MIDEM Radio Gets New Look For 1996

by Machgiel Bakker

PARIS - Next year's MIDEM Radio conference will take on a new image.

The Reed MIDEM organisation has terminated its agreement with Unique Broadcasting and has joined forces with Paris-based Vive La Radio, the non-profit organisation which groups together all the different radio operators in France.

According to MIDEM international sales director

Christophe Blum, next year's conference will have a European focus and will promote dialogue between radio and the other segments of the music entertainment business.

This means that a main element of the conference will be to bring the radio business in direct communication with A&R executives, music publishers, tour promoters, sponsors and the artist community.

The Voice To Lose Its Principle Frequency

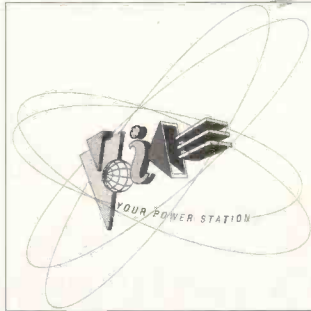

by Charles Ferro

COPENHAGEN - Denmark's leading local radio station The Voice is to lose its main frequency in the Copenhagen area on August 1, affecting some 50,000 of its listeners.

The decision has been made by the country's Culture Ministry, which has also announced its intention to shut down Radio Mojn's Channel 2, also a local private.

The Voice will still retain its frequency north of the capital on Voice Nordsjaelland, and Copenhagen listeners with satellite connections can tune into Voice of Scandinavia.

The station was informed by the local radio authority in March that its broadcasting licence would not be renewed as it allegedly carried centralised programming and did not devote enough time to issues of local interest. The case was taken to appeal at the Culture Ministry, which upheld the decision.

In an interview with the weekly Mandags News, Voice director Erik Hansen said the news was "horrible and grotesque" and appeared to be a political move to control local radio's editorial content.

Steen Soedergreen, chairman of the commercial radio organisation KOMM, says the decision is particularly regrettable as it comes at a time when new local radio legislation is on the way. Soedergreen is also the MD of Radio Mojn, which is facing problems of its own.

The Culture Ministry's central committee, which deals with the media, gave Radio Mojn just one week's notice to close down its Channel 2. Mojn was also accused of using the same programming for its two stations.

Fun, NRJ Win The Youth Vote

by Emmanuel Legrand

PARIS - Radio is more than just an entertainment source to the younger generation, it is a point of information linking them to the rest of the world, according to a Médiamétrie survey.

The French study, based on a panel of 4,800 young people aged 8-19 and conducted during the 1995 first quarter, shows that EHR stations NRJ and Fun Radio best answer the needs of today's youth.

Médiamétrie says that 68% of the 8-10 age group listens to radio daily and this figure jumps to 95% in the 14-19 demo.

Lois Lane Delivers A Radio-Genic Pop Song

AMSTERDAM - "Radio-genic" is a characteristic which a single either has or doesn't.

Lois Lane's CNR Music label debut single Tonight has that magic formula and is currently a massive radio hit in Holland.

With a wink in the direction of German electro disco, Tonight ranks next to Blondie's Atomic and Blur's Girls And Boys. See page 9

Court Settles Dispute Over Stars' Unheard Releases

A four-year dispute between Sony Entertainment and the Clark Entertainment Group has been settled, paving the way for previously unknown recordings by the likes of Elvis Presley, Louis Armstrong and Simon And Garfunkel to be released. The 3,000 tapes in question were purchased by Clark Enslin, a New Jersey record producer. However, Sony contended that since the tapes had originally been owned by a Columbia Records recording studio which had gone bankrupt, the tapes belonged to Sony. The court ruled that Enslin could sell the tapes and release tracks with permission from the artists or their estates, but also awarded partial copyright ownership to Sony. Therefore the Clark Entertainment Group, which has in the meantime gone bankrupt, must still strike a deal with Sony before the mystery music can be publicly heard.

Pickwick Name Change

As part of an extensive change in strategy, budget label Pickwick has changed its name to Carlton Home Entertainment. After playing a key role in the UK budget market for some 35 years the Pickwick group has been split into repertoire divisions. All pop music activities are now the responsibility of the newly-launched Carlton Records division, while the classical music operations have been merged into the new Carlton Classics division.

