Camp Carnival: This Video covers all the goings on at Camp Carnival. It includes interviews with the Camp Chief, Provincial Commissioner and many of the participants. It gives you a great flavour of buzz that this Camp caused in the Northern Province

Camp North East: This video includes footage from the recent Camp North East which took place recently in Portlick campsite. The video contains interviews with some of the youth members and camp staff who took part in the camp. It gives a great insight into the weekend long camp

National Council 2012 Some chat and footage taken at National Council 2012. This includes feedback from both youth and adult members on what is the Public Perception of Scouting Ireland. Some very interesting comments. It also includes an interview with Pat Rabbitte Minister for Communications by the Communications Commissioner.

Ardgillian Demesne and Castle really didn't know what hit it over the June Bank Holiday Weekend, when Scouting Irelands, 2nd JamÓige came to visit. From midday on Friday 1st June, almost 3,000 cub scouts and their scouters started to arrive, and what started off as a field overlooking the Irish Sea turned into a sea of tents.

The opening ceremony was held at the main stage which over looked the castle to one side and the coast to the other. David our camp chief took the opportunity to introduce himself and his team, and the Chief Scout along with the Mayor of Fingal officially opened the camp, by lighting up the castle. We also had a podcast from Jedward, much to everyone's delight. Just before it was over, Balbriggan treated us to a lovely surprise by having a fireworks display.

Saturday morning saw the cub scouts head off for the first of their programme bases, Brobdingnag, Lilliput, Swallow and Blefuscu. Brobdingnag was the land of the Giants, Lilliput the land of the little people, Swallow, named after one of the ships from Gullivers Travels, introduced many of the cub scouts to different types of navigation for the first time and finally Blefuscu where pioneering was the project of choice.

Even though there was heavy rain on Saturday night, this didn't stop the trade fair from going ahead, where many items were bought and sold using Lillipunts, our very own currency.

Unfortunately the weather didn't calm down and as a result many groups choose to leave during the night and into Sunday, as well as many Beaver Scouts colony's deciding not to travel. However those that stayed and arrived on Sunday had a fantastic day moving around the bases, many of which had been moved inside just in case.

The closing ceremony was a great success with everyone taking part in a drumming session and even Dustin the Turkey popped in via skype to say 'Hi'.

farewell to the remaining groups, who took part in some science experiments and other activities before they took the long road home.

The programme of activities were designed to facilitate the various age ranges attending with Beaver Scouts taking part in activities catered for their young age, while the older sections activities were more appropriate to their stagesof development.

There was a Carnival theme throughout the weekend with a special night of fun on Saturday night when everyone was entertained at the Theme night party which included several performances by Lords of Strut

(an acrobatic comedy duo) and a Kenneth O'Regan (Fire Poi) as well as the usual carnival booths.

This was the first camp to adopt an Inter Agency approach where external agencies such as companies with Adventure skills expertise were used as well as other staturary agencies such as Northern Ireland Fire and Rescue Service. Northern Ireland Ambulance Service, Irish coastguard and the PSNI, etc.

The emergency services were also involved in working with the organisers in a car crash reconstruction to promote safe use of mobile phones while driving and the potential consequences of not abiding by the law. The PSNI helicoptor also landed giving the scouts an opportunity to get to see it up close and ask questions to the pilot and get some photos taken. Everyone was treated to a fantastic fireworks display at both the opening and closing ceremonies.

A Camp Chief's Challenge was introduced where scouts could complete a number of challenges to earn the much sought after special badge that could only be presented by the Camp Chief.

Why Have a Identity Zone?

Our identity is important. It affects how people think and feel about Scouting Ireland and is largely formed by what we do "offer adventure to young people".

But our communications are important too. They need to express the same scouting values: fun, friendship and adventure.

What's in the Identity Zone? Contained within the Identity Zone will be 5 distinct areas: -

- Our Brand: This area will include. an overview of what, how and why we need branding. It also includes the two main brand manuals for you to download.
- Graphics: Within this area will include downloads for all graphics in a variety of formats. Currently we have included all Graphic Formats for our Emblem and logo
- Document Templates: This area will when populated house downloadable templates for all the word documents, power point presentations and other various templates.
- Media Centre: Within this area we will include hi res photos, video promos, web resources and print centre.

