DAILY POINT OF LIGHT
HONOREES

PEOPLE CHANGING THE WORLD
THROUGH SERVICE

1989 through 2011

President George H. W. Bush was the first president in American history to institute a daily presidential recognition program from the White House, conferring 1,020 Daily Point of Light Awards between 1989 and 1993. Following his presidency, a team of researchers selected 250 individuals from the 1,020 award winners to interview in depth. The purpose of the effort was to explore the common journey of America's first Points of Light. Called "The Community of Light Project," the work was supported by corporate, foundation and individual funders. Researchers found that these Points of Light demonstrated a set of traits and behaviors that enabled their successful voluntary service.

DAILY POINT OF LIGHT HONOREE TRAITS*

Able to Act on Faith. Points of Light are capable of going forward despite overwhelming uncertainty about the outcome.

Bored or Restless at Some Level. Although active, something is missing and yearned for in their life.

Likes to See Others Do Well. They measure their own success largely by the achievements of others.

Independent and Quietly Confident. In a non-public way, they are remarkably sure of themselves.

Energetic and Enjoys Practical, Hard Work. Hard work that they love is the key to their success.

Guided and Sustained by Deeply-Held Beliefs. Moral, ethical, spiritual considerations matter deeply.

Helping Is Not New. Grew up in households or knew someone well where helping was a way of life.

Positive and Patient. Able to know progress is being made and see it before it is apparent to others.

Empathy Based on Personal Experience. A special kinship is felt with those facing a challenge.

Ready to Engage Talents, Interests and Gifts. In what they enjoy is the power to make a difference.

DAILY POINT OF LIGHT HONOREE BEHAVIORS*

Irrationally or Non-Rationally Committed. Will begin and keep going when others will not.

Targeting the Roots of the Problem. Focus on the system of fundamental needs, not symptoms.

Personal Relationships, not Bureaucratic Programs. Working on a human scale, one-on-one.

Action and Outcomes, not Talk, Process or Structure. Results matter, not impressions.

Wary of Educated Incapacity. Hands-on experience and the dictates of common sense matter.

Profoundly Respectful of Others. See in others dignity and resilience despite often devastating trials.

Not Afraid to Have Fun Doing Serious Work. A sense of humor and friendships despite the demands.

Highly Resourceful, but Accepting of Their Own Limitations. Creative, effective, and realistic.

Today, Points of Light Institute continues to recognize Daily Point of Light honorees for their voluntary action. This is a part of Points of Light Institute's work to inspire, equip and mobilize people to take action that changes the world. More than 4,500 Daily Point of Light honorees have been honored to date with causes as diverse as environmental protection, education initiatives, economic security for families and disaster relief and recovery. Together, these honorees represent a larger network of organizations and individuals spread out among the nation doing good.
