community, Warren served on the United Way Board of Directors from 2007-10, has served on the Page Education Foundation Board of Directors since 2006 and was recognized by Twin Cities Business Journal in 2006 as a Minority Business Leader. Warren has also served as a member of the Fiesta Bowl Board of Directors since 2004.

Warren and his wife, Greta, who holds a bachelor's degree from Kansas State University, have a daughter, Peri, and a son, Powers. The Warren family resides in Chanhassen, MN.

COACHES

HEAD COACH

Coaching Experience: 33rd Season

NFL Experience: 13th Season

Vikings Experience: 5th Season

Vikings head coach Brad Childress enters his 5th season at the helm of the franchise and continues to build on a foundation that has produced an NFC-best 22 wins in the past 2 seasons and guided the team to the NFC Championship game for the 1st time in nearly a decade in 2009. The Vikings have won consecutive NFC North titles for the 1st time since 1977-78 and are among only 3 NFL teams entering 2010 with back-to-back Division championships.

Childress enters his 33rd season in coaching and 13th on an NFL sideline in 2010. The 2009 NFC North title was Childress' 6th division crown in the past 9 seasons dating back to 2001 with Philadelphia and the 7th playoff appearance in his past 10 seasons. In his past 10 NFL seasons between Minnesota and Philadelphia, Childress has been part of teams that have only suffered 2 losing seasons.

The 2010 Vikings enter the season with a core of talented players that included 10 players who were Pro Bowl honorees in 2009, matching the most in Vikings history and leading the NFL last season. The team benefitted from a strong draft class that featured Offensive Rookie of the Year WR Percy Harvin and All-Rookie OT Phil Loadholt. All 5 members of the 2009 draft class started at least 1 game during the season and blended well with the veterans already in place.

The 2009 Vikings posted one of the most balanced seasons in recent memory. The squad's 12 wins tied for 2nd-best in team history and featured some record-setting individual performances. The team signed free agent QB Brett Favre on August 18 and the veteran QB's presence helped elevate the play of the entire offense. Favre enjoyed career-highs in passer rating (107.2), completion percentage (68.4%) and threw 33 TD passes against 7 INTs. He built a passing rapport with WR Sidney Rice, who led the team in receiving and earned his 1st Pro Bowl berth along with TE Visanthe Shiancoe, who set a team record by a TE with 11 TD catches. The Vikings passing offense made a 17-position jump to #8 in the NFL in 2009 from #25 in 2008. The Vikings ground game continued to excel as RB Adrian Peterson set a team record and led the NFL with 18 rushing TDs and posted the 3rd-best rushing total in team history with 1,383 yards.

Defensively the Vikings led the NFL with 48 sacks and ranked #6 in total defense for the 2nd straight season, the 1st time since 1993-94 the team had consecutive top-10 defensive units. The squad ranked #2 in the NFL in rushing defense after ranking #1 for the previous 3 seasons. The special teams units featured a pair of Pro Bowlers in cover man LB Heath Farwell and kickoff returner WR Percy Harvin, who set a new team record with a pair of kickoff return TDs.

ADDING TALENT AND KEEPING CHEMISTRY

During Childress' 4 seasons leading the Vikings the team has had 12 players earn 17 NFC Player of the Week honors, including 6 in 2009- 4 on offense, 1 on defense and 1 on special teams. Of those 12 players, 11 joined the Vikings via free agency, trade or the draft since Childress came to the team. Since 2006 the Vikings have had 14 players earn 26 Pro Bowl honors, including an NFL-best 10 Pro Bowlers in 2009. In the past 3 seasons the Vikings have twice drafted the NFL's Rookie of the Year- Harvin in 2009 and Peterson in 2007.

The Vikings ability to add key elements through free agency, trades and the draft while keeping solid team chemistry has been a fundamental principle under Childress' leadership. Finding players whose talents fit the team-first philosophy and whose work ethic matches that of their teammates has helped build a roster that is single-minded and accountable to one another.

STAYING THE COURSE THROUGH ADVERSITY

Since taking over the Vikings in 2006, Childress' teams have one of the most productive rushing attacks in the NFL. The Vikings have the 3rd-best rushing yards per carry (4.5 ypc) and the 4th-most rushing yards (136.1 ypg) in the NFL.

The Vikings have been able to overcome adversity and play their best football in the critical times of the season. The Vikings are 19-8 in the months of November and December during the 2007-2009 seasons combined. The 2008 squad bounced back from a 1-3 start to go 10-6, the only team in the playoff field that started the season 1-3. The 2008 squad also had to overcome the loss of 2 of the 3 team-voted MVPs from the previous season to injury early in the season. Emerging NFL star LB E.J. Henderson went on injured reserve with a season-ending injury in the 4th game of the year after being named 2007 Vikings Defensive MVP by his teammates and selected as the 2008 defensive captain. Fellow LB Heath Farwell was lost for the year in the preseason opener to a knee injury after being tabbed as the Vikings Special Teams MVP in 2006 and 2007. The Vikings coaching staff was able to move on by developing depth behind each player and adjusting to the enormous loss of both players.

GETTING DEFENSIVE

The Vikings ranked #1 in NFL rushing defense in 2006, 2007 and 2008 and ranked #2 in rush defense in 2009. The Vikings ranked #6 in total defense in 2008 and 2009, the 1st time since 1993-94 the team ranked in the NFL's top 10 in consecutive seasons.

The 2009 Vikings tied a team record and led the NFL with 10 players being named to the Pro Bowl, the Vikings have built a foundation of talent through drafting, free agency and trades, represented by 5 of the Pro Bowlers being acquired in the draft, 4 via free agency and 1 by trade. The Vikings have won 22 games in the past 2 seasons, the most wins in the NFC in that span and 2nd in the NFL.

PROVEN SUCCESS WITH PHILADELPHIA

Childress joined the Vikings following a 7-year stint with the Philadelphia Eagles, including the final 4 seasons as offensive coordinator. During his tenure in Philadelphia, the Eagles represented the NFC in Super Bowl XXXIX, amassed a 70-42 (625) record in the regular season, won 4 straight NFC East titles from 2001-04 and advanced to the playoffs from 2000-04. During Childress' time as offensive coordinator (2002-05), the Eagles were 43-21 in the regular season, the most wins in the NFC over that span. Since joining the Eagles in 1999, Childress' teams had a 13-1 mark against NFC North teams including playoff wins over Chicago, Green Bay and Minnesota.

The Eagles offense under Childress was able to excel while adjusting to personnel transition and injuries. The team ranked in the NFL's top 10 in total offense twice in those 4 seasons and assembled numerous individual achievements. In the 4 seasons Childress guided the offense, the team amassed 5,000+ yards each season, averaging 333.8 yards per game in that span. The Eagles offense from 2000-05 featured 7 players who earned 14 berths in the Pro Bowl, highlighted by signal caller Donovan McNabb. Joining McNabb in Hawaii over the span were TE Chad Lewis (3 times), T Tra Thomas (2), G Jermaine Mayberry (1), T Jon Runyan (1), WR Terrell Owens (1) and RB Brian Westbrook (1).

The Eagles improvement during Childress' tenure was remarkable as the team went 5-11 in Andy Reid's staff's first season in 1999. A year later the 2000 Eagles won the 1st playoff game in 8 seasons for the franchise. The 2001 team that won the NFC East was the 1st division title for the Eagles since 1988 and the 2004 team that won 13 regular season games

RUSHING IDENTITY

The Vikings running game has evolved into one of the best in the NFL over the past 4 seasons, highlighted by Adrian Peterson leading the NFL in rushing in 2008 with a team-record 1,760 yards and in 2009 he led the NFL and set a new team record with 18 rushing TDs. Peterson has already set 3 of the top 4 yardage marks in team history.

COLLEGIATE PROGRAM BUILDING

Before joining Reid's staff with the Eagles, Childress spent 8 seasons, 1991-98, on the University of Wisconsin campus coaching quarterbacks, running backs and ascending to offensive coordinator. During his tenure in Madison the Badgers played in 5 bowl games, highlighted by Rose Bowl victories to cap the 1993 and 1998 seasons. Led by head coach Barry Alvarez, the coaches inherited a team that was 1-10 in 1990, but turned the program around quickly by finishing as Big Ten co-champions in 1993 and topped UCLA in the Rose Bowl. The Big Ten title and Rose Bowl berth were the 1st for UW since 1963 and the team featured Vikings offensive coordinator Darrell Bevell at QB. The Badgers repeated the accomplishment during the 1998 season, sharing the conference title and beating UCLA in the Rose Bowl in Childress' last season at the school.

His coaching career began at Illinois from 1978-84 where he began as a graduate assistant before coaching the Illini RBs and WRs. Childress' first taste of NFL coaching came as quarterbacks/quality control coach of the 1985 Indianapolis Colts. He went on to coaching stops at Northern Arizona from 1986-89 and Utah in 1990. It was at NAU where he first met Reid and worked on Lumberjack staffs that featured future NFL head coaches Marty Mornhinweg, Bill Callahan and Reid.

Childress and wife, Dru-Ann, have 4 children- Cara, Kyle, Andrew and Christopher. Born and raised in Aurora, IL, Childress attended Marmion Academy. Childress briefly played QB and WR at Illinois before graduating from Eastern Illinois with a bachelor's degree in psychology. In 2008 Childress was recognized by his alma mater with the Marmion Centurion Award, the highest honor bestowed on Marmion alumni for exceptional achievement in their chosen field.

Childress took part in the NFL-USO Coaches Tour in the summer of 2010, visiting troops in the Persian Gulf. Childress has expanded the Vikings community outreach efforts by players, welcoming special guests to watch normally closed Saturday practices during the regular season and taking the entire squad on an annual playground build to a local school. In 2008 and 2009 every Vikings player participated in a community relations event.

Head Coach Brad Childress takes the Vikings role in the community to heart, starting new initiatives since moving to Minnesota including a program to invite special guests to the Saturday practice at Winter Park. The Vikings started an organization-wide Playground Build in 2006 and have donated a day to building new equipment for a local school each year.

Philadelphia Eagles

Reuniting with Reid in Philly, Childress is instrumental in developing 1st-round QB Donovan McNabb. The Eagles become the dominant team in the NFC, making the playoffs 5 times from 2000-05, winning 4 straight NFC East titles from 2001-04 and representing the NFC in Super Bowl XXXIX. McNabb is selected to 5 Pro Bowls with Childress and the team averages over 333 yards per game in his 4 years as Offensive Coordinator. From 2002-05 no NFC team wins more games than Philadelphia's 43.

Minnesota Vikings

Brad Childress is named the 7th Head Coach in Vikings history on January 6, 2006. Childress leads the team to consecutive NFC North championships in 2008 and 2009, advancing to the NFC Championship game in 2009. In his opening 4 seasons, the Vikings have 14 players earn Pro Bowl honors and the team drafted a pair of NFL Rookies of the Year.

University of Wisconsin

Back in the Big Ten after a 6-year absence, Childress coaches RBs and QBs before taking over offensive coordinator duties for Barry Alvarez. The team climbs to the top of the conference in a short time, plays in 5 bowl games in his final 6 seasons, including Rose Bowl wins after the '93 and '98 seasons. The '93 team is led by QB Darrell Bevell and the '98 team by future Heisman Trophy winner Ron Dayne.

1990
University of Utah

Joining Ron McBride's staff at Utah, Childress coaches the Utes' WRs where he works with Bryan Rowley, who leaves as the all-time leading WR in school history.

Northern Arizona University

Returning to the collegiate ranks, Childress serves as offensive coordinator for the 1st time in his career and the results are immediate for NAU. The Lumberjacks finish #4 in the country in 1986 and TE Shawn Collins becomes the first 1st-round draft pick in school history. The NAU coaching staff includes future NFL head coaches Andy Reid, Bill Callahan and Marty Mornhinweg during the span.

Indianapolis Colts

In his NFL debut, Childress works on the offensive staff under another disciple of the West Coast offense- Colts head coach Rod Dowhower. The Colts' offensive output jumps by 11 TDs over the previous season, interceptions decline and penalties and turnovers both drop.

University of Illinois

Childress gets his start coaching at the University of Illinois working as a graduate assistant in 1978 and working his way up to a full-time job coaching RBs and WRs. The Illini improve from 1 win in 1978 to the Big Ten title and a Rose Bowl berth in 1983. Childress works under Mike White and helps re-write the UI record book with a dominating passing attack. Childress is part of history, coaching against Bear Bryant in his final game when the Illini face Alabama in the 1982 Liberty Bowl.

LESLIE FRAZIER

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Coaching Experience: 23rd Season

NFL Experience: 18th Season (12 coaching, 6 playing)

Vikings Experience: 4th Season

The consistency and play-making ability that Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Coordinator Leslie Frazier has brought to the Vikings defense since 2007 has been a key part of the team winning consecutive NFC North titles and posting the most wins in the NFC over the 2008 and 2009 seasons.

Frazier's defense led the NFL in 2009 with 48.0 sacks and the team ranks 3rd in NFL with 131.0 sacks since 2007. The Vikings defense ranked #6 in the NFL in 2009, the 2nd straight season ranked #6 in total defense. The mark was the 1st time since 1993-94 the team ranked in the NFL's top 10 in consecutive seasons.

Entering his 4th season with the Vikings in 2010, Frazier has helped his players achieve at a high level and has had 4 players earn NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors in the past 3 seasons. Frazier has also had 5 players earn a total of 10 Pro Bowl berths.

With the unique perspective of a Super Bowl winner as a player and coach, Frazier has a proven track record of success. His 1st title came as a starting CB with the 1985 Chicago Bears in Super Bowl XX. Frazier marks his 12th season as an NFL coach in 2010 and has another 11 years of collegiate coaching experience. In his 11 seasons as an NFL coach, Frazier has suffered a losing season only once- his 1st season with Philadelphia in 1999. He has coached on 7 playoff teams in his 11 seasons and been a part of 6 division championships.

The 2009 Vikings used a dynamic front line to continue their tradition of stopping the run and put pressure on opposing QBs. The unit ranked #2 in the NFL against the run after leading the league for the previous 3 seasons. The Vikings tied for the NFL lead by allowing only 5 rushing TDs. The NFL-best 48 sacks posted by the Vikings was the 5th-most in team history and DE Jared Allen led the way with 14.5. Allen and DT Kevin Williams were both recognized as Associated Press 1st Team All-Pro and were named to the Pro Bowl along with CB Antoine Winfield.

Frazier's 2008 defensive unit ranked #6 overall in the NFL and #1 in the league against the run, making the Vikings the 1st squad since the 1970 AFL/NFL merger to lead the league in rushing defense for 3 straight seasons. The Vikings #6 rank in total defense was the highest since the 1994 season. Of the teams ranked in the top 6 in the NFL, the other 5 had ranked in the NFL's top 10 in 2007 while the Vikings were #20 in 2007, making a 14-position improvement in 2008. The 2008 Vikings defense featured 4 players earning Pro Bowl berths, including 3 defensive linemen with Allen, DTs Kevin Williams and Pat Williams and rounded out with 10th-year CB Winfield earning his 1st Pro Bowl honors. The Vikings dominant line showed prowess as pass rushers as well as against the run. Allen tied for 5th in the NFL with 14.5 sacks and the team total of 45 ranked 4th in the NFL. The Vikings ranked 3rd in the NFL in 2008 by allowing only a 33.5% conversion rate on 3rd down and were 5th in the NFL by allowing 15.8 offensive points per game.

The 2008 Vikings had to overcome the season-ending injury to emerging star E.J. Henderson at MLB in the 4th game and did not have the services of priority free agent signee Madieu Williams at FS until the 9th game of the year as he recovered from pre-season injury. The club lost its top nickel back, Charles Gordon, for the 2nd half of the season and 3-time Pro Bowl DT anchor Pat Williams was sidelined the final 2 regular season games and Wild Card playoffs with a shoulder injury. The depth of the roster and the preparation of the coaching staff kept the team on track despite those setbacks.

In his debut season with the Vikings in 2007, the team maintained its dominance against the run, posting the #1 rush defense

PRESSURE DEFENSE

The Vikings led the NFL in 2009 with 48 sacks and ranked #6 in the NFL in total defense for the 2nd straight season. The Vikings ranked #2 in rush defense after leading the NFL for the previous 3 seasons.

in the NFL and allowed a mere 3.1 yards per carry. The anchors of the Vikings defense, DTs Kevin Williams and Pat Williams, were joined by S Darren Sharper as Pro Bowl honorees, the most defensive Vikings to earn trips to Hawaii since 1992.

Frazier's defense was opportunistic, scoring on 6 interception returns to tie a Vikings record and added a pair of TDs on fumble recoveries. The Vikings' 6 scores by interception return ranks tied for 5th-most in a season in NFL history. The team scored on 3 interceptions in a key road game against the NY Giants to set a team record against the eventual Super Bowl XLII champions. The Vikings tied for 3rd in the NFL in 2007 by allowing only 7 rushing TDs and were 5th in the NFC in total offensive points allowed, an average of 17.8 points per game.

The Vikings defense responded to new faces and new positions with impressive performances in 2007. The team was led in tackles by E.J. Henderson's career-high 155 tackles in his 1st season playing MLB since 2004. Henderson added a career-best 4.5 sacks and led the team with a career-best 14 tackles for loss while earning Pro Bowl alternate honors and garnering All-Pro votes. The Vikings LBs entered 2007 with only SLB Ben Leber playing his same position from the previous year. One of the most impressive individual performances came from 2nd-year WLB Chad Greenway, who missed his 2006 rookie season with a knee injury but came back in 2007 to rank 2nd on the team with 130 tackles, lead the NFL with 4 fumble recoveries and have a pair of interceptions, including scoring his 1st career TD.

The 2007 Vikings rush defense was the envy of the NFL, allowing 74.1 yards per game on the ground and allowed only 1 opponent RB to break the 100-yard mark.

Frazier came to Minnesota after coaching DBs with Indianapolis and serving as Special Assistant to Head Coach Tony Dungy for 2 seasons. The 2006 Colts defense clamped down on opponents throughout the playoff run that brought the franchise its 1st Super Bowl title since 1970. The team notched 7 interceptions, 8 sacks and took away 6 fumbles. The Indy defense allowed only 2 second-half TDs in the 4 post-season games and held the Bears out of the end zone for the final 3 quarters of Super Bowl

XLI en route to the win.

In his 1st season with Indianapolis in 2005, Frazier helped S Bob Sanders earn a berth in the Pro Bowl in his 1st season as a full-time starter and became the 1st Colts DB to play in the game since 1971. The Colts ranked 11th in the NFL in total defense for the season after ranking 29th overall in 2004 and improved in yards allowed per game from 370.6 per game to 307.1.

Prior to his tenure with Indianapolis, Frazier served as defensive coordinator with Cincinnati in 2003 and '04 where he helped the Bengals go .500 in consecutive seasons for the 1st time in 12 seasons. Frazier's NFL coaching debut came from 1999-2002 with Philadelphia where he worked with the Eagles DBs while Vikings' Head Coach Brad Childress worked on the offensive side of the ball. While with the Eagles, Frazier helped CB Troy Vincent earn 4 Pro Bowl berths, S Brian Dawkins went to the game 3 times and Bobby Taylor appear in the all-star game once. The trio all earned Pro Bowl recognition in 2002. Frazier was part of an impressive program-building project in Philadelphia that saw the team improve from a 5-11 record in 1999 to 11-5 in 2000, 11-5 in 2001 and 12-4 in 2002. The team advanced to the playoffs in each of the final 3 seasons Frazier was with the Eagles, including winning the NFC East in 2001 and '02 and advancing to the NFC Championship game in both seasons.

Frazier had spent 11 seasons coaching at the collegiate level before returning to the NFL. In 1997 and '98 he worked with the DBs at Illinois on Ron Turner's staff, who Frazier would face 10 seasons later in the Super Bowl. The staff was part of an impressive rebuilding project with the Illini, going 0-11 in 1997 before winning a bowl game in 1999.

Building programs was not unusual for Frazier before going to Illinois and the Eagles. He started the Trinity College football program from the ground up as the school started a football team with Frazier as head coach in 1988. Frazier turned the team into a winner, claiming Northern Illinois Intercollegiate Conference titles twice. The school, now known as Trinity International University, named the football field in Frazier's honor in 1997 in tribute to his impact on the campus.

As a player, Frazier was part of the legendary Chicago Bears defense that keyed the Super Bowl XX win over New England. He was a starter at CB on the 1985 Super Bowl team and played for the Bears from 1981-86. He led Chicago in interceptions in 1983, '84 and '85 but his career was cut short by a severe knee injury suffered in the Super Bowl. During his career he had 20 interceptions in 65 games and returned a pair for TDs. Frazier was an All-America DB and standout baseball player at Alcorn State University. In 2007, Frazier was inducted into the SWAC Hall of Fame.

Frazier (4/3/59) was born in Columbus, MS and attended Columbus High School. He and wife Gale have 3 children- Kieron, Chantel and Corey, who plays DB at Rice. He holds a degree in business administration and was active in Fellowship of Christian Athletes throughout his playing career. Currently, Frazier works closely with All-Pro Dad, an organization that stresses the importance of fathers taking an active role in the lives of their children and putting family first.

Leslie Frazier is part of exclusive company in the NFL, having been part of a Super Bowl champion as a player and as a coach. Frazier was a starter on the record-setting 1985 Bears defense and helped the team win Super Bowl XX over New England. Two decades later Frazier was coaching the defensive backs in Indianapolis and helped the Colts win Super Bowl XLI over his old Chicago team. Frazier played his final NFL game in Super Bowl XX, suffering a knee injury in the 4th quarter of the game that prematurely ended his career and got him involved in coaching, becoming the 1st head coach at Trinity University in Chicago in 1988.

DARRELL BEVELL

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Coaching Experience: 15th Season

NFL Experience: 11th Season

Vikings Experience: 5th Season

The Vikings offense enters the 5th season under the direction of Darrell Bevell in 2010 and is coming off a record-setting 2009 campaign.

The emergence of several play makers gave the 2009 Vikings offense a boost and keyed the team to a 2nd straight NFC North title and a berth in the NFC Championship game. The team went 12-4 in the regular season, matching the 2nd-most wins in franchise history and won back-to-back division titles for the 1st time since 1977-78.

The signing of QB Brett Favre, who Bevell coached in Green Bay, spurred the Vikings to the #8 passing offense in the NFL in 2009. The Vikings air attack matched the established productivity of the ground game in 2009. Favre struck up a passing rapport with WR Sidney Rice, who led the team in receiving and earned his 1st Pro Bowl berth, and TE Visanthe Shiancoe, who set a Vikings record for TEs with 11 TD catches. Rookie WR Percy Harvin earned NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year, marking the 2nd time in 3 seasons the Vikings drafted the Rookie of the Year, joining Adrian Peterson in 2007. On the ground, Peterson posted the 3rd-best single-season rushing total in team history while leading the NFL and setting a team record with 18 rushing TDs. The offense had to contend with a pair of new starters on the offensive line in 2nd-year C John Sullivan and rookie RT Phil Loadholt, but the unit didn't skip a beat.

The 2009 Vikings ranked 2nd in the NFL in scoring offense by 1 point to Super Bowl XLIV champions New Orleans, posting 447 of the Vikings 470 total points for the season on offense. The Vikings ranked #5 in the NFL in total offense. The offense distributed the ball with efficiency, becoming only the 2nd team in NFL history to have 6 players catch 40+ passes in a season.

The 2008 Vikings took strides forward in offensive balance. Peterson led the NFL and set a Vikings record with 1,760 rushing yards and set a team mark with 10 games over the 100-yard mark. Free agent addition WR Bernard Berrian led the team with 964 yards through the air and tied for the team lead with 7 TDs. Berrian's big-play ability helped him post a 20.1-yard receiving average and scored 5 receiving TDs over 40 yards. Berrian tied an NFL record with a 99-yard receiving TD from Gus Frerotte.

The 2007 Vikings featured a dynamic backfield that set team records with 2,634 rushing yards and a 5.33 yard-per-carry average. The Vikings scored 22 rushing TDs, an improvement of 10 over the 2006 club.

A rookie sensation in 2007, Peterson joined veteran Chester Taylor to give the Vikings an unrivaled 1-2 punch in the backfield as the tandem combined for a team-record 2,185 yards. Peterson burst onto the NFL scene in 2007 and left his name etched throughout the NFL's and the Vikings' record books. Peterson ran away with the 2007 Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year and becoming only the 4th Vikings player and 2nd Vikings RB to win the award. In his 5th NFL game, Peterson broke the Vikings single-game rushing record with 224 yards at Chicago and 3 games later he set an NFL record with 296 yards on the ground against San Diego. Peterson ended the season with 1,341 yards to finish 2nd in the NFL rushing race and post the 2nd-best single-season rushing mark in Vikings history.

Peterson was the only offensive rookie in 2007 to earn Pro Bowl honors and was joined on the NFC squad by FB Tony Richardson, C Matt Birk and G Steve Hutchinson, who both repeated their trips from 2006.

The Vikings development of QB Tarvaris Jackson continued in 2007 as the 2nd-year pro went 8-4 in his 12 starts, guiding the Vikings to all 8 of their wins on the season. As a team the Vikings reduced turnovers dramatically, throwing only 14 interceptions, tied for the 2nd-fewest in a 16-game season in Vikings history. Jackson battled injuries early in the season but started all 5 games of the club's 5-game win streak in November and December.

The 2006 Vikings were led on the ground by free agent acquisition RB Taylor, who set a franchise record with 303 rushing attempts and the 4th-highest total in team history with 1,216 rushing yards. The offense went through transitions during the season with 4 different starting groups in the offensive line and only 3 players starting all 16 games across the front. Of the 3 players who did start every game, Birk and Hutchinson earned Pro Bowl berths.

The Vikings produced a 100-yard rusher in 5 games during the 2006 season with Taylor notching 4 and Artose Pinner breaking the century mark once. The 5 games breaking the 100-yard plateau in 2006 was equal to the amount of 100-yard rushing performances in the previous 2 seasons combined for the Vikings. Minnesota was 5-0 in games with a 100-yard rusher.

When Brad Childress began building his Minnesota Vikings coaching staff he had certain qualities in mind for the men who would lead the team into the future. Childress wanted coaches who were good teachers, hard workers and dedicated to the task. Childress had seen all of those qualities years earlier in a gritty QB who led his 1993 Wisconsin Badger squad to the school's 1st Big Ten title and Rose Bowl berth in 31 years. Over a decade later, the coach and QB were reunited with the Vikings.

Bevell spent 6 seasons working with NFC North rivals Green Bay, spending the last 3 seasons as the Packers' QBs coach. During his tenure with Green Bay the team went 57-39 in regular-season play and won 3 straight North titles from 2002-04, the first 3 titles in the newly-realigned division. The Packers advanced to the playoffs 4 straight seasons from 2001-04. From 2003-05 Favre led the NFL with 1,026 completions, ranked 2nd with 82 TD passes and ranked 4th in the NFL over that span with 11,330 yards. From 2002-04 the Packers had a 41-game streak with at least 1 TD pass, all thrown by Favre, the 2nd-longest such streak in NFL history trailing 49 games held by Johnny Unitas' Colts from 1956-60.

In 2005, Green Bay led the NFL in completions (383) and attempts (626) and set a team record in both categories. Favre extended his NFL record for QBs by starting his 221st consecutive game in the 2005 finale. The 2004 Packers set a team record with 4,449 net passing yards, breaking an 11-year old franchise record en route to ranking 3rd in the NFL in total offense. After setting a team record for rushing yards the season before, the Packers became the 1st NFL team since the 1988-89 San Francisco 49ers to set team marks in rushing and passing in back-to-back seasons.

Bevell stepped into the Packers' QB coaching role in 2003 with solid results. Favre set a career-high with a 65.4% completion rate, led the NFL with 32 TD passes and earned his 8th career berth in the Pro Bowl. The Packers offense was balanced as the team also set a franchise record with 2,558 net yards rushing. Bevell's debut in the NFL came in 2000 as an offensive assistant with the team. Along with Favre, Bevell worked with future NFC Champion QB Matt Hasselbeck before his trade from Green Bay to Seattle.

Bevell got his 1st taste of coaching at Westmar University in Lemars, IA in 1996 where he worked as passing game coordinator and QBs coach. He moved on to Iowa State in 1997 as a graduate assistant and then the University of Connecticut for 2 seasons in 1998 and '99 as WRs coach. The '98 UConn Huskies posted a 10-3 record, a school-record 461 points, won the Atlantic-10 Conference North Division title and advanced to the Division I-AA playoff quarterfinals.

As a collegiate player, Bevell studied under Childress as the duo helped turn the dormant University of Wisconsin program into a national power. A 4-year starter for the Badgers, Bevell helped guide the team to a 10-1-1 mark as a sophomore in 1993. The squad claimed a share of the Big Ten championship for the 1st time since 1962 and won the Rose Bowl over UCLA. Between his sophomore and junior seasons, Bevell helped UW go 18-4-2. He left Madison as the school's all-time leading passer with 19 team records and a pair of Big Ten marks. His 67.8% completion mark set in 1993 still stands as the conference record while he was a 61.4% passer for his career.

A native of Yuma, AZ, Bevell was a standout at Chaparral High in Scottsdale where he played under his father, James. After redshirting in 1989 as a freshman at Northern Arizona, where Childress was on the coaching staff, Bevell went on a 2-year Mormon mission in Cleveland in 1990-91.

Bevell and his wife, Tammy, have 3 daughters- Kylie, Morgan and Hailey.

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Coaching Experience: 19th Season

NFL Experience: 5th Season

Vikings Experience: 5th Season

Brian Murphy made an immediate impact in his 1st season as Special Teams Coordinator for the Vikings in 2009. The return and coverage units along with the kicking game was a key element in the Vikings' NFC North title team that advanced to the NFC Championship game.

Murphy oversaw a group that sent a pair of players to the Pro Bowl—coverage man Heath Farwell and return man Percy Harvin. Farwell returned from knee surgery that cost him all of the 2008 season to resume his leadership role on the special teams. Harvin burst on the scene as a rookie with a pair of kickoff return TDs, setting a Vikings record as the only player with 2 kickoff return scores in a season or a career.

Veteran K Ryan Longwell had one of the best seasons of his 13-year career in 2009, scoring a career-high 132 points, ranking 2nd in the NFL in FG percentage at 92.9% (26-of-28) and connected on 16 straight FGs through the middle of the season. Longwell was voted the 2009 Vikings Special Teams MVP by his teammates.

Murphy also prepped less experienced players to have big roles on special teams in 2009. Roster longshot LB Kenny Anatonolu joined the Vikings during the offseason after 2 seasons in the Canadian Football League and earned a prominent place with the team. Anatonolu tied for the Vikings lead with 24 special teams tackles and played in every game during the year. Murphy settled on WR Darius Reynaud as the Vikings punt returner and he finished the season ranked 4th in the NFL with a 10.3-yard average, tied for 6th-best in Vikings single-season history.

The 2008 special teams was highlighted by veteran Longwell booting a career-best, and Vikings-record, 6 FGs of 50+ yards along with hitting 3 game-winning kicks, also a career-high and a team record. Longwell hit a pair of 54-yard FGs on the season, tied for the 3rd-longest FGs in Vikings history and tied for the 2nd-longest of his career. Longwell has now connected on 3 of the 6 longest FGs in team history despite only playing with the Vikings for 3 seasons. Fellow specialist P Chris Kluge set a new team record with a 47.6-yard gross punting average, breaking a team mark that had stood since 1964. Kluge's booming punts also set a new team record for 50-yard punts in a season with 35, breaking his own mark of 29 set in 2007. His marks for gross average ranked 4th in the NFL in 2008 and his 50-yarders ranked 3rd. Kluge has also held on all of Longwell's record-setting kicks.

The 2008 Vikings special teams units found leadership from some new faces after 2-time defending Special Teams MVP Farwell was lost to a preseason knee injury. Rookie free agent DB Husain Abdullah led the team in special teams tackles with 24 as he and fellow reserve DB Eric Frampton helped make up for Farwell's absence. The return game benefited from WR Bernard Berrian's ability to give the units a spark. Berrian returned a punt for an 82-yard TD at eventual NFC champions Arizona, the 3rd-longest punt return TD in team history and the 3rd kickoff or punt return TD in the past 3 seasons for the Vikings. The Vikings also tied for the NFL lead by forcing opponents to 10 missed FGs and notched a Vikings first when Antoine Winfield scored a TD on a 59-yard return of a blocked FG at New Orleans.

In 2007, the Vikings ranked near the top in several NFL categories, including kickoff return average, kickoff coverage, and punts inside the 20. The team finished 4th in the league with an average of 24.8 yards per kickoff return as they returned 59 kicks for 1,461 yards. KR Aundrae Allison led the NFC and finished 3rd in the NFL in kickoff return average, returning 20 kickoffs for 574 yards (28.7 avg.), including a team record 104-yard return for a TD against Detroit that ranks as not only the longest kickoff return but also as the longest play in team history. Allison became the only player in team history to have 3 kickoff returns of 60+ yards in the same season.

The 2007 squad allowed opponents an average starting field position just beyond the 26-yard line (26.2), which ranked 6th in the league. Farwell led the team with 32 special teams tackles and was named the special teams MVP for a 2nd straight season. He also recovered 2 onside kicks in '07, setting a team record for the most onside recoveries in a single season and tying a team record for the most in a career.

Kluge left opponents inside their own 20-yard line 34 times in 2007, which ranked 3rd in the NFL and set a Vikings' single-season record. In the season opener against Atlanta, Kluge tied a team record as he pinned the Falcons inside the 20-yard line on each of his 5 punts. He also set a single game team record at Detroit when he punted 4 times for 230 yards, a gross average of 57.5 yards per punt, and broke his previous single-season shared record with Mitch Berger of punts over 50 yards (22) as he finished the year with 29 kicks of 50+ yards.