Recruitment: This area will house all items that can be used for recruitment purposes such as our recruitment leaflets, Posters etc. We are currently developing all the content for this area and we will be adding to this when content is produced. If you feel there is some other resource that needs developing and included then please contact me at communications@ scouts.ie

Also as part of this you may have noticed a change to our side bar. As this was getting cluttered we have streamlined it so as only the pages that you are working on are highlighted whereas the other elements shrink back to just the page heading. If you want to go to a different page just click on the heading and that menu will then appear and all others will shrink back to page headings. Hopefully this will help you with your ease of navigating around the pages and sub pages.

The Identity Zone can be accessed from the resources tab on the main menu.

Cub Scouts are given more responsibility and more say in the running of the programme and as a result can do more. Responsibility is the key to helping the Cub Scout grow as it teaches them to look after themselves and to look out for others. They spend more time working in small groups and making decisions as a team. Each Six has a leader (Sixer) and assistant leader (Seconder). Every Cub Scout should have a job to do in the Six and they should be given more responsible jobs as they progress. The Sixer's Council should meet periodically to chat about bigger issues or topics and to guide the direction of programme. Scouters should ensure that each Cub Scout is given the chance to take on additional responsibility as they develop and the chance to act as the leader of a small group on a regular basis when they may ware the Youth Leaders neckerchief.

Getting out into Nature is what Cub Scouting is all about. There is so much to explore in nature and the Cub Scout Programme will help the Cub Scout what to look out for. You can see Cub Scouts in action on JamÓige – which is a Giant camp for Cub scouts and normally has over 2000 Cub Scouts camping together. National Cub Scouting days as well as Pack Holidays also are typical activities for a Cub Scout to go on

Promise & Law, Prayer

It is vital to select the right simple words & symbols to convey and help recall the core ideas within the Scout Law & Promise, they provide a moral framework for our Movement. These words and associated symbols need to be repeated in the everyday programme.

Example: A rhyme for the parts of the Law, a symbol for the Promise such as the Scout Sign or a candle flame.

The Scout Promise is a symbol that unites us with all other Scouts around the world.

Symbols can help us to understand the Scout Law & Promise, but it's possibly more important that the Scout Law & Promise are seen as one of the most important parts of the Symbolic Framework that we inherit.

Cub Scout Promise

I promise that I will do my best To do my duty to God To serve my community To help other people and To live by the Cub Scout law

Cub Scout Law

Cub Scouts are Friendly
Cub Scouts are Kind
Cub Scouts are Honest
Cub Scouts can be Trusted

Cub Scout Prayer

Dear Lord
Help me to do what is right
To help other people
To serve my community
And to live by the Cub Scout Law.

The Scout Method is the way of delivering the programme to young people. The Scout Method is composed of eight parts which are equally important and collectively implemented make Scouting what it is. It is through the use of the Scout Method that Scouting achieves its aims in developing young people.

King Abdul Aziz Centre for National Dialogue

Castlesaunderson "A campsite for Peace and Reconciliation"
This was the keystone sentence in obtaining grant aid for the campsite. Scouting Ireland is expected to follow through on this as part of the 3.2m grant from SEPUB.

I obtained funding from outside Scouting Ireland to pay for those attending Saudi Training at their centre for Dialogue, no cost to S.I. (apt. 25k). 12 from Ireland and 18 from South East Asia. We introduced well with those from Asia and friendships were made. Training started each day at 8am finishing at 2pm. This is a certified course and all participants had to make individual presentations before a Master Trainer.

All S.I. participants have been certified.

