running alternately along Francis Lewis boulevard and Stopia parkway. This was the original route for the line prior to the economy wave instituted in Queens bus operations last Feb. 3.

In making the announcement today the Transit Authority said it had investigated complaints about the Q-16 hazards along narrow 166th street and decided to return the vehicles to the main thoroughfares.

Beginning Sunday the buses will travel along Utopia parkway, between 26th avenue and Willets Point boulevard, and along Francis Lewis boulevard and Willets Point boulevard, between 29th avenue and Fort Totten. TA Chairman Charles L.