In Murphy's NFL debut season, the 2006 Vikings special

HARVIN A BIG YEAR

Vikings rookie WR Percy Harvin made a big splash in 2009, earning Offensive Rookie of the Year honors from Associated Press and earning a Pro Bowl berth as a return man. He tied the 2nd-longest kickoff return in Vikings history and became the 1st Viking to score on multiple kickoff returns in a season or career.

teams generated 4 takeaways, saw PR Mewelde Moore tie a franchise record with his 2nd career punt return TD and had newly acquired Longwell make all 21 of his field goal attempts under 46 yards. The Vikings successfully executed a fake FG for a TD when Longwell hit TE Richard Owens with a 16-yard pass, becoming the 1st Vikings kicker to throw a TD pass in team history. Kluge matched a team record by landing 28 punts inside the 20 for the season. Moore moved into the top spot in Vikings history for career punt return average at 10.5 yards and ranked 4th in the NFC for the 2006 season with a 10.1 average. Moore returned a punt for a TD for the 2nd time in his career with a 71-yarder vs. New England (10/30/06) on Monday Night Football.

Murphy jumped to the NFL after serving as the special teams coordinator/outside linebackers coach for the University of Wisconsin from 2002-05. During the 2005 season, Murphy helped Wisconsin rank at or near the top of the Big Ten in several special teams categories, including punting and kicking. Sophomore P Kenneth DeBauche finished 1st in the Big Ten and 7th among Division I-A players with a 44.8 yards-per-punt average, which stands as a Wisconsin single-season record. DeBauche's performance earned him a spot on the 2005 1st-team All-Big Ten roster, the 2005 Sports Illustrated All-American 2nd team and the 2005 CollegeFootballNews.com Sophomore All-American 2nd team. With DeBauche's leg and the punting unit's outstanding coverage, the Badgers ranked 1st in the conference and 12th in the nation with a 39.3 net punting average. The team also averaged 41.5 yards per kickoff, which was good enough for 4th place in the Big Ten, and K Taylor Mehlhaff finished 2nd in scoring among conference kickers, tallying 98 points on the season.

While his kicking and punting crews put up impressive statistics, Murphy's return units also led the Big Ten in punt and kickoff return categories, averaging 14.7 yards and 20.0 yards respectively during their 10-3 season in 2005. Returner Brandon Williams, who tied a Badgers' record with 2 punt returns for TDs, finished 2nd in the conference with a 14.6 yards-per-punt return average and ranked 2nd in kickoff returns, averaging 28.0 yards per attempt. As a result of his standout season, Williams was named to the 2005 Associated Press All-America 2nd team as an all-purpose player and the 2005 Rivals.com All-America 2nd team as a punt returner. He also earned Honorable Mention honors on the 2005 Sports Illustrated All-America team and the 2005

CollegeFootballNews.com All-America team. Williams currently ranks 2nd in school history for career kickoff return yards (2,349) and holds the University of Wisconsin team records for career punt return average and kickoff return average.

Murphy, now in his 19th year on the sideline, stepped into the coaching role for the first time in 1992 when he coached the defensive line at Benedictine University (IL). He then became an assistant recruiting coordinator and academic liaison for Wisconsin from 1993-94. As a graduate assistant, Murphy helped the Badgers' offensive and defensive lines from 1994-96 and the defensive backs at Baylor University in 1997. The following year he acted as the defensive coordinator/recruiting coordinator for the University of San Diego. After a season at USD he returned to his alma mater, Lehigh University to coach the defensive line and serve as the strength and conditioning coordinator, and before his final position with Wisconsin, Murphy was an administrative assistant for UW from 2000-02.

Throughout his college coaching career, Murphy helped lead his squads to 8 bowl games ('94 Rose Bowl, '95 Hall of Fame Bowl, '96 Copper Bowl, '00 Sun Bowl, '02 Alamo Bowl, '03 Music City Bowl, '05 Outback Bowl, '06 Capital One Bowl), 6 of which his teams won. He coached 6 Big Ten Players of the Week and was a part of 2 Pontiac Game-Changing Plays of the Week and one Master Coaches Survey-Special Teams Play of the Year. Prior to DeBauche and Williams, Murphy coached special teams stars Jim Leonard, who holds the Big Ten career record for punt return yardage with 1,347 yards and NFL long snapper Matt Katula.

Murphy graduated with a bachelor of arts in international relations in 1992 from Lehigh, where he also was a four-year letter-winner as a defensive lineman. He went on to earn his master's in education administration from the University of Wisconsin in 1997. Murphy and his wife, Maggie, have a son, Eamon, and a daughter, Flynn.

THE SYMBOL OF THE EVOLVING NFL

The NFL shield, one of the most recognizable symbols in the sports world, underwent a stylistic upgrade during the 2008 offseason. The new font and design changes pay homage to the history of the League and the logo while turning an eye forward on the future. As the NFL enters its 91st season in 2010 the new shield symbolizes the progress of the league over those decades and the excellence that has laid the foundation for the modern NFL.

Adjustments to the logo include 8 stars representing the 8 Divisions in the NFL and the design of the football reflects the design of the football atop the Vince Lombardi Trophy. The blue color is darker and bolder than past shields and the shape has been refined over past versions.

RUNNING BACKS

Coaching Experience: 10th Season

NFL Experience: 14th Season (5 coaching, 9 playing)

Vikings Experience: 5th Season

Entering his 5th season coaching the Vikings RBs, Eric Bieniemy has overseen one of the most productive units in the NFL in that span. The consistency of the Vikings backs have been a key element in the team winning consecutive NFC North titles. The Vikings rushing attack has been among the most dynamic in the NFL since 2006 and the unit has re-written the Vikings record book over that span.

Bieniemy landed his 1st NFL coaching position with the Vikings in 2006 and has responded by guiding a 1,000-yard rusher in all 4 seasons with Minnesota and helping Vikings RBs break the 100-yard mark 26 times in 64 regular season games.

Workhorse RB Adrian Peterson snared his 3rd straight Associated Press All-Pro honor in 2009 along with setting a Vikings record with 18 rushing TDs and led the league in rushing scores. Peterson ran for 1,383 yards, the 3rd-best total in Vikings history, and added a career-best 436 receiving yards. Peterson's 1,819 yards from scrimmage in 2009 ranked as the 3rd-best in team history and was 3rd in the NFL for the season. Chester Taylor led the NFL in 3rd-down catches by a RB for the 2nd straight year.

In 2008 the Vikings ground game was the foundation for the NFC North champions winning 10 games. Highlighted by the All-Pro Peterson setting Vikings records for rushing yards in a season with 1,760 and 100-yard games in a season with 10, the Vikings averaged over 146 yards per game rushing. Peterson became the 1st Vikings RB to lead the NFL in rushing and was honored with Pro Bowl and Associated Press 1st-Team All-Pro recognition. Peterson was honored by the Maxwell Club with the Bert Bell Award as the Pro Football Player of the Year and was tied for runner-up in the AP's Offensive Player of the Year voting.

The 2007 Vikings featured the top-ranked rushing offense in the NFL and set a team record with 2,634 team rushing yards. Minnesota also set a team record with a 5.33 yard per carry average and scored 22 rushing TDs. The Vikings posted the top 2 team rushing performances in the league in '07 with a team-record 378 yards on the ground vs. San Diego and 311 yards at Chicago.

In 2007, Peterson joined Taylor as the tandem combined for a team-record 2,185 yards. Peterson made an immediate impact and set numerous NFL and team records in his 1st season in the league. He became only the 4th Vikings player and the 2nd Vikings RB to win the Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year, earned a starting nod in the Pro Bowl and was named MVP of the game. In his 5th NFL game Peterson broke the Vikings single-game rushing record with 224 yards rushing at Chicago and 3 games later he set an NFL record with 296 yards on the ground against San Diego. Peterson ended the season with 1,341 yards to finish 2nd in the NFL rushing race despite missing 2 games. Peterson and Taylor became the 1st Vikings RB duo to rush for consecutive 1,000-yard seasons in Vikings history. Tony Richardson helped pave the way for Peterson and Taylor's record-setting season on his way to being the 1st Vikings FB to earn Pro Bowl honors since Bill Brown in 1968.

In 2006, Bieniemy helped guide free agent pickup Taylor to 1,216 yards and recorded the longest rushing play from scrimmage in team history with a 95-yard TD gallop at Seattle. The Vikings RBs posted 5 games over the century mark on the season with Taylor accounting for 4 and Artoise Pinner adding another. Taylor became a full-time starter for the 1st time in his career with the Vikings and responded to the workload with a battering style. Bieniemy prepared Pinner for his lone start of the season in place of Taylor and he responded against his old Lions teammates with a career-high 125 yards and tied a Vikings record with 3 rushing TDs in the game. Bieniemy honed Jeff Dugan to step into the starting job at FB after Richardson was sidelined by injury. Dugan had not started a game at FB in his career before being called upon for the final 7 games of 2006.

Bieniemy spent the prior 3 seasons (2003-05) as RBs coach at UCLA and was also the Bruins' recruiting coordinator in 2005. In 2005, the Bruins finished with a 10-2 record, a #16 ranking in The Associated Press poll, and also earned a 50-38 Sun Bowl victory over Northwestern. Bieniemy tutored RB Maurice Jones-Drew for 3 seasons, who was drafted in the 2nd round of the 2006 NFL Draft by the Jacksonville Jaguars. In 2005, Drew rushed for 914 yards and 13 TDs and was selected to virtually every All-America 1st-Team as an all-purpose player/kick returner. In 2004, Drew became just the 10th Bruin to rush for 1,000 yards in a season (1,007) and set a single-game school record with 322 yards and 5 TDs at Washington. As a freshman in 2003, Drew earned 3rd-team Freshman All-America honors as a KR/RB after rushing for almost 600 yards and returning 2 kickoffs for TDs. Bieniemy also coached Chris Markey to 561 yards rushing in 2005, and in 2004, Manuel White had his most productive season as a Bruin, rushing for over 750 yards and catching 20 passes.

Prior to joining the UCLA staff, Bieniemy began his collegiate coaching career by working 2 seasons (2001-02) at his alma mater, Colorado, as RBs coach. In 2002, the Buffaloes ranked 9th in team rushing in the NCAA with 232.8 yards per game on the ground. Chris Brown ranked 3rd in the nation with a 153.4 yards per game average, and the Colorado TBs and FBs combined for over 3,000 yards rushing to lead the nation. Bieniemy made an immediate impact at Colorado in his 1st season in 2001 as the Buffs ranked 8th in the nation in rushing, averaging 228.5 yards per game. The TBs and FBs combined for 2,620 yards, the most yards out of all the RB positions in college football in 2001. Bieniemy had returned to Colorado in order to complete his degree in sociology. He also served as an assistant at Thomas Jefferson High in Denver in the fall of 2000 before his return to Colorado.

RUSH TO EXCEL

The Vikings ground game ranks among the NFL's best and sets the tempo for the team. Adrian Peterson continues to re-write the Vikings record book, establishing new standards for rushing yards and TDs.

Bieniemy played 9 seasons in the NFL (1991-99) and was a 2nd-round pick of the San Diego Chargers in the 1991 NFL Draft. He played 4 seasons in San Diego (1991-94) and was a member of the Chargers' 1994 AFC Championship team that played San Francisco in Super Bowl XXIX. Bieniemy went on to play 4 seasons with Cincinnati (1995-98) and one season with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1999. Vikings' head coach Brad Childress was in his first season with the Eagles as QB coach in '99.

Bieniemy's name continues to be prominent throughout Colorado's record books as he remains the school's all-time leader in rushing yards (3,940), all-purpose yards (4,351), touchdowns (42), and scoring (254 points). He was the nation's 2nd-leading rusher in 1990 with 1,628 yards, along with 17 TDs, and he finished 3rd that year in the Heisman Trophy balloting behind BYU's Ty Detmer (the winner) and Notre Dame's Raghib Ismail. Bieniemy earned unanimous All-America honors in 1990 and was a 2-time All-Big Eight selection in 1988 and 1990, earning the conference's Offensive Player of the Year award in '90. He was part of Colorado's national championship team in 1991 that defeated Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl. As a junior, he was named to CU's prestigious 25-member "All-Century Football Team," the only active member selected to the team honoring the first 100 years of Buffalo football. In 2010, Bieniemy was on the ballot for induction into the College Football Hall of Fame for the 1st time.

Bieniemy was born in New Orleans, LA (8/15/69) and earned

2nd-team All-America honors from USA Today at Bishop Amat High School in LaPuente, CA as a senior when he rushed for 2,002 yards and 30 TDs.

Bieniemy and wife, Mia, have sons, Eric III and Elijah.

KARL DUNBAR

DEFENSIVE LINE

Coaching Experience: 15th Season

NFL Experience: 11th Season (6 coaching, 5 playing)

Vikings Experience: 5th Season

Traditionally a strength of the Vikings defense, the defensive lines of the past 4 seasons under Karl Dunbar have earned a place in team lore as equally tough against the run as they are at rushing the passer. The foundation of the Vikings defense has been recognized annually with All-Pros and Pro Bowlers.

After leading the NFL in rushing defense from 2006-08, the unit ranked #2 against the run in 2009. Overall, the line helped the Vikings rank #6 in total defense for the 2nd straight year in 2009, marking the 1st time since 1993-94 a Vikings defense ranked in the NFL's top 10 in consecutive seasons. Under Dunbar's direction, the Vikings have had 3 different linemen, Pat Williams, Kevin Williams and Jared Allen, earn Pro Bowl honors. Kevin Williams and Allen were both tagged as Associated Press All-Pros in 2009.

Dunbar's tenure with the Vikings is his 2nd as a coach in the NFL after he worked as a defensive line coach for the Chicago Bears in 2004. An 8th-round draft choice by the Pittsburgh Steelers and legendary head coach Chuck Noll in 1990, Dunbar went on to play with New Orleans (1992-93) and Arizona (1994-95). He also spent a season each with Orlando and Rhein in the World League.

The Vikings defensive line flexed its muscle in 2009, leading the NFL in sacks in with 48 and ranked #2 against the run. The Vikings allowed only 5 rushing TDs, tied for the best total in the NFL. The line was aided by the emergence of DE Ray Edwards, who ranked 2nd on the team with 8.5 sacks and set a Vikings record with 3.0 sacks against Dallas in the NFC Divisional Playoff win. Allen became only the 2nd player in NFL history, joining Hall of Famer Reggie White, to post at least 14.0 sacks in 3 straight seasons.

The 2008 Vikings became the 1st NFL club since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to rank #1 in rushing defense for 3 straight seasons. By acquiring Allen via trade, the standout DT tandem of Kevin Williams and Pat Williams were even more effective. The trio all earned Pro Bowl honors in 2008, the 1st trio of Vikings defensive linemen to be recognized since 1969 and the days of the Purple People Eaters.

The Vikings pass rush in 2008 was keyed by Allen's 14.5 sacks, the most by a Viking since 1997. Kevin Williams tied for the sack lead among NFL DTs with 8.5, his best total since 2004. The benefit was seen in the Vikings total defense ranking #6 in the NFL, the highest mark for the club since the 1994 season.

In 2007, the Vikings held opponents to 1,185 yards on the ground, or an average of 74.1 yards per game. The Vikings' tough interior was anchored by DTs Kevin Williams and Pat Williams, who both earned Pro Bowl honors for the 2nd consecutive season. Kevin Williams notched his 4th career interception, setting a team

TURNOVER TDs

The Vikings defensive line has shown a knack for scoring when they get their hands on the ball. The team boasts some of the most talented playmakers in team history.

record for the most career INTs by a defensive lineman.

The outstanding 2007 performance came on the heels of a record-setting 2006 season when the Vikings defense allowed just 985 rushing yards, or 61.6 yards per game. That total set a team record and ranked 2nd in the NFL since the 1970 merger behind only the Baltimore Ravens' 970 yards allowed in 2000.

As the assistant head coach/defensive line coach in 2005 for his alma mater, LSU, Dunbar was reunited with head coach Les Miles, whom he worked under at Oklahoma State in 2002-03. The Tigers won the SEC West in 2005 and upset Miami in the Peach Bowl to end the season.

The 2005 season was Dunbar's 2nd tour of duty at LSU, as he had previously worked with the Tigers' strength and conditioning program in 2000-01. He returned to the Tigers in 2000 under head coach Nick Saban and helped kick-start the team to an 8-4 finish and a win in the Peach Bowl. The following season the squad went 10-3, won the SEC title for the 1st time since 1986, when Dunbar was a freshman defensive lineman, and won the Sugar Bowl. In 7 seasons as a player and coach with LSU, Dunbar helped amass a 60-24-1 record, win a pair of SEC titles and play in 6 bowl games.

During Dunbar's 1st stint in the NFL with the Bears in 2004, he helped tutor a young and talented line that included rookie 1st-round pick Tommie Harris and 2nd-rounder Tank Johnson. Harris opened all 16 games, the first Bears DT to accomplish the feat since 1975. The Bears' attack ranked #2 in the NFL in total defense in 2005 and saw Harris earn a Pro Bowl berth.

Dunbar tutored Vikings' All-Pro DT Kevin Williams at Oklahoma State during his senior season and helped him become the 1st OSU defensive lineman to be a 1st-round draft pick (9th in 2003) since Leslie O'Neal (8th in 1986).

A standout player at LSU, Dunbar was a starter for his final 3 seasons and earned 2nd-Team All-SEC acclaim as a senior in 1989. Dunbar was part of Tiger teams that won or shared a pair of SEC titles in 1986 and 1988, posted a 31-15-1 record and played in the Sugar, Gator and Hall of Fame bowls. As a senior in 1989, Dunbar was LSU's co-captain with QB Tommy Hodson. He was also a linemate at LSU with former Vikings Pro Bowler Henry Thomas.

Dunbar (5'18/67) graduated from LSU with a bachelor's degree in criminal justice. He and wife, Pamela, have 3 children - Karmichael MacKenzie II, Mickel Angelle and Nickolette Alyse.

MINNYPHILLY RIVALRY HAS DEEP ROOTS

When the Vikings hit the road on Christmas Day this season to play at Philadelphia on December 26, the Vikings will be striving to do something no Vikings team has done since 1985- win a road game in the City of Brotherly Love. The all-time series stands at 11-12, including 3 playoff games.

The Vikings are on a 6-game losing streak in Philadelphia, the last win coming on December 1, 1985 at Veteran's Stadium. Overall, the Vikings have dropped 5 in a row to the Eagles, the last win coming in 1997 in Minnesota.

The Vikings will travel to Philadelphia for the 1st time under the direction of Head Coach Brad Childress, who spent 1999-2005 on the Eagles coaching staff. Childress was offensive coordinator of the Eagles squad that won the NFC title and advanced to Super Bowl XXXIX. Childress has a pair of players on the Vikings roster who played on that Eagles championship team- WR Greg Lewis and CB Lito Sheppard.

The history of the two clubs runs deep and with several connections that span the lifetime of the franchises. Minnesota entered the NFL in 1961 with a former Eagle leading the squad- head coach Norm Van Brocklin. Vikings management targeted the 34-year-old Van Brocklin as the 1st coach of the squad in January 1961. He had just retired after 12 years as an NFL player and had led Philadelphia to the 1960 NFL title. Ironically, the Vikings would look to another former Eagles player to lead the team after Van Brocklin's resignation after the 1966 season- Bud Grant. Known as a standout player and coach in the Canadian Football League with Winnipeg before coming to the Vikings and starting his Hall of Fame career, Grant played in 1951-52 with the Eagles as an offensive end. Grant was the NFL's 2nd-leading receiver in 1952 and his 203-yard receiving day in '52 against the Dallas Texans still ranks as the 4th-best day in Eagles history. Ultimately, Grant left the Eagles during a contract dispute and signed as a player with Winnipeg- a regular occurrence in the 1950s climate of pro football. Grant coached the final game of his career in the 1985 season finale against the Eagles.

The Vikings and Eagles have had several players don both uniforms over the years, highlighted by Vikings legend Cris Carter spent the opening 3 seasons of his stellar career with the Eagles from 1987-89. Carter caught 19 TDs during his Eagles tenure, including 17 from future Vikings teammate Randall Cunningham. Carter was acquired by the Vikings after the Eagles put him on waivers for $1- regarded as the best dollar spent in Vikings history. Carter exacted his revenge in his first game against his old teammates in 1990, catching a pair of TDs from Rich Gannon- a 78-yarder and a 42-yarder. The 78-yard TD ranks as the longest play of Carter's Vikings career. Cunningham had a career rebirth with the Vikings, joining the team in 1997 and taking over the reins of the 1998 team and directing the high-powered offense to record-breaking heights. Carter and Cunningham were coached in Philly by Buddy Ryan, who spent 1976-77 as the Vikings defensive line coach.

JIM HUEBER

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

Coaching Experience: 37th Season

NFL Experience: 5th Season

Vikings Experience: 5th Season

Jim Hueber has a proven track record as a collegiate and professional offensive line coach with 36 seasons of experience under his belt. Hueber's linemen have paved the way for some of the most impressive and record-setting rushing performances by running backs in the NFL and college football.

The Vikings have benefited in recent years from a strong running game that has posted some of the most impressive performances in team and NFL history. The Vikings line has made those possible and has remained consistent despite roster turnover.

In 2009 the unit started a rookie, Phil Loadholt, at RT and a 1st-year starter in the middle when John Sullivan took over at center. The group responded by helping Adrian Peterson rumble for 1,383 yards, the 3rd-best mark in team history, and set a franchise record with 18 rushing TDs, a total that led the NFL. The line was adept in pass protection as well, allowing veteran QB Brett Favre to post a career-best 107.2 passer rating and notch a career-best 33-7 TD-INT ratio.

Overall, the Vikings offense ranked #5 in the NFL and the performance of the line was a key part in the Vikings 12-4 regular season, 2nd straight NFC North title and berth in the NFC Championship game. Individually, LG Steve Hutchinson earned his 7th straight Pro Bowl and was joined by LT Bryant McKinnie. Hutchinson also earned Associated Press 1st-Team All-Pro for the 5th time in his career while Loadholt was an All-Rookie honoree.

The 2008 Vikings line helped Peterson become the 1st Vikings RB to lead the NFL in rushing. Peterson set a Vikings single-season rushing record with 1,760 yards and established a team record with 10 games of 100+ rushing yards. He earned his 2nd straight Pro Bowl berth and became only the 5th player in NFL history to run for 3,000+ yards in his opening 2 seasons in the League.

The 2007 Vikings featured the top-ranked rushing offense in the NFL and set a team record with 2,634 rushing yards as a team. Minnesota also set a team record with a 5.33 yard per carry average, scored 22 rushing TDs, and had 8 games on the season featuring a 100-yard rushing performance. The Vikings posted the top 2 team rushing performances in the NFL in '07 with a team-record 378 yards on the ground vs. San Diego and 311 yards at Chicago.

Up front, C Matt Birk and Hutchinson earned Pro Bowl honors for their performances in 2007 for the 2nd consecutive year, which was the 1st time since 1999-2000 that the Vikings had 2 offensive linemen earn the honor in back-to-back seasons. As a rookie, Peterson joined veteran Chester Taylor as the tandem combined for a team-record 2,185 yards. In his 5th NFL game Peterson broke the Vikings single-game rushing record with 224 yards rushing at Chicago and 3 games later he set a new NFL record with 296 yards on the ground against San Diego. Peterson ended the season with 1,341 yards to finish 2nd in the NFL rushing race and post the 2nd-best single-season rushing mark in Vikings history. Peterson and Taylor became the 1st Vikings RB duo to rush for consecutive 1,000-yard seasons in Vikings history.

Hueber made his NFL debut in 2006 after 33 seasons in the collegiate game. His proven talent for improving the running game showed as Taylor took advantage of his 1st full-time starting role in the NFL to run for 1,216 yards, the 6th-highest single-season total in Vikings history. The 2006 Vikings posted 5 games with a 100-yard rusher, which matched the total of the 2004 and 2005 Vikings teams combined.

Hueber is familiar with the Twin Cities after spending 1984-91 on the Golden Gophers' coaching staff. In his current role he is reunited with Head Coach Brad Childress, whom he coached with at Wisconsin. Hueber works closely with a former pupil in Vikings

FINE ALONG THE LINE

The Vikings offensive line has paved the way for the Vikings to win back-to-back NFC North titles and set the table for numerous record-setting performances by the offense in the past 4 seasons. The linemen have earned their fair share of accolades along the way.

Hueber spent the 1995-2005 seasons coaching the Wisconsin linemen after beginning his tenure in Madison, working with the RBs from 1992-94. Hueber moved to tutoring the linemen in 1995 and his group paved the way for 1999 Heisman Trophy winner Ron Dayne to leave with the all-time college football rushing title with 6,397 yards.

Hueber played a major part in rebuilding the Badger program. Wisconsin played in 11 bowl games in his 14 seasons in Madison. The 1993 Badgers went 10-1-1 to claim a share of the Big Ten title and a berth in the Rose Bowl for the 1st time since 1962. The 1993 win over UCLA was the 1st Rose Bowl title for the Badgers in school history and started a remarkable streak of success as the Badgers won or tied for the Big Ten crown 3 times from 1993-99. During Hueber's tenure, UW posted a 112-57-4 record, including an 8-3 bowl mark.

Prior to moving across the border to Wisconsin, Hueber guided the Golden Gophers offensive line for 8 seasons from 1984-91. Starting at Minnesota on the staff of legendary head coach Lou Holtz. During his tenure with the Gophers, Hueber's linemen paved the way for all-time leading rusher and 1st-round draft pick Darrell Thompson to run for 4,654 yards.

Hueber and his wife, Nancy, are parents to Jeffrey, Jonathan, Joseph and Kristine. In the spring of 2009, Hueber was inducted into the Alumni Hall of Fame for his alma mater, Northeast Catholic High School in Philadelphia.

JIMMIE JOHNSON

TIGHT ENDS

Coaching Experience: 10th Season
NFL Experience: 15th Season (5 coaching, 10 playing)
Vikings Experience: 5th Season

The Vikings emergence as a passing force in 2009 was helped greatly by TE Visanthe Shiancoe taking on a bigger role in the offense and proving his value by setting a Vikings record for TEs and ranked 2nd in the NFL among TEs with 11 TD catches. Shiancoe has led or tied for the team lead in receiving TDs in the past 2 seasons and leads a group of TEs under Jimmie Johnson's direction who each brings a unique set of skills to the field.

Entering his 5th season with the Vikings' coaching staff in 2010, Johnson brings a blend of NFL expertise as both a player and as a coach which has proved to be a valuable asset. During his decade in the NFL as a player, Johnson was committed to the art of blocking, helping pave the way for 1,000-yard rushers in 8 of his 10 seasons.

Along with Shiancoe's value in the passing game, the TE group features rugged run blocker Jim Kleinsasser and versatile Jeff Dugan, who sees time in the backfield and at TE.

The Vikings TEs hauled in 13 TD passes in 2009, just 6 fewer TD passes than the Vikings WRs combined for during the season. The unit played a big part in blocking for Adrian Peterson as he ran for 1,383 yards and set a new Vikings record with 18 rushing TDs. The ground game produced a 1,000-yard rusher for the 4th straight season in 2009 and the 1,383 yards ranks as the 3rd-best single-season mark in team history.

In 2008, Johnson saw Shiancoe develop as a top-tier NFL TE. Shiancoe led the NFC and tied for 3rd among TEs in the NFL with 7 TD receptions. The 7 scores came up just 1 shy of the Vikings single-season record for TEs held by Joe Senser (8 in 1981). Shiancoe set career highs in all major statistical categories with 42 receptions for 596 yards to go along with his 7 TDs. He also had a day for the record book, when he tied the Vikings single-game scoring mark for a TE with 2 TDs and matched the 2nd best effort by a Vikings TE with 136 yards vs. Atlanta (12/21/08). While Shiancoe racked up the accolades through the air, Kleinsasser continued to show his value in the running game as he helped pave the way for Adrian Peterson to finish the year as the NFL's rushing king and earn his 2nd Pro Bowl berth in as many seasons. Peterson set records for single-season rushing yards (1,760) and games of 100+ yards (10) en route to becoming the 1st Viking to lead the NFL in rushing.

In 2007, Kleinsasser and Shiancoe assisted the Vikings record-setting rushing attack and contributed in the passing game. In Shiancoe's 1st season with the Vikings, he finished with career highs in every category as he hauled in 27 receptions for 323 yards and 1 TD. He caught the longest pass by a Vikings' TE in team history, a 79-yarder on a reverse by WR Sidney Rice. Kleinsasser, who was recognized for his unselfish blocking with a spot on the USA Today's All-Joe Team, added 4 catches for 43 yards and a TD.

In 2006, Johnson's TE corps helped newly-acquired Taylor run for 1,214 yards in his 1st season as a full-time starter. Taylor's total ranked as the 4th-highest single-season mark in Vikings' history. Jermaine Wiggins tied for 2nd on the team with 46 receptions.

During his 10 NFL seasons as a tight end, Johnson spent time with Washington, Detroit, Kansas City and Philadelphia. Originally selected in the 12th round of the 1989 NFL Draft by the Washington Redskins, he was a long-shot rookie who not only made the final squad, but also went on to play in all 16 games that year. While with the Redskins, Johnson played under the legendary Joe Gibbs and was part of teams that went 34-14 in regular season action and 4-1 in the playoffs. He was a member of the 1991 Redskins team that won Super Bowl XXVI over Buffalo in the stadium he now calls home – the Metrodome. His best season statistically was 1990, when he caught 15 passes for 218 yards and a pair of TDs. That year he averaged 14.5 yards per catch, which trailed only Gary Clark's team-leading 14.8 average, and caught his 1st NFL TD on a 4-yard pass from Stan Humphries in a 41-38 overtime win at Detroit (11/4/90). In 1991, Johnson caught 3 passes in the opening 6 games, including 2 for TDs from Mark Rypien in the 1st and 2nd games of the year vs. Detroit (9/1/91) and at Dallas (10/6/91) on Monday Night Football. A neck injury suffered at Chicago (10/6/91), however, placed Johnson on injured reserve for the rest of the Redskins championship season.

Following his 3 seasons with Washington, Johnson joined the Lions in 1992 as a Plan B free agent and went on to start 10 of the 22 games he played from 1992-93 under head coach Wayne Fontes. After his release by Detroit in November 1993, Johnson joined Kansas City and head coach Marty Schottenheimer for the 1994 season. That year the Chiefs played against the Vikings in the preseason game held in Tokyo and went on to ride Hall of Famers Joe Montana and Marcus Allen to a 9-7 record and a berth in the playoffs. Johnson played in 7 games and started 1 that season.

In 1995, Johnson moved on to Philadelphia where he enjoyed his most productive seasons as part of the 2-TE power running game employed by the Eagles. Johnson blocked for Ricky Watters as he earned Pro Bowl berths in 1995 and '96 while breaking the 1,000-yard mark each season from 1995-97. In 1996, Watters set the Eagles team record for attempts with 353, the 2nd-most yards in team history with 1,411, and the 2nd-most rushing TDs with 13. The Eagles took NFC East runner-up honors in 1995 and '96 while advancing to the playoffs both seasons under Ray Rhodes. During that time, Johnson started 18 of the 51 games he played and had a career best 18.1-yard receiving average in 1996, when he caught 7 passes for 127 yards. His final NFL TD came from QB Bobby Hoying vs. Cincinnati (11/30/97).

As a player, Johnson was durable, seeing action in all 16 games in 6 of his 10 seasons. He finished his career with 61 catches for 723 yards and 5 TDs while playing in 5 postseason games. He also blocked for 1,000 yards rushers in 8 of his 10 NFL seasons, helping Earnest Byner break the 1,000-yard mark and earn Pro Bowl honors in 1990 and 1991. Barry Sanders repeated the feats in Detroit in 1992 and '93, and in Philadelphia, Johnson helped Watters get over the 1,000-yard plateau in 1995, '96 and '97. Johnson finished his career clearing the way for Deuce Staley in 1998, who gained 1,000+ yards in only his 2nd NFL season.

After his playing days were over, Johnson entered coaching, beginning his career as the running backs coach at South Carolina State in 2001, where he helped the Bulldogs finish 6-5. He then held the offensive coordinator position at Shaw University in 2002 before becoming offensive coordinator/QBs coach at Texas Southern in 2004 and 2005. Johnson had an immediate impact in both positions. In 2005 at TSU, Johnson helped develop sophomore RB Brent Wilson into a 1st-Team All-SWAC performer with 1,032 rushing yards, 10 rushing TDs and 1 receiving TD. Wilson became the 1st TSU player to break the 1,000-yard mark since 1998 and was the lone sophomore on offense to earn 1st-team honors after making a dramatic improvement over his freshman season when he finished with 16 rushing yards. At Shaw, Johnson helped resurrect the Bears football program that had been discontinued since 1978. The team went 7-3 in both 2002 and 2003 and rejoined the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Conference in '03.

Johnson attended Howard University, where he earned his bachelor's degree in consumer studies. As a senior he was an All-Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference choice after hauling in 31 receptions for 546 yards and 9 TDs. For his college career, Johnson finished with 16 TDs and 1,229 receiving yards on 73 catches.

A native of Augusta, GA, Johnson attended T.W. Josey High School. He and his family reside in Shakopee.

PAT MORRIS
OFFENSIVE LINE

Coaching Experience: 35th Season
NFL Experience: 14th Season
Vikings Experience: 5th Season

The Vikings offensive lines under Pat Morris' direction have performed despite roster movement and have answered the call regardless of the task. Morris enters his 14th NFL season in 2010 with a track record of success developing linemen that are adept pass and run blockers.

In the past 13 seasons (1997-2009), Morris has coached lines that have cleared the way for the NFL's #1 rushing attack 3 times (1998, '99, '07) and ranked in the NFL's top 10 on 8 occasions.

The 2009 Vikings adapted to starting rookie 2nd-round pick Phil Loadholt at RT and inserting 2nd-year pro John Sullivan at center to make his debut as a starter. The unit didn't skip a beat and featured a pair of Pro Bowlers in LT Bryant McKinnie and perennial choice LG Steve Hutchinson while Loadholt was an All-Rookie honoree. The line helped RB Adrian Peterson earn All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors while setting a team record with 18 rushing TDs to lead the NFL. Peterson notched 1,383 yards on the ground, the 3rd-best total in Vikings history.