Those attending:

- P/C North & North East Wendy Mollow, James O'Toole
- Trainer: V Heaney North East

- C/P/Trainee: Jackie Walsh
- Camp Chief Castlesaunderson -Tony Smith
- Manager Castlesaunderson: Finbar Gettins
- Programme Castlesaunderson: Gerry Finnegan
- Northern Ireland Scout Council Andy Clark
- Northern Ireland Scout Council -Joan Reid
- Programme S.I. Collie Kavanagh
- Professional M.I. Trainer Eamon Conway
- CEO S.I. J Lawlor
- · Chief Scout MJ Shinnick

The team attending was built around those with day to day input to Castlesaunderson, North South Scouting input, Child Protection Support, Spiritual input and national input, medium to long term on this project.

Training:

- 1. A bridge across two continents
- 2. Effective dialogue rules and principles
- 3. Jusur Project You and I
- 4. Guide to successful Intercultural Dialogue
- 5. Effective Listening
- 6. Verbal and Non Verbal Skills and their application

This team will over the coming months complete and develop a programme specific to Castlesaunderson. Based around the training and books supplied by Saudi Dialog Centre.

We will design and publish our own booklets and I have secured funding since my return for this.

The work is only new starting, however it sits very well with our funders SEPUB that a high level team undertook this and that it relates directly to Castlesaunderson and report on same at next steering Committee meeting in Cavan.

We have developed good contact directly with Scouting in Saudia Arabia and their "Messengers of Peace" Programme.

A proposed visit to Ireland by Vice President and "Head of Messengers of Peace" facility, to set up in Zurich is proposed for June end with a visit to

NMC Lay a wreath at the Memorial for The Lancastria

At the June NMC the Chief Scout accompanied by the NMC took time out from their meeting to lay a wreath at the Memorial for the Lancastria which is situated outside the Millennium Building in Larch Hill.

the story goes on.... The Lancastria was commandeered during the early stages of the second world war as a troop ship and was on active duty at Dunkirk in 1940. However on 17th June of that year it was bombed off the coast of Brittany by a German plane and sunk almost immediately. There was over 6.000 men, and some women and children on board,....over 3,000 lost their lives! It was such a tragedy at the outset of the war that the British government tried to keep it under wraps....the morale of the Nation was at stake.....but in July the word

The trip was a huge success, but got out...and photographs, which had been taken by a guy named Clements [the photo accompanying this article is an actual photo of the Lancastria].

So why the anchor memorial at Larch Hill? well, the money collected for the trip to Rome was so much that CBSI {as it was then} decided to buy Larch Hill with the leftovers. So next time you are in Larch Hill, spend a moment and share a thought for the men who died, and the scouts who sailed, and the people who gave so generously, and the leaders who had the forethought enough to buy the land at Larch Hill for scouting!

The Story behind the Memorial

In 1932 the Irish scouts were invited to go on a pilgrimage [or a trip] to Rome for an audience with the Pope. This was an extraordinary event in the history of Ireland and Scouting and people [Irish businessmen etc] from all over the world, particularly America were delighted to contribute to the cost of the trip. The Lancastria was a cruise ship from the Cunard line and it was upon this ship that the scouts set off for Rome.

Junior Paddlefest ... so what's it "There is nothing – absolutely nothing – half so much worth doing as simply messing about in boats." all about?

(From The Wind in the Willows)

In his much-loved book, writer Kenneth Grahame might well have been referring to Paddlefest, Ireland's biggest Paddling event which takes place each year in Co. Wicklow.

Now in its 5th year and growing in popularity, attendance numbers last vear saw over one thousand people on site. Paddlefest is a major event for all young people interested in any form of kayaking.

The idea for Paddlefest was formed by Kayak Instructors working with Junior Wild Water Kayak

Club members at pool sessions throughout the winter months. With a huge level of co operation between Instructors and the WWKC Junior officer at the time the idea emerged that the Club would host a weekend for Juniors .Then, with the assistance of other Clubs, Instructors, Coaches and Volunteers a weekend with every possible kayaking discipline on offer evolved.

Paddlefest is unique in that it is entirely staffed by volunteers; all equipment is generously provided by clubs from all over the country. It offers opportunities for each young person to try out general purpose, open canoeing, slalom, canoe polo, wild water, marathon racing and freestyle whilst interacting in age appropriate groups.

