

Financial Assistance

I GENERAL INFORMATION FOR APPLICANTS

1 In addition to awards made from funds tied to schools or departments, the College assists undergraduate students studying for their first degree who are in need by two main forms of financial assistance, fee concessions and benefactions. Financial need is determined by reference to gross parental income and family circumstances (see §4 — mature students).

Financial assistance is not normally given to students in the Junior Freshman year (see §3 below) nor to students who are not in good academic standing. Irish students may be granted fee concessions and/or benefactions. Students who have their fees paid by the State cannot benefit from fee concessions. The Board, however, has agreed that financial assistance can be given in the form of a maintenance award to students who would ordinarily have qualified for fee concessions on the basis of limited family income and family circumstances. Other undergraduate students who have been classified as E.U. students for purposes of admission (see ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS, section I, §1), may be eligible for fee concessions but not for benefactions. Students from outside the European Union are not normally eligible for financial assistance (see §5 below) but such students with one parent who is a graduate of the University of Dublin may be granted a partial remission of fees in cases of financial hardship. This remission may not exceed the standard E.U. fee for the course.

2 Applications for financial assistance are made to the Financial Assistance Committee. All decisions of the committee are submitted to the Board for approval. All applicants must complete an application form which is obtainable from their tutor or from the Tutorial Service webpage: http://www.tcd.ie/Senior\_Tutor.

3 Applications for all forms of financial assistance should be submitted to the Senior Tutor before the end of May preceding the academic year for which assistance is sought. However, the committee recognises that financial hardship can occur unexpectedly and is prepared to deal with applications arising from such changes in circumstances if they are exceptionally urgent. Junior Freshmen are eligible to apply in this way when such circumstances arise after their admission to College.

4 Mature undergraduate students (those who have reached the age of twenty-three years before entry to College) are eligible for financial assistance as outlined in §1 above. Financial need is determined by reference to the student's income and family circumstances.

5 In exceptional circumstances the Financial Assistance Committee will consider applications from non-E.U. students whose financial situation has seriously and unexpectedly deteriorated owing to national emergencies arising in their country of origin.

6 Financial assistance is not renewed automatically on an annual basis, and a fresh application must be made for each year for which assistance is sought. Students who, having been granted an award for the ensuing year, fail to pay the balance of the fees due by the prescribed date forfeit their right to the award.

II FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE AWARDS AND FEE CONCESSIONS

The Financial Assistance Committee can give:

- (a) maintenance awards on the basis of limited family income and circumstances;
- (b) in exceptional circumstances, fee concessions to undergraduate degree students of limited means, in respect of the annual fee, according to academic progress. These concessions would normally represent a portion of the annual fee payable, the balance being the responsibility of the individual student, and be awarded to final year students;

Financial assistance

- (c) assistance to needy students to meet expenses for compulsory field courses or for periods spent abroad which are required or deemed highly desirable by the head of school or department concerned;
- (d) in the case of non-E.U. students of limited means, one of whose parents is a graduate of the University of Dublin, partial remission of fees.

The qualifications which are principally taken into consideration in granting these loans are (1) the limited means of the applicants and of their parents or guardians and (2) such general distinction and character during their College course as will serve as a guarantee that the money lent will be applied to what is likely to prove of permanent benefit to the applicants.

It is only in exceptional circumstances that any single loan exceeds €1,200. Interest is charged at one per cent per annum, payable half-yearly. Recipients enter into an undertaking to keep the trustees acquainted with their residence, to pay the interest regularly, and, when remunerative employment is obtained, to repay the principal by instalments within a reasonable time, that time to be fixed by the trustees in each case according to the nature of the employment which has been obtained.
