MESSAGE

It gives me immense pleasure to see the report "Crime in India" for the year 2011 published by the National Crime Records Bureau (NCRB). This report has been the principal reference for crime statistics in India since 1953. This annual report provides meticulous and in depth information on a range of aspects of crime in the country. This year we had taken special measures to publish the report within June.

Criminals are more organized than before due to better communication facilities and are continually adopting new techniques and modus operandi and developing new networks that go beyond the national boundaries. This poses a serious challenge for the law enforcement agencies, policy makers and other stakeholders of the criminal justice system. An exhaustive information base on every aspect of criminality in the society is required to properly analyse the emerging trends and patterns of crime and plan suitable policy and operational interventions and remedial strategies and measures accordingly. The annual report of the NCRB aims to fulfill these data requirements of various stakeholders.

I would urge the State Governments and UT Administrations and Heads of various law enforcement agencies to send validated data pertaining to the year 2012 to the NCRB by the month of February of next year, so that the report "Crime in India" for the year 2012 may be brought out by April 2013.

FOREWORD

To quote H.G. Wells “Statistical thinking will one day be as necessary a qualification for efficient citizenship as ability to read and write.” This compendium ‘Crime in India’ is as an annual publication of the National Crime Records Bureau. It contains detailed statistical information on the crime scenario of the country. The present edition pertains to the year 2011 and is 59th in the series which started in the year 1953.

Crime affects people throughout society because it is everywhere, from simple purse thieves to violent gang members crime plagues many of the urban streets today. The question is how we could help reduce crime in the society. We in the NCRB feel that detailed information on crime and criminal helps Police Organisation to analyse the trends and plan effective strategies to prevent them. This annual publication of NCRB provides useful information to the various stake holders like policy makers, police personnel, media persons, researchers and NGOs. With its detailed informative contents, this publication has been the principal reference document for number of institutions and research scholars. The information contained in the publication has been found particularly useful in preparing replies to Parliamentary Questions relating to various Ministries.

In order to cater to the requirement of the users of our data in a ready manner, we have digitized all the previous editions of the publication and made them available on our website <http://ncrb.gov.in>.

I am grateful to the State Police Organisations and UTs for their cooperation in timely submission of requisite data to NCRB. It has been our constant endeavour to bring out the report within the shortest possible time after the end of reference year. This time we tried to bring out this issue much earlier than previous years. Very shortly when our flagship project of CCTNS is rolled out and fully implemented future issues shall be brought out immediately after the end of the reference year.

Data collection, compilation on this scale, its proof reading, brief comments and publication is an arduous task and requires untiring efforts of a team of officers and men. I take this opportunity to record my appreciation of the excellent work done by the officers of the Statistical Branch of the Bureau under the leadership of Inspector General (Administration & Training) Sri Nasir Kamal in completing this task in the specified time line. They have had to sit through the weekends to ensure that the figures to be published are checked and cross checked and every single page is corrected to the smallest details of comma and full stops. The Chief Statistical Officer (CSO) of NCRB also deserves to be lauded for his untiring efforts. It would be unfair if I do not mention the contributions of the members of the team that was assigned to work on this publication. They have done well in bringing it out by the time line set for them.

I would urge the readers to spare sometime and fill in the feedback form attached at the end of this report. It would greatly help us in improving the quality of future publication.

* As clarified by Uttar Pradesh, specifically the figures of Sexual Harassment (u/s 509 IPC) have been given from 2010 excluding figures u/s 294 IPC which were until 2009 being added up with section 509 IPC and furnished to NCRB, therefore variation is there in Uttar Pradesh and its Cities (Except Agra City) in the data of Sexual Harassment (u/s 509 IPC).

* As clarified by Uttar Pradesh, specifically the figures of Sexual Harassment (u/s 509 IPC) have been given from 2010 excluding figures u/s 294 IPC which were until 2009 being added up with section 509 IPC and furnished to NCRB, therefore variation is there in Uttar Pradesh and its Cities (Except Agra City) in the data of Sexual Harassment (u/s 509 IPC) .
