Parad Shiva lingam

As we know “Parad” is considered to be the semen of the great “Lord Shiva” as per vedic texts. Any Shiva lingam is considered to be the form of union of Lord Shiva & Parvati (male & female). It is said worship of a Shiva lingam made out parad is considered to be more auspicious than worshipping a Shiva lingam made of any other auspicious metals like gold or silver. Worship of such a lingam can help the person achieve various goals & prosperity in various spheres of life. Installation of parad Shiva lingam in house can bring about peace & harmony, lessening of obstacles, dispelling of negativity from ones house & life.