The 2009 team also protected 40-year-old QB Brett Favre as he posted one of the best statistical seasons of his career. The front line kept Favre safe against the playoff-bound Green Bay Packers in both games during the season, not allowing a sack or an INT against the NFL's #2 total defense. Favre did not throw an INT in 10 games on the season and was not sacked in 3 games during the season. Favre's protection and the efficiency of the running game keyed the Vikings to a 2nd straight NFC North title, a berth in the NFC Championship game and a 12-4 regular season mark, tied for the 2nd-most wins in Vikings history.

The Vikings powerful 2008 rushing attack was key to the club winning the NFC North title with a 10-6 mark, the 1st Division championship for the Vikings since 2000. In his 2nd NFL season, Peterson became the 1st Viking to lead the league in rushing and broke team records with 1,760 yards rushing and 10 games over the 100-yard mark. Hutchinson was named 1st-Team All-Pro and went to his 3rd straight Pro Bowl in his 3 seasons with Minnesota. The 2007 Vikings featured the top-ranked rushing offense in the NFL and set a team record with 2,634 rushing yards. The team set a franchise record with a 5.33 yard per carry average, scored 22 rushing TDs, and had 8 games on the season featuring a 100-yard rushing performance. The Vikings posted the top 2 team rushing performances in the NFL in '07 with a team-record 378 yards on the ground vs. San Diego and 311 yards at Chicago.

Pro Bowl honors for their performances in 2007 for the 2nd consecutive season, which was the 1st time since 1999-2000 that the Vikings had 2 offensive linemen earn the honor in back-to-back years. Peterson joined veteran Chester Taylor as the tandem combined to rush for a team-record 2,185 yards. In his 5th NFL game Peterson broke the Vikings single-game rushing record with 224 yards on the ground at Chicago and 3 games later he set a new NFL record with 296 rushing on the ground against San Diego. Peterson ended the season with 1,341 yards to finish 2nd in the NFL rushing race and post the 2nd-best single-season rushing mark in Vikings history. Peterson and Taylor became the 1st Vikings RB duo to rush for consecutive 1,000-yard seasons in Vikings history.

In 2006, Taylor took advantage of his 1st full-time starting role in the NFL to run for 1,216 yards, the 4th-highest single-season total in team history. The Vikings posted 5 games with a 100-yard rusher on the season, which matched the 2004 and 2005 Vikings teams combined.

Morris spent 2004 and 2005 in the NFC North as the offensive line coach for the Detroit Lions on Steve Mariucci's staff.

Before joining the Lions, Morris spent 7 seasons with the San Francisco 49ers, 2 as TEs/assistant offensive line coach (1997-98) and 5 as OL coach (1999-2003), and 6 of those seasons (1997-02) were under Mariucci. During the 6 seasons under Mariucci, the 49ers made the playoffs 4 times with a pair of NFC West titles. During his time with the 49ers, the team totaled the 2nd-highest rushing total in the NFL, averaging 135.5 yards per game over the 7-year span. San Francisco's offensive line cleared the way for 5 2,000-yard rushing seasons, with 2,544 in 1998 (franchise record), 2,095 in 1999, 2,244 in 2000, 2,244 in 2002, and 2,279 in 2003. Four offensive linemen played in the Pro Bowl during Morris' time working with the line, including G Kevin Gogan (1998), G Ray Brown (2002), C Jeremy Newberry (2002-03), and G Ron Stone (2003). The 49ers had 1,000-yard rushers in 6 of Morris' 7 seasons with the team, including Garrison Hearst's franchise-record 1,570 yards in 1998.

Morris also has familiarity with the state of Minnesota from his 4 seasons at the University of Minnesota (1979-82) as offensive line coach under Joe Salem. He spent a season at Northern Arizona (1978) before joining the Gophers' staff. Morris began his coaching career at Southern California as a graduate assistant from 1976-77. He graduated from USC following his playing days in 1976.

During his college playing and coaching career, Morris was associated with 5 Rose Bowl teams and 2 national championships. Morris was born in Cleveland, OH, and is married to wife, Kathy.

FRED PAGAC

LINEBACKERS

Coaching Experience: 33rd Season

NFL Experience: 12th Season (10 coaching, 2 playing)

Vikings Experience: 5th Season

During Fred Pagac's 33-year coaching career he has built a reputation for helping players achieve at their highest levels and develop young talent within the defensive system. The 2009 season was a prime example of that for the Vikings LBs.

The LB unit was equally strong against the run and pass, helping the Vikings rank #6 in the NFL in total defense and #2 against the run after leading the NFL in run defense the previous 3 seasons. The #6 mark was a repeat of the 2008 defensive ranking and was the 1st time since 1993-94 the Vikings posted back-to-back top 10 defenses.

Pagac's crew in 2009 had to deal with adversity along with prosperity. Chad Greenway led the team in tackles for the 2nd straight season and hauled in a career-best 3 INTs to raise his stature as one of the NFL's emerging defensive players. Fellow OLB Ben Leber led the Vikings with 9 passes defended and added 2.5 sacks. Defensive captain E.J. Henderson was lost for the final 4 games of the regular season and the playoffs to a broken leg and rookie 5th-round draft pick Jasper Brinkley was pressed into duty.

The rapid development Brinkley showed helped keep the defense on track, highlighted by the dominant performances in the NFC Divisional Playoff vs. Dallas and the NFC Championship game at New Orleans. The Vikings defense faced the #1 (Saints) and #2 (Cowboys) offenses in the NFL during the playoffs and held the teams in check, limiting the teams a 3rd-down conversion rate of 24% (6-of-25) and allowed 248 and 257 total net yards to teams who averaged 399.4 and 403.8 respectively.

The 2008 Vikings LBs overcame adversity to solidify a defensive unit that finished the season ranked #6 in the NFL in total defense and #1 in rushing defense for the 3rd straight season, becoming the 1st team since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to lead the League in rush defense 3 straight seasons. The unit had to overcome the loss of emerging star and defensive captain MLB E.J. Henderson to a season-ending injury in the 4th game. Veteran SLB Ben Leber took over defensive playcalling and the team didn't miss a beat. Leber tied for the NFL lead with 4 fumble recoveries while WLB Chad Greenway led the team in tackles with 150 and emerged as a blitz threat, notching 5.5 sacks, the 4th-most by a Vikings LB in team history.

When Henderson was lost for the season Pagac had to prepare undrafted 2nd-year man David Herron to step into the void as the team searched for a replacement, which was former Vikings starter Napoleon Harris. When Harris picked up a fumble and went 27 yards for a TD it marked the 4th score a Vikings LB has produced in the 3 seasons Pagac has coached the position.

In 2007 Henderson led the team with a career-high 155 tackles in his 1st season playing MLB since 2004. He added a career-best 4.5 sacks and led the team with a career-high 14 tackles for loss while earning Pro Bowl alternate honors. The LB corps entered 2007 with only Leber playing his same position from the previous year. Leber tied for the team lead with 5.0 sacks, matching his career-best mark set as a rookie with San Diego in 2002, and posted a career-high 88 tackles. Greenway, who missed his 2006 rookie season with a knee injury, came back in 2007 to rank 2nd on the team with 130 tackles, lead the NFL with 4 fumble recoveries and have a pair of interceptions, including scoring his 1st career TD.

BLITZING BACKERS

The Vikings LBs have a knack for pressuring the QB and playing the pass equally as well as the run. The Vikings currently feature 2 of the top sacking LBs in team history.

The 2006 Vikings finished #8 in NFL total defense and #1 against the run for only the 3rd time in team history. The team had not cracked the top 10 in total defense since 1994 but the Vikings defense became a calling card as the team set a franchise record and posted the 2nd-lowest rushing yards allowed by an NFL team since the 1970 merger at 985 yards, an average of 61.6 per game. The Vikings LBs played a key role in the defensive dynamic by accounting for 9.5 sacks, 6 INTs and 2 TDs. Henderson led the team in tackles with 142 and posted with 3.0 sacks and 2 INTs under Pagac's watch, including a 45-yard TD on his 1st career INT. Leber made his impact on the team felt in his 1st season with the team with 3.0 sacks, an INT and scored a TD on a fumble recovery.

Pagac coached LBs for the Kansas City Chiefs for 2 seasons (2004-05) and with the Oakland Raiders for 3 seasons (2001-03) before coming to the Vikings. Prior to entering the professional ranks, Pagac spent 23 years on the coaching staff at Ohio State, where he aided in the development of several top players.

Under Pagac's direction in 2005, Chiefs 3rd-year LB Kawika Mitchell led the team with a career-high 135 tackles and 14 passes defended as he started all 16 games at MLB for the 1st time in his career. Pagac also tutored rookie LB Derrick Johnson, who finished 3rd on the team with 110 tackles and added 2.0 sacks and 9 passes defended on his way to being named the club's Mack Lee Hill Award winner, which is given to KC's top rookie. Johnson became the 1st rookie LB in Chiefs history to start all 16 games since LB Dino Hackett accomplished the feat in 1986. The Chiefs defense finished 7th in the NFL against the run in '05, and 6th in the NFL with 31 takeaways.

In 2004, 3rd-year LB Scott Fujita led the Chiefs for the 2nd consecutive season in tackles with 112. Kawika Mitchell bounced back from an early-season ankle injury to start 12 games and finished 2nd on the team with 85 tackles. The Chiefs defense finished 12th in the NFL against the run.

In 2002, Pagac helped the Raiders defense to a #11 overall NFL ranking and a #3 ranking against the run as Oakland won the AFC and faced Tampa Bay in Super Bowl XXXVII. Pagac tutored Napoleon Harris as he was named to Pro Football Weekly's All-Rookie team and finished 3rd on the team in tackles. In 2001, MLB and former Viking Greg Biekert led the Raiders with 108 tackles and tied a career high with 3.0 sacks.

From 1978-2000, Pagac coached at his alma mater, Ohio State, and worked with 10 Buckeyes defensive performers who earned All-America honors, including Vikings CB Antoine Winfield. Winfield was a 2-time All-America pick and won the Jim Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back in 1998. Pagac also tutored future Pro Bowl LBs Chris Spielman, Pepper Johnson and Mike Vrabel, as well as CB Shawn Springs, LB Na'ill Diggs, S Mike Doss, and CB Nate Clements. Andy Katzenmoyer was All-America in 1997 and won the Butkus Award as the nation's top LB. During Pagac's 23 years on the Ohio State staff, the Buckeyes played in 20 bowl games. As a player and coach, Pagac was part of 6 Rose Bowls with the Buckeyes.

Pagac was assistant head coach to John Cooper in 2000 in his final season at OSU. From 1996-99, Pagac served as defensive coordinator. In 1998, the Buckeyes led the nation in rushing defense, ranked 2nd in pass defense, and were 4th overall. Pagac was among 5 finalists for the Frank Broyles Award as the NCAA's top assistant in '98.

In '97, Ohio State allowed 170 points to rank 2nd in the nation in scoring defense. That season the Buckeyes also ranked 2nd in the nation in pass defense. In 1996, Ohio State was 1st in the country in pass defense and ranked 2nd in scoring defense,

NOSE FOR THE BALL

Chad Greenway tied a Vikings record in 2009 at Detroit (9/20/09) when he snared a pair of INTs and had a fumble recovery. The 3 takeaways tied for the Vikings single-game high and marked only the 3rd time in team history a LB accomplished the feat- matching Jack Del Rio and Roy Winston. Greenway joins fellow LBs E.J. Henderson and Ben Leber showing a nose for the ball. The trio all rank in the top 10 in team history for FRs at their position.

allowing just 131 points, which was the fewest surrendered by Ohio State since 1979.

Prior to being named defensive coordinator in 1996, Pagac tutored Ohio State's LBs for 14 seasons (1982-95). He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant under the legendary Woody Hayes in 1978 before joining the staff on a full-time basis under Earle Bruce in 1982. Pagac coached on the Buckeyes staff with Vikings QB coach Kevin Rogers from 1977-78.

Pagac entered the NFL as a TE with Chicago in 1974 as a rookie free agent, where he was honored with the club's prestigious Brian Piccolo Award. Pagac also played 13 games for Tampa Bay in their 1976 inaugural season.

Pagac was a 3-year starter at TE for Ohio State from 1971-73. He was part of Buckeyes teams that compiled an impressive 25-6-2 record over his playing career, including a 19-3 mark in the Big Ten. During his senior season in '73, the Buckeyes posted a 10-0-1 record and finished 2nd in the final AP poll.

Pagac (4/26/52) was born in Richeyville, PA. He and his wife, Bernie, have a daughter, Jennifer, and a son, Fred, Jr., who played LB at Ohio State, with the Frankfurt Galaxy and currently coaches with the UFL's Florida Tuskers.

DIRON REYNOLDS

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE LINE

Coaching Experience: 14th Season

NFL Experience: 8th Season

Vikings Experience: 2nd Season

Diron Reynolds returns in 2010 for his 2nd season working with the Vikings defensive line and will attempt to build on the progress made in 2009.

The Vikings led the NFL with 48.0 sacks in 2009 and had breakout performances by several players. Along with perennial All-Pro performers Jared Allen and Kevin Williams, the team got a career-best performance from DE Ray Edwards and DT Jimmy Kennedy excelled in his role, providing depth to the interior line. Edwards had a career-high 8.5 sacks in the regular season and tied a Vikings playoff record with 3.0 sacks vs. Dallas in the NFC Divisional Playoff win. The Vikings defense set a new team playoff record with 6.0 sacks against the Cowboys. Kennedy matched his career-high with 3.0 sacks in the regular season and added another in the playoffs.

In his most recent role Reynolds was the defensive line coach for the Miami Dolphins during the 2007 season. While with Miami, Reynolds' line created a pass rush that helped the Dolphins rank 4th in the league in passing yards allowed. Dolphin's DE Jason Taylor recorded his 6th double-digit sack season (11.0) and 6th trip to the Pro Bowl. Reynolds took part in the 1st regular season NFL game played away from North America when the Dolphins took on the Giants in London on 10/28/07.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Reynolds spent 5 seasons (2002-2006) working as a defensive quality control coach for the Indianapolis Colts under current Vikings defensive coordinator, Leslie Frazier (2005-2006) and former Vikings assistant Tony Dungy. During his time in Indy the team compiled a 60-20 record (.750), posting double-digit wins in every season, captured the AFC South crown 4 out of his 5 seasons, and tallied the most wins in franchise history with 14 in 2005. The Colts also went 7-4 in the post-season during that span, capturing the Lombardi Trophy by defeating the Chicago Bears in Super Bowl XLI for the team's 1st title since 1970. The Colts defense twice ranked 2nd in the NFL in passing yards allowed (2002 and 2006) and recorded the 4th best sack total in the NFL in 2004.

Before moving to the NFL, Reynolds spent 5 seasons working in the collegiate ranks. He spent the 2001 season tutoring DTs for the Indiana University Hoosiers, following a 4-year stint with his alma mater Wake Forest (1997-2000).

In 2001 the Hoosiers saw significant improvement on the defensive side of the ball. The 2001 team improved by 2 wins and cut the number of games allowing 30+ points by more than half, from 9 in 2000 to just 4 in 2001.

Reynolds got his 1st taste of coaching on a major stage when he joined his alma mater as a graduate assistant for the 1997 and 1998 seasons. In 1997 the Demon Deacons set a school record for rushing yards allowed per game with just 96.1 while also held opponents to only 23.0 point per game. After being hired on full-time as the OLB coach for the Deacons in 1999, Reynolds helped Wake Forest produce one of the top defenses in the nation and best in school history since the 1976 season. The Deacons defense finished the year ranked in the top 35 nationally in every statistical category and earned their 1st bowl berth since 1992, defeating Arizona State in the Aloha Bowl.

Before returning to Wake Forest, Reynolds spent 2 years coaching football, basketball, and track at Brooklyn-Cayce High School in South Carolina.

As a collegian, Reynolds played LB and was a key contributor on special teams for Wake Forest from 1990-1993. Reynolds was a member of the Deacons' 1992 campaign as they advanced, and won, their 1st bowl game (Independence Bowl) since the 1979 season and finished the season ranked in both the AP and Coaches Top 25 polls for the 1st time since 1979.

Reynolds, (2/23/71), grew up in Aiken, SC and earned his bachelor's degree in communications from Wake Forest along with a master's in liberal studies. His brother, Jamal, played DE for the Green Bay Packers, where he was a 1st-round draft pick, and brother, Rashad, played LB at Rice University. His father, William, was a DE at the South Carolina State. He resides with his family in Eden Prairie.

COMMITMENT TO COMMUNITY A SOURCE OF PLAYERS' PRIDE

The Vikings have taken the role as a community leader and civic citizenship seriously since the franchise was founded. Now, 50 seasons later, the Vikings continue to expand community relations as a core value with the team. Philanthropy and giving back to the community that houses the team has changed over the past five decades, but the willingness of players to give their time and effort has been a staple of the team that has not changed. The team works closely with organizations throughout the Upper Midwest and reach out through the Vikings Children's Fund to support childrens causes to promote the health and wellness of families. In 2009, every players on the Vikings roster took part in a community outreach activity.

Dating back to the early days of the Vikings traveling basketball teams of the 1960s and 1970s, the team has used their profile and position to bring help to those in need- for 50 years.

Karl Kassulke, Lonnie Warwick and Charlie West were among the founding players of the Vikings charity basketball team.

QUARTERBACKS

Coaching Experience: 36th Season
NFL Experience: 5th Season
Vikings Experience: 5th Season

Kevin Rogers returns to the Vikings for his 5th season with the club and his 36th season of coaching in 2010 after helping orchestrate one of the top passing seasons in Vikings history in 2009. For Rogers, the 2010 season will mark his 36th year in the coaching profession, 28 of which have been at the collegiate level.

Rogers helped get veteran QB Brett Favre up to speed with his new team after the future Hall of Famer was signed in mid-August without the benefit of off-season workouts or training camp to get familiar with his new teammates. Despite the late arrival, Favre went on to post one of his best statistical seasons and revamp his game to stress ball security and distributing passes across the offense.

Favre had a career-bests with a 33-7 TD-INT (+26) ratio, 107.2 passer rating and a completion rate of 68.4%. The Vikings became only the 2nd team in NFL history to have 6 players catch 40+ passes during the season and Favre hit 8 different players for TDs. Favre averaged 18 INTs a season in his previous 17 seasons as a starter in the NFL before joining the Vikings in 2009 and dropped that number to 7. He set Vikings records with 10 games notching a passer rating over 100 points and had 10 games without an INT.

The 2008 Vikings had Jackson and veteran Gus Frerotte both under center as the team went 10-6 and won the NFC North- the 1st Division title for the Vikings since 2000. When Jackson took over for an injured Frerotte in the 13th game of the season at Detroit (12/7/08) he led the team on a 4th-quarter comeback win and posted wins in 2 of the final 3 wins of the regular season. In Jackson's 1st start after an 11-game layoff when Frerotte took over the reins, he earned his 1st career NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors after a career-best 4 TD day at Arizona (12/14/08) in an upset win over the eventual NFC Champions. In the final 4 regular season games, Jackson had an 8 TD to 1 INT ratio and a passer rating of 115.4.

The 2008 Vikings passing game made big plays down the field, connecting on 2 of the 3 longest passing plays in team history during the season. Bernard Berrian was on the receiving end of an NFL-record tying 99-yard TD vs. Chicago (11/30) and an 86-yard score vs. Detroit (10/12).

In 2007, Rogers watched Jackson, the former 2006 2nd-round draft choice, finish the season with an 8-4 mark as a starter, including 7-3 in his final 10 starts with wins over the 2006 NFC Champion Chicago Bears (twice) as well as the Super Bowl XLII champion NY Giants and playoff-bound San Diego.

Before joining Minnesota, Rogers spent the 2002-05 seasons at Virginia Tech, where he guided back-to-back Hokies QBs to impressive performances. Rogers helped QB Bryan Randall etch his name throughout the school record book as he became the all-time leader in passing yards, TDs and total offense. Randall ended his career in 2004 with Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Year. In 2005, Rogers guided QB Marcus Vick in his debut as a starter on to 1st-Team All-ACC honors. During Rogers' tenure, the Hokies amassed a 39-14 record, won the ACC title in 2004 and played in the 1st ACC Championship Game in 2005. The team advanced to bowl games in each of his 4 seasons.

Prior to his successful stint at Virginia Tech, Rogers spent the 1999-2001 seasons at Notre Dame as the offensive coordinator/ QBs coach on Bob Davie's staff. He played a part in the 2000 Irish squad that finished 9-3 and was invited to the Fiesta Bowl in the school's debut in a Bowl Championship Series game. Rogers worked with QB Jarious Jackson in his final season and helped the senior signal-caller leave with the single-season passing yardage record in 1999 and set school marks for attempts and completions. Jackson ended his career as the 4th-ranked quarterback in school history and was selected in the 7th round of the 2000 NFL Draft, the first Irish QB drafted since Rick Mirer in 1993.

Rogers' longest tenure came with Syracuse University, where he coached from 1991-1998 and helped the Orange to a combined 68-26-1 record and 6 bowl appearances. He joined the team as quarterbacks coach on Pasqualoni's staff, was named assistant head coach in 1995 and served as the recruiting coordinator from 1995-97 before being promoted to offensive coordinator in 1997. During Rogers' time with Syracuse, the team tied for the 1996 Big East title and won the crown outright in 1997 and '98, becoming the 1st team in conference history to win 3 straight championships. It was also during that time that Rogers became acquainted with Vikings' Head Coach Brad Childress, as the Philadelphia Eagles began evaluating Rogers' star pupil, Donovan McNabb, before the 1999 NFL Draft. McNabb excelled under Rogers' tutelage, leaving Syracuse with the majority of the school's passing records and earning 3 straight Big East Offensive Player of the Year awards from 1996-98 before being drafted #2 overall by the Eagles. Rogers also helped groom future NFL stars Marvin Harrison, Qadry Ismail and Rob Konrad.

Rogers spent 1983-90 on the staff at Navy working with the offense and future NFL standout Napoleon McCallum. From 1980-82, he coached RBs at his alma mater, William & Mary. Rogers got his start in coaching at Virginia Beach's Bayside High (1974-76) before serving as a graduate assistant at Ohio State under the legendary Woody Hayes in 1977-78, where he also coached with Vikings LB coach Fred Pagac.

A 1974 graduate from the College of William & Mary, where he also played LB, Rogers went on to earn his master's degree from Ohio State in 1978. Rogers and his wife, Betty, have 3 children - Kevin, Megan and Ryan. Kevin is a former Villanova QB and works as a pro scout for the Super Bowl XLI Champion Indianapolis Colts. Ryan earned his degree from Notre Dame and his master's at Syracuse's Newhouse School of Communications. Megan is the Director of Legal Affairs for the Cleveland Browns.

Coaching Experience: 13th Season

NFL Experience: 10th Season

Vikings Experience: 1st Season

Matt Sheldon joins the Vikings in 2010 following 4 seasons coaching LBs with the Buffalo Bills. 2010 marks Sheldon's 10th season as an NFL assistant coach.

Sheldon will work with veteran coaches Joe Woods and Leslie Frazier with the Vikings defense, bringing his experience from previous stops in Buffalo and St. Louis.

With Buffalo, the Bills LBs were instrumental to the team ranking #2 in the NFL in passing defense, led by MLB Paul Posluszny, who emerged as a play making force. Posluszny led the Bills in tackles in 2008 and 2009 after having a promising rookie season cut short by injury. In 2009, he notched a career-best 3 INTs along with 3 forced fumbles and a sack.

All 3 of the Bills regular starting LBs- Bryan Scott, Chris Draft and Posluszny- recorded at least a sack and an INT during the season after veteran Kawika Mitchell was sidelined by injury. Scott made the transition from S to LB following Mitchell's injury and ranked 3rd on the team with 78 tackles. Buffalo showed a knack for taking the ball away in 2009, ranking 2nd in the NFL with 28 INTs and were 5th in the NFL with 33 total takeaways. The Bills allowed only 185 yards per game passing and opposing QBs posted a mere 61.1 average passer rating, ranking 2nd in the NFL in both categories.

In 2007, under Sheldon's guidance, Posluszny entered the season as a starter at MLB, the 1st Bills rookie MLB to start a season opener since Shane Conlan in 1987.

Prior to his stint in Buffalo, Sheldon spent 2001-05 with the St. Louis Rams. His duties there were varied as he assisted special teams, defense, as well as special projects. Defensively, he assisted with both the secondary and the LBs. Prior to St. Louis, Sheldon served as a defensive graduate assistant at the University of Wisconsin (1997-99). At Wisconsin he assisted with the defensive secondary. Wisconsin's defense led the nation in 1998 and the Badgers were the first team in Big Ten history to win Rose Bowls in consecutive seasons (1998-99).

Returning to Minnesota is a homecoming for Sheldon, who played DB for the University of Minnesota after prep- ping at D.C. Everest High School in Schofield, WI. Sheldon and wife, Kari, have a son, Theodor and a daughter, Lillian.

GEORGE STEWART

WIDE RECEIVERS

Coaching Experience: 28th Season

NFL Experience: 23rd Season (22 coaching, 1 playing)

Vikings Experience: 4th Season

The Vikings WRs helped spur the biggest jump in passing offense in the NFL for the Vikings in 2009, leaping from #25 in the NFL in 2008 to #8 in 2009. The fundamentals work and teaching by veteran coach George Stewart was key to the development of WRs Sidney Rice and Percy Harvin, who were both Pro Bowl honorees, while Harvin earned NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year.

Stewart enters his 4th season on the Vikings staff in 2010 and his 22nd year on an NFL sideline. Having previously coached in Pittsburgh, Tampa Bay, San Francisco and Atlanta, Stewart has a proven track record of getting players to perform at the top of their games.

Over the years, Stewart has been a part of several successful programs, highlighted by 8 playoff appearances in the past 14 seasons and 3 NFC Championship games with San Francisco in 1997, Atlanta in 2004 and Minnesota in 2009. Recently, Stewart helped win 4 Division titles in the past 8 seasons – consecutive NFC North titles with Minnesota in 2008 and 2009, winning the NFC South with Atlanta in 2004 and an NFC West title in 2002 with San Francisco.

The 2009 Vikings became only the 2nd team in NFL history to have 6 players catch 40+ passes in a season and the WR unit stepped up to play at their highest level in recent memory. Rice enjoyed a breakout season and Harvin established himself as multi-talented offensive threat. Rice blossomed into a gamechanger in his 3rd season and left his mark on the record book. He tied an NFL playoff record and set a new Vikings post-season mark with 3 TD catches in the NFC Divisional game vs. Dallas. Rice's 1,312 yards ranked 2nd in the NFC in 2009 and he became only the 4th Vikings WR in team history to eclipse the 1,300-yard mark. Rice's 201 yards vs. Detroit ranks as the 4th-best single-game mark in Vikings history and his 2 catches of 50+ yards vs. Baltimore tied for the 2nd-best mark in team history.

Stewart was able to get Harvin acclimated to the pro game and spurred him to NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year and Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Year. Harvin tied for the NFL rookie lead in receptions and yards. Harvin excelled on offense and special teams, earning a Pro Bowl berth as a return man and setting a new Vikings record with 2,081 total net yards. His 60 catches ranked 2nd only to Randy Moss' 1998 debut season when he had 69 receptions in Vikings history for rookie catches.

In 2008, the Vikings WRs contributed to much of the success of an improved passing attack. Led by priority free agent signing Bernard Berrian, the Vikings led the NFL with 13 TDs through the air of 20+ yards. Berrian had a career year, setting highs in yards with 964 and TDs with 7. Berrian was on the receiving end of 2 of the 3 longest receptions in Vikings' history with an 86-yard TD reception vs. Detroit (10/12/08) and a 99-yard TD catch vs. Chicago (11/30/08). The 99-yard strike tied an NFL mark for the Vikings WRs Sidney Rice and Percy Harvin had huge impacts on the Vikings passing game in 2009 and were instrumental to the team winning a 2nd straight NFC North title. Rice's 1,312 yards in 2009 made him only the 4th Vikings WR to break the 1,300-yard mark and his 3 TDs in the Dallas playoff game set a Vikings mark and tied an NFL record for a post-season game.

longest reception in history and set a Vikings record as the longest play from scrimmage.

Throughout Stewart's coaching career, he has been fortunate to learn from some of the game's all-time greats, beginning both his playing and early coaching careers under college legend Lou Holtz. Stewart went on to work in the NFL side-by-side with Chuck Noll, Sam Wyche, George Seifert and Dan Reeves, all men who led teams to the Super Bowl.

During Stewart's tenure in Atlanta, the team won the NFC South title in 2004 and advanced to the NFC Championship game against Philadelphia.

Prior to joining Atlanta, Stewart was an integral part of the San Francisco 49ers' success from 1996-2002, as the team advanced to the playoffs 5 times in those 7 seasons. In 1997, the 49ers won the NFC West with a 13-3 mark and eventually lost to Green Bay in the NFC Championship game. During that time, Stewart tutored the 49ers WRs and helped elevate each of Terrell Owens, J.J. Stokes and Tai Streets performances, with Owens making Pro Bowls and All-Pro in 3 straight seasons from 2000-02. Owens had 17 games over the 100-yard receiving mark and 5 games with 150+ yards. Before working with Stewart, Owens' career-highs for season receptions was 67, a mark he shattered with 97, 93 and 100 respectively in 2000, '01 and '02. Owens set his career-high in receiving yards with 1,451 in 2000 and TDs with 16 in 2001. He broke a 50-year-old NFL record when he caught 20 passes for 283 yards against the Bears in 2000 en route to his career-best day.

Stewart's 1st taste of NFL coaching came in Pittsburgh from 1989-91, where he coached special teams on Noll's staff. In his debut season in 1989, he helped Rod Woodson to a Pro Bowl as a return man. Following Pittsburgh, Stewart went on to spend 4 years coaching Tampa Bay special teams, where he helped K Mike Husted earn All-Rookie honors in 1993.

Before making the move to the NFL, Stewart spent several years in the college ranks, making his final stop at the Notre Dame LBs coach from 1986-88. Under Holtz's tutelage, the Irish steadily improved from the coach's opening season in '86 to become national champions in 1988, a year in which the team finished 12-0 and defeated West Virginia in the Fiesta Bowl. The stingy Irish defense allowed opponents to score over 20 points only twice during the season. Stewart's unit, which included Arnold Ale and Andre Jones highlighted by consensus All-America choice Frank Stans played a prominent role in the defensive success.

Stewart and Holtz began working together in 1983, when Stewart got his start in coaching as an Arkansas graduate assistant, working with the Razorbacks' TEs. When Holtz moved from Arkansas to Minnesota as the Golden Gophers head coach in 1984, Stewart accompanied him as the offensive line coach, his 1st exposure to the state where he would return in 2007. In 2 short seasons, Holtz and his staff quickly turned the Gophers program around, finishing 7-5 in 1985 and winning the Independence Bowl over Clemson, the 1st bowl victory for the Gophers since the 1962 Rose Bowl.

Stewart was a standout player as an offensive guard for the Razorbacks from 1977-80 and helped the squad share the 1979 Southwest Conference title. The team played in four straight bowl games during Stewart's playing tenure as Arkansas returned to national prominence under Holtz. Stewart was an All-SWC honoree as a junior in 1979, served as a team captain in 1980 and earned a spot on the Arkansas Team of the Decade for the 1970s. He signed with the Kansas City Chiefs in 1981 but spent the season on injured reserve.

Stewart has a bachelor's degree in education from Arkansas and is a native of Little Rock, AR, where he graduated from Parkview High School in 1977.

GOPHERS THE GOLD STANDARD IN PRODUCING PLAYERS

The Vikings enter the 50th season in franchise history owing a debt to the cross-town University of Minnesota for providing the most players in the rich history of the team. Since the inception of the team, 28 Golden Gophers have played for the Vikings, the most of any school in the country. Some of the Vikings early stalwarts were products of the University, including future Hall of Famer Carl Eller, who was taken in the 1964 Draft with the #6 overall choice by the Vikings. The 1964 draft class also yielded another building block of the great Vikings teams that excelled under Bud Grant, who earned his place in Gophers legend as a 3-sport star. The Vikings selected Bloomington, MN product Milt Sunde in the 20th round of the 1964 draft, the final player taken by the team (#271) that season. Sunde beat the odds from a 20th-round pick to become a key component of the Vikings lines. He went on to play in 146 games for the Vikings from 1964-74.

Not only have Minnesota, USC and Ohio State produced the most Vikings players, but they have also been among the best of the best on the field. Of the 13 players in the Vikings Ring of Honor, 5 have come from those schools- Eller (Minnesota) and Ron Yary (USC) join Jim Marshall (OSU), Corey Stringer (OSU) and Cris Carter (OSU).

CHRIS WHITE

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

Coaching Experience: 21st Season

NFL Experience: 2nd Season

Vikings Experience: 2nd Season

Chris White joined the Vikings in 2009 and helped oversee a special teams unit that sent a pair of members to the Pro Bowl and made an impact on the Vikings record book along the way. The Vikings special teams were instrumental in the team winning a 2nd consecutive NFC North title and winning 12 games in the regular season, tied for the 2nd-best total in Vikings history.

The 2009 special teams were represented at the Pro Bowl by cover man Heath Farwell and return man Percy Harvin. That tandem led the unit all season and were joined savvy vets and emerging play makers to give the Vikings a strong foundation for the future. Ryan Longwell enjoyed one of his best seasons, scoring a career-high 132 points and hitting 26-of-28 FGs. Harvin set a Vikings record by returning a pair of kickoff returns for TDs during the season, including a 101-yarder that tied the 2nd-longest in Vikings history. The coverage units were led by Farwell and 1st-year LB Kenny Onatolu, who was pulled from the Canadian Football League and made a smooth transition to the NFL.

White is in his 2nd season with the Vikings in 2010 after a 9-year stint at Syracuse University where, at different times throughout his tenure, he coached WRs, TEs, was the special teams coordinator and a recruiting coordinator. White brings with him a proven track record as a special teams coach and will draw on his 19 years of coaching experience in the high school and collegiate ranks as he assists special teams coordinator Brian Murphy.

