

HIGHLIGHTS OF LOCAL AND STATE GOVERNMENT IN WISCONSIN

Employment and Earnings — In March 2011, Wisconsin ranked 20th among the states in full-time equivalent (FTE) state and local government employees with 283,568. The State of Wisconsin employed 70,891 workers, while local government employed 212,677.

In March 2011, Wisconsin ranked 17th in average total payroll for state and local government employees with $1,207,565,776. California ranked first with a payroll of $9,858,934,440 and South Dakota ranked 50th with $150,276,139.

Units of Local Government — As of January 1, 2012, Wisconsin had 1,923 general units of local government – 72 counties, 190 cities, 405 villages, and 1,256 towns.

In 2012, counties varied in official population estimates from Milwaukee at 948,322 to Menominee with 4,214. These two counties were also highest and lowest in 2011 full value property assessments at $61 billion and $318 million, respectively. As determined by the U.S. Census Bureau in 2010, Marathon County is the largest in land area with 1,545 square miles and Ozaukee County the smallest with 232 square miles.

Based on the 2010 Census, Wisconsin’s city residents totaled 3,150,339 in 2010, a 5.2% increase from the 2000 Census; village population was 869,587, a 26.6% increase; and town population was 1,667,060, a 0.1% decrease. As of April 1, 2010, a total of 92 Wisconsin municipalities had populations of 10,000 or more. The City of Milwaukee ranked first at 594,833, and the City of Elkhorn, with 10,084 residents, was smallest in the group.

Administration — Wisconsin cities may adopt a mayor, manager, or commission form of government. Of 190 cities, 10 have a city manager and 180 have a mayor. Currently, no city uses the commission form of government. Villages may use a president or manager form of government. Of 405 villages, only 10 have an appointed manager. Currently, 93 cities and 97 villages employ an administrator in a full-time or combined position.

Each county board is headed by a chairperson chosen by the board. In addition, 10 counties have an elected county executive, 25 have an appointed county administrator, and 33 have an appointed administrative coordinator.

Key: A – Appointed without party designation; AC – Administrative Coordinator; CA – County Administrator; CE – County Executive; D – Democrat; I – Independent; R – Republican; ME – Medical Examiner.

Note: All officers are elected countywide with the exception of the county board chairperson, county administrator, administrative coordinator, and medical examiner, who are elected or appointed by the county board. Elected county supervisors serve 2-year terms, except county executives who serve 4-year terms. All remaining county officers serve 4-year terms.

¹Counties with a population of 500,000 or more are statutorily required to establish the office of county executive. Smaller counties may establish the office of county executive or name a county administrator. In counties without a county executive or county administrator, the county board must designate an elected or appointed official to serve as administrative coordinator.

²Menominee and Shawano County share a District Attorney.

³County boards are permitted to designate any registered land surveyor to perform the duties of the county surveyor. Surveyors are appointed unless party designation is shown.

⁴Surveyor/Land Information Systems Administrator.

Note: A city is not automatically reclassified based on changes in population but must take action to initiate a reclassification.

Under Section 62.05 (2), Wisconsin Statutes, to change from one class to another a city must: 1) meet the required population size according to the last federal census; 2) fulfill required governmental changes; and 3) publish a mayoral proclamation.

¹There are 190 cities in Wisconsin as of January 1, 2012.

²One of 10 cities with a city manager.

³One of 93 cities with a city administrator holding a full-time or combined position.

⁴Population estimates are based on the corrected totals. Race and ethnicity data have not been adjusted.

⁵In the 2010 U.S. Census, respondents were allowed to choose more than one race. The column “nonwhite” includes all who chose at least one race other than white.