The site chosen for to host this event is situated in Rathdrum. Co. .Wicklow, a family friendly campsite that is closed to other campers for the duration of the event, ensuring a safe and secure location for all the young people camping. Paddlefest is open to all young people between the ages of 10 and 18yrs who hold current membership of Canoeing Ireland and have been assessed to level 2 standard.

Along with the increased interest from kayak clubs around the country, there has been much greater participation from members of Scouting Ireland, both junior and adult. We saw representation from four different Scout Groups right across the age ranges with attendance coming in at just under one hundred Scouting Ireland members in 2011. With instruction and equipment on offer for the whole weekend, Paddlefest offers a great package especially for Groups who do not have their own equipment. And it is obviously working – we've had some great feedback from Scout Groups whose members have been bitten by the paddling bug – and yes, it can be contagious!

Any further questions, please feel free to email the Paddlefest Team and we will endeavour to answer them as best we can. Yours in Paddling Maria (5th Port) paddlefest@hotmail.com

In May of 1907 while on Holiday in Ireland BP met and became friends with Mr and Mrs Charles van Raalte and they invited him to visit them at their country home on Brownsea Island. As a boy BP had sailed in Poole Harbour with his brothers and knew the Island, they had in fact made a landing on the beech. He was convinced that Brownsea Island would be the ideal location for the camp, isolated but not to far away from civilisation to get provisions to. Baden Powell sent a letter to Charles van Raalte asking for permission to use the island and this produced an immediate response. Of course he could come. To help with plans van Raalte enclosed a booklet about the island and its History which had at the time been recently published. The more that BP discovered about the place, the more certain he became that this little piece of ground a mile and half long and about three quarters of a mile wide could not be bettered and it was agreed to hold the camp there in August 1907

The camp consisted of 20 boys form all kinds of backgrounds, 10 of them were from the Public schools of Eton and Harrow and were the sons of Army friends and other acquaintances of BP while of the remaining ten, 7 were from the Bournemouth Boys Brigade and 3 from the Poole Boys Brigade. The boys were divided up into 4 Patrols called Curlews, Ravens, Wolves and Bulls. These names are still used by many troops around the country. The senior boy in each patrol was appointed as Patrol Leader and was given a flag with the animal of their Patrol on it. Each patrol Leader was given full responsibility for the behaviour of his Patrol at all times, in camp and in the field. The Patrol was the unit to work or play, and each patrol was camped in a separate spot.

From that day to this the basics of going on summer camp have not changed a great deal. The style of equipment and gear may have become more elaborate but there is little doubt that the fun and excitement of going on summer camp today was the same as for those young boys going on that first scout camp in 1907. Scouting Ireland wish all Groups happy Camping over the Summer Months

Why would scouting Ireland want to be involved in the Volvo race? That is simple to answer; it is because we share many things in common. Our programme has elements which involve sea, land and air and it is the sea element that we celebrate with the Volvo race. Every weekend and indeed some weekdays our scouts can be found on the rivers. lakes and sea around Ireland on a regular basis whether it is in a one man canoe or a sea going yacht. It is also a year when we celebrate 100 years of sea scouting in Ireland.

County.

The Volvo race is about challenge, it is about working together as a team to overcome great odds to reach a goal. Scouting Ireland is also about challenge; it is about working together as a team at all levels of the organisation and most of all it is about reaching its goal knowing that it has done its best.

Scouting Ireland is not seen by the public very often, only at public events like this and always well presented in uniform. However, what the public do not see is the members of Scouting Ireland taking part in a wide ranging active and adventurous outdoor programme around the countryside of Ireland. We hope to give the people of Galway an insight into what Scouting Ireland is about, through our water activities both on Lough Atalia and on the Bay, so famous around the world. We also hope to give a taste of camp life and some activities in our base camp in South Park. Part of this will see scouts make contact with other scouts around the world in our ham radio base. Our new friendship with the Claddagh boatmen will, we hope, see more scouts participating in water activities and we thank them for their support.

