

Knickerbocker Holding Company.

Vincent Astor, Nicholas Biddle and S. B. Thorn are the Directors in the Knickerbocker-Forty-second Street Company, formed at Albany for the purpose of taking over from James B. Regan the lease of the Knickerbocker Hotel, at the southeast corner of Broadway and Forty-second Street, and altering it for business purposes. The company is capitalized at $5,000,000.

The New York Times

Published: June 15, 1920

Copyright © The New York Times