White's 9 seasons at Syracuse were highlighted by a 2001 Insight Bowl victory, a share of the Big East championship in 2004, and a combined 7 units that ranked in the nation's top 20 while working as the school's special teams coordinator from 2000-2003.

White most recently served as the Orange WRs coach as well as their recruiting coordinator, a post he moved to prior to the 2005 season. White worked to bring in young talent and rebuild Syracuse's program. His efforts showed as 5 different underclassmen WRs caught TD passes for the Orange in 2008, with sophomore wideout Donte Davis leading the team in catches, yards, and tied for the lead in TD receptions. Prior to moving on to the WRs coach/recruiting coordinator position, White spent the 2004 season coaching the team's TEs to go along with his duties as recruiting coordinator. While he guided former New York Jets TE Joe Kowalewski, the 2004 Orange went on to capture a share of the Big East crown and a victory in Champs Sports Bowl.

White spent his opening 3 years at Syracuse working with the TEs and as the special teams coordinator. From the start of the 2000 season until he left his post as special teams coordinator in 2003, only 7 teams in the country blocked more kicks than the Orange (22), 5 coming from future NY Giants Super Bowl hero David Tyree. Syracuse also scored 8 TDs on special teams during the same time frame. In 2000 the team ranked 13th and 14th in kickoff return yardage and kickoff return yardage allowed respectively. The following season the Orange had their best overall finish since 1992, complete with a victory in the Insight Bowl, aided by the 18th-ranked punt return unit in the nation. In 2002, White led the nation's top punt coverage unit, while his punter ranked 7th in yardage and his punt returners ranked 20th in return yards. The 2003 campaign ended with both his kicker and punter being named to the All-Big East 2nd team.

In 1999, White served a dual-role as Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo's defensive and special teams coordinators, where he helped a number of his players into the school's record books. DB Vaughn Jarrett, a freshman at the time, went on to record the 5th most INTs in Mustang history, while DE Steve Prejean, then a junior, finished the season ranked 12th all time in school annuls with 8.0 sacks that season and LB Brett Baker posted the 11th best single-season mark with 98 tackles. White's kicker that season, Sal Rivas, finished the season with the school's 2nd-best field goal percentage.

White spent the 3 season prior to his arrival with the Mustangs with UNLV as the LB coach and special teams coordinator. Under his tutelage, P Joe Kristosik and KR Duane James tallied the 3rd best punting average and kick return yardage marks in school history in 1998. On the defensive side of the ball, LB Scott Patton recorded the most single-season tackles in UNLV history in 1998, while James Sunia sent the same mark for a freshman the season prior.

The lone head coaching job of White's career came as a 3-year stint with Bishop Manogue High School from 1994-1996, where he was named the Northern Nevada Coach of the Year in 1996.

White's 1st full-time role in coaching came as the assistant QBs coach for the College of the Holy Cross (Mass.) from 1993-1994. In his 2 years at that post both of the Crusaders starters ended their respective seasons with QB efficiency ratings over 100.0, and in 1993 Dave Harrington wrote himself into the school's record book with the 10th best single-season completion percentage.

White paid his dues in the coaching world working for 5 seasons as a graduate assistant, for 3 years at Syracuse (1990-92) and then with Arkansas State (1992-1993). In his 2 season with Arkansas State, he saw former Vikings punter, Kyle Richardson, secure 2nd place in school history with 3,285 punting yards in the 1993 season. In the same season the Red Wolves also had the 4th best mark in school history with 14 FGs made.

In his 1st stint at Syracuse, White worked with current Vikings QB coach, Kevin Rogers, and under Paul Pasqualoni. The team posted a 27-8 record in the three years and won the 1990 Aloha Bowl and 1991 Hall of Fame Bowl.

As a collegian, White was a 4-year starter at QB for Colby College and was named a captain his senior year. The Mules won consecutive CBB championships in his final 3 seasons.

White grew up in Haverhill, MA and graduated from Philips Exeter Academy in 1986. He majored in government while at Colby College. His brother, Brian, is TE's coach for the University of Florida. He and his wife, Angel, reside in the Minneapolis area with their daughters, Payton and Riley.

JOE WOODS

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Coaching Experience: 19th Season
NFL Experience: 7th Season
Vikings Experience: 5th Season

With 4 seasons leading the Vikings DBs under his belt, Joe Woods returns in 2010 with a unit that fought adversity and developed depth and character in the face of setbacks.

The Vikings toughness in the back end has been a contributing factor in the team building a reputation as one of the most opportunistic defenses in the NFL. The Vikings ranked #6 in total defense in 2009, the 2nd straight year achieving the mark. The back-to-back top 10 defensive rankings were the 1st time by a Vikings defense since 1993-94. The defensive unit has played a key part in the Vikings back-to-back NFC North titles and winning the most games (22) in the NFC over the 2008-09 seasons.

In 2009, the Vikings DBs had their depth tested when 2-time Pro Bowler Antoine Winfield was sidelined by injury for 6 games and starting SS Tyrell Johnson missed a game. Benny Sapp and Karl Paymah filled in for Winfield and the team went 4-2 without the emotional leader of the backfield. A pair of rookies, CB Asher Allen and S Jamarca Sanford, started games at nickel back and in place of Johnson respectively and showed their talents for the future. In a breakout season, CB Cedric Griffin led the team with 4 INTs and the DBs racked up 3.0 sacks on the year with Winfield, Allen and Husain Abdullah all getting to the QB.

Winfield was honored in 2008 with his 1st Pro Bowl berth as a 10-year veteran, joining Darren Sharper in the backfield as recent Vikings to be named to the NFC all-star team. Winfield's career year in 2008 highlighted a group that produced INTs by 7 different players.

The 2008 DBs had to battle injuries and overcome adversity in helping the Vikings rank #6 in the NFL in total defense, the highest finish since 1994. Despite the personnel shuffling, the Vikings DBs helped the total defense jump from #20 in 2007 to #6 in 2008. Each of the 6 top Vikings DBs intercepted passes in 2008 and showed their value in run support.

In 2007, all 4 regular starters in the Vikings secondary scored TDs, 3 by INT return and 1 on a fumble recovery. Woods led a defensive backfield that featured Sharper earning his 4th career

Pro Bowl trip. The rock of the unit, Winfield, built on his reputation as the best tackling CB in the NFL and scored on an INT-return in the season opener vs. Atlanta. Against the NY Giants, the Vikings set a team record as they returned 3 INTs for TDs, including a 93-yard return by Dwight Smith that ranks as the 4th-longest INT return in Vikings' history.

The Vikings ended the 2006 season ranked #8 in the NFL in total defense. The Vikings DBs had 3 players tie for the team lead with 4 INTs each- Smith, Sharper and Winfield. The trio also ranked 2nd, 4th and 5th on the team in tackles.

In 2006, Woods helped develop a trio of rookies- CB Cedric Griffin, S Greg Blue and CB Charles Gordon- who started a combined 10 games. Griffin earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week for his performance at Detroit (12/10/06), becoming the 5th Vikings CB to earn the award and only the 2nd since 1992.

In Tampa, Woods coached with 2006 Vikings defensive coordinator and current Pittsburgh Steelers head coach Mike Tomlin, fielding top 5 defenses in each of Woods' 2 seasons.

In 2005, Tampa Bay led the NFL in total defense and Ronde Barber set a Tampa Bay single-season record for most tackles by a CB with 120 and led the team with 7 INTs. In 2004, Woods was part of a defensive staff that helped the Bucs finish 5th in the NFL in total defense and 1st in pass defense.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Woods was the defensive backs coach at Western Michigan for 3 seasons (2001-03) and spent 3 seasons (1998-2000) on the staff at Hofstra where the team made a pair of trips to the 1-AA playoff quarterfinals.

Woods spent a season at Kent State University (1997) as defensive backs coach prior to joining the staff at Hofstra. He also coached the secondary at Grand Valley State (1994-97), ILBs at Northwestern State University in the spring of 1994, and was a graduate assistant at Eastern Michigan (1993-94). Woods entered coaching in 1992 at Muskingum College.

Woods was a 4-year letterman at safety and a captain during his senior year at Illinois State University. He earned 1st-team All-Gateway Conference honors in 1991 and earned a degree in criminal justice in 1992.

Woods (6/25/70) was born in North Vandergrift, PA. He and his wife, Ellen, have daughters, Brianna and Danari and son, Geno.

TURNOVERS TO TDs

The Vikings DBs have proven to know how to find the end zone in the 4 seasons that Joe Woods has tutored the unit, scoring 7 TDs over that span. The DBs also have a knack for forcing fumbles, led by Cedric Griffin and Antoine Winfield.

JEFF IMAMURA

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT/LBs

Coaching Experience: 12th Season

NFL Experience: 5th Season

Vikings Experience: 5th Season

Jeff Imamura returns to the Vikings in 2010 for his 5th season on the coaching staff. His primary duties include working directly with Defensive Coordinator Leslie Frazier on day-to-day defensive operations and activities, assisting Fred Pagac in coaching the LBs and generating comprehensive scouting reports on opponents.

In 2009, the Vikings LBs played at a high level and were key to the #6 ranking in total defense the club posted for the 2nd straight year. The Vikings had not been in the NFL's top 10 for total defense in consecutive seasons since 1993-94. The LB unit had to overcome a season-ending leg injury to captain E.J. Henderson, but were able to prepare rookie 5th-round draft pick Jasper Brinkley to start the final 4 regular season games and both playoff contests. Chad Greenway again led the team in tackles and joined Ben Leber in making plays against the run and pass. The duo combined for 4 INTs and 3.5 sacks during the regular season and playoffs.

The 2008 Vikings made dramatic strides from 2007 despite having to overcome the loss of key starters to injury and challenging the coaching staff to prepare backups to take on bigger roles. The Vikings defense ranked #6 in the NFL for total defense, the highest finish since 1994 for the team and a 14-position jump from the previous year. A key part of the 2008 Vikings defense taking a step forward was the emergence of Greenway as a total defender. In his 2nd year as a starter, Greenway led the team with 150 tackles and 5.5 sacks.

The 2007 Vikings LBs thrived in the NFL's #1 rushing defense as Henderson led the team with 155 tackles and 4.5 sacks, while Greenway and Ben Leber finished directly behind Henderson in total tackles with 130 and 88, respectively. Overall, the Vikings linebackers finished with 373 tackles, 9.5 sacks, 3 INTs, 6 FFs and 7 FRs.

In the previous season, the 2006 Vikings finished #8 in total defense and #1 against the run for only the 3rd time in team history. The team had not cracked the top 10 in total defense since 1994 but the Vikings defenders became a calling card as the team set a franchise record and posted the 2nd-lowest rushing yards allowed by an NFL team since the 1970 merger at 985 yards, an average of 61.6 per game.

Before joining the Vikings, Imamura coached OLBs at Saginaw Valley (MI) State University in 2003. He helped build the Cardinals' defense into a national leader as the unit ranked 7th in the country in scoring, 12th in turnover margin and 22nd in the country in passing. The Cardinals' OLBs accounted for over 60 percent of the team's sacks on the season. SVSU won the Great Lakes Conference title with an 11-0 record, finished the regular season ranked #1 in the nation and advanced to the NCAA Division II quarterfinals for only the 2nd time.

Imamura spent the previous 3 seasons (2000-02) at Northern Arizona University as the defensive line coach. In 2002, the Lumberjacks ranked 15th in the nation in rushing defense and 2nd in the conference with 39.0 sacks. NAU advanced to the Division I-AA playoffs in 2001 for only the 2nd time in school history.

A 1997 graduate of Texas Christian University, Imamura got his start in the coaching profession at TCU as a defensive assistant from 1997-99, where he assisted the Horned Frogs' DBs coach and defensive coordinator. TCU beat USC in the 1998 Sun Bowl to earn the school's 1st bowl victory since 1957 and in 1999 earned a share of the WAC title and a bowl bid.

Imamura earned his degree in finance at TCU. He is single and resides in Eden Prairie.

PART OF THE FABRIC OF MINNESOTA SINCE 1961

The following excerpt explains the early stages of the Vikings franchise as chronicled in the Minnesota Vikings 1961 Press, Radio, TV Guide.

Club History

Twain Cities football enthusiasts began their quest for professional football some 12 years ago, and it was on January 28, 1960, that their efforts were culminated with the announcement – from Miami, Florida, where the National Football League owners were in session- that Minnesota was being granted a franchise for 1961.

At the same meeting, Dallas was accepted to start play in 1960.

The franchise was granted just ten days after E. William Boyer, president of the Minneapolis Chamber of Commerce, had made an official presentation to the league on behalf of statewide Minnesota interests.

Besides Boyer in the founding group were: Max Winter, promoter and restaurateur, H.P. Skoglund, president of North American Life and Casualty Company; Ole Haugsrud, Duluth businessman, and the Northwest Publications, Inc., publishers of the St. Paul Dispatch and Pioneer Press, through its president, Bernard H. Ridder, Jr.

They decided to start with an original outlay of one million dollars, of which the Minneapolis sources would put up $600,000; St. Paul $300,000 and Duluth, representing the rest of the state, $100,000.

Upon acquiring a franchise, the group hired Joe Thomas, former scout with the Los Angeles Rams, to scout the country in preparation for the 1961 draft meeting, and went on a nationwide search to find a general manager. This ended with the selection of Bert E. Rose, who was at the time the public relations director for the Rams. From September, 1960, when Rose reported, until July, 1961, such details as hiring a coaching and front-office staff, contracting for radio and television, establishing a ticket operation, drafting, selecting and signing players, and many more, have - or will be - accomplished in order to put the Vikings on the field in 1961.

RYAN FICKEN

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT/WRS

Coaching Experience: 7th Season
NFL Experience: 4th Season
Vikings Experience: 4th Season

Ryan Ficken enters his 4th season with the Vikings offense in 2010 after helping the WRs to their most productive season in recent memory in 2009. Ficken assisted veteran WRs coach George Stewart in 2009 and helped Sidney Rice and Percy Harvin have breakout seasons. Both players were honored as Pro Bowlers and Harvin became the 2nd Viking in the past 3 seasons to be named NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year. Rice developed as a play maker and became only the 3rd Viking WR to post a 1,300-yard receiving season. Harvin tied for the NFL lead among rookies in receptions and yards and ranked 2nd in team history with 60 catches as a rookie.

In 2007 and 2008, the Vikings RBs were able to showcase their skills and combine the talents of Adrian Peterson and Chester Taylor. In 2008, Peterson led the NFL with 1,760 yards rushing and Taylor led all NFL RBs with 25 catches on 3rd down. Peterson became the 1st Vikings RB to lead the NFL in rushing and Taylor's 45 catches were a career high.

The 2007 Vikings offense ranked #1 in the NFL in rushing offense. Peterson had a legendary rookie year, including breaking the NFL's single game rushing record after going for 296 yards against San Diego on 11/4/07 and earning NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year. Peterson finished with 1,341 yards, 12 TDs and was named to the Pro Bowl MVP.

Ficken served as an offensive graduate assistant with UCLA in 2006. He worked extensively with Jim Colletto and the offensive line. Ficken broke down opponents' game film, gave opponent reports and coached the defensive scout team.

Prior to his work with the offense, Ficken was a graduate assistant in the football operations department where he acted as the NFL scout liaison and tracked opponents' personnel during games. He was as an assistant to the recruiting coordinator, playing a big part in the 2006 recruiting class that ranked in the top 10 nationally. From 2004-2005, Ficken was a volunteer coach at UCLA, focusing primarily on the defense and the secondary.

Ficken earned his bachelor's in business administration from ASU. He was a member of the Sun Devils football team for 2 seasons and received the Scholar-Athlete Award and was a member of Gamma Beta Phi, the National Scholastic Honor Society.

Ficken is currently finishing graduate school to obtain a masters in comparative education at UCLA. Ficken and wife, Andrea, reside in Eden Prairie.

QUALITY CONTROL-OFFENSE/QBS

Coaching Experience: 6th Season
NFL Experience: 5th Season
Vikings Experience: 5th Season

Kevin Stefanski begins his 2nd season working with the QBs and offensive coaching staff in 2010 and enters his 5th season overall with the Vikings.

In 2009 Stefanski had a hands-on role in one of the most successful offensive seasons in Vikings history. The team improved dramatically in the passing game and developed new play makers in prominent roles. Stefanski and the offensive staff helped veteran free agent QB Brett Favre mesh with the offense despite reporting to the team in mid-August.

Stefanski spent 2006-08 working directly with Head Coach Brad Childress on administrative duties and special projects. Stefanski became acquainted with Childress during Eagles training camp in 2005 working with in operations.

Stefanski spent the 2005 season at his alma mater, the University of Pennsylvania, as Assistant Director of Football Operations. He coordinated all aspects of the Quakers' day-to-day operations of the football team.

Before stepping off the field and into the administration of the team, Stefanski was a standout defensive back at Penn. A team captain as a senior in 2004, Stefanski was part of one of the most successful stretches in the history of the Quaker football program. The team won Ivy League titles in 2000, 2002 and 2003 and the squad went undefeated in league play during 2002 and 2003.

Twice honored as an Honorable Mention All-Ivy choice in 2002 and 2004, Stefanski ranked 3rd on the team in tackles as a senior. He was named Penn's Defensive Rookie of the Year as a freshman in 2000 when he had a career-high 4 interceptions. During Stefanski's tenure, the squad posted a 42-7 overall record and a 32-3 mark in Ivy play. As a senior, the team went 10-0 to become the 1st undefeated Penn team in a decade.

Stefanski (5/8/82) holds a bachelor's degree in communications from Pennsylvania and attended St. Joseph's Prep in Philadelphia. The Stefanski family has made a name in athletics as Kevin's father, Ed, was a standout in basketball at Penn and is the General Manager of the NBA's Philadelphia 76ers.

Stefanski and wife, Michelle, reside in Minneapolis with their son, William.

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT/DL

Coaching Experience: 12th Season
NFL Experience: 3rd Season
Vikings Experience: 3rd Season

Ryan Silverfield is in his 3rd season with the Vikings coaching staff and will work again in 2010 with the defensive linemen and coach Karl Dunbar.

The 2009 Vikings defensive line was anchored by perennial All-Pro DT Kevin Williams and DE Jared Allen. The line excelled in 2009 due to the depth and development of other unheralded players. The play of DE Ray Edwards, who ranked 2nd on the team with 8.5 sacks in the regular season and added 4.0 more in the playoffs spurred the team. The Vikings ranked #6 in the NFL in total defense and #2 against the run.

Prior to joining the Vikings, Silverfield spent 2 seasons assisting with the defensive line at the University of Central Florida where he worked under former Vikings defensive coordinator George O'Leary. In Silverfield's 2nd season at UCF in 2007, the Knights closed the regular season with a 7-game winning streak en route to winning the Conference USA crown, the 1st conference championship in school history.

In 2005, Silverfield served as the quarterbacks coach at Jacksonville University. Before working on the Dolphins staff and at the age of 23, he was the head coach at Memorial Day High School in Savannah, GA. That opportunity followed his 4 seasons as an assistant coach at his alma mater - Hampden-Sydney College in Virginia - where he began as an offensive assistant in 2000. At the age of 20, he became the defensive line coach, making him one of the younger position coaches in all of college football. He held that position for 2 seasons before moving to TE's and H-backs in 2003, a season in which the Tigers went 9-1 and had the #1-ranked scoring offense in the country, averaging over 47.0 points per game.

Silverfield's coaching career began as an assistant at The Bolles School in Jacksonville in 1999, following a four-year playing career with the Bulldogs. During his playing days, Silverfield helped Bolles win 2 state championships and earn the title of the #1-ranked high school team in the country by USA Today. As a senior, Silverfield was a 1st-Team All-First Coast selection after leading his team to the Florida Class 3A state title.

Silverfield graduated Cum Laude with a bachelor's degree in economics from Hampden-Sydney.

ASSISTANT TO HEAD COACH

Coaching Experience: 11th Season
NFL Experience: 2nd Season
Vikings Experience: 2nd Season

Entering his 2nd season with the Vikings in 2010, Dennis Polian's unique breadth of experiences in coaching and administration provides the Vikings staff with a valuable resource. In his debut with the team in 2009, Polian served the staff through special projects, research projects and daily support.

Polian's background includes working in professional and collegiate football in a variety of roles. Most recently, Polian was with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats of the Canadian Football League, advancing from Quality Control and coaching the RBs to the role of Assistant General Manager and Coordinator of Player Personnel.

Prior to his position in the CFL, Polian worked in collegiate athletics at Tulane, Columbia and Boston College, gaining experience in football operations and event management. From 2005-07, Polian worked as Director of Football Operations and was promoted to Assistant Director of Athletics at Tulane. During his tenure with the Green Wave he worked with recovery efforts from Hurricane Katrina and the devastation it wreaked on the area.

In 2 different stints, Polian worked on the business end of sports with the Arena Football League, initially as a Sales and Client Services Manager and from 2007-08 as Director of Team Services for the AFL. In February 2007 Polian used his expertise in management as the Super Bowl XLI Team Coordinator for the Colts, handling logistics for the club as they traveled to South Florida for the 1st Super Bowl for the franchise since the 1970 season.

Polian hails from an accomplished football family. His father, Bill, is President of the Indianapolis Colts and brother, Chris, is the Colts' Vice President and General Manager. Another brother, Brian, is on the coaching staff at Stanford.

Polian holds a bachelor's degree in political science from Villanova in 1999 and earned his master's in administrative studies in 2001 from Boston College.

TOM KANAVY

HEAD STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Coaching Experience: 18th Season
NFL Experience: 16th Season
Vikings Experience: 5th Season

Vikings Strength and Conditioning Coach Tom Kanavy enters his 5th season with the Vikings and his 16th NFL campaign in 2010. His track record of success in the NFL is proven with 6 Division titles since 2000 between the Vikings and Eagles and 7 playoff appearances from 2000-09.

Among Brad Childress' first priorities as Head Coach was to allow Kanavy to transform the Vikings strength and conditioning facilities. The willingness of ownership to provide the tools to succeed allowed for the addition of the best in strength and conditioning equipment and a staff with valuable NFL experience.

The off-season strength and conditioning program was once again well-attended by players as they embraced a program that utilizes a combination of free weights and machines, and emphasizes speed, agility, flexibility and thorough overall physical conditioning.

Kanavy oversees the planning and implementation of all aspects of the Vikings' program, which is tailored to each player. He has also enlisted the services of Carrie Peterson, a registered dietician on the University of Minnesota faculty, in order to optimize team nutrition.

Kanavy came to Minnesota from the Philadelphia Eagles where he helped in the dramatic turnaround of the franchise and performance on the field. Kanavy served as assistant strength and conditioning coach in Philadelphia where he worked under Mike Wolf, who had served as an assistant with the Vikings from 1992-94.

Kanavy received a bachelor's degree in exercise and sport science from Penn State University in 1993 and earned his master's in sport management from Temple University in 1996.

Kanavy began his professional career working as a strength and conditioning intern at the University of Miami with the football program. He returned to his alma mater, Penn State, from 1993-95 working as a strength and conditioning assistant with the Nittany Lions football program. In 1994, in only their 2nd season as members of the Big Ten Conference, the squad notched a 12-0 season to win the Big Ten title and brought a Rose Bowl championship to Happy Valley after a 38-20 win over Oregon.

From Penn State, Kanavy was tabbed by Wolf to assist him with the Eagles in head coach Ray Rhodes' debut in 1995. The new staff notched a 10-6 regular season, qualified for the playoffs in the first season and went 1-1 in post-season play. In 1999 the Eagles hired Andy Reid as head coach and the fortunes of the team improved quickly. From 2000-05 the team won 4 NFC East titles, qualified for the playoffs in 5 of 6 seasons and represented the NFC in Super Bowl XXXIX. Kanavy worked with Childress in Philadelphia from 1999-2005.

A native of Archibald, PA, Kanavy and wife, Kim, reside in suburban Minneapolis with their daughters, Caroline and Kristen.

JUNEY BARNETT

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Coaching Experience: 10th Season
NFL Experience: 7th Season
Vikings Experience: 5th Season

June Barnett enters his 5th season with the Vikings in 2010 and assists Tom Kanavy with the implementation of the Vikings strength and conditioning program.

Barnett joined the Vikings in 2006 after spending the 2005 season as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Army. In the spring of '05, he served as the head strength and conditioning coach for the Rhein Fire of NFL Europe, a position he held for two seasons (2004-05).

Prior to his stint in NFL Europe, Barnett worked for the Baltimore Ravens from 2003-05 as a part-time assistant. Barnett got his first taste of coaching at his alma mater, Bloomsburg University (PA), as a volunteer DBs coach in 2001. The Huskies went 6-0 in the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference on their way to a league title.

As a collegiate athlete, Barnett played 4 years as a DB at Bloomsburg (1997-00) and was part of a PSAC Championship team and Division II national runner-up in 2000. He graduated from Bloomsburg with a degree in exercise science and went on to receive his master's in exercise physiology from the university.

Barnett, who was born in Philadelphia, PA, attended Balboa High School in Panama. His father is a senior master sergeant in the U.S. Air Force.

MARTIN STREIGHT

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Coaching Experience: 17th Season

NFL Experience: 13th Season

Vikings Experience: 5th Season

The 2010 season marks Martin Streight's 5th with the Vikings and 13th in the NFL as he continues to assist in the development of the Vikings strength and conditioning program. Streight joined Vikings strength and conditioning coach Tom Kanavy in 2006 when the new staff revamped the Vikings facilities and program.

Prior to joining the Vikings, Streight was the head strength and conditioning coach for the Berlin Thunder in NFL Europe from 2004-05. During that time, the Thunder accumulated a 16-4 combined regular season record and made consecutive World Bowl appearances. In 2005, Berlin posted a 7-3 record and played in World Bowl XIII. The previous year, the Thunder finished 9-1 and were World Bowl XII champions. In 2003, Streight held the same position with the Scottish Claymores of NFL Europe.

From 1997-2002, Streight served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Arizona Cardinals. The 1998 season saw the Cardinals make their 1st postseason appearance since the strike-shortened season in 1982, playing at the Metrodome against the Vikings in an NFC Divisional Playoff game.

Streight's NFL coaching career began in 1995-96, when he was a part-time strength and conditioning coach with Kanavy and the Philadelphia Eagles. During that time, Streight was also an assistant strength and conditioning coach and health fitness instructor at Princeton University.

Streight and Kanavy first worked together at Penn State in 1994, when Streight served as a strength and conditioning intern for the Nittany Lions. That year, Penn State finished as Big Ten champions in only the team's 2nd year of league play and became the 1st team in Big Ten history to post a 12-0 record.

As an undergrad, Streight attended Indiana University (PA), earning his bachelor's degree in physical education and sport science. He also competed in track and field at Indiana, throwing the discus and shot put.

Streight was born in Trenton, NJ and attended McCorristin Catholic High School in Trenton.

HOW THE VIKINGS GOT THEIR NAME

From the 1961 Minnesota Vikings Radio, TV and Press Guide-

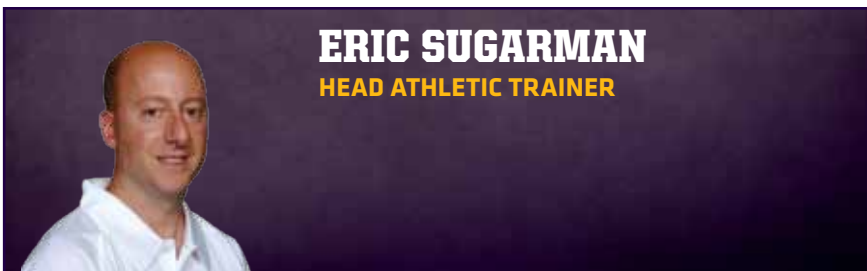

When Bert Rose was selected as General Manager, one of the first steps he took was to recommend to the Board of Directors that the club be nicknamed the "Vikings."

A nickname should serve a dual purpose, he said. First, it should represent an aggressive person or animal imbued with the will to win. Secondly, if possible, it is desirable to have it connote the region that the particular team represents.

The "Vikings" scores well on both points. Certainly, the Nordic Vikings were a fearless race. Following many years of victories in the British Isles and France, under Erik the Red, they sailed in open boats across the North Atlantic seeking new peoples to conquer. Their entire history is punctuated with the aggressive desire and will to win.

While Minnesota is populated by the descendants of settlers from many nations, the area has a rich Nordic lore, perhaps due to the mythology of Paul Bunyan and his Blue Ox, perhaps due to the preponderance of the "sons" and "sens" in the phone book. The Vikings, too, were Nordics; hence the name represents in a large part the solid stock of people who call Minnesota their home.

ERIC SUGARMAN

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Eric Sugarman enters his 14th NFL season in 2010 and his 5th with the Vikings. In 2009, Sugarman was part of his 6th Division championship team since 2000 and 7th playoff-bound team. The Vikings won back-to-back division titles for the 1st time since 1977-78 and are 1 of only 3 NFL teams entering 2010 with consecutive division titles to their credit.

With the Vikings, Sugarman supervises the evaluation and care of all injuries sustained. He and his staff implement and maintain proactive treatment and rehabilitation programs.

The Vikings athletic training staff have broad-based experience in athletic training and have trained under some of the most respected professionals in their field. The staff prides themselves on being proactive while using the most current concepts, modalities and principles. The entire athletic training staff are Performance Enhancement Specialists through the National Academy of Sports Medicine. During the 2010 offseason, the Vikings staff was trained in Graston technique, a patented form of instrument assisted soft tissue mobilization that works to effectively break down scar tissue and fascial restrictions. Sugarman has worked closely the past several years with the Nike SST (Sensory Sport Training) team and has brought many of their vision concepts into the Vikings athletic training room. He has also established a strong working relationship with Starkey Hearing of Eden Prairie, allowing him to bring state-of-the-art hearing enhancement and ear protection to the team and staff.

Sugarman enters his 13th full-time season in the NFL in 2009 after spending the 1997-99 seasons with the Chicago Bears and the 2000-05 campaigns with Philadelphia. Sugarman got his first taste of the NFL as a summer intern for the Bears' athletic training staff from 1993-95.

Sugarman earned his bachelor's degree in health and physical education with an emphasis in athletic training from West Chester University and went on to earn his master's degree in sports management at the University of Richmond. During his tenure at Richmond, Sugarman served as the graduate assistant athletic trainer for the Spiders football team and head athletic trainer for the Spiders' baseball squad. In 1994-95 Sugarman served as assistant athletic trainer at West Chester and worked as an instructor at the school. In 1996 Sugarman served as an athletic trainer in the Chicago Cubs organization.

Sugarman joined the Bears as an assistant trainer from 1997-99 before moving to the Eagles in a similar role in 2000. The Eagles were noted for progressive rehab programs. That athletic training staff played an integral part in helping Terrell Owens' return from ankle surgery during the regular season in time for Super Bowl XXXIX.

He is an active member of the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society, where he sits on the NFL Subcommittee for Cardiovascular Health. Sugarman is also an American Heart Association Basic Life Support, AED and First Aid certified instructor. In 2003 he received the PFATS' "Big Heart" award for saving the life of a fellow Eagles employee by performing CPR. In 2010, Sugarman and Brad Childress were co-winners of the American Optometric Association's Eagle Award and in 2009 ESPN Magazine recognized him as the NFL's Most Irreplaceable Trainer.

Sugarman and wife, Heather, reside in Victoria, MN, with their sons Jacob and Benjamin.

TOM HUNKELE

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Tom Hunkele enters his 5th season as an assistant on the Vikings' athletic training staff in 2010. Hunkele and Vikings Head Athletic Trainer Eric Sugarman previously worked together for 6 seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles. Hunkele assists in the evaluation and care of all injuries sustained and helps implement proactive treatment and rehabilitation programs for the athletes.

During Hunkele's tenure with the Eagles from 2000-05 he worked with NovaCare Rehabilitation as a Staff Physical Therapist during the off-season and as an assistant with the team starting in the pre-season through the remainder of the schedule. While working with the Eagles, Hunkele was part of Rick Burkholder's highly-regarded staff and was exposed to some of the most progressive rehab programs and techniques at work in the NFL today.

Hunkele started in the athletic training field as a student at Duquesne where he assisted with the athletic training staff for football during his undergraduate days. During the 1997 season he was exposed to the NFL for the first time when he served as a season-long intern for the Pittsburgh Steelers as the team advanced to the AFC Championship to face eventual Super Bowl champs Denver.

Following his graduation in 1998 with a bachelor's degree in athletic training from Duquesne, Hunkele remained at the school to earn his master's in physical therapy. During graduate school he served as a graduate assistant from 1998-2000 where he worked as head trainer for the men's soccer, ice hockey and men's and women's tennis teams along, with supervising student assistants. Hunkele is certified as a Performance Enhancement Specialist by the National Academy of Sports Medicine.

Hunkele, a native of Reading, PA, and graduate of Holy Name High School, is a member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association along with being a licensed physical therapist in Minnesota. Hunkele is married to Rachel and the couple resides in Plymouth, MN.

ROB ROCHE

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Rob Roche brings a diverse athletic training background in pro football and college athletics to the Vikings as an assistant on Eric Sugarman's staff.

Roche enters his 5th season with the Vikings in 2010 and assists with the evaluation and care of all injuries sustained and helps implement proactive treatment and rehabilitation programs for the athletes. Roche was a season-long intern with the Philadelphia Eagles in 2000 and during 2003-05 training camps where he worked with Sugarman and Vikings assistant Tom Hunkele.

Before joining the Vikings, Roche spent 2001-06 working as an assistant athletic trainer at Swarthmore College where he provided medical coverage for the NCAA Division III program. Along with athletic training responsibilities, Roche was an Approved Clinical Instructor for athletic training students.

Roche earned his bachelor's degree in health and physical education with an emphasis in athletic training from West Chester University in 1998. During his undergraduate tenure he served an internship in athletic training at the school working with the football team. Following his graduation, Roche moved to the University of Illinois to earn his master's degree in kinesiology where he served as a teaching assistant in the kinesiology department and was a graduate assistant in UI's Rehabilitation Education Services. He earned his MS degree in 2000.