Finally, the Volvo race motto of "Lets do it Galway" is a shout for Galway to support this great challenge, but we in scouting Ireland know that "We can do it" and look forward to the challenge of doing so.

Over the last 80 years the group have remained strong and active as well as an important part of the Community in Trampre Community in Tramore.

On Sunday the 17th as part of their 80 years celebrations the group paraded up main street Tramore led by Ben Spillane one of the Rover Scouts who played a steady marching beat on a drum that was brought home from the 2011 World Scout Jamboree in Sweden. The drum was made by Scouts from Colombia and was given to one of the 8th Group who attended the WSJ.

At the start of the Mass two flags the old and the new were brought to the altar and placed on a table. The old flag that has led the 8th Catholic Boy Scout Group since 1980 which was designed and made by Sr. Marie Mc Guinness of the Mercy Convent Waterford. The new flag representing Scouting Ireland the new association that was formed in 2004 was designed and made by Fiona O'Neill and is partly based on the new Group badge that was designed by the youth of 8th Tramore under the guidance of Henry O'Suillavan. During the Mass the new flag was blessed by Monsignor Nicholas O'Mahony and this flag then led the Group out of the church to the Canons field where a day's celebration was held. It was great to see members of some of the other Groups from the County as well as members of the Scout County Team in attendance at the mass.

The Leaders, Ventures and Rover's started arriving at the Canons field from 8am to set up the main features of the camp site. With flag poles, boundaries, marquees, burco, tables and seating all in readiness just in case the weather changed.

In the large marquee a museum was set up with photos and written history of the group dating back to 1932. On display also were certificates, pennants, paintings, knot boards, log's, badge displays, neckerchiefs from various camps and much much more. Through out the day there was a constant flow of people in the marquee with past Scout's, Leaders, Family of members who have passed and the youth and the parents of the group today. The group also had a marquee set up with Tea Coffee and biscuits as well as juice and water which was defiantly needed as the weather was fantastic. Through out the day the field was active as the Scouts section aged 11 to 15 set up Icelandic tents and a half barrel to cook sausages on and they also showed the younger sections and some of the older members how to build a friction bridge. The Cub section aged 9 to 11 set up large dome tents and built a table where they could sit and relax, the cubs also played games and enjoyed the day. The Beaver section aged 7 to 9 also set up large dome tents and helped to decorate the camp site before playing games and generally having great fun. At lunch time the feeding of the troops was accomplished with ease thanks to Dooley's chipper on Main Street.

After Lunch the County Commissioner (C.C) of Waterford Scout County Brian Fanning and the Provincial Commissioner of the St. East John Whatmore along with the Mayor of Tramore Joe Conway were in attendance and each of them gave great praise to the Leaders past and present of the 8th Tramore group as well as the youth that were in attendance. The Mayor also read some history that he had researched on the group which was very interesting and will be going into our history that is being compiled. The C.C awarded Peter Hewision his 10 years service medal and presented Tom O'Neill with a special thank you pin for the work he had put into the organisation of the day. Members of all sections and some of the leaders were invested into the group and made their Scout promise on the flag. It was great to see Tommy Kavanagh in his full C.B.S.I uniform in attendance for most of the day, and the story's he had to tell about past events etc. were brilliant. Most of the youth in the group had never seen the uniform he was wearing other then in photos so this again helped to link the past to the present.

After the investitures and speeches were finished the birthday cake was brought out by Caroline Cahill the Group Leader and one of the Cubs was given the honour of cutting it. While the cake was been sliced up members of the Ventures and Rovers joined by Emily O'Neill put on a fantastic fire display with fire poi and fire staff routines. This was a fantastic end to a fantastic day's celebration of 80 years. All that was left was to take everything down again and put it all away until the following weekend when the Cubs are going to Mellary for their annual summer camp. Thank you has to go to all the leaders who give up their time for the 8th Tramore group, when they joined they were told it is only an hour a week however once scouting is in your blood it is a life time commitment. Check out photos of the event on "Tramore scouts 8th" face book page. There are also photos and news paper clippings going all the way back to 1933. If you have any photos, news paper clippings or memories that you are willing to share contact us on the face book page or email Tom O'Neill on hairyscoutguy@eircom.net.