Major EMI UK Overhaul Spawns New Label Group

by Chris Marlowe

LONDON - EMI Records UK's president/CEO Jean-Francois Cecillon has initiated a major restructuring of the company which will see the creation of a new frontline label group known as EMI Premier.

The new group will focus primarily on MOR, core catalogue and specialised labels like Capitol Nashville, Christian Music Group and Hemisphere, along with the current EMI Classics and Virgin Classics labels.

Roger Lewis has been named managing director of EMI Premier. Tris Penna, is now director of A&R with responsibility for classical, MOR, core catalogue and special projects, will report directly to Lewis, as will Thierry Panetier, now director pop marketing.

Director Hemisphere and associated labels Gerald Seligman and Tim Chacksfield, manager catalogue, will report to Penna. The Beatles, Apple and Bluenote repertoire will transfer to the Parlophone label, but product manager Wendy Furness will retain responsibility.

Meanwhile, Richard Cottrell, formerly sales director, has been promoted to the new position of senior director commercial operations, a function which will integrate sales, distribution and trade marketing.

Steve Harrold was appointed director commercial marketing, with responsibility for TV marketing, joint ventures, premiums, licensing, clubs and new business development. Director EMI TV Barry McCann, director premiums, licensing and clubs Keith Hilton and manager new business development Conor Nolan will all report to Harrold as will Roger Woodhead, general manager Music For Pleasure.

There were many other changes announced, including around 15 redundancies. The company says more changes are to follow.

Cecillon, who was promoted to his current position in May, says, "My vision is to build and strengthen record labels which are artist-led and music-driven. I am confident that these changes and new appointments will further reinforce our position as a creatively-driven and commercially-strong company."

In a separate announcement, Gareth Hopkins was appointed to the position of VP legal & business affairs, Europe effective August 7. He will be responsible for all of EMI's business affairs activities throughout Europe and the UK.

Morris Is Back With New Record Label

by Machgiel Bakker

AMSTERDAM - Less than three weeks after his sudden departure as chairman/CEO of Warner Music US, Doug Morris has returned to the music business with a new label and a new corporate company behind him, MCA Music Entertainment.

Based in New York, the as-yet unnamed label is a joint venture agreement between Morris and Al Teller, the chairman/CEO of the MCA Music Entertainment Group.

In the US, the label will set up its own A&R, marketing and promotion departments with the so-called "backroom functions" like finance, accounting and business affairs being handled by MCA.

In Europe, the 11 stand-alone companies of MCA Music Entertainment International will market the new label; in those markets where MCA is not yet established, MCA's distributor in Europe, BMG, will handle the new imprint.

The announcement, made on July 10, comes hot on the heels of the official launch of DreamWorks SKG—the acronym of founders Steven Spielberg, Jeffrey Katzenberg and David Geffen—which will also be handled by MCA.

Yet more new product passing through MCA's hands comes from UK indie Echo, with whom MCA recently struck a licensing deal (Music & Media, July 8).

Morris is not the first ex-Warner employee to join the ranks of MCA.

Last year, former Elektra Entertainment chairman Bob Krasnow launched Krasnow Entertainment, also funded by MCA. Ironically, Krasnow resigned from his post last summer shortly after the announcement that Morris would become chairman/CEO of Warner Music US. Krasnow would have reported to Morris in his new function.

Nazi's Could Get Danish Air Time

by Charles Ferro

COPENHAGEN - The Danish Nazi organisation DNSB may get three hours of air time twice weekly on the same frequency used by Classic Radio.

DNSB has formed an association, Radio Oasen, which has applied for permission to broadcast programmes about sub-cultures, music and interviews with young people.

Local authorities say they regret the situation, but add that they are not naive and will keep a close ear on the broadcasts to ensure that they are not used for propaganda and that they remain within the bounds of legislation, if the organisation wins permission to broadcast.

Italian Deal Expands MTV Reach By 4 Million

by Mark Dezzani

MILAN - MTV Europe's coverage in Italy has been given a boost with an agreement which will see its programmes relayed nationwide on Telepiu 3.

Cable distribution is virtually undeveloped in Italy and the new contract—effective July 1—replaced a previous arrangement which saw MTV Europe downloaded from satellite and relayed for six hours every afternoon on a string of local TV stations.

Moving Chairs

GERMANY: Antenne Bayern has appointed Thomas Ohrner to the post of head of programme production, effective immediately. Ohrner will be assisted by Dorothea Seitz and Stefan Offierowski.