During Roche's stint at Illinois he was first exposed to the NFL when he was a training camp intern for the Chicago Bears in 1998 and 1999. His experience in pro football continued in 2000 when he was an assistant with the Frankfurt Galaxy in NFL Europe and in 2001 with the World Bowl IX champion Berlin Thunder. Continuing his education through experience, Roche volunteered for two weeks in summer 2003 with the U.S. Olympic Committee in Chula Vista, CA.

Roche is a member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association and the USOC Sports Medicine Society, has served on the Executive Board of the Pennsylvania Athletic Trainers' Society and is certified as a Performance Enhancement Specialist by the National Academy of Sports Medicine.

Roche, a native of Tamaqua, PA and graduate of Marian Catholic High, is married to Melissa. The couple resides in Chaska, MN with their son, Patrick.

JOEL BOYD, M.D.

TEAM PHYSICIAN

Joel Boyd's experience in athletics and medicine have helped take him around the world. In 2010, he returns for a 4th full season with the Vikings.

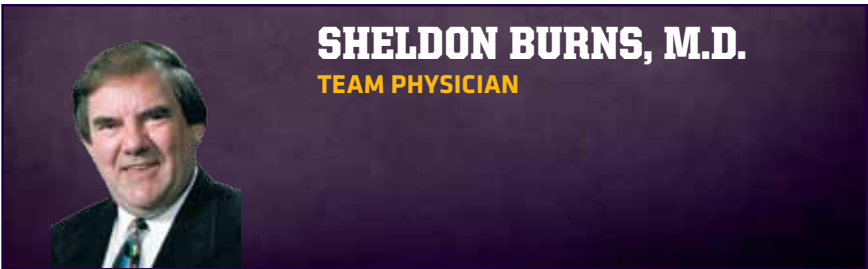

Boyd serves as a Physician at TRIA Orthopedic Center in Bloomington and joined the Vikings for the 2007 season along with working in a similar role with the NHL's Minnesota Wild.

His experience with the United State Olympic Team took Boyd to the Nagano Games in 1998 while working with the men's and women's hockey teams. In past seasons Boyd has worked as a National Team Physician with USA Hockey in world championships in Switzerland, Sweden and Germany.

Boyd holds an undergraduate degree from Bucknell and graduated from Temple University Medical School. He completed his orthopedic training at the Cleveland Clinic Foundation and

GEORGE PATON DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

With over a decade of NFL experience under his belt, George Paton enters his 4th season with the Vikings as Director of Player Personnel in 2010.

The Vikings roster development through free agency, trades and the draft have built the foundation for the back-to-back NFC North Champions in 2008 and 2009. The Vikings tied a team record with 10 players earning Pro Bowl berths in 2009, 5 were acquired by the draft, 4 by free agency and 1 via trade.

The 2009 team tied the 2nd-most wins in franchise history with a 12-4 mark in the regular season and advanced to the NFC Championship game for the first time since 2000. The Vikings 22 wins over the 2008 and 2009 seasons leads the NFC over that span and ranks 2nd in the NFL.

Paton's primary focus is coordinate scouting and personnel functions within the Vikings Pro Scouting Department and lend his expertise to the College Scouting Department as they prepare for the annual NFL Draft. Paton will work closely with his former Miami and Chicago protege, Vikings Vice President of Player Personnel Rick Spielman.

Paton spent 6 seasons (2001-06) with the Miami Dolphins as Director of Pro Personnel. Paton began his NFL career in the college and pro scouting departments of the Chicago Bears, rising to the position of Assistant Director of Pro Personnel in 2000.

A 4-year letter winner as a DB at UCLA from 1988-91, Paton was a part of a pair of Bruin bowl teams. He earned a bachelor's degree in history and went on to play in professional football leagues in Italy and Austria.

Paton (pronounced Payton) and wife, Barbara, have a daughter, Bella and son, Beau.

SCOTT STUDWELL

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

A key part of the Vikings for 34 seasons in different capacities, Scott Studwell enters the 2010 season as Director of College Scouting for the 9th season. Studwell is in his 4th decade with the team and is one of the most enduring figures in Vikings history.

Studwell enters his 19th year in the team's Player Personnel department. He retired from his 14-year playing career after the 1990 season (1977-1990) and spent a year as the Vikings Assistant to the President/Player Relations in 1991 before being named the Player Personnel Coordinator from 1992-2001. Studwell was named to his current post as Director of College Scouting in April 2002. His responsibilities include overseeing all college scouting efforts and preparation for the annual NFL Draft.

Studwell has been a part of successful drafts that have included Pro Bowlers or Pro Bowl alternates Robert Smith (1st round, '93), Todd Steussie (1st, '94), Randy Moss (1st, '98), Matt Birk (6th, '98), Daunte Culpepper (1st, '99), Michael Bennett (1st, '01), Bryant McKinnie (1st, '02), Kevin Williams (1st, '03), Adrian Peterson (1st, '07), Sidney Rice (2nd, '07) and Percy Harvin (1st, '09). The Vikings have drafted the NFL's Offensive Rookie of the Year in 2007 (Peterson) and 2009 (Harvin) with their 1st-round selections.

Studwell's place in team history was immortalized in 2009 when he was inducted into the Vikings Ring of Honor. A member of the Vikings' 25th and 40th Anniversary All-Time Teams, Studwell holds team records for tackles in a career (1,981), season (230 in '81) and game (24 vs. Detroit in '85), as well as solo tackles in a career (1,308). No other player in Vikings history has over 1,500 career tackles. According to team media guides Studwell has more tackles with one organization than any other player in NFL history. In addition, Studwell is one of only five Minnesota players to participate in over 200 games during his career. He also played in 12 playoffs contests, including NFC Championship Games following the '77 and '87 seasons. In '87 and '88 Studwell was voted to the Pro Bowl. In '89 he was named 2nd-team All-NFC by United Press International. He also was Minnesota's recipient of the Ed Block Memorial Courage Award in '87. After earning the starting MLB job in '80, Studwell led the Vikings in tackles the next 6 seasons. He also was the team's leading tackler in '88 and '89. Studwell, who tied for the team lead in fumbles recovered three times ('82, '86, '88), finished his NFL career with 15 FRs and 11 INTs.

Drafted by Minnesota in the 9th round from Illinois in '77, Studwell finished his collegiate career as the school's second all-time tackler (342) behind Dick Butkus (374). In '76 Studwell recorded 177 tackles to surpass Illinois' season record, formerly held by Butkus. As a senior Studwell recorded 23 tackles against Purdue to tie the school's single-game record.

In '90 Studwell was named to Illinois' All-Century Team, joining Butkus and Ray Nitschke as the linebackers on that squad. Studwell earned 2nd-team All-America and 1st-team All-Big Ten honors in '76, and 2nd-team All-Conference mention in '75. Studwell also was the team's co-captain and co-MVP in '76, when he played in the Hula Bowl, East-West Shrine Game and Japan Bowl.

A native of Evansville, IN (8/27/54), John Scott Studwell starred at Evansville High School. In 2001 Studwell was elected into the Indiana Football Hall of Fame. He majored in commerce at Illinois. During his playing career, he sat on the Board of Directors of the Boys and Girls Clubs of Minneapolis. Scott and wife Jenny have two daughters, Jessie and Samantha, and a son Jack.

COMPANY MAN

Since joining the Vikings as a 9th-round draft choice out of Illinois, Scott Studwell has called the franchise home. Following his record-setting 14-year playing career with the team he moved to a management role in 1991 and into scouting in 1992. In 2009, Studwell was inducted into the Vikings Ring of Honor, joining his honors as a member of the Vikings 25th and 40th-season teams.

FRANK ACEVEDO

AREA SCOUT

A veteran evaluator with a track record of success, Frank Acevedo enters his 9th season with the Vikings in 2010 and his 16th season in the NFL. Acevedo joined the Vikings after seven seasons with the Kansas City Chiefs' personnel department and serves the Vikings as an Area Scout with coverage of the Midwest and East.

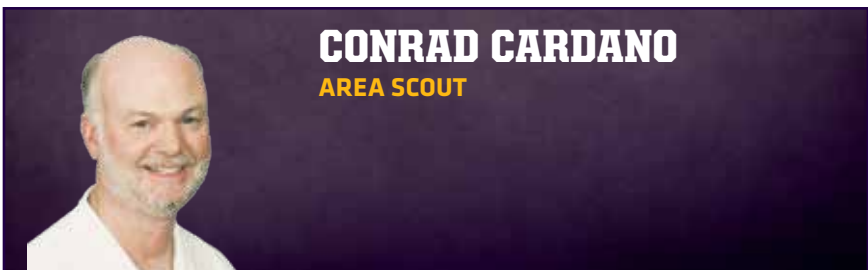

Acevedo spent five seasons as Kansas City's area scout covering the Big 12 region. Prior to being an area scout with the Chiefs he was an assistant in the club's personnel department.

Before joining the Chiefs personnel department, Acevedo was RBs coach at Missouri Western in 1994 and '95. Acevedo was an assistant coach at San Francisco State, from 1985-89.

Acevedo played DB for two seasons at San Francisco State after transferring from Palomar Junior College. He was a team captain at SFSU as a senior and also earned All-Northern California Athletic Conference honors.

Born in Escondido, CA (3/5/64), Acevedo attended San Pasqual High School and went on to earn his bachelor's degree in physical education from SFSU. He and his wife, Phoebe, have a daughter Estella and a son, Antonio.

CONRAD CARDANO

AREA SCOUT

Conrad Cardano is in his 3rd decade with the Vikings college scouting department in 2010, joining the team in 1987 after a successful stint in collegiate coaching and working in scouting for Blesto. Cardano is a Regional Scout for the Vikings evaluating prospects on Eastern seaboard and the Southeast.

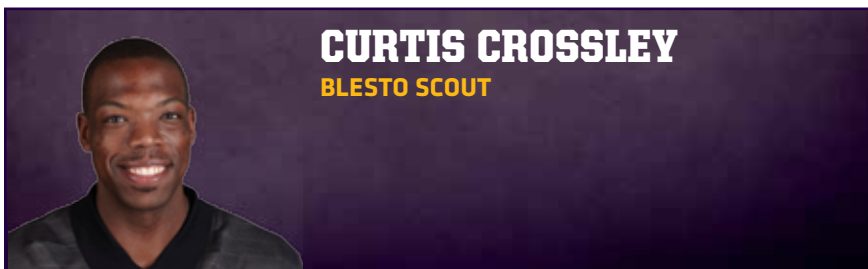

Since joining the Vikings, Cardano has helped build a team that has made the playoffs 14 times, including NFC Central/North titles in '89, '92, '94, '98, '00, '08 and '09. The team has played in 4 NFC Championship Games during his tenure.

Prior to joining the Vikings, Cardano worked for 3 years (1984-86) for the Blesto Scouting Combine. From 1981-83 he coached at Eastern Kentucky, which won the Ohio Valley Conference title each of his 3 seasons. The Colonels captured the NCAA Division I-AA championship in '82, when they went 13-0.

Cardano joined Eastern Kentucky after 2 seasons (1979-80) overseeing WRs at Marshall. His first collegiate coaching job came as offensive coordinator at Catholic University from 1975-78. Cardano coached 2 years at Tuscola High in Waynesville, NC and Dover-Sherborn High in Dover, MA.

Cardano played quarterback for the Hagarstown Bears of the Seaboard Pro League from 1972-73. Cardano played QB at Western Carolina from 1967-70.

Born in Washington, DC, Cardano attended Bladensburg (MD) High School. He earned his bachelor's degree in health and physical education at Western Carolina. In 1982 Cardano received his master's in education administration and supervision from Bowie State College in Maryland. His wife's name is Gloria. Cardano has two sons — Christopher and Anthony.

CURTIS CROSSLEY

BLESTO SCOUT

Curtis Crossley enters his 3rd season with the Vikings in 2010, serving the team as its Blesto Scout and scouting college players in the central region of the country.

Crossley began with the Vikings in summer 2007 as an intern in the scouting department and was hired by the club in 2008.

Crossley came to the Vikings after coaching for a season at St. Joseph's (IN) College where he tutored the Division II Puma's defensive linemen. The squad posted an 8-3 mark and won the Great Lakes Football Conference title while a pair of Crossley's linemen earned All-Conference honors.

Crossley left the coaching ranks in 2007 for an opportunity in scouting for the Vikings. As a collegiate player at Northern Illinois, Crossley was a DE on the Huskies squad from 2000-04 that tied for Mid-America Conference West Division titles in 2001, '02 and '04. The 2003 Huskies went 10-2 and the squad was 9-2 during Crossley's senior year, facing Troy in the Silicon Valley Classic Bowl.

A native of Kankakee, IL, Crossley was a standout in football at Bishop McNamara High, helping the team Class 5A state title game as a senior and to the Class 4A state semis as a junior.

Crossley earned his bachelor's degree in communications from Northern Illinois in 2004. He is single and resides in Eden Prairie.

TERRANCE GRAY

AREA SCOUT

Terrance Gray returns to the Vikings in 2010 for his 5th season as an Area Scout for the team. In his role Gray will scout the Midwest region of the country for the Vikings.

Gray comes to the Vikings from the Kansas City Chiefs where he served as the club's area scout of National Football Scouting (NFS) during the 2005 season and in preparation for the 2006 Draft. Prior to moving into scouting, Gray was the Chiefs Player Development Coordinator and worked in player personnel from June 2003 to June 2005. As a scout with Kansas City, Gray covered the Southwest.

Gray got his start in the NFL as an intern in 2002-03 in the League office working with Player and Employee Development and focused on the NFL's Continuing Education Program. Before his opportunity with the NFL, Gray worked as a student assistant in the Oregon State University's athletic department in academic affairs as he finished his bachelor's degree in 2002.

Gray was a CB at Oregon State in 1999 and 2000 after transferring from Palomar (CA) Junior College where he was an All-America honoree and team captain. At Oregon State Gray was part of one of the Beavers' best seasons in school history as a senior, going 11-1 and ending the season ranked #4 in the nation after a 41-9 win over Notre Dame in the Fiesta Bowl. Gray played under former NFL head coach Dennis Erickson while at OSU.

A standout QB at Bayside High in Queens, NY, was the team MVP and a 1st-Team All-Queens choice by the New York Daily News. Gray and his wife, Kimberly, reside in Kansas City.

KEVIN McCABE

AREA SCOUT

Kevin McCabe enters his 9th season in 2010 with the Minnesota Vikings as an Area Scout, working in the Western region of the country.

McCabe came to the Vikings after working with the St. Louis Rams as an area scout for 7 years (1995-2001) and volunteering with the Rams personnel department in 1994. During his tenure with the Rams, the team became known as one of the most potent offensive attacks in the NFL. In 1999 the Rams went 13-3 in the regular season and won Super Bowl XXXIV over Tennessee following a 4-12 campaign in 1998. In 2001, St. Louis posted a 14-2 regular season mark and lost Super Bowl XXXVI to New England in one of the most exciting Super Bowls in League history. In his final three seasons with St. Louis, the Rams amassed a 37-11 regular-season record, won the NFC West title twice (1999, 2001) and finished as the Division runner-up in 2000.

McCabe began his career in 1985 as an assistant coach at his alma mater, John Muir High School in Pasadena, CA. McCabe coached on the prep level in the Los Angeles area until becoming strength and conditioning coordinator and assistant football coach at Pomona-Pitzer College in Claremont, CA. He stayed at the school from 1991-94. In 1993 McCabe coached overseas for the East City Giants in Helsinki, Finland.

McCabe (3/23/63) is a native of Pasadena and earned a bachelor's degree in political science in 1985 from Princeton University, where he was a three-year letterman for the Tiger football team. Kevin and his wife, Anne, have sons, Torin and Keenan, and a daughter, Katherine. The family resides in Woodland, CA.

PAUL ROELL

REGIONAL SCOUT

A veteran scout with 19 years under his belt in the NFL, Paul Roell enters his 5th season with the Vikings in 2010 and serves as a Regional Scout. He joined the team in June 2006 and scouts the Western region for the Vikings. Part of successful programs recently, Roell has won Division titles in 5 of the past 7 seasons- NFC North in 2008 and 2009 and AFC South in 2003, 2004 and 2005.

Roell spent the previous 15 seasons as a member of the Indianapolis Colts staff as an area scout. He got his first taste of scouting from 1987-89 when he scouted high school football in western Pennsylvania for Metro Index Scouting. In 1989 and '90 Roell worked as an intern for Pittsburgh Total Scouting, a division of the Pittsburgh Steelers headed by Art Rooney, Jr. He moved into the pro scouting division of BLESTO in 1990 before joining the Indianapolis Colts in 1991.

Roell gets his first experience scouting for an NFC team after spending his entire NFL career in the AFC prior to joining the Vikings this season. During his career with Indianapolis, Roell helped build a team that has become one of the NFL's elite. The team went 1-15 in Roell's first season with the club in 1991. The Colts went on to advance to the playoffs under three head coaches- Ted Marchibroda, Jim Mora and Tony Dungy. Recently, under Mora and Dungy, the Colts have advanced to the playoffs in six of the past seven seasons. From 2002-05 the team has amassed a 48-16 mark in regular season play and won the AFC South title from 2003-05.

As a collegian, attended Ohio State University for three years before transferring to Ohio Northern and later to Robert Morris where he earned a bachelor's degree in sport management at Robert Morris in 1990.

Roell is married to Stacey and the couple has daughters Victoria and Katelin. The Roell family resides in Kansas City.

MIKE SHOLITON

AREA SCOUT

Mike Sholiton returns for his 7th season with the Vikings in 2010. He comes to the team with a wealth of football experience and is no stranger to the NFL. Sholiton will serve as a Vikings Area Scout in the southern states to find college talent for the team.

Sholiton is in his second stint in the NFL after working as an intern with the scouting, video and community relations departments of the St. Louis Rams from 1997-2000. He was a member of the 1999 Rams staff when the team won Super Bowl XXXIV over Tennessee. While working with the Rams scouting department, Sholiton maintained draft boards and collected scouting reports while evaluating and profiling draft eligible seniors for the 1999 Draft. While in St. Louis, Sholiton was on the same Rams staff as Vikings Vice President of Operations and Legal Counsel Kevin Warren and current Area Scout Kevin McCabe.

Sholiton comes to the Vikings after four seasons with Fresno State where he served as Football Operations Coordinator for the Bulldogs. During his tenure with Fresno State the team climbed the national charts and posted one of the most successful stints in school history. The Bulldogs went 36-18 in his four seasons with the program and played in four straight bowl games, including wins over Georgia Tech and UCLA in the 2002 and 2003 Silicon Valley Football Classics respectively. While at Fresno State, Sholiton worked with current Vikings Bernard Berrian.

A native of Cleveland, Sholiton was a four-year letterwinner as a receiver and punt returner at Washington University in St. Louis. He earned his bachelor's degree in marketing in 2000 and went on to earn a master's in kinesiology from Fresno State in 2001. Sholiton and wife, Ashley, have a son, Brett Maverick. The family resides in San Antonio.

JAMAAL STEPHENSON

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Jamaal Stephenson enters his 9th season with the Vikings in and was promoted during the 2009 offseason to Assistant Director of College Scouting for the team. He takes on additional administrative duties in his new role along with his responsibility for scouting the East Coast of the United States.

Stephenson joined the Vikings in 2002 after spending two years in the Houston Texans' scouting department. In May of 2000, he was hired as College Administrator for the Texans. During his time in Houston, he was in charge of scouting areas of Texas, Oklahoma and Louisiana, compiling statistics and biographical data on college players and maintaining several scouting databases for the team.

Prior to joining the Texans, Stephenson spent one year as a scouting assistant for the Washington Redskins. His duties included making recommendations on college prospects for the NFL Draft, compiling information for weekly opponent scouting reports and helping to maintain contractual and other miscellaneous information on NFL players. In the spring of 1998, Stephenson coached defensive backs as a graduate assistant at UMass.

Jamaal Akim Stephenson (1/29/76) is a native of Goldsboro, NC. He was a four-year letterwinner at DB for Brown. Twice he earned All-Ivy League honors, and was also awarded the team's "Unsung Hero" Award. He earned his bachelor's degree in organizational behavior management from Brown in 1997, and his master's degree in sport management from Massachusetts in 1999. In 2003, Stephenson was selected to Brown's All-Decade Football Team for the 1990's. He was honored as part of the 125-year anniversary celebration of football at Brown University.

Stephenson and his wife, Emily, have a son, Noah, and a daughter, Gabrielle.

FIRST-ROUND FOCUS

The Vikings have selected the most 1st-round draft picks in team history from the University of Southern California- starting with the #1 overall pick in the 1968 Draft by taking OT Ron Yary. His selection made his the 1st offensive lineman taken with the top pick in the Draft in NFL history. The USC pipeline continued in 1974 when OT Steve Riley was taken #25 overall, 1983 with S Joey Browner at #19 overall and DE Kenechi Udeze with the #20 overall pick in 2005.

In 2009 the Vikings selected Florida WR Percy Harvin with the #22 pick in the Draft, the 1st time in franchise history that the Vikings have taken a Gator in the 1st round. Harvin joined Adrian Peterson, the Vikings 1st-round draft pick in 2007, as NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year honorees in the recent seasons for the Vikings.

SCOTT KUHN

PRO SCOUT

Scott Kuhn returns for his 4th season with the Vikings in 2010 as a Pro Scout after spending 7 seasons on the staff of the Miami Dolphins. Kuhn will assist the Vikings with NFL-wide scouting of players, advance scouting of opponents, database operations, reports and evaluations for free agency.

Kuhn has a strong background in technology as it relates to scouting and worked with Miami as College Scouting Coordinator for his final 5 seasons. He joined the Dolphins in 2000 as a Player Personnel intern and rose within the organization during his tenure. While in Miami, Kuhn worked closely with Vikings

Vice President of Player Personnel Rick Spielman and Director of Player Personnel George Paton.

A 1997 graduate of Kansas State University, Kuhn holds a degree in anthropology. He is a native of Topeka, KS and attended Hayden High. Kuhn is married to Heidi with daughters Kyliya and Jamie. The family resides in Shakopee.

RYAN MONNENS

PRO SCOUT

Ryan Monnens begins his 9th season in the Vikings scouting department in 2010. He is responsible for scouting players in the NFL, advance scouting of Vikings opponents, assisting with the pro scouting database and scouting players in other professional leagues.

Monnens is in his 6th season as a pro scout after spending 3 seasons as a pro personnel assistant. He joined the Vikings as an intern in 1998, spending 3 seasons in public relations before joining the scouting department in 2002.

Monnens played WR at St. John's University in Collegeville, MN (1995-97) under legendary coach John Gagliardi, the all-time winningest coach in college football history. During his tenure at St. John's, the Johnnies won the Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference title in '95 and '96, advanced to the NCAA playoffs, and posted a (25-6-1) record.

A Minnesota native, Monnens (12/4/75) grew up in Richmond and attended Rocori High School. Monnens earned his bachelor's degree in psychology from St. John's in 1998. Monnens resides in Excelsior with his wife, Krissey, and their daughter, Olivia.

JEFF ROBINSON

PRO SCOUT

In 2010, Jeff Robinson enters his 21st season with the Minnesota Vikings and serves as a Pro Scout. Robinson assists the personnel department with league-wide player evaluation and preparing scouting reports on upcoming opponents.

After joining the Vikings as a public relations intern in 1990, Robinson worked two seasons (1991-92) as a public relations assistant and three years (1993-95) as operations assistant. He moved into the scouting department in June 1996.

In 1989-90 Robinson was an assistant coach at North High School in Minneapolis.

A three-year starter at cornerback at Northwestern, Robinson served as a team captain and was selected honorable-mention All-Big Ten as a senior in 1988. In the Wildcats' 28-10 win over Illinois (11/21) '87, he returned an interception 73 yards for a touchdown, which at the time was the 7th longest interception return in school history and the longest interception return by a Northwestern player since '63. As a starter in all 11 games at right cornerback as a sophomore, Robinson helped the Wildcats post their best record (4-7) since 1973. Northwestern also tied a school record for takeaways with 31 in '86. He was recruited by and played as a freshman for former Vikings Head Coach Dennis Green.

A native of Minneapolis, Robinson (4/16/67) was an honorable-mention All-America and a two-time All-Minneapolis Conference selection at North High School. He was a 2-time All-State pick in track and an All-City choice in basketball. A member of the National Honor Society in high school, Robinson was recognized by the Minneapolis Public School Athletic Department in '88.

Named one of the Outstanding College Students of America, Robinson earned a degree in organizational studies/business management at Northwestern. Since '91 he has served on the board of directors of the North Community YMCA. In 1995 and 1996 he hosted a college prep basketball camp for the top 30 varsity players in the Twin Cities. For the last seven years Robinson has hosted the "Jeff Robinson Football Camp". He and his wife Cassandra have two daughters, Jassandra, Jaila and a son, Jeffrey II "Deuce" and live in Shakopee.

PAUL WIGGIN
PERSONNEL CONSULTANT

In almost five decades as a player, coach and administrator in the National Football League, Paul Wiggin has been closely linked with the success of several teams.

In his role as a Vikings Personnel Consultant, Wiggin works with the department that is responsible for the evaluation all NFL players and advance scouting of the Vikings' upcoming opponents.

Wiggin first joined the Vikings in 1985 as defensive line coach in Bud Grant's final season as head coach. Wiggin oversaw a line that featured DE Chris Doleman and DT Keith Millard, who posted 21.0 and 18.0 sacks respectively in 1989, earning Millard NFL Defensive Player of the Year.

Wiggin's career included head coaching jobs at his alma mater, Stanford, from 1980-83 on a team that included John Elway and Darrin Nelson. From 1975-77 Wiggin was head coach of the Kansas City Chiefs. His coaching career started in 1968 with the San Francisco 49ers defensive line.

As a standout DE for the Cleveland Browns from 1957-67, Wiggin never missed a game, playing in 146 straight. He earned Pro Bowl starts in 1965 and '67 and was named to the Browns all-time team. In 2008 he was inducted as a Cleveland Browns Legend, honoring the top players in franchise history. A 2-time All-America at Stanford, Wiggin was inducted to the College Football Hall of Fame in 2005. He has bachelor's and master's degrees from Stanford.

A native of Modesto (CA), Wiggin attended Manteca Union High. He and his wife, Carolyn, have three children and eight grandchildren.

JERRY REICHOW
PERSONNEL CONSULTANT

Jerry Reichow has seen the growth and development of the Minnesota Vikings with a front row seat since the team first took the field as a raw expansion outfit.

A standout player on the debut Vikings team in 1961, Reichow has worked over four decades with the team in a variety of personnel roles.

Reichow's eye for talent has played a key role in the success of the franchise and he has worked with all seven head coaches in Vikings history.

Reichow began in the Vikings front office in 1966 as Director of Player Personnel. He moved on to be Director of Football Operations in 1975 and Assistant General Manager, National Scouting in 1992. Reichow was a key contributor to the Vikings draft process throughout his career and the team developed a reputation for finding talent hidden in late rounds of the draft.

Originally joining the team in 1961 in a trade from Washington, Reichow played 1961-64 for the Vikings. He led the team in receiving in 1961 and '62, joined Hugh McElhenny in '61 as the first 2 Pro Bowlers in team history and his 11 TD catches '61 stood as the team record until Cris Carter broke it in 1995.

Reichow entered the NFL as a 4th-round pick in 1956 by Detroit, helping the Lions to the 1957 NFL title. Reichow was the 1955 Iowa Hawkeyes MVP. He left school as the school record holder in total offense and played in the Shrine Bowl and Senior Bowl as a senior. On the hardwood, Reichow helped the team to the Final Four in 1955.

A native of Decorah, IA, Reichow and his wife, Carolyn, have three children.

BUD GRANT CONSULTANT

Bud Grant holds a notable place in the history of the Vikings franchise but also in the state of Minnesota. An icon of the sport and the team, Grant and the Vikings were synonymous for his 18 seasons as head coach of the club.

Grant retired as the winningest head coach in team history following the 1985 season, capping a career that would would be honored with induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame less than a decade later. Grant's place among the giants of the game is marked by a career regular season record of 158-96-5, winning 11 division titles in his 18 seasons and leading the Vikings to the Super Bowl 4 times.

Grant's coaching career began in the Canadian Football League in 1957 with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers. Grant moved to the sideline for 10 seasons (1957-66) immediately after retiring as a player for the Blue Bombers from 1953-56 where he played both ways as a WR/DB and was a Western Conference All-Star 3 times. During a playoff game against Saskatchewan, Grant snared 5 INTs to set a pro football record for a game. He entered pro football as a player with the Philadelphia Eagles for 2 seasons in 1951-52, ranking 2nd in the NFL in receiving in 1952. Grant had a 203-yard receiving day against the Dallas Texans in 1952 that still ranks as the 4th-best day in Eagles history.

As a coach in Canada, Grant led Winnipeg to the Grey Cup 6 times, winning the title 4 times- '58, '59, '61, '62. Grant is the 1st person to be elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame and the Canadian Football Hall of Fame.

Despite his many connections to Minnesota, Grant is a native of Superior, WI and graduate of Superior High. Upon graduation in 1945 he enlisted in the Navy and spent his basic training at Great Lakes Naval Station in Chicago where he played on a base football team coached by fellow Hall of Famer Paul Brown. Grant enrolled at the University of Minnesota where he would be a 3-sport standout in football, basketball and baseball. He twice earned All Big Ten honors in football. He was sought after as a pro athlete, being drafted by the Philadelphia Eagles and the NBA's Minneapolis Lakers. He won a pair of NBA titles with the Lakers in 1950 and '51 before turning to football where he played in 1951 and '52 for the Eagles. He was the 2nd-leading receiver in the NFL in 1952 before a contract dispute led him to Winnipeg to finish his playing career.

The Grant family is prominent in Minnesota in many areas. The matriarch of the Grant family, Bud's wife of 59 years, Pat, passed in the spring of 2009. Grant has 6 children, 19 grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren.

FRED ZAMBERLETTI CONSULTANT-TEAM HISTORIAN

Fred Zamberletti enters 2010 with a long and storied history with the franchise and a remarkable streak intact—Zamberletti has not missed a game in the 50-year history of the Vikings, an amazing stretch of 1,011 consecutive contests. The streak includes all preseason, regular season and postseason games in club history.

Zamberletti has earned the respect and trust of countless players and staff during his tenure with the Vikings. In his time with the team Zamberletti has been a friend, brother, father figure and mentor to countless players, coaches and co-workers. When the team held Fred Zamberletti Day on December 20, 1998 before kickoff of the Vikings-Jacksonville Jaguars game, over 100 Vikings alumni turned out to celebrate with him. To the media he's known as "Trainer for Life." Former head coach Bud Grant acknowledged him as the "Cornerstone of the Vikings" and former General Manager Mike Lynn referred to Fred as "Mr. Viking." The players with respect and admiration refer to him as "The Man." To his friends and compatriots he is known as "The Voice of Reason." Zamberletti was the Head Trainer from 1961-98, Coordinator of Medical Services from 1999-2001 and currently Senior Consultant.

A successful entrepreneur and a man of deep religious beliefs, the 78-year-old Zamberletti was a 1st Lieutenant in the U.S. Infantry. Following his graduation from the University of Iowa he served as chief physical therapist at Hibbing General Hospital in 1959 and head athletic trainer at the University of Toledo in 1960 before joining the Vikings at the team's inception in 1961.

Zamberletti is a native of Melcher, IA, and in addition to numerous professional awards he was inducted into the Minnesota Athletic Trainers Hall of Fame and was chosen Professional Athletic Trainer of the Year in 1986 by the Drackett Company of Cincinnati. He and the Vikings staff earned the 1996 NFL Athletic Training Staff of the Year. In 1999 he earned the Cain Fain Award at the NFL Physicians Sports Sciences Symposium and is an Honorary Fellow of the Minneapolis Sports Medicine Center.

Recognized by the governor as an Honorary Ambassador of the State of Minnesota, Zamberletti has also received Minneapolis' Honorary Citizen Award.

KIMBERLY FIELDS

DIRECTOR OF CIVIC AND BUSINESS AFFAIRS

Kimberly Fields' strong background from the NFL's headquarters has helped her develop new ties as the Vikings as Director of Civic and Business Affairs. Fields works on civic, business and ownership initiatives for all departments within the Vikings' organization and heads up several special projects throughout the year that enhance the Vikings standing and vision within local business and community circles. Fields also serves as the legal and business affairs liaison to Sales/Marketing department for contracts pertaining to sponsorship, marketing, TV, radio, events, suites and ticket sales.

Fields came to Minnesota in 2007 after spending six years at the NFL, most recently as the Manager of Events Business Development. Fields was responsible for enhancing opportunities for local women and minority-owned businesses to participate in the production of Super Bowl and Pro Bowl. Fields oversaw the sanctioned event process and assisted with the management of the bid process for Super Bowl XLIII, XLIV and XLV and the special events' strategic plan.

Fields has been a member of events teams charged with development, planning and implementation of the Super Bowl, NFL Draft, Pro Bowl, NFL Kickoff Celebration, Vikings Alumni Board/Ring of Honor and the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Prior to working in the Events department, Fields was the Manager of Career Transition Programs within the Player and Employee Development Department. In that role, she was responsible for providing assistance to NFL players in all aspects of continuing education, degree completion, graduate school preparation, life skills program and personal development through career counseling.

Prior to joining the NFL offices, Fields served as Community Relations/Fan Development Coordinator for the WNBA. Her first exposure to the sports field came as an intern at the Women's Sports Foundation in Long Island, NY and followed that with an internship with the NFL Player and Employee Development Department. Fields earned bachelor's and master's degrees in systems engineering at the University of Virginia where she competed in track and field for the Cavaliers. Fields began her professional career as a technical marketing representative at IBM before returning to UVA to earn her graduate degree and gained exposure to academic counseling as an intern with the Department of Athletics and the Dean of Students office.

DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC RELATIONS

Entering his 20th season in 2010 with the Vikings and his 13th as Director of Public Relations, Bob Hagan is responsible for coordinating print and electronic media coverage of the Vikings as well as overseeing the publication of the official team guide, team records and archives.

