Adele's "21" crowned ARIA's highest selling album of 2011 LMFAO takes single honours with "Party Rock Anthem"

ARIA reveals 2011's End Of Year Singles and Album Charts: Gotye delivers the highest ranked Australian single and album, as 9 Australian artists feature in the album top 50

The global phenomenon that is Adele's much-lauded album "21", has blitzed all-comers on the 2011 ARIA Top 100 Album Chart, taking out top spot with sales in excess of eleven times Platinum. Across the year, "21" has occupied peak position for a massive total of 23 weeks. Adele's 2008 album "19" is also entrenched in the top 20 albums of 2011, landing at number 11. The title of top ranking single of the year has been taken out by LMFAO's "Party Rock Anthem", the infectious tune dominating number one on the ARIA Singles Chart for ten weeks across the year, and accruing an incredible sales tally of ten times platinum in the process.

On the local artist front, Gotye has swept all before him, his single "Somebody That I Used To Know" featuring Kimbra checking in at #2 on the ARIA Top 100 Singles Chart, making him the highest ranked Australian for the year. His album "Making Mirrors" has also made the album top 5 list, coming in at number four, ensuring he is the only Australian artist to deliver a top 5 single and album on the annual top 100 charts.

Australian artists enjoyed an excellent year on the album front, with 22 albums placing in the ARIA 2011 Top 100 Album Chart and Angus & Julia Stone making the chart for the second year in a row, hitting 32 with their triple platinum release "Down The Way". As with 2010, three local albums feature within the top 20 - coming in behind Gotye is X-Factor winner Reece Mastin at #15 with his self-titled debut, and the mighty Cold Chisel place at 17 with their album "The Best Of Cold Chisel – All For You".

Justin Bieber and Glee Cast feature with three titles in the ARIA Top 100 Album Chart, and another ten artists contribute two releases, including Adele, Michael Buble, Foo Fighters, Lady Gaga, Lady Antebellum, Rihanna, Florence + The Machine, Amy Winehouse, Ronan Keating and kd lang.

In summary, the top 5 on the ARIA 2011 Top 100 Album Chart sees Adele at 1, Michael Buble's "Christmas" at 2, Bruno Mars with "Doo-Wops & Hooligans" at 3, Gotye's "Making Mirrors" at 4, with LMFAO's "Sorry For Party Rocking" rounding out the five.

With LMFAO easily topping the ARIA 2011 Top 100 Singles Chart and Gotye coming in at #2, the remaining top 5 positions were taken out by Maroon 5 featuring Christina Aguilera with “Moves Like Jagger” at 3, and Adele at both 4 and 5 with “Someone Like You” and “Rolling In The Deep” respectively.

Ten acts had more than one hit in the top 100 – Rihanna, David Guetta and Bruno Mars topping the list with five each, and Adele, Beyonce, Flo Rida, Jason DeRulo, Jessie J, Katy Perry and LMFAO each contributing three. Nine singles from Australian acts feature in the 2011 top 100, and within the top 50, Reece Mastin follows behind Gotye, landing at 27 with his debut hit “Good Night”. Havana Brown is well entrenched at 40 with “We Run The Night” and Guy Sebastian’s “Who’s That Girl” featuring Eve checks in at 47.

Upon reviewing the 2011 ARIA Top 100 chart results, ARIA CEO, Mr Dan Rosen, commented, “It has been an exciting year on the ARIA Charts, with a number of new acts debuting on the Charts and capturing the public’s imagination along the way. Adele’s year on the charts is unlike anything we’ve seen in recent times – for an artist to contribute two singles and two albums to each top 20 line-up is just incredible and a credit to her wonderful talent. The pop phenomenon that is LMFAO is another act to have had a very special year on the ARIA Charts, with two singles in the top 10 and their album at #5. I am also particularly proud of the achievements of Australian artist Gotye on the ARIA Charts in 2011 – a gifted musician, songwriter and now multi-ARIA Award winner, it is extremely pleasing to see a wider audience of Australian music fans embracing his immense talents. As we reflect on a year of charts, I can’t help but get excited about what 2012 has in store for us.”