Gordana Zezly has joined the Eastwest promotion office in Cologne as radio promoter for Germany's western regions. Meanwhile, Henning Mielke has joined Eastwest Records Hamburg as product manager rock/soul/folk.

ITALY: Patrizio Romano has joined publishing company MCA Music Italy as manager domestic and international repertoire.

FRANCE: Pierre-Yves Revol has been appointed president of Sud Radio in Toulouse, replacing Francis Piquemal. Freddy Thomelin is the new scheduling, news and programme director and Jacques Balaquer becomes finance and administrative director in charge of the group's affiliates.

Simon Guild, senior VP strategy and planning at MTV Europe, says one immediate result of the agreement is that the station's potential reach has risen from seven million to 11 million homes.

"Our contracts with local companies were expiring, and Telepiu's signal reaches almost 60% of the country. This deal gives us more extensive distribution and hours on a nationwide channel." In addition to afternoon relays between 13:00-19:00, MTV Europe is also rebroadcast from 24:00 to 07:00.

"It is basically a programme supply deal, Telepiu 3 was restructuring and looking for programming to strengthen the channel," says Guild, adding that the financial aspect of the deal was complicated, reportedly including a share-out of advertising revenues.

"We are conducting market research throughout July and August with focus groups to find out what type of programming the Italian audience wants." Guild adds that discussions with Telepiu included the possibility of joining a satellite delivered pay-TV package planned for next year.

It is an opportune moment to expand in Italy, comments Guild. The country's existing terrestrially transmitted music TV channel Videomusic was bought out by film producer Vittorio Cecchi Gori in March, and he intends to transform the channel into a predominantly film and sports network by the Autumn.

Telepiu—whose principle shareholders are Germany's multimedia Kirch Group (39.9%), the South African Richeumont Group (25%) and Silvio Berlusconi's Fininvest-owned RTI company (10%)—also operates two terrestrial pay-TV networks.

Compromise Could Save Radio 3

by Howell Llewellyn

MADRID - A possible compromise to controversial plans for the future of specialist music station Radio 3 has been revealed by Radio Nacional de Espana (RNE) director Diego Carcedo.

The move could bring about a truce between state-run Radio Television Española (RTVE) and Spain's indie music scene.

A plan drawn up earlier this year by RTVE, which includes RNE, called for the conversion of Radio 3 into a cultural web with university, foreign language and health programmes (Music & Media, February 11).

More than 70 independent labels formed a Radio 3 support committee to defend what is Spain's only national web devoted several hours a day to independent, alternative, ethnic and other minority interest forms of music.

Under the new plan, just four hours would be turned over to "strictly cultural programmes."

But Carcedo told a seminar earlier this month that a new plan would be presented under which the current 18 hours of music a day would be maintained.

Just four hours would be turned over to "strictly cultural programmes," including interviews with figures from the world of culture. The new plan is likely to be presented to the RTVE board in September.

Carcedo also told his audience that Spain had one of the lowest radio audiences in Europe. Quoting 1993 figures issued by European Broadcasting Union, he said that 56.4% of Spaniards listen to the radio daily, compared to 68% in France and 89% in Ireland.

Radiomafia Takes The Label Vote

In a country of five million people, Radiomafia (Finnish Broadcasting Company YLE 2, broadcast-ing nationwide) captures the country's largest daily audience, at an average of one million listeners. With a packed schedule of interviews and plenty of music—ranging from pop, dance, techno, to rock—the station provides a rich variety of youth entertainment and is a strong favourite with the local labels. Claire Weston reports.

LIKE its commercial counterparts, Radiomafia pays considerable airtime homage to the predominantly Anglo-American music streams, but "it does give us a chance to introduce new talent, which would probably not get any play on the commercial side," says PolyGram Finland product manager Aku Valta.

"The station's range of music is wide," says Valta, pointing out that the financially stable station can afford to take more musical risks.

And, with a core playlist of 45 titles and a turnover of some 20 tracks a week, the station gets through a considerable number of singles. The weekly music schedule is divided into three playlists, with 20 tracks on A rotation, 17 on B and eight on C rotation.

Playlisting early is a station policy, says Radiomafia head of music Jukka Haarma. "We try not to programme too many tracks which are already hits. And this often means going for album tracks. Early this year we programmed Bruce Springsteen's Secret Garden, for example, which we playlisted long before it came out as a single. We also like to feature album tracks from Finnish artists."