Hagan began with the Vikings as an intern in public relations for the 1991 season and was named Director of Public Relations in 1998. A 1990 graduate of Iowa State University with a bachelor's degree in mass communications, Hagan was an intern in 1989-90 for KARE-TV in the Twin Cities.

In 1991 Hagan served as an intern in the Vikings public relations office under Director Merrill Swanson. In 1992 he was hired full time and served as an assistant under Swanson and then Dave Pelletier until his promotion to Director of Public Relations prior to the 1998 season. Following the 1998 and 2000 seasons, Hagan accompanied the Vikings staff and helped the NFL with PR efforts at the Pro Bowl. Recently, Hagan has worked with the NFL public relations staff at the past 8 Super Bowls.

LUTHER HIPPE

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS-TEAM TRAVEL

Luther Hippe returns as Director of Operations-Team Travel in 2010, his 5th season in that role and his 17th overall season with the Vikings. Hippe is responsible for all aspects of team travel and transportation while serving as the point person for off-season travel including bringing in players during the free agency visit process.

Hippe is one of the Vikings' longest-tenured employees and got his first exposure to the team as a training camp intern in 1993. He returned to the team as a season-long intern in 1994 and was hired to the staff in the spring of 1995 as an assistant in the team operations and personnel departments. After a season in a shared capacity, Hippe turned his focus to operations. Hippe worked as a grad assistant for the Mankato State Mavericks basketball team and as a grad assistant in the athletic department before earning his master's in sports management in 1994. While on the MSU campus Hippe developed a working relationship with the Vikings that evolved into a career.

Hippe was a four-year basketball letterman at Sioux Falls College in his hometown, where he attended Sioux Falls Washington High. He earned his bachelor's in mass communications from SFC in 1987.

Hippe has been active with the Big Brothers/Big Sisters program in the Twin Cities and other charitable endeavors in his hometown. Hippe and wife, Emily, reside in Chanhasen with their son, George.

PHIL HUEBNER

DIRECTOR OF TICKETING AND HOSPITALITY

Phil Huebner enters his 13th season with the Vikings as the Director of Ticketing and Hospitality in 2010.

Since October 1998, Huebner has overseen and revamped the successful Vikings Ticket Sales and Operations Departments, which are responsible for customer service and the sale of season, group and individual tickets along with hospitality packages. In 1999 season ticket sales were capped at 60,000, an increase of 17,000 from the 1998 season. Entering the 2010 season the Minnesota Vikings have sold out 126 consecutive pre-season, regular season and playoff games. The three largest home crowds in team history have been during Huebner's tenure, including the team-record 64,482 fans who watched the Vikings battle Green Bay on 11/2/03. The Vikings have topped the 500,000 mark for home attendance in each of the past 12 seasons, setting the franchise record at 513,437 in 2003.

Huebner joined the Vikings after 12 years with the Minnesota Twins where he was in various sales positions and spent the final two years as the Director of Sales.

A 1986 graduate of Wisconsin-Stevens Point, he has a bachelor's in political science. Huebner and wife, Debbie, have two children, Rebecca and Bret, and reside in Andover.

DANNON HULSKOTTER

DIRECTOR OF MARKETING AND BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

The 2010 season will be Dannon Hulskotter's 10th with the Vikings. Hulskotter and the Marketing Department are responsible for managing the team's branding, marketing, promotions, game entertainment/production, internet initiatives along with corporate hospitality and all partner and fan special event.

Hulskotter acts as the main liaison with the team's flagship radio station, network radio affiliates, and local ancillary TV and pre-season TV partner programming. Prior to joining the Minnesota Vikings, he worked with Pacers Sports & Entertainment in Indianapolis from 1999-2001 and CAVS/Gund Arena Company in Cleveland from 1994-99.

A graduate of the University of Iowa with a degree in sports management, Hulskotter and wife, Amy, have two sons, Jack and Alex, and reside in Prior Lake.

KIM KLAWITER

DIRECTOR OF SECURITY

Entering his 5th season as the Vikings' Director of Security in 2010, Kim Klawiter has worked with the team in game day and special events security since 2001.

Klawiter has a broad background in law enforcement and in the military, experience that benefits the organization as he has responsibility for the security of the Vikings owners, players and staff and the team headquarters at Winter Park. Klawiter coordinates with the Minneapolis Police Department for security at the Metrodome during Vikings home games.

A 24-year veteran of the Minnesota State Patrol, Klawiter retired as a lieutenant. He spent 15 years coordinating VIP visits to the state and was responsible for the State Patrol's highly-trained Special Response Team. Klawiter escorted Mikhail Gorbachev on his visit to the state and has provided security to three U.S.

Presidents and other prominent public figures.

Klawiter was drafted into the U.S. Army in 1968 and served as a platoon sergeant in Vietnam where he earned the Bronze Star for heroism among other honors. He spent 14 total years in the military between active duty, National Guard and Army Reserve. After his tour of duty, Klawiter returned to school at the University of Minnesota, majoring in sociology.

Klawiter serves on the board and is a past President of the Law Enforcement Memorial Association, an organization that supports the families of officers who have died in the line of duty.

Klawiter resides in Arden Hills with wife, Kathy. The couple has two children, Kelly and Kyle, and three grandchildren, Hunter, Tanner and Alyssa Marie.

LISA LARSON

DIRECTOR OF HUMAN RESOURCES

Lisa Larson begins her 5th season with the Vikings in 2010 and directs the employee relations, benefits, staffing, performance management, compensation, compliance, workers compensation and safety for the Vikings staff. Larson's responsibilities cover the Vikings players and coaches, full-time staff and over 200 seasonal and part-time employees.

Larson has over 15 years of experience in human resources in several varied industries, from insurance to printing and manufacturing. Before joining the Vikings in 2006, Larson spent 2004-06 in human resources at Minnesota-based power sports giant Polaris.

A native of Minnesota, Larson attended Robbinsdale Cooper High School. She captained the North Hennepin Community College softball team before transferring to St. Cloud State University where she earned a bachelor's degree in management with an emphasis in human resources.

Larson and her husband Kris reside in Rogers with their children Calvin and Lauren.

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS & FACILITIES

The 2010 season will mark Chad Lundeen's 13th with the Vikings and his first in a new role overseeing facilities operations at Winter Park and coordinating operations at Mall of America Field for the team. Lundeen's work with the Vikings operations department and coordinating training camps will continue along with his new responsibilities.

Lundeen has been associated with the team since 1998 when he did an internship with the club and was hired full time in 2000 with duties in Operations and Community Relations. In recent years Lundeen has handled the Vikings' training camp efforts at Minnesota State University, Mankato.

Already familiar with the Mankato scene, Lundeen was a natural fit. He earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from MSU and exemplified the model of the student-athlete. A four-year competitor on the Maverick hockey team, Lundeen was a summa cum laude graduate and a recipient of MSU's prestigious Preska Scholarship, presented annually to a top student who is involved actively in campus life. Lundeen earned the Team Leadership Award for his efforts in hockey as a junior. Lundeen continued his education at MSU as a graduate assistant in the athletics department and earned his master's degree in sports management.

A 1993 graduate of Little Falls (MN) High, Lundeen and wife, Lindsay, reside in Chaska with their daughter, Evelyn.

BRAD MADSON

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF COMMUNITY RELATIONS/YOUTH FOOTBALL

Brad Madson first joined the Vikings staff in 1992 and enters his 15th season in 2010 heading up team community relations and expanding the club's youth football initiatives.

In his tenure, Madson has developed the Vikings community relations into one of the NFL's strongest. In 1999 Cris Carter became the first player in Vikings history to win the prestigious Walter Payton Award as the NFL's Man of the Year. In 2008, Matt Birk was named one of three finalists for the award. The Vikings have implemented Community Tuesday as a concept that has been adopted League-wide. Community Tuesdays have Vikings players active in community events at local schools, hospitals, recreation centers and other nonprofit organizations on their only day off of the week during the season. Locally, Madson supports United Way and the Page Education Foundation. Madson serves on the Board of Directors for Minnesota DARE, African American Adoption Agency, Kids Voting Minnesota, and V3 Youth Triathlon Team. Madson also serves on the University of Minnesota School of Journalism Alumni Board, Minneapolis Park Board Youth Sports Work Team, and Salvation Army Harbor Light Center Advisory Council. Through NFL Charities and LISC (Local Initiatives Support Corporation), Madson has helped lead the $850,000 refurbishing of North Commons Park, Parade Stadium and Les Barnard Field in Minneapolis, Griffin Stadium and Jimmy Lee Center in St. Paul and Heritage Sports Center in Duluth. In 2009, Madson received the "Distinguished Service Award" from the Minnesota Football Coaches Association.

Madson worked with the Vikings suite and ticket sales efforts from 1992-96 before moving into community relations. A graduate of the University of Minnesota in journalism, Madson worked in television sports as an anchor and reporter prior to joining the Vikings. Madson was a member of the Golden Gophers' Big 10 champion tennis team during his college career. Madson is single and resides in Minneapolis.

BOB MARCUS

DIRECTOR OF VIDEO

In his 10th season with the Vikings in 2010, Bob Marcus is in his 9th as Director of Video after serving as Director of Digital Video in 2001.

Marcus is responsible for overseeing all aspects of videotaping Vikings practices and games as well as distributing video to coaches and players.

The Vikings utilize an XOS Technologies digital video network that features viewing stations in each meeting room and coach's office. Every NFL game and all practice footage is put online to be instantly accessed by players, coaches and scouts.

Prior to joining the Vikings in 2001, Marcus worked with the University of Minnesota Golden Gopher football program as video coordinator for 17 years. A native of Minneapolis, he attended Edison High School. Marcus is a 1982 graduate of the University of Minnesota with a degree in photojournalism.

As an undergraduate, Marcus was a student assistant for the Gophers and got his start filming practices and games for the football team. Marcus was hired by the University full-time in 1984. During his tenure with Minnesota, he worked with Gophers head coaches Joe Salem, Lou Holtz, John Gutekunst, Jim Wacker and Glen Mason. The 1985 Gophers won the Independence Bowl, the '86 team played in the Liberty Bowl, the '99 team was in the Sun Bowl and the 2000 Gophers played in the Micron PC Bowl.

Marcus and wife, Tami, have two children, Rob and Amy, and reside in Champlin.

J.P. PAUL
DIRECTOR OF PRIVATE SUITE SALES AND SERVICE

The 2010 season will be J.P. Paul's 8th season with the Vikings organization and his 5th season as the team's Director of Private Suites Sales and Service.

As part of his responsibilities, Paul oversees all sales and operational aspects of Mall of America's Private Suites and serves as the Vikings Suite liaison with Aramark and Main Gate, which provide catering services and merchandise fulfillment, respectively, for the Private Suites. Under Paul's leadership, the Vikings also introduced the Legends Club and TicketExchange Touchdown Club. These exclusive Premium Seating areas were the first of their kind in the history of the stadium. In 2010, the Vikings Premium Seating Department will introduce the Gridiron Club, a brand new members-only club/bar which will further enhance the game day experience for Vikings fans.

Along with his day-to-day responsibilities with the Vikings,

Paul also serves as a Board Member for Junior Achievement's Project Lead! which focuses on teaching financial literacy to young people across the Upper Midwest. A member of the Association of Luxury Suite Directors, he also served as the NFL's 2007 Premium Seating Committee Chairman and is a member of the Downtown Minneapolis Rotary. A lifelong sports fan and participant, he played Division I collegiate baseball at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, where he graduated with a bachelor's degree in marketing.

J.P. and his wife, Megan, reside in Chaska with their three sons, Ryan, Matthew and Nicholas.

LES PICO
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT/LEGAL

Entering his 6th season with the Vikings and his 13th associated with the National Football League, Les Pico serves the Vikings as Executive Director of Player Development/Legal.

Pico is responsible for heading the Vikings efforts in continuing education, family assistance and career internships. Pico joins players at the annual Rookie Symposium, serving as a team liaison between the NCAA and the team and legal issues that arise concerning players, coaches and staff. Pico helped implement a Vikings "mini-symposium" to assist rookies in their transition to life in the NFL and he lends his expertise to the team during the NFL Combine and during the free agency period. In 2008, the Vikings were honored by the NFL with the Player Development Continuing Education Award when an NFL-high 9 players were enrolled in school.

Pico joined the Vikings after 4 seasons with the Kansas City Chiefs where he worked as Player Development Coordinator/

Legal. Pico worked with NFL Security from 1998-2000 and with the NCAA from 1991-98 as an enforcement representative.

A native of Mesa, AZ, he attended Scottsdale Community College where he was a decorated QB and team MVP. After SCC, Pico went on a 2-year LDS mission and was involved in private business. He returned to Arizona State to complete his bachelor's where he was a Cum Laude graduate in criminal justice in 1987 and went on to law school at Washburn (KS) University, earning his Juris Doctorate in 1991.

Pico and his wife, Rita, have four children.

DENNIS RYAN

EQUIPMENT MANAGER

One of the veteran equipment managers in the NFL, Dennis Ryan enters his 35th season of service with the Vikings. A lifetime resident of St. Paul, Ryan joined the Vikings in 1976 as an assistant to Jim "Stubby" Eason, who spent 20 years as the Vikings Equipment Manager. Ryan was elevated to equipment manager in June 1981. At 21-years-old, Ryan became the youngest equipment manager in the NFL. He is only the second person in Vikings history to hold the title of equipment manager.

In 1984 Ryan designed the first eye shield to be worn by a player in an NFL game, creating a shield to protect DT Mark Mullaney, who had suffered an eye injury in a previous game. In March 1995 Ryan received the Whitey Zimmerman Award, recognizing the NFL's Equipment Manager of the Year.

Ryan attended the University of Minnesota (1978-79) and University of St. Thomas (1980-81). He and wife Laura, have three children, Ben, Maureen and Annie, and reside in St. Paul.

MIKE SLATES

DIRECTOR OF CORPORATE SALES & SERVICE

Mike Slates begins his 11th season with the Vikings in 2010 as Director of Corporate Sales & Service. Slates is responsible for overseeing all aspects of corporate sponsorship revenue, including media, signage, print, internet, promotional and special event sales. Under his leadership and with the addition of radio and television broadcast rights, the group has totaled record-setting revenues each year. Slates also directs the Partnerships group, which is responsible for providing an elite level of service to the team's corporate partners via corporate travel/hospitality, in- and out-of-stadium promotions and special events as well as other corporate partnership elements.

Prior to joining the Vikings, Slates was a Corporate Sales Consultant for the NBA's Cleveland Cavaliers. From 1998-2000, he was Director of Corporate Sales for the Columbus Crew of Major League Soccer. During that time the Crew opened the nation's first professional soccer-specific stadium.

Slates, who earned his bachelor's degree in sports management at Bowling Green State University, has a daughter, Rachel, and a son, Noah. Slates resides in Prior Lake.

HEISMAN HOPEFULS

The Vikings running back group has a pair of players who were Heisman Trophy runners-up and are coached by a 3rd-place finisher. The newest addition to the position group, rookie Toby Gerhart from Stanford, finished 2nd to Alabama RB Mark Ingram in the 2009 Heisman voting in the closest vote in the history of the award. In 2004, Adrian Peterson was runner-up to USC QB Matt Leinart. Peterson became the highest finisher by a freshman in the history of the award. The players are instructed daily by Eric Bieniemy, who finished 3rd in the 1990 Heisman balloting behind winner Ty Detmer and runner-up Raghib Ismail. Other Vikings in team history who took home the Heisman trophy include RB Herschel Walker, who won the 1982 honor for his standout performance at Georgia, and QB Gino Torretta, who claimed the 1992 Heisman.

VIKINGS IN THE HEISMAN VOTING

- 2009.....1) Mark Ingram, Alabama (1,304 pts); 2) Toby Gerhart, Stanford (1,276)
- 2004.....1) Matt Leinart, USC (1,325 pts); 2) Adrian Peterson, Oklahoma (997)
- 1990.....1) Ty Detmer, BYU (1,482 pts); 2) Raghib Ismail, Notre Dame (1,177); Eric Bieniemy, Colorado (798)

The Vikings RBs are well represented in Heisman history with a pair of runners-up in the balloting and are coached by 1990 3rd-place finisher Eric Bieniemy.

DEEP IMPACT

In his 1st season with the Vikings, WR Bernard Berrian etched his name throughout the team record book based on his big-play ability. Berrian teamed with RB Adrian Peterson to make the Vikings difficult to defend on the ground and through the air. A threat to score from anywhere on the field, he tied an NFL record with a 99-yard TD against his old Bears teammates and scored on an 82-yard punt return at Arizona.

PP&K THE VIKINGS WAY

Building football skills and keeping kids involved in an active lifestyle makes Punt, Pass and Kick one of the Vikings longest-standing and most popular events. Every year, kids from across the Upper Midwest compete in local events with the hope of advancing to Mall of America Field for a chance to compete nationally for a PP&K title.

Punt, Pass and Kick was established in 1961, just like the Vikings. The competition is the oldest youth football activity sponsored by the NFL. The PPK program is a national skills competition for boys and girls between the ages of 6 and 15 to compete separately against their peers.

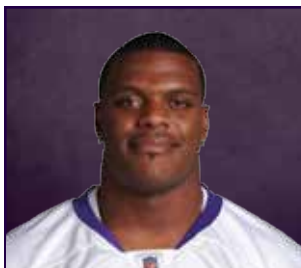

Girls and boys in five separate age divisions (6-7, 8-9, 10-11, 12-13, and 14-15) compete against each other in punting, passing and place kicking in a fun and engaging forum. The PPK program is free – both to organizers who host a local competition and to every youngster who wants to participate!

With more than three million boys and girls from around the country taking part in PPK competitions every year from July through January, it is one of the world's largest youth sports participation programs.

Vikings rookie LB Nate Triplett competed in a regional PP&K event before a Vikings game as a 12-year-old and still remembers it as one of his fondest memories. "I had a pretty good punt but my kicks were pretty awful," Triplett said. "It's a great event and something we always took a lot of pride in as kids."

Vikings kicker Mike Mercer shows a youngster the ropes as part of the Punt, Pass and Kick program in 1962.

PRIME TIME OPENER IS READY-MADE REMATCH

The Vikings will face the defending Super Bowl champion New Orleans Saints to open the 2010 season. The Vikings have played the defending Super Bowl champs the past 2 seasons. The game at New Orleans will be a rematch of the NFC Championship game from January 24, 2010, at the Superdome. The game at New Orleans will mark the 5th time in Vikings history the team has had a rematch of the NFC Championship game from the previous season. It will be the 2nd time the Vikings have opened the following season against the team they lost to in the NFC Championship game, the last time coming in the 1999 season opener at Atlanta following the 1998 NFC Championship game.

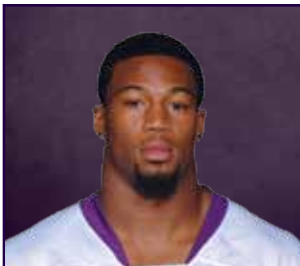

The Vikings will open the season on a Thursday night prime time game for the 1st time in team history. The Vikings have played 10 games on Thursday nights but have not opened the season in a Thursday night showcase game. The 1st Vikings Thursday night game was a 21-10 win at Dallas on 10/26/78. The next Thursday nighter was on 9/16/82 at Buffalo, a 23-22 loss to the Bills. The game was also the last for the Vikings for over 2 months as part of the 1982 NFL players strike. The 1982 team did not return to the field until an 11/21/82 game against Green Bay in Milwaukee. Opening the season in prime time is nothing new to the Vikings though. Brad Childress' 1st career game as head coach came on Monday Night Football at Washington on 9/11/06 and he opened the 2008 season at Green Bay on 9/8/08 in a Monday Nighter.

SPECIAL DELIVERY

Heath Farwell's impact on the Vikings special teams speaks for itself. He has led or tied for the team lead in special teams stops in each of the past 3 seasons he has played and in 2009 became the 1st Viking to earn Pro Bowl recognition as a special teamer since Joey Browner in 1985. Farwell ranks 7th in Vikings career history with 94 special teams stops and in 2010 can move within sight of team record holder Chris Walsh.

a 2nd-quarter drive, hit Driver for a 90-yard TD for the 4th-longest pass play in a postseason game in NFL history.

2006 With a career-high 613 pass attempts, led the league for a 2nd straight year, joining George Blanda (1963-65) as 1 of 2 passers to pace the NFL multiple times after their 36th birthdays... Became the NFL's all-time leader in pass completions, in addition to extending his league marks for consecutive and overall 3,000-yard seasons...Named FedEx Air Player of the Week 3 times; after wins in Week 3 at Detroit, Week 10 at Minnesota and Week 17 at Chicago...Hit Greg Jennings for a 75-yard TD in a 31-24 win at Detroit (9/24), the 400th TD pass of his career and earned NFC Offensive Player of the Week, FedEx Air Player of the Week...Lost his first start at Lambeau where he didn't throw an interception against St. Louis (10/8)...Was 39-0 (43-0 including playoffs) at Lambeau when not throwing an INT entering the Rams contest...In 17-9 win vs. Detroit (12/17), with a 21-yard pass to Carlyle Holiday late in the first half, became the NFL's all-time leader in pass completions, surpassing Marino (4,967).

2005 Led the NFC with 3,881 yards...Learned 8/30/05 that Hurricane Katrina had wiped out his childhood home in Kiln, MS, along with many of his personal trophies and awards, but more importantly didn't claim the lives of any of his numerous family members on the Gulf Coast...Reached his mother, Bonita, with the help of a Houston TV station the day after the storm...Worked with fellow-Mississippian Steve McNair to gather supplies for victims; had his donations flown on the Packers' team charter to Nashville for pre-season finale (9/1), then trucked them to Mississippi...Lost 2 of his top 3 WRs, 2 of his top 3 TEs, all 3 of his RBs (as well as a 4th) and his starting center to injury and threw a league-leading and career-high 29 INTs and finished with a career-low 70.9 passer rating...Completed passes to 18 players, 2 more than his previous career high (16 in 1998) and 1 shy of the team record.

2004 Led the League's 3rd-ranked offense in his 13th season in Green Bay...Named NFC Offensive Player of the Month in November...Had 8 games with a 100+ passer rating...Broke NFL record held since 1970 merger in the home opener against Chicago (9/19), for most consecutive games with a TD pass vs. a single opponent by throwing for a score in a 25th straight game against the Bears (Marino had a TD toss in 24 straight vs. the NY Jets)...Established a pair of milestones in victory at Detroit (10/17), passing Bart Starr (196) for No. 1 on the franchise's all-time games-played list with 197, and also moved ahead of former Viking Fran Tarkenton (47,003) and into 4th place in career passing yards...Took his team down the field for a walk-off FG vs. Minnesota (11/14) after Minnesota rallied from a 14-point deficit to tie the game at 31 with 1:20 remaining to earn NFC Offensive Player of the Week.

2003 Played in all 16 games despite fracturing the thumb on his right hand early in the team's 7th game, at St. Louis (10/19)... Selected to his 8th career Pro Bowl...Helped the Packers to 442 points, the 2nd-highest total in franchise history, behind only the 456 scored by the 1996 Super Bowl champions...Finished 2nd in the NFC in passer rating (90.4)...Had 6 games with a passer rating of 100 or better...Rallied from a 4th-quarter deficit or tie to win on 4 occasions (11/2 at Minnesota, 11/16 at Tampa Bay, 12/14 at San Diego and 1/4/04 vs. Seattle in the playoffs)...Captured NFC Offensive Player of the Month for December...Turned in one of the most memorable performances of his career, and in the history of Monday Night Football, in 41-7 victory at Oakland (12/22), playing with a heavy heart one day after the sudden death of his father (Irvin), he completed 22-of-30 passes (73.3 percent) for 399 yards and 4 TDs, without an INT, against the Raiders, for a team-record 154.9 passer rating, earning NFC Offensive Player of the Week...His performance in the contest earned the ESPN ESPYs 2004 Best Moment...Posted a 104.7 passer rating in loss at St. Louis (10/19) despite playing almost the entire game with a broken thumb on his throwing hand, injuring his right thumb on the 1st series of Rams contest when he hit the shoulder pad of guard Mike Wahle while following through on his 2nd pass attempt of the game...Chose to forego a recommendation of surgery to place pins in his thumb that would have sidelined him 4-6 weeks to properly heal the bone.

2002 Chosen NFL Player of the Year by Sports Illustrated... Was voted to the Pro Bowl (as a starter) for the 7th time...For the 2nd year in a row, was the leading vote-getter in fan balloting for the Pro Bowl...Named 2nd-Team All-Pro selection by AP...Threw for a score in his 13th consecutive postseason contest to tie Dan Marino's NFL record in Wild Card game vs. Atlanta.

2001 Earned 6th Pro Bowl berth and named 2nd-Team All-Pro...His 15 INTs was the lowest in a season since he threw only 13 in 1996...Finished 3rd in the NFC (and 4th in the NFL) with a 94.1 passer rating...Named NFC Offensive Player of the Week and national Miller Lite Player of the Week for his performance against the defending Super Bowl champion Baltimore Ravens (10/14) and led TD drives of 59, 74, 80 and 82 yards.

2000 Became the 2nd-fastest player in NFL history to reach 250 career TD passes, doing so in the 141st game of his pro career; only Dan Marino, who did so in 128 games, had reached that plateau quicker...Led 4 game-winning comeback efforts inside Lambeau Field: vs. Philadelphia, San Francisco, Minnesota and Tampa Bay...Passed for 2 TDs, including the game-winning 43-yard loft to Antonio Freeman in OT in 26-20 win vs. Minnesota (11/6) on Monday Night Football.

1999 Named NFC Offensive Player of the Month for September...Reached 30,000 yards passing in his 126th pro game, vs. Carolina (12/12), to become the (then) 3rd-fastest in league history to ascend to that plateau, only Dan Marino (114) and Warren Moon (125) having done so quicker...Threw a 23-yard TD pass on 4th-and-1 with :12 remaining to cap a 23-20 win against Minnesota (9/26)...Surpassed Ron Jaworski's all-time QB durability mark by starting in his 117th consecutive game vs. Chicago (11/7).

1998 Led the Packers to a come-from-behind, 37-30 victory with a signature performance at Carolina (9/27) with 5 TD passes while throwing for a season-best 388 yards (then the 4th-highest total of his pro career), earning national Miller Lite Player of the Week honors in the process...Advanced to Wild Card playoff game at San Francisco.

1997 Led Green Bay to 2nd straight Super Bowl berth, facing Denver in Super Bowl XXXII...Named the NFL MVP and 1st-Team All-Pro by Associated Press...Named NFC starter in the Pro Bowl for the 3rd straight season...Led the NFC in completions (304) and passing yards (3,867), finishing 2nd in the NFL in yards...Eclipsed Bart Starr's team record for TD passes of 152, set over a 16-year career in the 4th game of just his 6th season (vs. Minnesota, 9/21)...Became the 2nd-fastest player in NFL history to get to 150 career TD passes, reaching that milestone in his 84th career game, a rate bettered only by Dan Marino (62 games), and (then) the 2nd-fastest to throw for 20,000 career yards when he accomplished the feat in 86 games...Tied the team record and his own career high when he threw 5 TD passes in leading the Packers to 38-32 win vs. Minnesota (9/21), earning Miller Lite Player of the Week honors in the process...Hit on 16-of-27 attempts for 222 yards and a TD without an INT in leading Green Bay to a 23-10 victory over the 49ers in the NFC Championship Game at San Francisco (11/19/98), triggering the Packers' return to the Super Bowl...Threw 3 TDs against Denver in SB XXXII at San Diego's Qualcomm Stadium (1/25/98).

1996 Led Packers to Super Bowl title for the 1st time in 29 years with win over New England in Super Bowl XXXI...Named as the starting QB for the NFC in the Pro Bowl for the 2nd straight year...Voted as the NFL's MVP by AP for the 2nd year in a row... Earned Player of the Year honors from TSN, Football Digest, Miller Lite, the Maxwell Club, the Touchdown Club of Columbus and the Victor Awards...Selected as Pro Football Performer of the Year by ESPN's ESPY Awards...Named NFL Offensive Player of the Year by PFW, College & Pro Football Newsweekly and the Newspaper Enterprise Association...Selected NFC Player of the Year by Football News...Also chosen NFC Offensive Player of the Year by United Press-International and the Kansas City Committee of 101...Garnered 1st-Team All-Pro honors from AP, College & Pro Football Newsweekly, Football Digest, PFW/PFWA, TSN, SI and USA Today...Earned All-NFC honors from Football News and UPI...Named Newsmaker of the Year by the Wisconsin Newspaper Association, an inaugural award given out to honor someone whose "spirit of service is demonstrated through acts which reflect positively on Wisconsin"...Led the NFL in TD passes for the 2nd year in a row...Was named NFC Offensive Player of the Week for his 4-TD performance in season opener at Tampa Bay (9/1)...Named NFC Offensive Player of the Month for September, passing for 16 TDs in leading the Packers to a 4-1 record during the month...Engineered 35-14 Divisional Playoff win over San Francisco (1/4/97), when he completed 11-of-15 passes for 79 yards and a TD...Under frigid conditions, he threw for 292 yards on 19-of-29 passing in the NFC Championship game at Lambeau Field a week later (1/12/96), with TD tosses to Dorsey Levens (29 yards) and Freeman (6 yards)...In Super Bowl XXXI, he launched the scoring with a 54-yard TD pass to WR Andre Rison on his 1st throw of the game, coming on a called audible, and later found Freeman with a then-Super Bowl-record, 81-yard TD, threw for 246 yards, completing 14-of-27 passes without an INT, in a 35-21 win in Super Bowl XXXI at the Louisiana Superdome in New Orleans, returning the Lombardi Trophy to Green Bay.

1995 Earned NFL Most Valuable Player awards from AP, PFWA, PFW and SI...Selected to start in the Pro Bowl for the initial time after 2 appearances as a reserve...Named Player of the Year by TSN, Football Digest, Miller Lite, the Maxwell Club and the Touchdown Club of Columbus...Selected as Pro Football Performer of the Year by ESPN's ESPY Awards...Named NFL Offensive Player of the Year by AP, PFW and College & Pro Football Newsweekly...Selected NFC Player of the Year by Football News and the Touchdown Club of Columbus...Named NFC Offensive Player of the Year by UPI and the Kansas City Committee of 101...Received 1st-Team All-Pro honors from AP, College & Pro Football Newsweekly, Football Digest, PFW/PFWA, TSN, SI and USA Today...Garnered All-NFC honors from Football News and UPI...Presented NFL QB of the Year honors by the National Quarterback Club...Lauded as Wisconsin Sports Person of the Year by Wisconsin Sports Authority/Milwaukee Pen & Mike Club...Earned his 1st-ever NFC Offensive Player of the Week honor with an outstanding performance in initial game against Minnesota (10/22), tying a then-career high with 4 TD passes in leading the Packers to a 38-21 win, going 22-of-43 for 295 yards without an INT against the Vikings...Named NFC Offensive Player of the Month for December...Led Packers to a 37-20 NFC Wild Card victory over Atlanta in Lambeau Field (12/31), presiding over scoring drives of 85, 78 and 70 yards...Was even more precise in a Divisional playoff at San Francisco (1/6/96), hitting on 21-of-28 passes for 299 yards and 2 TDs, with no INTs in a 27-17 triumph over the favored 49ers, the defending Super Bowl champions...Named NFL Offensive Player of the Week for his performance vs. the 49ers...Led team to NFC Championship Game at Dallas (1/14/96), the Packers' first since 1967.

1994 Finished 2nd in the NFL (behind only Steve Young of San Francisco's Super Bowl champion 49ers) with a passer rating of 90.7...Ranked 3rd in the NFC in passing yards with 3,882...Ended season 2nd in the NFL with 33 TD passes, which also represented a Green Bay record at the time, surpassing the 32 of Dickey in 1983...Produced the Packers' biggest play of the year in the 2nd-to-last game of the regular season with Green Bay needing a victory to keep its playoff hopes alive, he engineered a come-from-behind, 67-yard drive in the final 1:58 against Atlanta (12/18), capping the march with his diving, 9-yard TD run into the right corner of the end zone with only :14 remaining in the game to give the Packers a 21-17 win in the Packers' final game at Milwaukee County Stadium...Had key role in the Packers' 16-12 NFC Wild Card victory over Detroit at Lambeau Field (12/31)...Hit on 18-of-35 attempts for 211 yards, with 1 INT, in Divisional playoff loss at Dallas (1/8/95).

1993 Played in the Pro Bowl as a reserve when Phil Simms could not take part due to a shoulder problem...Started all 16 games, 1 of only 7 NFL QBs to do so...Pulled off one of the most spectacular plays in team history in NFC Wild Card playoff at Detroit (1/8/94)...With the Packers trailing 24-21 in the final minute, he scrambled and found Sterling Sharpe for a cross-field TD with :55 left in the game for a 28-24 win...Threw 2 more TD passes in losing effort (27-17) in Divisional playoff at Dallas the

1992 Named as the 3rd QB for the NFC Pro Bowl squad...At the time, was the youngest quarterback ever to play in AFC-NFC Pro Bowl (since 1971) at 23 years, 3 months, 28 days of age...Acquired from Atlanta by then-Packers General Manager Ron Wolf for a 1st-round draft selection in an offseason trade (2/10)...Helped Green Bay to its 2nd-best record in 20 years (9-7), soaring from designated backup to Pro Bowler in just 3 months...Began season as the understudy to incumbent Don Majkowski, he replaced an injured Majkowski (ankle) in the 1st quarter of Game 3 vs. Cincinnati (9/20) and led the Packers to a come-from-behind, 24-23 victory over the Bengals, forged by way of a 35-yard scoring pass to WR Kitrick Taylor with only 13 seconds remaining in the game...He went on to compile an 8-5 record as a starter...Did not play vs. Minnesota in regular-season opener (9/6), but saw action in 2nd-half relief role the next week at Tampa Bay (9/13), completing 8-of-14 passes for 73 yards...Engineered 2 TD drives in last 8:00 of the game to pull out 24-23 victory over Cincinnati (9/20) after relieving injured Majkowski in opening quarter, he threw for a season-high 289 yards and had 2 TDs against Bengals on 22-of-39 passing, throwing 1st career TD pass to Sharpe for a 5-yard score...Made 1st NFL start vs. Pittsburgh (9/27) and responded by completing 14-of-19 passes for 210 yards and 2 TDs, including a 76-yarder to Sharpe, with no INTs.