When each six/clann were told to move their sleeping bags and gear bags inside, it appeared as if they just wanted to go into their sleeping bags, such was the excitement. However when it was announced that there was to be an explorer trek through the woods, they soon changed their minds. They had a full and varied programme over the weekend which included of course a visit to the wildlife park just adjacent and also a trip by train to Cobh and the heritage centre.

The scouting end was not forgotten either with a collection of leaves from a great variety of trees around the site. The singing at the campfire on Saturday night was just great with all joining in or at least attempting to pick up the words of new songs and yells.

Our thanks again go the leaders for giving of their time in organising and running the weekend and indeed a very good active programme over the year.

turned out to be an excellent day with great activities followed by a drumming session and the closing ceremony that included an impressive fireworks display.

Monday bought sunshine and the happy campers helped pack up the gear, bounce on some bouncy castles and even got their leader soaked on an obstacle course. The weekend ended with 2nd Cork receiving the Spirit Award for their sub camp Rock-a-Bill campsite. Congratulations to all the cubs and well done for braving the weather despite the chaos. The memories will linger on for many years and no doubt legs and tails will be added to it, but they can all say 'We survived'

However overnight chaos broke out across the camp site as high winds and rain came rushing in from the sea. However we are glad to report that the 2nd Cork managed to stay safe and warm if not dry in the middle of it all. Unfortunately some groups did not fare to well and Sunday morning saw the early departures of many groups, the 2nd Cork however decided we'd already braved the worst and were happy to stay. Sunday

16th Kildare Kilcock Climb Carrauntoohil

Recently the 16th Kildare (Kilcock) Scouts climbed Ireland's highest mountain, Carrauntoohil.

After many months of training and practice the Scouts travelled to Kerry on Friday 15th June and climbed Carrauntoohil on Saturday 16th June. They ascended via the infamous Devil's Ladder and descended via a route known as 'the zig zags'. Conditions on the day were challenging with rain and wind for a lot of the way up. The way down was a bit better and it even occasionally briefly cleared up enough for us to see some of the fantastic scenery in around the majestic mountain. This challenging climb was a wonderful achievement for all involved. The expedition was kindly partfunded by the Department of Children and Youth Affairs Local Youth Club Grant Scheme via Kildare VEC.

Colin Heas Elected Commissioner

There is great jubilation in Cork Scouting with the appointment of Colin Heas as County Commissioner for the Lee Valley County. Colin is a dedicated leader and has a wealth of knowledge over a wide area of scouting. He joined scouting as a Macaoimh of the 34th Cork (Ss. Peter & Paul's) in 1976 and remained loyal to that section for many years. He was on the leadership team of the 34th Cork until sadly the group closed the section in 2002.

He joined the warden crew of Kilcully campsite in 1987 and one could say that he had a fierce 'Grá' for the place and served as camp chief for a double term from 2002 until 2008. In 2003 he held to re-establish the 5th Cork (Lough) scout group and has been their Group leader since. He has never waned in learning new skills and keeping up to-date. He is not alone a woodbadge holder (Leader training insignia) he is also a trainer of trainers and serves on the provincial training team. Colin has a love of the water and holds the Irish Sailing Association Advanced Powerboat Certificate along with the Irish Sailing Association Safety Boat Coxswain Certificate and Occupational First Aid Certificate (Emergency Skills Level 6). He was one of the main instigators in establishing the Inisleena Scout water activities centre at Inniscarra in 2010.

On the awards side he holds the Bronze and Silver medals of Merit along with the gold 25 year service award for adult leadership.

but it never dampened their enthusiasm and the carrot was the clutch of new Adventure Skills badges at the end. SALT Island is owned by the Natural trust and has a small one roomed bothy on the edge of the shore. It is ideal for small groups but it is important to have a qualified canoeist go with the group due to the massive tidal flow around Strangford which is treacherous at the best of times.