This is very much part of the public broadcaster's responsibility, he stresses. "We have a duty to maintain a broad music policy, which will give new names and sounds a chance. The challenge is to find the right balance between hits and unknown singles."

As the only national EHR broadcaster, the station does not compete head-to-head with any single station. But it makes sure its programming stands out clearly, with a strong line-up of star DJs, including Pertti Salovaara and Sami Altonen, who have both become teen idols in Finland.

The station's policy of making space—within its very broad EHR format—for different genres is also a characteristic, and one which is popular with the labels. "We use our playlist on weekdays from 06:00-19:00, but the evenings and weekends are devoted to special programmes," says Haarma.

Monday night is roots night, Wednesday night is heavy metal and guitar-oriented rock, while Friday night is dance, with Salovaara. On Saturday lunchtime there is a special pro-

Hannu Sormunen. "It also makes it easier to organise interviews with artists promoted by record labels."

With the exception of Helsinki-based Radio City, Finnish commercial stations are very conservative, as Hannu Sormunen, head of promotion at EMI Finland*, points out. "Many of the big commercial outlets consider even the Pet Shop Boys or Billy Idol as too avant-garde."

And, while Euro dance tracks feature strongly on album sales charts, Radiomafia is one of the few stations to reflect the genre's popularity in its more dance-oriented album, has already sold 40,000 copies. "Sales have definitely benefitted from the huge airplay given to his first two singles Ihana Valo in particular," says Knoppamaki.

However despite the promotional support Radiomafia provides to the labels, the general trend over the past 10 years, since the arrival of local commercial radio, is that sales have dropped.

"There is no doubt that radio airplay helps to break a band or an act, but we have also had huge airplay hits without any positive effect on sales whatsoever. Just because an act is famous on the radio it doesn't mean that it will sell albums," says Lasse Norres, head of communications at Fazer Records/Warner Music Finland.

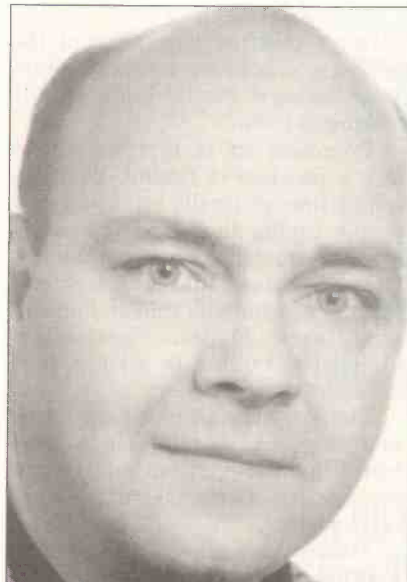

With some 50 commercial outlets in the country, he ventures to suspect that the country's population of only 5 million is being over-served by music radio. "It could be that the music supply—free of charge on radio—is far too big. As a result listeners do not feel the urge to buy records."

However, national music promoters such as PolyGram's Aku Valta still appreciate the support given to them from radio. "I am thankful that most radio stations are still keen to use local material. I only wish that Finnish TV stations were as supportive as radio stations. If they were, labels would have much more scope for promotion."

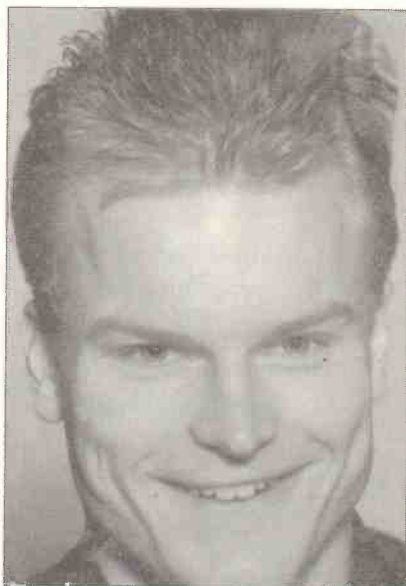

* Hannu Sormunen has since been replaced by Mii Saraskoski as head of promotion at EMI

What Makes A Good Morning Show?

Berlin is Germany's hottest radio market.

With the city still preparing for its role as the capital of a re-united Germany, growth potential is endless and competition is fierce. Ten private and two public stations broadcast from within Berlin city limits alone. How do they position themselves in the crucial early morning market? Christian Lorenz takes a look at two successful morning show concepts.