1991 Was a 2nd-round draft selection by the Falcons (33rd overall and 3rd QB, after Dan McGwire and Todd Marinovich)...Completed 14-of-32 passes for 160 yards and 2 TDs with 1 INT, in the preseason...Active for 3 games during the regular season, he played in 2 vs. LA Rams (10/27) and at Washington (11/10), officially attempting 4 incomplete passes in Redskins contest...After the 2004 season, Elias Sports Bureau changed Favre's official passing attempts for that Washington game; in researching Favre's early career, viewing a tape of the CBS broadcast, Elias determined that Favre actually threw 4 passes in the game (the RFK Stadium press box had mistakenly credited him with 5 attempts in hand-written statistics).

COLLEGE Led his Southern Mississippi team to 29 victories, including 2 bowl wins, during 4 varsity seasons (1987-90), and climaxed his college career with MVP award in the East-West Shrine game...Set school records for passing yards (8,193), pass attempts (1,234), completions (656), passing percentage (53.0) and TDs (55), with only 35 INTs...Overcame injuries in a serious summer car accident prior to his senior year to lead his team to an 8-3 record and just 8 points from an undefeated season...Suffered internal injuries in the accident on 7/14/90, he subsequently had 30 inches of his intestines surgically removed 24 days later (8/7/90)...Shocked his coaches and teammates by returning to the starting lineup a month later (9/8/90) and escorting the Golden Eagles to an upset over Alabama...Was MVP of All-American Bowl at conclusion of senior year...Became starter at Southern Miss in 3rd game of his freshman season...Had the No. 4 jersey he had worn at Southern Mississippi retired in September of 1993.

PREP Earned 5 letters in baseball (he led team in batting all 5 seasons) and 3 in football at Hancock North Central High School in Kiln, where his late father, Irvin, was his coach...Played QB and SS, also serving as P and PK...Played in Mississippi High School All Star game following senior season.

Daunte Culpepper, 2004 .....	8 (6-2)
Randall Cunningham, 1998 .....	8 (7-1)

WE VS. THEY

Brett Favre's record-setting 2009 performance earned him a unique spot in the Vikings record book. He now ranks prominently in the Vikings passing history and holds nearly all the top performances by a QB against the Vikings. His 17 career wins against the Vikings are the most by an opposing QB and his 12 wins for the Vikings in 2009 is tied for 2nd-most in a season in team history.

VIKINGS WINS IN A SEASON BY A QB

READY FOR PRIME TIME PLAYERS

The Vikings are scheduled to play 4 prime time games in 2010, including opening the season on Thursday, September 9, on NBC at New Orleans in a rematch of the 2009 NFC Championship game. The team will play twice on ESPN's Monday Night Football and an NBC Sunday Night Football game. The Vikings will face Chicago on Monday Night Football for the 3rd time in the past 4 seasons. The game will mark the 12th time the Bears and Vikings have met on Monday Night Football dating back to 1972 and square off for the 19th time in prime time. The Vikings travel to the NY Jets for a Monday Night game on October 11. The Vikings only other game against the Jets on Monday Night came in 1979. The Vikings opener on NBC's prime time season kickoff marks the 3rd time in the past 5 seasons the team has opened in prime time, the 2006 opener at Washington and the 2008 opener at Green Bay on Monday Night. The Vikings will travel to Green Bay for a Sunday Night game on October 24, which will be the 13th game in the series in prime time (7 on Monday Night, 3 on Sunday Night and 2 on Thursday Night).

VIKINGS ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD HONOREES

Since 1984 the Ed Block Courage Awards annually honors one player from every NFL team who exemplifies commitment to the principles of sportsmanship and courage. Recipients are selected by a vote of their teammates to recognize both on and off the field extra efforts and their ability to overcome great adversity, whether it be personal or professional. The Ed Block Courage Award is named in honor of Ed Block, the longtime head athletic trainer of the Baltimore Colts. Winners travel to Baltimore every March to receive their trophy at a gala in their honor, but the experience does not end there. During their stay, the recipients spend time at the local Courage House at St. Vincent's Center, a facility specializing in working with abused children. This visit, and the time spent with the children, allows each recipient to fully comprehend the true meaning of the award. E.J. Henderson, the Vikings 2009 Community Man of the Year, was also voted the 2009 Ed Block winner.

BROTHERS IN ARMS

A number of Vikings players and coaches have brothers who also have been involved, or are currently involved in football at a high level. Some of the most notable are:

The Gerharts

Vikings rookie RB Toby Gerhart has a brother, Garth, who plays OL at Arizona State. Gerhart also has triplet sisters who play collegiate softball, 2 at Stanford and another with Cal Poly.

The Abdullahs

Vikings S Husain Abdullah's older brother Hamza is currently a DB with the Arizona Cardinals. They have a younger brother playing at Washington State.

The Brinkleys

Vikings 5th-round draft pick Jasper Brinkley (pictured right) has a twin brother, Casper (pictured left), whom he was teammates with at South Carolina and was a defensive lineman with the Carolina Panthers where he spent 2008 on the practice squad.

The Hendersons

LBs E.J. and Erin Henderson are the Vikings most obvious set of brothers. The Hendersons were actually never teammates before the 2008 season, as E.J. is 6-years Erin's senior.

The Onatolus

2009 free agent acquisition Kenny Onatolu played LB alongside his twin brother Taiwo at the University of Nebraska-Omaha. Kenny spent 2007 and 2008 in the CFL with Edmonton is battling for a spot on the Vikings roster. Taiwo is coaching with his alma mater.

The Cooks

Vikings OL Ryan Cook's younger brother, Erik, was a 7th-round pick by the Washington Redskins in 2010. Both players were standouts at their home-state University of New Mexico.

EXPANSION VIKINGS LAND 36 VETS TO START CLUB

From the 1961 Vikings Press, Radio and TV Guide, the following explanation described the Vikings 1961 expansion draft additions that would lay the personnel groundwork of the team:

In an effort to assist the Vikings in stocking the nucleus of a playing roster, the National Football League established a program whereby Minnesota could select three veteran ball players from each team in the NFL, with the lone exception of Dallas.

Each club was allowed to "freeze" 30 of the 38 men on its roster. There were not available for selection by the Vikings. From the remaining eight, the Vikings chose three from each of the 12 clubs.

Minnesota purchased these players at a total cost of $600,000. Of this amount, $50,000 went to the league and the balance was divided 12 equal ways. The Vikings' philosophy as pre-determined by General Manager Bert Rose and Head Coach Norm Van Brocklin, was to accent youth in making the selections from the available lists. With very few (and those were notable) exceptions, the Viking choices were in line with that philosophy.

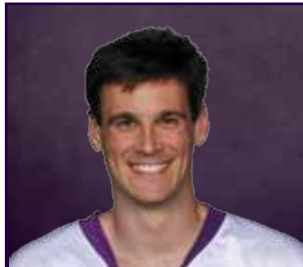

At the upper end of the strata was Don Joyce, the Baltimore Colt defensive end, with his 10 years of NFL experience. One of the six "real vets" was Red Stephens, chosen from Washington. Stephens passed up the opportunity to play additional years in order to accept a coaching position with Notre Dame University.

PARKETTES POM PON TEAM PAVED THE WAY

Vikings fans have been entertained by the Minnesota Vikings Cheerleaders since 1984. The initial 1984 squad was a 36-member squad of women between the ages of 18-33 that were selected from over 600 women who auditioned. Today's Minnesota Vikings Cheerleaders are active in the community and represent the Vikings at events locally and worldwide.

The path to pom pon prominence the current MVC enjoys was paved by the original sideline entertainers who cheered the Vikings to victory- the St. Louis Parkettes. From 1963-83 the team was cheered on by members of the St. Louis Park Senior High unit and their performances helped the Vikings to 4 Super Bowls.

The Parkettes were unique to Minnesota and started a tradition that the current MVC proudly carries on. A squad of entirely high school students, the Parkettes enjoyed performing with the Vikings, in parades and taking an annual trip. The girls were not paid individually for performing at Vikings games, but the organization was paid and used it as a fundraiser. Parkettes also sold programs at Vikings games and instructed younger girls, the Petites, who would rise through the ranks and become Parkettes.

ESKIMOS WERE NFL'S FIRST FORAY IN MINNESOTA

The Vikings embark on their 50th season in 2010 but owe a debt to the forerunners of pro football in Minnesota that dates back to the roaring 20s. Early semi-pro football clubs played throughout the state and the Twin Cities was a hotbed of football action featuring teams as diverse as the St. Paul Ideals to the established Minneapolis Marines, who evolved into the Minneapolis Red Jackets by the end of the 20s. The most famous team was the Duluth Eskimos with Hall of Famer Ernie Nevers.

The original pro franchise in northern Minnesota, the Duluth Kelleys, a name derived from their primary sponsor and outfitter Kelley Hardware Store. The team flourished from 1923-25 before changing ownership when local Duluth businessman Ole Haugsrud, a 23-year-old entrepreneur who jumped at the chance to be involved in pro football ownership. Haugsrud used his high school connection from Superior, WI, to Stanford All-America fullback Ernie Nevers, the hero of the 1925 Rose Bowl, to put Duluth on the sports map.

Haugsrud convinced Nevers, who was pitching for the St. Louis Browns, to leave pro baseball behind and compete in pro football to push NY Yankees star Red Grange as the biggest box-office draw in the fledgling NFL. Haugsrud knew to market his team around its star, renaming the team Ernie Nevers' Duluth Eskimos. The other NFL owners, eager to get fans in the stands of their growing game, were happy to schedule the Eskimos but not as excited to travel to Duluth. Thus, the Eskimos were designated as a "road team" travelling to such locales as Canton, Providence, Hartford and New York. The Eskimos took to the rails, traveling feverishly and playing 29 games in just under 17 weeks, including games in 5 cities in 8 days.

The appeal of Nevers, who was playing for the unheard-of salary of $50,000 for the 1926 and '27 campaigns, helped the home teams draw crowds they had previously only dreamed of. Ultimately, the $3,000-$4,000 paydays the Eskimos were taking in from games was not enough to keep the team afloat. After the 1927 season Nevers returned to Stanford as an assistant coach, the team suspended operations and remained dormant until Haugsrud sold his franchise to East Coast investors who wanted teams in larger population centers. As part of his sale agreement, Haugsrud had a stipulation in the deal that if an NFL franchise returned to Minnesota that he would have first rights to buy into the team. Haugsrud did not let the NFL owners forget the agreement and in 1960 purchased 10% of the expansion Vikings for $60,000. Haugsrud was a Vikings director until his death in 1976.

SKOL VIKINGS

The Vikings and their fans have a soundtrack to their football exploits- Skol Viking. The fight song was penned by James "Red" McCleod and is still a part of the Vikings vibrant game day experience today.

Skol Vikings, let's win this game,
 Skol Vikings, honor your name,
 Go get that first down,
 Then get a touchdown.
 Rock 'em . . . Sock 'em
 Fight! Fight! Fight! Fight!
 Go Vikings, run up the score,
 You'll hear us yell for more. . .
 V-I-K-I-N-G-S
 Skol, Vikings, let's go!

VIKINGS BANK BACK-TO-BACK TITLES

The Vikings have won consecutive NFC North titles in 2008 and 2009, a feat not accomplished by the team since 1977-78. The Vikings have won a total of 18 divisional titles in the history of the franchise. The Vikings are 1 of 3 NFL teams entering 2010 that have won back-to-back division titles, joining Arizona and San Diego.

VIKINGS OF TOMORROW ON THE BIG STAGE

Not only does football offer youngsters skills to play the game - but more importantly, football provides them with skills and opportunities to succeed in life. The entire Minnesota Vikings organization supports youth of all ages participating in the game we all love, both on and off the field. We recognize that these youngsters are the future of the NFL, making youth football a top priority of the organization.

The mission of the Vikings of Tomorrow youth football program is to give back to the community by introducing amateur leagues to the fundamentals of football at the professional level. By working hand-in-hand with various youth football programs and partners throughout the region, the Vikings of Tomorrow program is designed to support, promote and expand the sport of amateur football and the broad appreciation of the game.

Since its inception in 2007, the Vikings of Tomorrow youth football program has provided thousands of amateur football players (ages 8-14) with the unforgettable opportunity to play on the Vikings turf in either pregame, halftime or postgame scrimmages at Mall of America Field, including the annual Vikings of Tomorrow vs. Mascot Challenge. In addition to showcasing their talent on the field, the youth players also have the chance to cheer on the Purple from the stands, appear on the video board and received a commemorative photograph to capture the lasting memories of their experience.

For more information on the Vikings of Tomorrow program, visit Vikings.com.

The Vikings of Tomorrow program allows youth to play on the same field the Vikings do on Sunday mornings.

NEW FACES MAKE TRIP TO NEW ENGLAND

The last time the Vikings traveled to New England for a game, 11/24/02, there were only 2 current Vikings who were part of the squad- Jim Kleinsasser and Bryant McKinnie, who was a rookie.

The Vikings and Patriots have only met 10 times, the fewest meetings for the Vikings of any of the pre-1970 AFL-NFL merger teams. New England leads the all-time series 6-4 and have won 2 of those games in OT- 1991 and 1994.

The series between the teams has included some remarkable moments and team records. The teams have also shared some famous alums. The Vikings traded Chuck Foreman to the Patriots for the 1980 season and former Vikings QB Rich Gannon was drafted by the Patriots in the 4th round of the 1987 Draft before trading him to the Vikings for a pair of draft picks. In a 1991 game at New England, Gannon set the Vikings record for passing attempts in a game when he dropped back 61 times. A team record that has stood for 30 years was set by RB Rickey Young in a 1979 game at New England when he caught 15 passes against the Patriots, still the most pass receptions in a game by a Viking.

The Patriots and Vikings played a unique game to open the 1971 preseason, squaring off at Minneapolis' Parade Stadium on 8/8/71. The game was born as a fundraising effort for the University of Minnesota's Williams Scholarship Fund. The seed for the idea was planted during a conversation between Vikings owner Bernie Ridder and UM President Dr. Malcolm Moos.

The Vikings and Patriots have only played 10 times in team history and have not tangled in New England since the 2002 season.

VIKINGS COMMUNITY TOURS

In 2007, the Vikings launched the "You Made The Team" Community Tour, a new initiative designed to connect with fans, community partners and local leaders throughout Minnesota. With each stop, the tour brings players, team executives and ownership to build the excitement of Vikings football while also donating to local charities and encouraging physical fitness and a healthy lifestyle among youth.

The tour, which kicked off during the team's 2007 training camp in Mankato, has made 14 stops and continues to reach fans throughout the state.

OPENING DAY STARTING LINEUPS

The Vikings take the field for the 50th season in franchise history in 2010 and have seen the NFL change dramatically over the years. The players who started the upset win over Chicago in the 1961 opener were a mix of future stars and aging veterans who were embarking on a new adventure with the NFL's fledgling franchise. The team started veteran signal-caller George Shaw instead of rookie phenom Fran Tarkenton, a footnote in history to Tarkenton's Hall of Fame career. Tarkenton came off the bench late in the 1st quarter to spearhead the Vikings to a win over the same Bears club that posted a dominating 30-7 win only two weeks prior in a preseason game played in Cedar Rapids, IA.

Tarkenton threw 4 TDs passes and hit on 17-of-23 for 250 yards. The Vikings opened the scoring in the game with a Mike Mercer FG. Tarkenton connected with Bob Schnelker on the 1st TD pass of his career on a 14-yard toss. Tarkenton went on to throw TDs to Jerry Reichow from 29 yards, Hugh McElhenry from a yard out and ran for a 3-yard TD himself on a QB keeper. He rounded out the day with a 2-yard TD pass to Dave Middleton and the upstart Vikings notched a 37-13 win.

PRO

Overcame adversity to earn Pro Bowl honors in 2009 for the 2nd straight season... Missed time during middle of 2009 season but rebounded to play in final 4 regular season contests and start both playoff games... Earned long-deserved credit in 2008, honored as Pro Bowler and a 2nd-Team Associated Press All-Pro... Has a nose for the ball with 16 regular season and playoff

INTs and 7 FRs since joining Minnesota, with the Vikings posting an 11-5 record in games he had a pick... During the 2006-2008 seasons he has helped the Vikings lead the NFL with 15 defensive TDs, 9 INTs and 6 FRs, with Winfield contributing 2 INTs for TDs, a FR for TD to the total, a forced fumble that resulted in another TD and became the 1st Viking to return a blocked FG for a TD, which counts as a special teams score but doesn't add to the defensive total of 15... Key part of the Vikings ranking #6 in the NFL in total defense in 2008, the highest mark since the 1994 season... His ability in run support from the secondary has been instrumental in the Vikings ranking #1 in the NFL in rushing defense from 2006-08- marking the 1st time since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger a team has led the NFL in rush defense 3 straight years... Has been a part of 6 defenses during his NFL career that were ranked in the top 8 in the League, including the top-ranked unit in Buffalo as a rookie in '99... Reunited with Vikings' LB coach Fred Pagac, who was the Buckeyes' defensive coordinator during his time there... Teammate of DT Pat Williams in Buffalo.

2009

Tabbed for Pro Bowl honors for the 2nd straight season... Fought back from foot injury that cost him 6 games... Returned in fine form, notching 10 tackles vs. Cincinnati (12/13) and a forced fumble to lead the team... Helped lead Vikings defense to #6 ranking in the NFL in total defense for the 2nd straight year, the 1st time since 1993-94 the Vikings had consecutive top-10 rankings... Key part of the smothering defense in the NFC Divisional Round playoff game vs. Dallas (1/17/10) that held the Cowboys to 3 points, a Vikings record for scoring defense in a playoff game... Snared an INT off Packers QB Aaron Rodgers vs. Green Bay (10/5).

Enjoyed best season of his exceptional career, capped by his 1st Pro Bowl berth and being recognized as an Associated Press 2nd-Team All-Pro... Scored career-high 2 TDs- 1 by FR and 1 on a blocked FG return, the 1st scored in Vikings history... Honored as NFC Defensive Player of the Week for performance at New Orleans (10/6) when he had 8 tackles, 4 tackles for loss, a sack, a forced fumble and recovered a fumble for 9 yards along with picking up a Saints FG that was blocked by Kevin Williams and returned for 59 yards for a TD, the 1st blocked FG returned for a TD in team history... Had a sack and forced fumble on QB Jake Delhomme he picked up and returned for a 19-yard TD vs. Carolina (9/21)... Helped Vikings rank #6 in the NFL in total defense, the highest rank since 1994... Part of unprecedented rush defense that led the NFL for the 3rd straight season, a feat not accomplished since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger... Ranked 3rd on team with 96 tackles... Posted double-digit tackles in 3 games.

2007

Snared his 2nd career INT-return TD in the opener vs. Atlanta (9/9) when he took a Joey Harrington pass back 14 yards for a 4th-quarter score, the 2nd INT-return TD of the game, joining Kevin Williams' 54-yarder in the 1st quarter... His INT-return TD helped the Vikings tie a team record with 6 TDs during the season off INTs... Forced a fumble on Cowboys WR

PLAYMAKER

Antoine Winfield has been a driving force in the opportunistic Vikings defense in the past 4 seasons, scoring 4 TDs over that span. The Vikings record for return TDs is 6, set by former DB Ed Sharockman. Currently, Vikings defensive stalwarts Winfield and Kevin Williams are both tied for 2nd in club history with 4 TDs by return.

TAKEAWAY 'TOINE

Antoine Winfield's nose for the ball and instinctive play has quickly moved him into elite company in Vikings history. Few Vikings CBs have had as much success making big plays and taking the ball away. For a player entering his 6th Vikings season, Winfield is poised to climb higher in the team record book and continue turning the tide for the Vikings defense

TAKE 'EM OUT TO THE BALL GAME

Vikings rookies Toby Gerhart and R.J. Archer made names for themselves on the football field, but couldn't turn their backs on baseball during their college days either. Gerhart helped lead Stanford to the College World Series in 2009 as a hot-hitting OF for the Cardinal while Archer stepped back up on the mound as a senior in 2010 to serve as a relief pitcher at William & Mary. The Vikings have had several connections to baseball over the years, highlighted by taking future Cooperstown inductee Dave Winfield with their 17th-round pick in the 1973 NFL Draft. Winfield was a 2-sport star at the University of Minnesota, excelling in baseball and basketball for the Gophers.

HISTORY

VIKINGS LORE

FRANCHISE FOUNDED — Minnesota was granted an NFL franchise at the league owners' meetings in Miami on Jan. 28, 1960. The team began play in 1961. The founding group consisted of Max Winter, E. William Boyer, H.P. Skoglund, Ole Haugrud and Bernard H. Ridder, Jr.

ROSE NAMED GENERAL MANAGER — In late summer, 1960, former Los Angeles Rams Public Relations Director Bert Rose was named the team's first General Manager.

TEAM NICKNAMED — In one of his first moves with the team, Bert Rose recommended the nickname "Vikings" to the Board of Directors. The name was selected because it represented both an aggressive person with the will to win and the Nordic tradition in the northern Midwest.

Norm Van Brocklin (center) was named the Vikings first head coach prior to the 1961 inaugural season.

FIRST HEAD COACH — Norm Van Brocklin was selected as the first head coach in franchise history on 1/18/61. He retired as a player in 1960 after 12 seasons in the NFL as a Hall of Fame QB.

FIRST COLLEGE DRAFT — On Dec. 27, 1960, RB Tommy Mason of Tulane was taken with the 1st overall choice and the first-ever draft pick utilized by the Vikings. Also selected that year were QB Fran Tarkenton (3rd round) and DB Ed Sharockman (5th round).

EXPANSION DRAFT — Following the 1960 season, the Vikings were allowed to select 3 players from the roster of each team after each team was allowed to protect 30 of their 38 players. Dallas was exempt from this process. Among the players selected were OL Grady Alderman (Detroit) and RB Hugh McElhenry (San Francisco).

ASSIGNED CONFERENCE — On April 12, 1961, the NFL assigned the Vikings to the Western Conference. Minnesota joined Baltimore, Chicago, Detroit, Green Bay, Los Angeles and San Francisco in the conference.

FIRST GAME — In the first game in franchise history, the Vikings played the Dallas Cowboys in a preseason game in Sioux Falls, SD, on Aug. 5, 1961. The Cowboys defeated the Vikings, 38-13.

FIRST HOME GAME — The Minnesota Vikings played the Los Angeles Rams in preseason action at Metropolitan Stadium in Bloomington, MN, on Sept. 10, 1961, the team's first game in the Twin Cities. The Rams defeated the Vikings, 21-17.

FIRST REGULAR-SEASON GAME — In a stunning upset, the Vikings defeated the Chicago Bears, 37-13, at Metropolitan Stadium in the Vikings' first NFL regular-season game on Sept. 17, 1961. Kicker Mike Mercer scored the first points in team history with a 12-yard field goal. Bob Schnelker scored the team's first touchdown on a 14-yard pass from Fran Tarkenton. In his NFL debut Tarkenton came off the bench to complete 17-of-23 passes for 250 yards and 4 touchdowns.

FIRST PRO BOWLERS — On Jan. 14, 1962, RB Hugh McElhenry and WR Jerry Reichow became the first Vikings to compete in the Pro Bowl. They were part of the Western Conference All-Stars who beat the Eastern Conference squad, 31-30, at the Los Angeles Coliseum.

FIRST ALL-PRO — In 1963 RB Tommy Mason, who was the team's first ever draft choice, was the first Vikings player to earn All-Pro recognition. He was a consensus pick after rushing for 763 yards and 7 touchdowns on 166 carries (4.6 avg.).

FINKS HIRED — In September, 1964, Jim Finks was named the team's second general manager, succeeding Bert Rose, who resigned in June, 1964. Finks previously had served as general manager for Calgary of the Canadian Football League for 7 years.

FIRST WINNING SEASON — Minnesota won its final 3 regular-season games in 1964 to achieve its first winning season in team history with an 8-5-1 record. The Vikings tied for 2nd in the NFL Western Conference behind Baltimore.

MET EXPANDED — A new grandstand was constructed on the east side of Metropolitan Stadium that increased capacity from 41,200 to 47,200. The new seats were formally dedicated on Aug. 20, 1965, when Minnesota played Philadelphia in a preseason game.

NFL RE-ALIGNED — On Dec. 2, 1966, Minnesota, Chicago, Detroit and Green Bay were chosen to make up the newly-formed Central Division of the Western Conference of the NFL.

VAN BROCKLIN RESIGNS — After compiling a 29-51-4 record while leading the Vikings in their first six years of existence, Head Coach Norm Van Brocklin resigned in February, 1967. His best season was 1964, when he led the team to a tie for 2nd place in the NFL Western Conference with an 8-5-1 record.

TARKENTON TRADED — On March 7, 1967, QB Fran Tarkenton is traded to the NY Giants for a 1st and 2nd-round choice in 1967, a 1st-round choice in '68 and a 2nd-round choice in '69. With the picks Minnesota selected Clinton Jones and Bob Grim in '67, Ron Yary in '68 and Ed White in '69.

GRANT NAMED HEAD COACH — Bud Grant was named the second head coach in Vikings history on March 10, 1967. He came to Minnesota after leading the Winnipeg Blue Bombers to 4 Grey Cup Championships in 10 years as head coach.

FIRST DIVISION TITLE — On Dec. 15, 1968 the Vikings defeated the Philadelphia Eagles, 24-17, at Franklin Field then retired to the dressing room to listen to the Chicago-Green Bay game on the radio. Minnesota needed the Bears to lose to clinch the Vikings' 1st Division title. Chicago tried to rally from a 28-10 4th quarter deficit but eventually fell 28-17.

FIRST PLAYOFF GAME — On Dec. 22, 1968, in the first playoff game in franchise history, the Colts defeated the Vikings, 24-14, in the Western Conference Championship Game at Baltimore's Memorial Stadium. Minnesota trailed 21-0 in the 4th quarter but a late rally fell short.

SECOND DIVISION TITLE — On Nov. 27, 1969, the Vikings shut out Detroit, 27-0, at Tiger Stadium to clinch the franchise's 2nd division title. The victory over the Lions was the 10th of a 12-game win streak, the longest in the NFL in 35 years. Minnesota finished the season with the NFL's best record (12-2) of '69.

FIRST PLAYOFF WIN — On Dec. 27, 1969, in the first NFL playoff game in Minnesota, the Vikings came from behind to defeat the LA Rams, 23-20, in the Western Conference Championship Game. Minnesota overcame deficits of 17-7 at halftime and 20-14 in the 4th quarter for the franchise's 1st postseason win.

FIRST NFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME — The Vikings defeated the Browns, 27-7, in the NFL Championship Game on Jan. 4, 1970, at Metropolitan Stadium. Minnesota became the 1st modern NFL expansion team to win an NFL Championship Game. The Vikings dominated the game, leading 27-0 at one point.

FIRST SUPER BOWL — On Jan. 11, 1970, the Vikings lost to Kansas City, 23-7, in Super Bowl IV at Tulane Stadium in New Orleans. Not only was the game the 1st Super Bowl in franchise history, but it was the 1st Super Bowl played by a modern expansion team.

THIRD DIVISION TITLE — On Dec. 5, 1970, the Vikings defeated the Bears, 16-13, at Metropolitan Stadium to clinch their 3rd straight division title. Minnesota hosted San Francisco in a divisional playoff game but lost, 17-14. For the 2nd consecutive year, the Vikings had the league's best record with a 12-2 mark.

FOURTH DIVISION TITLE — On Dec. 11, 1971, the Vikings defeated the Lions, 29-10, at Metropolitan Stadium to clinch their 4th straight division title. Minnesota finished the year with an 11-3 mark, which tied Dallas for the league's best record in '71. The Vikings lost to the eventual Super Bowl champion Cowboys, 20-12, in a divisional playoff game at Metropolitan Stadium.

PAGE NAMED NFL'S MVP — In 1971 Alan Page became the first defensive player to be named the Most Valuable Player of the National Football League by the Associated Press. Page headed a Vikings defense that held opponents to fewer than 10 points a game to lead the league in scoring defense for the 3rd consecutive year.

The Vikings and Bears have had epic battles over the history of the franchise, including the 1st game in Vikings history when the Vikings upset Chicago in the 1961 season opener, 37-13.

Bud Grant coached the Vikings to 4 Super Bowls and was inducted to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1994.

VIKINGS RE-ACQUIRE TARKENTON — In 1972 the Vikings traded Norm Snead, Bob Grim, Vince Clements and a 1st-round choice in '72 and '73 to the NY Giants for Fran Tarkenton.

BOYER DIES — In 1972 E. William Boyer passed away. He was one of the prime forces in the drive to bring an NFL franchise to Minnesota. Boyer was president of the Vikings from 1960-64 and sat on the Board of Directors for the first 12 years of the team's existence. He was replaced on the team's Board of Directors by his son-in-law Jack Steele.

FIFTH DIVISION TITLE — The Vikings began the '73 season with 9 straight victories and clinched the NFC Central championship before they even lost a game. Minnesota clinched the division crown by defeating Detroit, 28-7, at Metropolitan Stadium on Nov. 11, 1973. The Vikings finished with a 12-2 mark, which tied for the best record in the league that year.

SECOND SUPER BOWL — On Jan. 13, 1974, the Vikings played in the 2nd Super Bowl in franchise history against the Miami Dolphins at Rice Stadium in Houston, TX. The Dolphins prevailed, 24-7. Minnesota earned the trip to Super Bowl VIII by defeating Dallas, 27-10, in the NFC Championship game.

FINKS RESIGNS — After the 1973 season, Executive Vice President and General Manager Jim Finks resigned. Under Finks, who was hired in 1964, the Vikings won 5 division titles and appeared in 2 Super Bowls. He also hired Bud Grant as head coach in '67.

SIXTH DIVISION TITLE — On Dec. 1, 1974, the Vikings clinched the NFC Central crown by defeating the Saints, 29-9, at Metropolitan Stadium, while the Packers lost, 36-14, in Philadelphia. Minnesota tied for the best record in the NFC with a 10-4 mark.

THIRD SUPER BOWL — The Vikings played in their 2nd straight Super Bowl, losing to the Pittsburgh Steelers, 16-6, at Tulane Stadium in New Orleans on Jan. 12, 1975. Minnesota earned a trip to Super Bowl IX by defeating the Los Angeles Rams, 14-10, at Metropolitan Stadium on Dec. 29, 1974.

FRONT OFFICE CHANGES — In the spring of 1975, Max Winter, one of the team's founders and its president since 1965, took over active management of the franchise. In addition, Mike Lynn, who was hired as an assistant to the president on Aug. 15, 1974, was named the team's general manager.

SEVENTH DIVISION TITLE — The Vikings clinched their 3rd straight NFC Central title and their 7th division championship in 8 years on Thanksgiving Day Nov. 27, 1975, when the Lions lost to the Rams, 20-0. Minnesota won 10 consecutive games to start the season and finished the year with the best record (12-2) in the NFL. The Vikings were upset, 17-14, in the divisional playoffs at Metropolitan Stadium on Dec. 28, 1975, when the Dallas Cowboys scored on a last minute 50-yard touchdown pass.

TARKENTON NAMED LEAGUE MVP — Quarterback Fran Tarkenton was named the NFL's Most Valuable Player for 1975 after leading the Vikings to the league's best record (12-2). He led the NFC and finished 2nd in the NFL in passing with a 91.7 rating. He completed 273-of-425 passes for 2,994 yards and 25 TDs with 13 INTs.

HAUGSRUD DIES — Ole Haugsrud passed away in March, 1976. He was one of the prime forces in the drive to bring an NFL franchise to Minnesota. Haugsrud sat on the Board of Directors for 16 years of the team's existence. He was replaced on the team's Board of Directors by his widow Margaret Haugsrud.

EIGHTH DIVISION TITLE — The Vikings clinched their 4th consecutive NFC Central championship and their 8th division title in 9 years by defeating the Packers, 17-10, at Milwaukee County Stadium on Nov. 21, 1976. Minnesota finished the season with the best record in the NFC at 11-2-1.

FOURTH SUPER BOWL — The Vikings played in their 3rd Super Bowl in 4 years against the Oakland Raiders at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, CA, on Jan. 9, 1977. Minnesota lost, 32-14. The Vikings earned a trip to Super Bowl XI by defeating the Rams, 24-13, at Metropolitan Stadium on Dec. 26, 1976, in what ended up being the last Vikings playoff game at the Met.

KAPLAN NAMED TO BOARD — In 1977 team attorney Sheldon Kaplan was named to the Vikings Board of Directors. He replaced Bernard H. Ridder, Jr., who was one of the team's 5 founders.

NINTH DIVISION TITLE — The Vikings clinched the NFC Central crown on the season's final weekend by defeating the Lions, 30-21, in Detroit on Dec. 17, 1977. Minnesota wrapped up its 5th straight NFC Central title and its 9th division crown in 10 seasons.

FOURTH NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME — On Jan. 1, 1978 the Vikings played Dallas in their 4th NFC Championship Game in 5 years at Texas Stadium. Minnesota lost 23-6 to the Super Bowl champs.

CHANGES ON BOARD — John Skoglund and Vikings General Manager Mike Lynn were named to the team's Board of Directors replacing Margaret Haugsrud and H.P. Skoglund, who was one of the team's founders. Haugsrud joined the board in 1976, replacing her husband Ole, who passed away.

10TH DIVISION TITLE — Despite losing in the regular-season finale to the Raiders, 27-20, on Dec. 17, 1978, at Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum, the Vikings captured the NFC Central title when the Packers, who played at the same time as Minnesota, lost to the Rams, 31-14, at the LA Coliseum. It was the Vikings' 6th straight NFC Central crown and their 10th division championship in 11 years.

METRODOME GROUND BREAKING — In December, 1979, ground was broken for construction of the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome in downtown Minneapolis. The stadium, which will house both the Vikings and Twins, was scheduled to open in April, 1982.

