PLAYERS CONTRACTED UNDER THE ELIGIBILITY RULE

Under the ANZ Premiership Eligibility Rule, every team is entitled to contract one New Zealand citizen ineligible as of right, and then apply to the NNZ Eligibility Committee for an additional ineligible athlete (NZ citizen ineligible or overseas ineligible). Alternatively, they may contract one ineligible (overseas) athlete by right.

Citizen ineligible means a citizen who does not meet the International Netball Federation Regulations for eligibility to play for New Zealand in the Netball World Cup.

An overseas ineligible athlete is not a citizen of New Zealand.

FAST FACTS

Yvette McCausland-Durie returns to the helm of the Central Pulse after leading them from 2009-2011.

Pulse shooter Ameliaranne Ekenasio was named on the original roster, but has been replaced by Tiana Metuarau after announcing she is pregnant with her first child.

Cathrine Tuivaiti makes the move to Wellington after being a foundation player for the Mystics.

The Pulse have gathered a wealth of experience in their coaching line-up, able to call on former Silver Ferns Sandra Edge, Irene van Dyk and Waimarama Taumaunu (Director of High Performance).