"If you win the morning you have won the day," says 104.6 RTL PD Arno Müller. "Some 80% of radio listeners tune into radio in the morning.

"The morning show is a station's calling card with the listeners. It's your first and maybe only chance to convince choosy listeners that you offer the sort of radio they want." Müller follows that "the best place to promote your own daytime programme is during your morning show. This is your chance to tell your listeners why and when it would be worth their while tuning into your station again."

Why do people switch on their radio in the first place? According to Müller, early morning listeners are occupied with only one thing, and that is getting to work on time with the least possible hassle. And they are only interested in a few things: What time is it?, What are the headlines? What's the weather like? and How bad is the traffic?"

"Radio replaces the clock for most listeners," he says. "If you are half asleep or in the shower, radio enables you to keep time without having to concentrate on it."

More so than in any other programme of the day, morning show presenters "should announce the current time absolutely every time they open their mouth."

Another way listeners keep time is to orientate themselves according to programme blocks they recognise. "Keep that in mind when you plan your programme clock," recommends Müller. "Create programme elements which serve as benchmarks. Interview at half past, horoscope at 20 to and news at 10 to the full hour. Listeners get used to these benchmarks and adopt them for their own timekeeping."

Of all benchmarks in the programming schedule, the service elements news, weather and traffic require special attention. "Refer to your service blocks as often as possible," advises Müller.

"Even if the next block is still 15 minutes away, announce it. Make your listeners aware that it's coming up." Müller is positive that any form of information is consumed easier if its presenter is not anonymous.

"Always mention the name of the person who presents a service block. Your listeners like to know who is talking to them."

Programmers of morning shows face a problem of timing. With listening time generally brief, and new people tuning in during the morning, the audience changes rapidly. "Never assume that anybody will remember what you said 10 minutes ago," says Müller. "You might already be talking to a completely different set of listeners."

Listeners travelling by car in the mornings are more likely to stay tuned in for longer, but a large percentage of Berliners use public transport.

Müller recommends short programme cycles in the mornings. "Think in 1/2 hour intervals. Introduce yourself, your colleagues, your show and what's going to happen next every 30 minutes."

And short programme cycles require brief programme blocks. News stories, interviews and gags have upper time limits. 60-90 seconds is the average length of individual items in a talk block at most Berlin stations.

Radio 100.6 MD Georg Gafron puts a strong emphasis on the journalistic quality of news features in the station's morning show "Expresso."

"No feature on "Expresso" is longer than three minutes," says Gafron. "In Berlin you have to compete non-stop for attention or you lose listeners."

The constant thread which leads through the programme cycle is the mood created by the talk/music mix and the presenters. Müller points out that "communicating the right kind of emotion to your listeners is much more important than a good gag."

He adds, "The programme has to radiate a positive mood which can be picked up regardless of where you are and what you are doing."

An important part of that positive image is social involvement in the city the show is addressed to. "Look at all the issues from the point of view of a respectable citizen," recommends Müller.

"You have to let your listeners know that you have a close personal interest in the city you're broadcasting in."

Gafron goes one step further to say that a morning show should actively "take sides with the underdogs. Normal citizens who face everyday problems like bureaucratic maltreatment."

Reporting on crime and taking an active role in supporting victims is another important issue for Gafron. Labeled as the wireless cousin to Berlin's tabloid press by its critics,

Radio 100.6's morning show "Expresso" has a strong human interest angle. Gafron points out that the concept pays off. "We continue to be the second largest station in Berlin and "Expresso" is talk of the town."

"We see ourselves as an ombudsman for Berlin's citizens," says Gafron. "Two news crews with their own mobile studios are constantly on standby. We even have our own helicopter for urgent cases."

Crystal Clear Chords From Classic FM Finland

Classic FM's listeners will soon be treated to superior-quality broadcasts as a result of five new FM transmission systems supplied and installed in Finland by Hastings-based Sound Broadcast Services (sbs). The new digital distribution system, ranging in power from 200 to 500W erp, will replace old multiple analogue land line links between sites.

This system will not only considerably improve audio quality, but also increase Classic FM's listener range by about 1.5 million. sbs engineers will travel to Finland in August to install the systems, which will be up and running by the end of the month.

According to sbs project engineer Dave Stanley, Classic FM Finland is also closely following developments in DAB (Digital Audio Broadcasting) testing in that country, and is eager to participate in broadcasting projects.