11TH DIVISION TITLE — Minnesota clinched its 7th NFC Central title in 8 years by defeating the Browns, 28-23, at Met Stadium on Dec. 14, 1980. It also was the Vikings' 11th division title in 13 seasons. Minnesota lost to the NFC Champion Eagles, 31-16, at Veterans Stadium on Jan. 3, 1981 in the divisional playoffs.

WINTER PARK OPENS — On May 15, 1981, the Vikings moved into a new facility in Eden Prairie that houses the team's offices, locker room and practice fields. The complex was named "Winter Park" after Max Winter, one of the Vikings founders who served as the team's president from 1965-87.

FAREWELL MET — On Dec. 20, 1981, the Vikings hosted the Chiefs in Minnesota's final game at Metropolitan Stadium. The Vikings lost, 10-6. The final points at the stadium were scored on a 33-yard field goal by Minnesota kicker Rick Danmeier. The last Vikings touchdown at Met Stadium was scored on a 6-yard run by Ted Brown against Green Bay on Nov. 29, 1981.

METRODOME OPENS — The Vikings played their 1st game at the Metrodome in a preseason matchup against Seattle on Aug. 21, 1982. Minnesota prevailed, 7-3. The 1st touchdown in the new facility was scored by Joe Senser on an 11-yard pass from Tommy Kramer. The 1st regular-season game in the Metrodome was the 1982 opener on September 12, when the Vikings defeated Tampa Bay, 17-10. Rickey Young scored the 1st regular-season touchdown in the facility on a 3-yard run in the 2nd quarter.

12TH PLAYOFF APPEARANCE — In a strike-shortened 9-game 1982 season, the Vikings won 3-of-their-last-4 regular-season games to earn a post-season berth.

FIRST DOME PLAYOFF GAME — On Jan. 9, 1983, the Vikings defeated Atlanta, 30-24, in a 1st-round game that was the 1st playoff matchup in the Metrodome. Minnesota lost to the eventual Super Bowl Champion Redskins, 21-7, in the NFC semi-finals at RFK Stadium on Jan. 15, 1983.

GRANT RETIRES — On Jan. 27, 1984, Bud Grant retired as Head Coach of the Vikings. In 17 seasons Grant led Minnesota to 12 playoff appearances, 11 division titles and 4 Super Bowls. His career regular-season record was 151-87-5 (63%).

STECKEL HIRED — Les Steckel, who was an offensive assistant with the Vikings for 5 seasons, was named the 3rd head coach in franchise history on Jan. 29, 1984. Steckel, who came to the Vikings in 1979 after working as an assistant with the 49ers, was the youngest head coach in the NFL in '84 at age 38.

GRANT RETURNS — On Dec. 18, 1984, Bud Grant was re-hired as head coach. He replaced Les Steckel who guided the team in 1984 after Grant retired following the 1983 season.

GRANT RE-RETIRES — On Jan. 6, 1986 following the 1985 season, Bud Grant retired as head coach of the Vikings. He originally retired after the 1983 season but returned in '85. At the time of his retirement he was the 6th winningest coach in NFL history with 168 career wins, including playoffs. In 18 seasons he led the team to a 154-96-5 regular-season record.

Hard-hitting S Joey Browner was a fixture in the defensive backfield and went to 6 Pro Bowls in his career.

BURNS HIRED — Longtime Vikings assistant coach Jerry Burns was named the 4th head coach in team history on Jan. 7, 1986. He served as the Vikings offensive coordinator from 1968-85, when the team won 11 division titles and played in 4 Super Bowls.

TARKENTON ENSHRINED — On Aug. 2, 1986, Fran Tarkenton became the 1st player who spent the majority of his career with the Vikings to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He retired following the 1979 season with NFL career records for passing yards (47,003), completions (3,686) and touchdown passes (342). He led the team to 6 NFC Central titles, 4 NFC Championship Games and 3 Super Bowls.

13TH PLAYOFF APPEARANCE — Despite a strike replacement unit that saddled the Vikings with 3 losses, the team made the playoffs as a wild-card entrant with an 8-7 record in 1987. It was the team's 1st postseason appearance under Jerry Burns, who was in his 2nd season as the Vikings head coach.

FIFTH NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME — The Vikings played the Redskins in the NFC Championship Game on Jan. 17, 1988, at RFK Stadium. Trailing 17-10, the Vikings drove to the Redskins' 6-yard line with a little over a minute left in the game but failed to get the ball into the end zone. Minnesota upset New Orleans, 44-10, at the Superdome and San Francisco, 36-24, at Candlestick Park in the first 2 rounds of the playoffs to earn a trip to the conference title game.

BOARD ADDS MEMBERS — Four people were added to the Vikings Board of Directors in 1988. Sheldon Max Winter, John Skoglund, Jack Steele, Johnning Kaplan and Mike Lynn were Wheelock Whitney, Jaye Dyer, Irwin Jacobs and Carl Pohlad.

PAGE ENSHRINED — On July 30, 1988, Alan Page became the 2nd player who spent the majority of his career with the Vikings to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Drafted by Minnesota in the 1st round in 1967, Page made the Pro Bowl 9 times. In 1971 he became the 1st defensive player to be named the NFL's Most Valuable Player by Associated Press. Page played on teams that won 10 NFC Central titles and played in 4 Super Bowls.

14TH PLAYOFF APPEARANCE — The Vikings won 6-of-their-last-7 games in 1988 to earn a wild-card berth into the playoffs. Minnesota finished with an 11-5 record then defeated the Rams, 28-17, on December 26 in a first-round playoff game at the Metrodome. The Vikings fell the following week to eventual Super Bowl winner San Francisco at Candlestick Park.

REMAINING FOUNDER LEAVES BOARD — In 1989, Max Winter, the last of the original 5 Vikings' founders on the team's Board of Directors, left the board. He also served as the team's president from 1965-87. He was replaced on the board by Gerald Schwalbach.

WALKER ACQUIRED — On Oct. 12, 1989, the Vikings acquired Herschel Walker from Dallas for Issiac Holt, David Howard, Darrin Nelson, Jesse Solomon, Alex Stewart, a 1st-round choice in 1992, conditional 1st-round choices in 1990 and '91, conditional 2nd-round choices in 1990, '91 and '92, and a conditional 3rd-round choice in 1992. The final result of the trade gave the Vikings Walker, a 3rd (Mike Jones), 5th (Reggie Thornton) and 10th-round choice (Pat Newman) in 1990 and a 3rd-round choice in 1991 (Jake Reed), while Dallas received all 5 players, a 1st, 2nd and 6th-round choice in 1990, a 1st and 2nd-round choice in 1991 and a 1st, 2nd and 3rd-round choice in 1992.

12TH DIVISION TITLE — The Vikings captured their 12th division title since 1968 by defeating the Cincinnati Bengals, 29-21, at the Metrodome in a Monday night game on Christmas Day in 1989. It also was Minnesota's 15th postseason appearance in the past 22 years. The Vikings finished the season with a 10-6 record but lost to eventual Super Bowl Champion San Francisco, 41-13, at Candlestick Park in the divisional playoffs on Jan. 6, 1990.

HEADRICK NAMED TEAM PRESIDENT — On Jan. 1, 1991, Roger Headrick became president and CEO of the Vikings. He replaced Mike Lynn as the person in charge of day-to-day operations of the club. In addition Headrick and Philip Maas replaced Jack Steele and Sheldon Kaplan on the board of directors.

BURNS RETIRES — On Dec. 3, 1991, Jerry Burns announced his retirement. In 6 seasons as Head Coach of the Vikings, Burns compiled a career record of 52-43 (.547). He also led Minnesota to 3 playoff appearances, including a division title and an NFC Championship Game.

CHANGES ON BOARD — On Dec. 16, 1991, the team's ownership structure was reorganized. Irwin Jacobs and Carl Pohlad sold their shares to a group consisting of Vikings President/CEO Roger Headrick, John Skoglund, Jaye Dyer, Philip Maas, Mike Lynn, Wheelock Whitney, James Binger, Bud Grossman, Elizabeth MacMillan and Carol Sperry.

GREEN NAMED HEAD COACH — On Jan. 10, 1992, Dennis Green was named the 5th Head Coach in team history. He came to Minnesota after turning around a struggling Stanford University football program as head coach there from 1989-91.

13TH DIVISION TITLE — On Dec. 20, 1992 the Vikings defeated the Steelers, 6-3, at Three Rivers Stadium to earn the franchise's 13th division title. It also was Minnesota's 16th playoff season since 1968. Dennis Green also posted the most victories (11) and the 1st division title by a 1st-year head coach in team history. The Vikings lost to the defending Super Bowl champion Redskins, 24-7, in a 1st-round playoff game at the Metrodome on Jan. 2, 1993.

17TH PLAYOFF APPEARANCE — For the first time since 1974, the Vikings won their final 3 regular-season games to earn a Wild-Card playoff berth. It was the team's 17th postseason appearance since 1968. Minnesota lost to the Giants, 17-10, in Giants Stadium in a first-round playoff game on Jan. 9, 1994.

MOON ACQUIRED — On April 14, 1994 the Vikings traded a 4th-round draft choice in 1994 and a 3rd-round draft choice in 1995 to the Houston Oilers for quarterback Warren Moon, who has thrown for more yardage and touchdowns as a professional than any other player. He set team season records for passing yards (4,264) in '94 and for completions (377) and touchdown passes (33) in '95.

GRANT ENSHRINED — On July 30, 1994, Bud Grant was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He coached the Vikings from 1967-83 then again in '85. During his tenure Minnesota made the playoffs 12 times, won 11 division titles and played in 4 Super Bowls. Grant was the first person to be elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame and the Canadian Football League Hall of Fame.

14TH DIVISION TITLE — On the final day of the 1994 regular season, the Vikings defeated the 49ers, 21-14, in a Monday night game to earn their 2nd NFC Central title in 3 seasons and their 3rd straight playoff berth. It also was Minnesota's 14th division title and 18th post-season appearance since 1968. Dennis Green became only the 7th NFL coach to lead his team to the playoffs in his first 3 seasons.

FINKS ENSHRINED — Former Vikings General Manager Jim Finks was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 25, 1995. During his decade with Minnesota, the team won 5 division titles and appeared in 2 Super Bowls. Finks passed away on May 8, 1994, and was inducted posthumously, represented by his family.

WINTER PASSES AWAY — Max Winter, who served as the owner and President of the Vikings from 1965-87, passed away on July 26, 1996. He was one of the prime forces bringing an NFL franchise to Minnesota and was a big factor in the building of the Metrodome and attracting Super Bowl XXVI to the Twin Cities.

19TH PLAYOFF APPEARANCE — On Dec. 15, 1996, the Vikings defeated the Buccaneers, 21-10, in the Metrodome. After a Washington loss to Arizona later that day, Minnesota was guaranteed a playoff berth for the 19th time since 1968 and the 4th in 5 seasons under Dennis Green. The Vikings lost, 40-15, to the Dallas Cowboys in a first-round game at Texas Stadium on Dec. 28, 1996.

20TH PLAYOFF APPEARANCE — On Dec. 21, 1997, the Vikings beat the Colts in the regular season finale to reach the playoffs for the 20th time in team history and the 5th time in 6 seasons under Dennis Green. The Vikings went on the road and came back from 16 points down to defeat the NY Giants 23-22 at the Meadowlands on Dec. 27, 1997. It was the biggest comeback win in team playoff history and the 5th biggest postseason comeback in NFL history. The following week the Vikings lost, 38-22, to the San Francisco 49ers at 3Com Park in the Divisional Playoffs on Jan. 3, 1998.

KRAUSE ENSHRINED — On August 1, 1998, Paul Krause was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Krause played free safety with the Vikings from 1968-79 and the Redskins from 1964-67. He holds the NFL record for career interceptions with 81. Krause was selected to 8 Pro Bowls in his 15-year career.

BOARD AGREES TO SELL — On July 3, 1998, The Minnesota Vikings 10 owners voted unanimously to accept the bid of Texas businessman B.J. "Red" McCombs to purchase the Vikings.

NFL APPROVES McCOMBS — On July 28, 1998, the NFL owners unanimously approved Red McCombs' purchase of the Vikings, finalizing the change of ownership from the 10 previous owners to sole ownership by McCombs.

GREEN CONTRACT EXTENDED — Head Coach Dennis Green received a 3-year contract extension on September 5, the day before the 1998 opener vs. Tampa Bay.

VIKINGS 15 WINS BEST IN TEAM HISTORY — The Vikings won their 15th NFC Central Division title in 1998 and became only the 3rd team in NFL history to go 15-1 through the regular season with their 26-16 win at Tennessee in the regular-season finale. The Vikings also established a new NFL scoring record with 556 points, breaking the mark of 541 set by the 1983 Redskins.

SIXTH NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME — The Vikings hosted Atlanta in the 6th NFC Championship game in franchise history with a berth in Super Bowl XXXIII on the line. The teams played to a 27-27 deadlock during regulation, forcing the game into overtime where the Falcons claimed a 30-27 win. It was the first NFC Championship game played in the Metrodome.

22ND PLAYOFF APPEARANCE — The Vikings turned their 1999 season around, winning eight of the final 10 games to finish 10-6 and host a 1st-round playoff game vs. Dallas. Robert Smith set a team post-season record with 140 rushing yards in the 27-10 win over the Cowboys. The Vikings fell 49-37 to eventual Super Bowl XXXIV champion St. Louis in the Divisional Round at the TWA Dome.

CARTER NAMED MAN OF THE YEAR — Cris Carter was honored as the first recipient of the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award for civic involvement, charity work and displaying high character on January 29, 2000, in a ceremony during Super Bowl week in Atlanta. The award was re-named after Payton, a Hall of Fame running back who died in 1999.

SMITH BREAKS TEAM RUSHING RECORD — Robert Smith surpassed Chuck Foreman's 20-year-old career rushing record in the team's 28-16 win at Chicago (10/15/00). Smith ended his career with 6,818 yards. He also established a new team record with 1,521 rushing yards on the season and holds the team record with 29 career 100-yard games.

40TH ANNIVERSARY TEAM ANNOUNCED — The Vikings celebrated their 40th season of NFL football in 2000, highlighted by a luncheon on November 30 to introduce the Vikings 40th Anniversary Team. That night the Vikings topped Detroit 24-17 and Cris Carter caught his 1,000th pass on a 4-yard TD from Daunte Culpepper. Carter was only the 2nd player in NFL history to record 1,000 career receptions.

15TH DIVISION TITLE — The Vikings overcame every critic's expectations in 2000 to post an 11-5 regular-season record, win the franchise's 15th NFC Central title and made the 23rd playoff appearance in team history, ending in the 7th NFC Championship game at Giants Stadium.

YARY ENshrined — On August 4, 2000, Ron Yary was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Yary played 14 seasons with Minnesota and played in 4 Super Bowls and 7 Pro Bowls during his career.

TICE REPLACES GREEN — On January 4, 2002, Mike Tice replaced Dennis Green on the sideline for the Vikings. Tice coached the 2001 regular season finale at Baltimore. Green assembled a 97-62 regular season record at the helm of the Vikings. Green led the team to 4 NFC Central Division titles and twice played in the NFC Championship game. Green's teams made the playoffs in 8 of his 10 seasons.

TICE NAMED HEAD COACH — On January 10, 2002, Mike Tice was named the 6th Head Coach in Vikings history. Tice is the 3rd of the 6 Vikings Head Coaches to be promoted from within the team's coaching ranks but is the 1st Head Coach to have played for the Vikings.

NFL RE-ALIGNS — The 2002 season marked the re-alignment of the NFL as the League expanded to 32 teams when the Houston Texans joined as an expansion franchise. The NFL re-aligned into 8 divisions of 4 teams each. The Vikings moved into the newly-formed NFC North after years in the NFC Central.

VIKINGS LEAD NFL IN RUSHING — The 2002 Vikings led the NFL in rushing for the first time in team history with 2,507 yards for the season, an average of 156.7 yards per game. The team also established an NFL mark by becoming the 1st team to make a successful 2-point conversion to win a game when Daunte Culpepper scored on a 2-point run with :05 remaining in the game to give the Vikings a 32-31 win at New Orleans on December 15, 2002. Culpepper proved to be a dangerous runner himself in 2002, setting team records for attempts (106), yards (609) and rushing TDs (10) by a QB.

VIKINGS OFFENSE RANKS #1 — The 2003 Vikings became the 1st squad in franchise history to finish the season with the #1 ranked offense in the NFL, averaging 393.4 yards per game and scoring an average of 26.0 points per game.

ELLER ENshrined — On August 8, 2004, Carl Eller was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Eller, the Vikings career sacks leader, was a member of the vaunted Purple People Eaters defense.

WILF FAMILY TAKES OWNERSHIP — An investment group led by brothers Zygmunt and Mark Wilf were unanimously approved as the new owners of the Vikings by their fellow NFL owners on May 25, 2005. The Wilfs, owners of a real estate development company in New Jersey, took ownership in mid-June from former owner Red McCombs, who had owned the club since 1998. Joining the Wilfs ownership group is cousin Leonard Wilf, Reggie Fowler, David Mandelbaum and Alan Landis.

CHILDRESS TAKES THE HELM — The Vikings named Brad Childress the 7th head coach in the history of the franchise on January 6, 2006. Childress comes to the Vikings after seven seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles, spending the 2002-05 seasons as offensive coordinator. The Eagles won NFC East titles in 2001, '02, '03 and '04 and represented the NFC in Super Bowl XXXIX against New England. During his tenure with the Eagles, Childress was instrumental in the development of 5-time Pro Bowl selection QB Donovan McNabb. Childress began his coaching career at the University of Illinois from 1978-84 and tutored the Wisconsin Badgers offense from 1991-98.

VIKINGS UNVEIL NEW UNIFORMS — The franchise made the most dramatic change to its uniforms in the history of the team during the 2006 offseason. The team unveiled the new uniforms before an enthusiastic crowd at Mall of America on April 27, 2006.

VIKINGS SEND 4 LINEMEN TO PRO BOWL — The 2006 Vikings strong play along the defensive and offensive lines was recognized league-wide as C Matt Birk, G Steve Hutchinson, DT Kevin Williams and DT Pat Williams all earned Pro Bowl honors.

ROOKIE RUNS TO RECORDS — In only his 5th NFL game, rookie RB Adrian Peterson broke the team record for rushing yards in a game with 224 at Chicago (10/14/07). Three weeks later he topped that by setting the NFL single-game rushing record with 296 yards vs. San Diego (11/4/07). He went on to lead the NFC in rushing with 1,341 yards, was named All-Pro, NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year, started in the Pro Bowl and took home game MVP honors.

SOLID 7 EARN PRO BOWL TRIPS — The Vikings sent 7 players to Hawaii for the Pro Bowl, the most to earn the honor since the 2000 season. The team was represented by C Matt Birk, G Steve Hutchinson, S Darren Sharper, FB Tony Richardson, DT Kevin Williams, DT Pat Williams and RB Adrian Peterson.

BLOCKBUSTER TRADE LANDS ALLEN — The Vikings struck a deal with Kansas City to trade 2007 NFL sack leader DE Jared Allen to the club for the Vikings 1st-round (#17) pick in the 2008 Draft, a pair of 3rd-round picks in 2008 and a swap of 6th-round choices. Allen was introduced to a boisterous crowd of fans at the Winter Park facility as part of the Vikings Draft Party days after the trade.

VIKINGS CLAIM FIRST NFC NORTH TITLE — The Vikings rattle off 9 wins in their last 12 games to capture their 1st division title since 2000 and the team's 1st NFC North Championship since the NFC Central was realigned in 2002. Minnesota also played host to a playoff game for the 1st time since 2000 and made its 1st playoff appearance since 2004.

PETERSON LEADS NFL IN RUSHING — Second-year RB Adrian Peterson set a team record with 1,760 yards rushing to become the 1st-ever Viking to lead the NFL in rushing. Peterson broke the 100-yard barrier 10 times during the season and became just the 5th player in NFL history to rush for more than 3,000 yards in his 1st 2 seasons (3,101).

RUSHING DEFENSE DYNASTY — The Vikings become the first defense since the 1970 merger to rank No. 1 in the NFL against the run for 3 straight years. Minnesota gave up just 76.9 yards per game to lead the league.

VIKINGS LOSE FOUNDING FATHER — One of the Vikings original stockholders and most-adamant supporters, Don McNeely passed away in March of 2009. In addition to his role in helping build the Vikings tradition, McNeely was revered as one of Minnesota's great philanthropists. McNeely was an ardent supporter of the arts and also donated large gifts to the Minnesota State Fair, St. John's University, the Warner Nature Center and the Como Conservatory.

McDANIEL ENshrined — G Randall McDaniel joined former linemate Gary Zimmerman in the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 8, 2009. McDaniel started 12 consecutive Pro Bowls (1989-2000), started 202 consecutive games and missed only 2 games his entire career, which started when he was a 1st-Round Draft pick by the Vikings in 1988.

FAVRE SIGNS WITH VIKINGS — A long-time nemesis at quarterback for NFC North rival Green Bay, Brett Favre signed with the Vikings on August 18, 2009.

Brett Favre signed with the Vikings as a free agent on August 18, 2009 and keyed the Vikings to a berth in the NFC Championship game in his 19th NFL season.

Favre went on to have the best statistical season of his career, throwing for 4,202 yards, 33 TDs and 7 INTs with a 107.2 passer rating, while also setting the NFL record for consecutive games started, a mark formerly held by Vikings legend Jim Marshall. The magic that Favre seemed to possess against Minnesota for so many years worked in the team's favor with a 32-yard TD heave to Greg Lewis with :02 remaining in Week 3 against San Francisco to provide a 27-24 come-from-behind win.

BACK-TO-BACK DIVISION TITLES — The Vikings bolted to a 10-1 start and finished the regular season with a 12-4 mark to capture its 2nd consecutive NFC North title. It marked the first time Minnesota achieved the feat since 1977-78, a span of 32 years and also finished with a top 10 offense (5th) and defense (6th) for the first time since 1994.

HARVIN NAMED ROOKIE OF THE YEAR — Rookie WR/KR Percy Harvin burst on the scene and earned Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year and was also named Pro Football Weekly/PFWA Offensive Rookie of the Year and Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Year. Harvin set team records with 2,081 all-purpose yards and 2 TDs on kick returns, while sharing the NFL rookie lead with 60 receptions for 790 yards. He earned a Pro Bowl berth as a return man.

NFL-BEST 10 VIKINGS EARN PRO BOWL BERTHS — The Vikings led the NFL and tied a team record with 10 players earning Pro Bowl honors. The unit featured 4 players who made their 1st Pro Bowl: Heath Farwell, Bryant McKinnie, Sidney Rice and Percy Harvin. They were joined by Brett Favre, Steve Hutchinson, Adrian Peterson, Jared Allen, Kevin Williams and Antoine Winfield.

EIGHTH NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME — The Vikings traveled to New Orleans in the 8th NFC Championship game in franchise history for a chance to play in Super Bowl XLIV in South Florida. The teams played to a 28-28 tie in regulation, forcing the game into overtime where the Saints hit a 40-yard FG in the extra period to claim a 31-28 victory.

RANDLE ENshrined — DT John Randle was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 7, 2010 following a 14-year career, including 11 years as a Vikings (1990-2000). Randle started 6-straight Pro Bowls for the NFC (1993-98) and went to the Pro Bowl with the Seahawks in 2001. He was named to NFL Team of the Decade for the 1990s and led or tied for the team lead in sacks 9 times in his 11 Vikings seasons and had 10+ sacks in 8 straight seasons from 1993-2000. Randle started 150 of the 176 games he played for the Vikings and his 114.0 sacks ranks 3rd in Vikings history and most by DT.

HOMES OF THE VIKINGS

The Vikings played their home games for 21 seasons (1961-81) at Metropolitan Stadium. The team has played its games for the last 28 seasons (1982-2009) at Mall of America Field at the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome. Funded initially through the sale of 30-year bonds, the Metrodome's debt was retired 14 years ahead of schedule.

The Vikings have called two stadiums "home" in their 50-year history: Metropolitan Stadium in Bloomington, and Mall of America Field at the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome in Minneapolis. On September 10, 1961, the Vikings played their first-ever home game, a 21-17 preseason loss to the LA Rams at Metropolitan Stadium. Over 21 seasons the Vikings compiled a 97-59-4 record, including playoffs, at Met Stadium and possessed one of the most dominant home field advantages in professional football. On December 20, 1981, the Vikings played the last game at the Met, a 10-6 loss to the Kansas City Chiefs. Capacity of the Met was 48,446 in the stadium's final year.

The Vikings moved indoors in 1982 to the Metrodome in downtown Minneapolis. Seating capacity for the Metrodome is 63,725. It also features two Sony Jumbotron replay screens and 115 private suites owned and operated by the Vikings. In 27 seasons at the Metrodome the Vikings have a 152-79 record, which includes a 7-5 mark in NFL playoff action. The 2010 season marks the Vikings 29th campaign playing their home games in the Metrodome, 8 seasons longer than the Vikings played at Metropolitan Stadium. Construction of the Metrodome was financed through a successful partnership of public and private interests. Funded initially through the sale of 30-year bonds, the facility's debt was retired 14 years ahead of schedule. The Minnesota Vikings were largely responsible for the tenant-generated portion of the funding that retired that debt. The Metrodome has been host to many marquee sporting events, including Super Bowl XXVI, the 1987 and 1991 World Series, the 1985 Major League Baseball All-Star Game, the 1992 and 2001 NCAA Final Four basketball tournaments and the 1998 NFC Championship Game. The Metrodome also hosted an NCAA Men's Basketball Regional in 2000, 2003, and 2005.

The Vikings and Mall of America® announced a partnership on Oct. 1, 2009, for the naming rights to the team's home field. The agreement provided that the field will be called Mall of America Field at Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome for a 3-year period beginning October 5, 2009, and ending February 28, 2012.

"Branding the field as Mall of America Field represents an opportunity to share our name and image with an even larger nationwide audience," said Maureen Bausch, Executive Vice President of Business Development at Mall of America. "It also connects two treasured Minnesota brands- Mall of America and the Minnesota Vikings- which adds value to both companies." As part of the agreement, Mall of America Field was branded with new exterior and interior signage, as well as various promotional materials.

"This was a great opportunity for the Vikings to uniquely partner with a very prominent business that has a deep commitment to the Minnesota community," said Steve LaCroix, Vikings Vice President of Sales and Marketing & Chief Marketing Officer. "As another step in re-branding the stadium for the short-term, we hope Mall of America Field continues to give the team an important home field advantage while providing many exciting memories for our fans."

2010 VERIZON VIKINGS TRAINING CAMP

In 2010, the Minnesota Vikings will call Mankato their summer home for the Verizon Vikings Training Camp for the 45th-straight season. More than 50,000 fans attended the 2009 Verizon Wireless Vikings Training Camp to observe daily practices and take part in all the fun and fanfare in the Vikings Village.

Players report for camp in late July on the campus of Minnesota State University, Mankato.

The team typically practices twice daily and the Northland Ford Autograph Zone will return in 2010 where fans can get their favorite players' autographs following selected practices. On the evening of July 31, the Vikings will hold a team introduction in Blakeslee Stadium. Verizon Wireless Vikings Training Camp will conclude on Thursday, August 12 with Fan Appreciation Day including a full-team autograph session following the morning practice.

For a full schedule of practice dates and times, event listings and more information, visit www.vikings.com.

Training Camp Facts

Headquarters: Verizon Wireless Vikings Training Camp headquarters is on the campus of Minnesota State University, Mankato.

Media: All media should report to the Verizon Wireless Vikings Training Camp media headquarters in Pennington Hall on the campus of MSU, Mankato. Credentials and parking information will be distributed at Pennington Hall.

Minnesota State University, Mankato's Blakeslee Stadium has played host to Vikings training camps since 1966. From 1961-65 the Vikings held training camp on the campus of Bemidji State University.

VIKINGS TV PROGRAMMING KEEPS FANS IN THE GAME

Vikings Weekly is a feature-oriented show that takes you inside the lives of your favorite Vikings players. Two-time Emmy Award winning host Ann Carroll gives you exclusive access to the Purple all year long. Vikings Weekly airs on KARE-11 NBC and FS North. All re-airs are on FS North.

Vikings GamePlan is a football X's and O's show hosted by the radio play-by-play voice of the Vikings - Paul Allen. PA takes you thru the upcoming matchup with exclusive film sessions with head coach Brad Childress, player interviews and much more. Vikings GamePlan airs on KARE-11 NBC and FS North.

2010 VIKINGS PRESEASON TELEVISION

Ari Wolfe

Mike Mayock

The 2010 Vikings Preseason TV broadcasts return veteran voices Ari Wolfe and Mike Mayock to the booth for the 4th season. The crew will bring Vikings fans 3 games in the preseason- August 14 at St. Louis, August 28 vs. Seattle and September 2 vs. Denver. The excitement and competition of preseason football will come to life as players fight for a roster spot with the Vikings and chase their dreams of playing in the NFL.

Wolfe joined the Vikings in 2007 after establishing himself as a fast-rising and versatile broadcasting voice in professional and college sports. Wolfe worked as the football and basketball voice of the University of Louisville Cardinals. In 2005 Wolfe's work was recognized with an Emmy Award for Outstanding Achievement in Play-by-Play for his work with Louisville.

Wolfe has more than a decade of experience in pro sports as a play-by-play man in the Arena Football League. Wolfe has served as a sideline reporter for NFL football, called NFL Europa games on Fox and NFL Network and in 2005 handled preseason TV for the Philadelphia Eagles. Wolfe is a native of Madison, WI and earned his bachelor's degree at Emory University. He went on to finish a master's degree at Southern California where he handled play-by-play and color for USC football, basketball and baseball as a student at KSCR radio in Los Angeles.

Mayock brings the unique perspective of a former NFL player and seasoned broadcaster to the Vikings booth again in 2010. Mayock is a fixture on NFL Network and has established himself as an expert voice on the NFL Draft. Mayock has climbed the ranks in the broadcasting business starting in the early 1990s at ESPN covering college and Canadian Football League action. He moved to CBS to work on college football and basketball coverage for the network from 1996-99. Mayock called college football games on Fox Sports Net in 2000 and moved to ABC Sports as a college football analyst in 2001.

Mayock brings the knowledge of the game and perspective from the field he gained as an NFL DB with the NY Giants from 1982-83 and a standout at Boston College where he was inducted to the Eagles Hall of Fame. As a Giant, Mayock played under the legendary Bill Parcells in his 1st season with the club in '83. Mayock entered the NFL as a 10th-round draft pick by the Pittsburgh Steelers and head coach Chuck Noll in 1981. Mayock's father, Mike, was a 1955 draft pick of the Steelers as an end out of Villanova.

VOICES OF THE VIKINGS

Entering his 9th season in 2010 as the Vikings radio play-by-play voice is KFAN-AM radio mid-day personality Paul Allen. Joining Allen as the color commentator is former Vikings LB and coach Pete Bercich.

Allen served as the Vikings Internet web cast play-by-play voice during the 2000 season and called one Vikings game during the 2001 season.

Bercich returns for his 4th season with the broadcasts in 2010 and brings a decade of NFL experience from the field and sideline. A 7th-round draft pick by the Vikings in 1994, Bercich overcame the odds and played for the team from 1995-2000. A standout special teamer, Bercich parlayed his knowledge of the game into a job coaching with the team from 2002-05.

Joining Allen and Bercich from the sidelines and co-hosting the pre-game show will be former Vikings punter Greg Coleman. Coleman punted for the Vikings from 1978-87 and is the team's all-time leader in punts (721), punting yards (29,391), punts inside the 20 (154) and ranks 4th in career average (40.8 yards per punt).

Pete Bercich, Paul Allen and Greg Coleman

KFAN-AM (1130) and KTLK (100.3 FM) serve as the flagship stations for the Minnesota Vikings Radio Network, which includes outlets in six states.

VIKINGS MEDIA POLICY

INTERVIEW REQUESTS: All interview requests for Minnesota Vikings players, coaches, executives or staff members should be directed to the Public Relations Department. Phone interviews must be arranged at least two days in advance and will be subject to availability. Head Coach Brad Childress will hold a press conference the day following games and Wednesday of a regular game week at Winter Park and will make a weekly conference call to speak with the opposing team's assembled media.

OPEN LOCKER ROOM PERIOD: The Vikings' locker room is open to accredited media during the week at scheduled times. Head Coach Brad Childress will address assembled media on Wednesday of a regular game week at Winter Park during this period. Television standups and live shots are prohibited during press conferences. Vikings players will also be available to the media with the assistance of Public Relations staffers of the Vikings. Players and coaches are not available for interviews on Tuesdays, the day before a game or on game day until after the game.

PRACTICE REGULATIONS: The Vikings practices at Winter Park on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday are open through individual drills to accredited media. Practices are open for filming through individual drills.

GAME CREDENTIALS: Credential requests are honored for accredited media on specific assignments and must be made through the Vikings' Public Relations Department. Credentials will not be issued to writers or photographers working on a free-lance basis unless the request is made by a recognized publication or news organization. Season-long credentials are issued in July; game-by-game credentials must be requested at least one week prior to each home game. Game day credentials may be picked up at Media Will Call at Gate D at the Metrodome starting three hours before kickoff. All credential requests must be sent to Jeff Anderson (andersonj@vikings.nfl.net) or by fax, (952) 828-6540.

PRESS RELEASES: The Vikings' weekly press release may be obtained from the team or on the Internet at www.vikings.com and nflmedia.com. The team's weekly injury report, which is first released on Wednesday, can also be acquired the same way.

STILL PHOTOGRAPHY: Still photography is not allowed in the locker room at Winter Park or Metrodome at any time.

MEDIA CONTACTS: Media requests can be submitted to the Vikings Public Relations staff: Bob Hagan, Director of Public Relations (haganb@vikings.nfl.net); Tom West, Assistant Director of Public Relations (westt@vikings.nfl.net), Jeff Anderson, Assistant Director of Public Affairs (andersonj@vikings.nfl.net) or Jon Ekstrom, Public Relations Assistant (ekstromj@vikings.nfl.net). The general office phone is 952-828-6500.
