SUNS LAST THREE GAMES

FEBRUARY 25, 2016
NETS	116	PHOENIX – The Suns set a new franchise record with their eighth-consecutive home loss as the Brooklyn Nets ended the first half on a 14-0 run on their way to a 116-106 win at Talking Stick Resort Arena. The Suns trailed by seven points at 52-45 with 2:21 left before halftime, but the Nets scored 14 unanswered points in the final 2:09 of the second quarter to take a 66-45 lead into the break. Brooklyn built their lead to as many as 25 points early in the fourth quarter. The Suns made a late 19-5 to cut into the Nets' lead and bring the deficit down to 10 points but it was too little, too late as the Nets dealt the Suns their eighth straight home loss and 13th overall, tying the longest single-season losing streak in franchise history. Thaddeus Young was exceptional for Brooklyn with 18 points, eight rebounds, seven steals and three blocks, just the second time an NBA player had recorded at least those numbers in a game since 1991-92. Former Net Mirza Teletovic led the Suns with a season-high 30 points, making 12-of-23 field goals, as Teletovic also had a season-high 11 rebounds to record his first double-double of the season.

SUNS	84	LOS ANGELES – The Suns never led as the Los Angeles Clippers dealt the Suns their largest margin of defeat of the season, winning 124-84 at Talking Stick Resort Arena. The Clippers led by 19 points after the first quarter before the Suns opened the second period on a 16-1 run to close the margin to four points. That was as close as the Suns would get, however, as the Clippers pushed their lead to 17 points at halftime, 29 points after three quarters and as many as 43 points late in the fourth quarter before arriving at the final margin of 40 points. The 40-point differential tied for the third-largest loss in Suns franchise history and was their worst since 40 points on Nov. 28, 2012, at Detroit. J.J. Redick led the Clippers with 22 points, scoring 19 in the first half. Chris Paul (16 points, 14 assists) and DeAndre Jordan (17 points, 11 rebounds) each recorded double-doubles for Los Angeles. Archie Goodwin scored 20 points to lead the Suns as Alex Len (14), Mirza Teletovic (13) and Ronnie Price (12) each scored in double-digits as well. Phil Pressey led the Suns with 10 assists in his second game with the team.

SPURS	118	PHOENIX – The Suns scratched and clawed to stay close to the San Antonio Spurs but could never quite get over the hump as a late Spurs run gave them a 118-111 victory at Talking Stick Resort Arena. The Spurs never trailed in the game and led by as many as 12 points but the Suns always stayed within striking distance and, with 6:22 left in the game, tied the game on a Sonny Weems jumper, the first tie since 11-11. After Weems knotted the score, however, the Spurs went on a 7-0 run behind four points from Danny Green followed by a career-high-tying sixth three-pointer by Patty Mills to take a 107-100 lead with 4:14 remaining. The Suns only once got the margin back within one possession from that point on as the Spurs held on for a seven-point win. Alex Len led the Suns with a career-high 23 points in addition to grabbing 13 rebounds. Archie Goodwin and Mirza Teletovic each scored 14 points off the bench and Jon Leuer added 13 off the bench. Tony Parker led San Antonio with 22 points while Mills finished with 21 off the bench, making 6-of-9 three-pointers. LaMarcus Aldridge posted 19 points and 10 rebounds.

LAST REGULAR SEASON MEETING

Grizzlies 95, Suns 93

12/6/15 at FedExForum

MEMPHIS – The Suns dropped their fourth straight game by a combined total of 13 points as Jeff Green completed an alley-oop of an inbounds pass with :00.8 remaining to give the Memphis Grizzlies a 95-93 win at FedExForum. Each team held a large lead in the game though the Suns completed a 6-0 run to tie the game at 93-93 with :11.9 remaining after Alex Len tipped in a missed free throw by Jon Leuer. Mike Conley's attempt at a go-ahead layup with :02.1 to play was initially ruled a goaltending violation but a review confirmed that it was a legal block by Len, giving the Suns the ball with a chance to win. The Suns turned the ball over on their inbounds attempt, however, setting the stage for Green's heroics. It marked the second straight contest between the Suns and Grizzlies with Green providing the go-ahead points in the final five seconds as he completed a three-point play in Memphis' 102-101 win in Phoenix on Feb. 2, 2015. Eric Bledsoe led the Suns with 23 points and six assists while Leuer posted a double-double with 10 points and 11 rebounds. Marc Gasol led Memphis with 22 points.

NEXT OPPONENT (March 1)

CHARLOTTE HORNETS (29-27)

- The Suns have won two straight, including the first meeting this season, and have won seven of the last eight games.
- The Hornets won the first meeting last season in Phoenix snapping a five-game winning streak by the Suns in the series, including both meetings in each of the previous two seasons. The five straight wins followed a four-game series losing streak by the Suns, their longest since the series began in 1988-89.
- Last season marked the return of the series between the Suns and the Charlotte Hornets, as the Hornets changed their name from the Bobcats. The record books have been reconfigured so the series between the two teams recognizes each game against professional teams in Charlotte (Hornets 1988-2002, 2014- and Bobcats 2004-14).
- The Suns were 17-12 against the first iteration of the Charlotte Hornets, 14-5 against the team as the Charlotte Bobcats and 2-1 against the second iteration.
- These two teams split the season series in 2008-09 and 2014-15, the only times it was not a sweep since 2004-05.
- Phoenix won the first four meetings all-time and 10 of the first 12 against the Hornets, and first eight overall against the team as the Bobcats.
- On Jan. 15, 1990, Tom Chambers scored a series-high 40 point for the Suns.
- The Suns have scored at least 100 points in 39 of 51 meetings all-time.

season with teammate Brandon Knight just shy of reaching those thresholds. Charles Barkley in his MVP season of 1992-93, Jeff Hornacek in his All-Star season of 1991-92 and Kevin Johnson in 1988-89 are the only players in Suns history to exceed these marks in a season. The four previous times in NBA history two teammates averaged at least 20.0 points and 5.0 assists are: Cleveland's LeBron James and Kyrie Irving in 2014-15, Miami's James and Dwyane Wade in 2012-13, Chicago's Michael Jordan and Scottie Pippen in 1991-92, and Boston's John Havlicek and Jo Jo White in 1971-72 (Basketball-Reference).