Together with the digital upgrade, an RDS (Radio Data System) service has been installed, using RE's model 533 encoders. An auxiliary data channel provided by the audio codecs allows full control of the RDS system from Classic FM's studio centre. A radio text service displaying information about the music or commercial currently being broadcast will be linked to the station's automation system.

sbs project engineer Dave Stanley goes out on a limb.

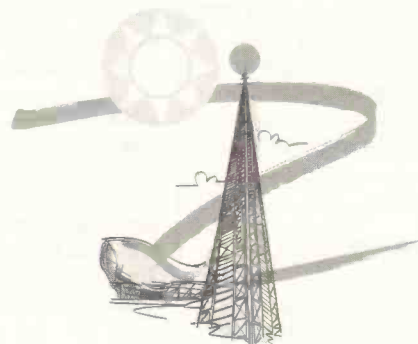

Old Transistor Valve Retires Gracefully

Having faithfully served since 1973, first at LBC in London, then in Knockbreckan, near Carryduff, to Northern Ireland in 1976, Downtown Radio's old valve is pictured in the hands of John Logan, Northern Ireland manager of NTL. Presenter Lynda Jayne holds the new medium wave transmitter.

MARC ALMOND

The Idol - Mercury ehr/r/a
 PRODUCER: Mike Thorne
 The paraphernalia used on the artwork—pictures of (dead) heroes—say enough about mindlessly idolising. The song itself is clearly based on T-Rex's more boogieing rock songs.

THE BLACK CROWES

Wiser Time - American r/a/ehr
 PRODUCER: Jack Joseph Puig
 Steel guitar and a groovy drum pattern are the foundation on which the Robinsons practice their vocal harmonies to the perfection only brothers—the Everlys!—seem capable of.

A.J. CROCE

That's Me In The Bar - Private r/a/ace
 PRODUCER: A.J. Croce
 Don't shoot Croce, he's only the piano player. And his piano has been drinking like Tom Waits', with whom he has a lot in common. Dr. John must be one of his drinking buddies too.

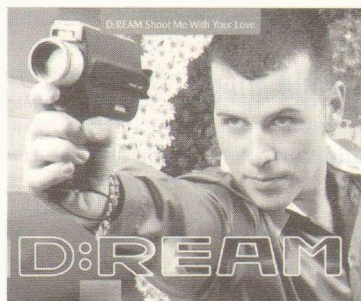

D-STRESSED

Dam Dam Dam - Union/Crossover d/ehr
 PRODUCER: Roby Arduini
 Being being goes the beat, bleep bleep does the synth, "dam dee dee dam" scats singer Colette. It shouldn't be too hard to turn this summer club smash into a sales and radio hit.

JORDAN HILL

Remember Me This Way - MCA ace/ehr
 PRODUCER: David Foster
 Written by David Foster and Linda Thompson—Richard's ex-wife or another Linda?—Ms. Hill sings the big velvet Vanessa Williams-styled ballad off the OST Casper. Your nighttime programme can't do without.

D:REAM

Shoot Me With Your Love - Magnet ehr/d
 PRODUCER: D:Ream/Tom Frederikse
 Not just your average pop singer, Peter Cunnah writes songs which will still be played in five years time. It's like George Michael's Freedom II. Additional piano is played by Jools Holland. Red Dragon/Cardiff head of music Chris Moore gives it 36-40 plays a week. "After all those re-releases and remixes of singles off their first album, it's good to finally get something new from D:Ream. It's a great pop record, bound to be top 5 in the UK."

HOLE

Violet - Geffen a/r/ehr
 PRODUCER: Paul Q. Kolderie/Sean Slade
 Watch out, run for cover! Violet hits you as hard as the water bottles Madame Courtney likes to sling into the crowds. Mind you, good new music is always dangerous.

INCOGNITO

I Hear Your Name - Talkin' Loud ace/ehr/d
 PRODUCER: Bluey/Richard Bull
 For how long can these jazzy funkateers stay under cover? The Crusaders, when fronted by Randy Crawford, would've envied a song with such instant appeal. Those handclaps add particular swing.

MN8

Happy - Columbia ehr/d
 PRODUCER: Dennis Charles
 Releasing singles at the speed of sound, here's their third already. It has nothing to do with the same-titled Stones number. The guys in MN8 work out in a very American swingbeat fashion.