During the time spend on the island everyone threw themselves at the tasks set by the leader team and when the time came to return to "civilization" all the group felt a great sense of achievement, So if you want to know how to set up a shelter and administer first aid after being attacked by carnivorous saber tooth sheep (one of the many tasks organised by the leader team) or paddle a Canadian canoe and sleep underneath it for a night or build a raft from a few logs washed up on the beach and a roll of twine, just give us a call and we'll point you in the right direction.

94th Walkinstown Cub Scouts Chief Scout Award

On Wednesday 27th June, over 100 people gathered in the 94th Walkinstown Scout Hall to celebrate the achievements of 12 members of the Cub Pack.

For the first time in the Groups' History no less that a group of 12 cubs received the Cub Scout Chief Scout Award, and the occasion was marked by a ceremony attended by their Chief Scout Mentor (Ms Susan Seargant), the Group Leader (Mr Stephen Carey) and the County Commissioner (Mr Pat Mc Cartin)

The 12 cub scouts undertook a series of challenges to achieve the Chief Scout Award Some as a group and others personal. Some scout skill related and others community based. Those that spoke on the night praised the extent of work and the excellent presentation of the projects.

The names of the 12 Cub Scouts will now be mounted onto a specially commissioned plaque displayed in the scout hall. The 12 recipients are: Kyle Alkaadiri; Ryan Baker; Aodhán Boylan; Gary Buckley; Philip Byrne; Etienne Gill; Paul Gleeson; Callum Mc Donnell; Kory Mooney; Kian Murphy; Adam Riordan and Jack Petherick, photographed below with their cub leaders, the Group Leader and the County Commissioner.

Memories of 1972

1972 was the year when Patrick J. Duggan was chairman of the Cork Diocesan Council and Dermot F. O'Mahoney was Vice-Chairman. Treasurer was Denis Barrett followed by Joe O'Keefe, while Walter McGrath was Diocesan Commissioner and Donal Murphy was Camp Chief at Kilcully. The membership stood at an all time high of 1,500 boys in 22 troops and over 160 leaders.

In February the annual dinner dance for the 25th Cork (Cobh) was held at the Commodore Hotel with the tickets costing £1. 80. Victory in the annual Fr. Dalton Competition went to the 4th Cork Troop (Ss. Peter & Paul's) while the Venturer Group trophy went to Michael Daly's team from St. Finbarr's Venturer group. The Big, Big Charity Walk was held over 20 miles on the 23rd April and raised £7,000. It started at the Hut, Summerhill North and went via, Riverstown, Glanmire, Knockraha, Buck Leary's Cross to White's Cross finishing at the Glen Hall. First home was John Lapthorne. The Dan Curtin Memorial Cup was presented by Capt. Con McCarthy to Paul Dennehy from the 3rd Cork Troop (St. Patrick's).

It was the year when Hubert O'Donovan, founder of Kilcully Campsite died and the year the 8th Cork Troop (Cathedral) won the Cork Diocesan Shield. The 'Melvin' All-Ireland Scoutcraft Competition was won by the 18th Cork (Fermoy) with the 37th Cork (Ss. Peter & Paul's) runners up.

Dermot O'Mahoney was unanimously elected National Treasurer, a post he held for six years. It was also the year of the opening of the new centre at Larch Hill by His Excellency, Eamonn de Valera, Uachtaran na h Eireann. The 15th Cork Troop (South Parish) under Scoutmaster Frank Looney changed the colour of their neckerchief from sky blue to Brown with a dark blue border.

Blast from the past

St. Patrick's Venturer group was launched with a 20 strong group and Fr. Liam Leahy from the 21st Cork (Mayfield) was ordained a priest and bound for Arisona, USA. It was a very historic year in that Walter McGrath who had been Commissioner for 21 years stepped down and Gerard Dowling was appointed in his place. Going forward a Commissioner could only serve two three year terms.

The year ended with a three day Bazaar held at Cork City Hall and opened by the Lord Mayor Cllr. Seán O'Leary. I hope some of these events will bring memories for our readers.
