

TRIUMPH IN CANNES

France covered Bulgarian Rose wine with Gold

The Domaine Boyar rose wines swept numerous awards at this year's most prestigious Rose World Contest – Le Mondial du Rose. The highly appraised forum takes place at the glamorous French town of Cannes where it gathers the most famous wine connoisseurs and experts of the world. For the first time ever Bulgarian Rose wins gold at the most important contest in the field. This is the exquisite wine of the sort of Marselan – Chanson Modernes from Domaine Boyar's new and unique rose collection – Chanson.

The other wines of the same collection – Chanson Classique (Pinot Noir) and Chanson Cabaret (Caladoc) – won silver at the same contest, together with another rose by the gifted Domaine Boyar oenologists – Quantum (Pinot Noir & Syrah).

The contest experts were fascinated by the exuberant aroma, juicy taste and overall harmony of Chanson Moderne. Those elements in particular were crucial for qualifying the wine amongst the best Roses of the world. The renowned tasters nominated the Roses of the Chanson range as wines of splendid distinction of sorts and enchanting character.

This is a grand recognition for our winery because it brings to Bulgaria once again most prestigious awards from a world contest. The awarded wines are representatives of the brand new collections of the company, that this year celebrates its 20-th anniversary. This is a delightful compliment to its oenologists and most of all, to all the connoisseurs of the good wine in Bulgaria.