NJOI

Bad Things - Deconstruction d/ehr
 PRODUCER: Njoj/Josh Wink
 Bad spelling is a human right in dance surroundings, but the musical result here is highly enjoyable. Electro disco, house and soulful vocals form a song of Paul Hardcastle's 19 class.

GRAHAM PARKER

Disney's America - Razor & Tie a/r/ace
 PRODUCER: Graham Parker
 Living across the Atlantic, married to a Yank, but GP II's Brit-outsider's look is still intact. In his repertoire it levels with Blue Highway and She Wants So Many Things.

PATRA

Pull Up To The Bumper - Shang/Sony 550 ehr/d
 PRODUCER: C. "Specialist" Dillon
 Ragga's queen revisits nightclubber Grace Jones's 1981 hit. Apart from the rap in the middle and the backing singers, the difference isn't actually as big as you would've assumed.

R.E.M.

Tongue - Warner Brothers ehr/a/r/ace
 PRODUCER: Scott Litt
 Stipe tries his first-ever falsetto, which is like Bono squeezing a Lemon. Maybe a bit off the wall for ACE radio, but as it's a ballad repeated spins will win over even the most wary.

ALEJANDRO SANZ

La Fuerza Del Corazon - WEA ace/ehr
 PRODUCER: Emanuele Ruffinengo/Miguel Angle Arenas
 It's all quiet on the Eros front, so why not listen to his Spanish soul brother with one of the biggest Mediterranean ballads of the year?

TANYA TUCKER

I Bet She Knows - EMI c/ace
 PRODUCER: Tanya Tucker
 The "she" in the song title is the rival of Tucker, who radiates her jealousy in a most credible way—it's pure hatred. With a subject so universal, it shouldn't be restricted to country stations.

Albums

DOMINIQUE A

La Mémoire Neuve - Lithium/Virgin ace/r/ehr
 PRODUCER: Gilles Martin/Dominique A
 Part of a new generation of singers whose roots are both in French chanson tradition and rock—like Silvain Vanot or Miossec—Dominique A delivers subtle pop songs with quite pessimistic lyrics. Already a favourite of some specialised rock shows such as "L'Inrockuptible" on France Inter, he deserves to be heard by a broader audience.

BURMA SHAVE

Zeal - Squatt a/r/ehr
 PRODUCER: Philip Bagenal/Burma Shave
 High on the list of most popular insert CDs in Music & Media ever, with the unforgettable single Hippies, the Dutch alternative band with a French recording contract takes a turn in another direction. No track on their second album has the instant pop appeal of the aforementioned single, and the funk metal alloy has eroded to something less predictable. As an album it is much more coherent; it just takes more time to identify a single. Redemption, a swampy groover as patented by the Tragically Hip, Nirvana-esque KRD and Allowed with the wah-pedal pushed to the metal, are our hints to the more daring stations.

FOO FIGHTERS

Capitol - Roswell/Capitol a/r/ehr
 PRODUCER: Barrett Jones/Foo Fighters
 Grunge's own Phil Collins swaps his drum sticks for the spotlight centre stage. Ex-Nirvana drummer Dave Grohl appears to be more than just a confident singer. His self-penned material is positioned between his former band (I'll Stick Around) and the Lemonheads (Big Me). Like most Seattle bands the songs are very melodic, but singing or whistling them without the music on proves very difficult. Try it with the perfect single This Is A Call.

B.B. KING

Lucille & Friends - MCA r/ace/ehr/a
 PRODUCER: Various
 Lucille, his guitar, is of course B.B.'s most loyal musical companion. The friends on this king-size collection of duets aren't only other blues brothers like John Lee Hooker, Robert Cray and the late Albert Collins. His one-off When Love Comes To Town with U2 you already knew (from 1988's Rattle & Hum), but what about a guitar duel with Living Colour's Vernon Reid (All You Ever Give Me Is The Blues)? His great vocal talent comes out best in the gospel Spirit In The Dark with Dianne Schuur.

ABRA MOORE

Sing - Bohemia Beat ace/c/a
 PRODUCER: Mitch Watkins
 Out on Jimmy LaFave's own label should be enough reason to acknowledge the talent of former Poi Dog Pondering singer Moore. Then you play it, and your prejudice proves true—it's great! She's more or less of the "fragile" female singer/songwriter kind, which asks for a "handlewith-care" advance by radio. Some Kind Of Change is a light song with heavy lyrics which miraculously seems to float through the air like a butterfly—only to be caught in the nets of those with a soft spot for the ladies Vega, Brickell and Merchant. Be "less gentle" to uptempo country-esque Sweet Chariot or rocker Throw A Penny.

