

Adare Village

Adare has always been regarded as one of Ireland's most attractive villages. Thatched Cottages with snug rustic proportions line one side of the road while the other is dominated by the more commanding Trinitarian Priory. Antiques shops, pubs, a gallery and other retailers jostle for space with a half dozen or so restaurants, while the ruins that surround the village add their own counterpoint of timeworn and venerable character.

Location

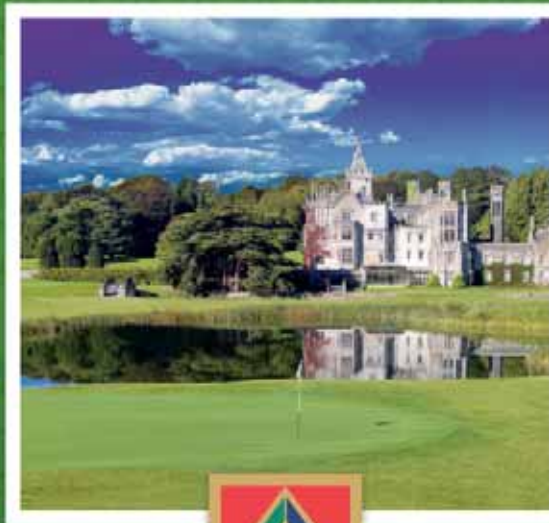

Adare is easily accessible from Limerick, Dublin, Cork & Kerry.

The Adare Manor Experience

Situated in the lush heartlands of County Limerick, Adare Manor Hotel and Golf Resort is one of Ireland's most evocative and spellbinding castle hotels. Steeped in exotic history and surrounded by medieval ruins, its 840-acre demesne is home to beautiful parklands, superb trout fishing on the river Maigue, and a renowned 18-hole championship golf course designed by Robert Trent Jones Senior. Unique and individual accommodation, the best of contemporary Irish food in an incomparable setting, and the highest standards of modern hospitality are hallmarks of the Manor experience.

This was the last major golf course designed by the legendary Robert Trent Jones Senior and his majestic design has gained international acclaim as one of his finest creations. Jones intended it to provide a formidable challenge. From the back tees it now measures 7,453 yards, but leisurely golfers, however, are also provided for, with each hole sporting four tee positions, the shortest route round amounts to 5,419 yards.

"The golf course is top notch. It has quality from tee to green. It has the ability to take the number one slot from Valderamma. The venue is spectacular"

We had a golfing weekend in the townhouses, 16 stayed and played. I would recommend this location for any groups or golf societies without hesitation. The golf course is the finest I have ever played.

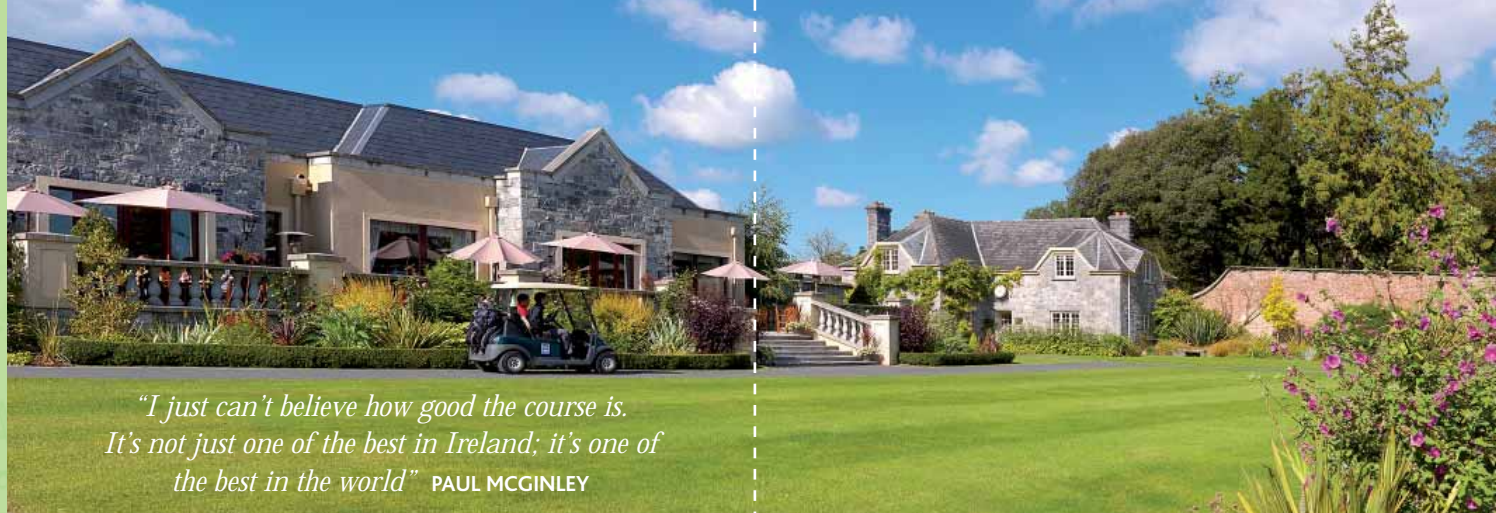

Food and service is of the highest standard.

Pat Walsh - Hasbro Golf Society

While the golf course has all the majestic and mystic characteristics that it is renowned for, the REAL character lies within the resort as a whole - fine dining, relaxing, pleasant atmosphere and truly courteous staff.

Add excellent choice of accommodation styles and you have the perfect combination. "Looking forward to going back"

Jack Fox - ODMC Annual Golf Outing

"I just can't believe how good the course is. It's not just one of the best in Ireland; it's one of the best in the world" PAUL MCGINLEY
