

Your Guide to The Museums of Lower Manhattan

- 1 Museum of Jewish Heritage—A Living Memorial to the Holocaust
36 Battery Place (at First Place)
- 2 The Skyscraper Museum
39 Battery Place (at First Place)
- 3 Statue of Liberty National Monument and Ellis Island Immigration Museum
(Ticket booth/ferry at Castle Clinton in Battery Park)
- 4 Castle Clinton National Monument
Located in Battery Park
- 5 National Museum of the American Indian, Smithsonian Institution
One Bowling Green (between State St and Whitehall St)

- 6 Museum of American Financial History
28 Broadway (across from the charging bull statue)
- 7 Fraunces Tavern® Museum
54 Pearl St (at Broad St)
- 8 The New York City Police Museum
100 Old Slip (between Water St and South St)
- 9 Federal Hall National Memorial
26 Wall St (between Nassau St and William St)
- 10 South Street Seaport Museum
207 Front St (Pier 16 visitors center, near the corner of South St and Fulton St)
- 11 Museum of Chinese in the Americas
70 Mulberry St (at Bayard St)
- 12 Eldridge Street Project
12 Eldridge St (between Canal St and Division St)
- 13 Lower East Side Tenement Museum
90 Orchard St (at Broome St)
- 14 The New York City Fire Museum
278 Spring St (between Varick St and Hudson St)
- 15 Unwavering Spirit Exhibit: St. Paul's Chapel
209 Broadway (between Fulton St and Vesey St)

Easy Walking Key (everything is really nearby, for example): Chinatown to City Hall: 15-minute walk Hudson River to East River: 20-minute walk
 Castle Clinton to City Hall: 15-minute walk Tribeca to Lower East Side: 20-minute walk World Trade Center Site to Battery Park: 10-minute walk

NYC & Company, LMDC
Visitors Kiosks