REMBRANDTS

 PRODUCER: Don Smith/Danny Wilde/Phil Solem
 A CD looking like a vinyl album with grooves and a label stuck in the middle, how many times have we seen that artwork before? But what if that CD contains great pop songs, put in the right sequence like on an old L.P.? The Rembrandts share that rare knack with Squeeze and Crowded House. All these bands mix their paint with water out of the river Mersey. Melodies are exactly the opposite of the title Easy To Forget. The track with indisputable multi-format potential is My Own Way.

VARIOUS ARTISTS

Les Années Mitterrand - Mercury ace/ehr/w/a
 PRODUCER: Various
 Compiled by Mercury France chief Yves Bigot together with François and Max Armanet, this album is a musical flashback or the soundtrack from the Mitterrand years, with 17 songs all dealing with social topics such as a multiracial society (Maxime Le Forestier's Né Quelque Part, Tonton David's Peuple Du Monde) or drugs (Gainsbourg's Aux Enfants De La Chance). Others had an impact because they represented a breakthrough, such as Khaled's Didi or Mory Kanté's Yeke Yeke. Le Pen won't like it, and that's good news!

THE RAMONES

Adios Amigos! - Radioactive/Chrysalis r/a/ehr
 PRODUCER: Daniel Rey
 Wanted: vivo o muerto! Is it really true? They say it's the last time. We say "hey ho, Joey, Johnny, Marky and C.J., please don't go!" With ex-bassplayer Dee Dee returning as an outside songwriter and "new" bassist C.J. singing lead on four tracks—of which The Crusher is best—you would tend to take the warning of their farewell seriously. But when you hear Joey Ramone on Life Is A Gas and the Ramonised Tom Waits track I Don't Want To Grow Up, you can't believe there's life after the Ramones.

Lois Lane Delivers The Ultimate Transistor Pop Song

by Robbert Tilli

AMSTERDAM - Stereos are great inventions, but nothing beats the old-fashioned transistor radio to gauge a pop song's real strength. In Holland Lois Lane's latest single, the CNR Music label debut Tonight is to be heard all over the place, and yes, it sounds best on old radios in kitchens, bathrooms, garages and on scaffolding.

With a wink in the direction of German electro disco, Tonight ranks next to Blondie's Atomic and Blur's Girls And Boys. And the sisters Monique and Suzanne Klemann, the eye-catching nucleus of the band, add Bowie as a major musical influence.

"A strong radio song was just what we were aiming for," says Monique. "The idea was to make something fresh which would stand out between all the house and techno records. And right from the beginning—from the recording to the mastering process—the sound was adjusted specifically for radio."

A transistor radio can truly alter the way a song comes across. Sung "unisono" as the perfect duet, however, your portable radio betrays more than any hifi equipment that the voice clearest recognisable is big sister Suzanne's. "Even when the radio is on low, you can still hear it's us," she says. "Our song is on a 'special frequency,' which hopefully makes one listen more closely to the radio."

That is something NCRV/Hilversum DJ Sjors Frölich, the track's strongest supporter, hopes to achieve each working day with the "Magic Friends" programme he co-hosts. "I always thought they were a great band," he says, "until they worked together with Prince on Sex and Qualified [two tracks on their last Polydor album Precious from 1992]. The emotion had gone. The arrival of ex-Tambourine guitarist Bart Van Poppel to co-write and produce has made them a true band again."

Lois Lane's manager Gerry Van Der Zwaard has mixed feelings about the much-talked-about Prince collaboration, which grew out of a tour on which they had accompanied him. "It was fantastic, but it heated up the anticipation too much. In Holland it has been branded a flop, but I challenge anybody to name three Dutch pop bands who have sold 50,000 copies of their last album at home. Precious sold 100,000 copies worldwide, so you can hardly speak of a flop."

As is often the case with outstanding singles, Tonight was a chance find, written in a hurry, as Monique explains. "Our record company wanted us to make one more track for the new album Fireflight to serve as the first single. We ourselves felt we had enough material."

In no time Van Poppel came up with something that appealed to the sisters right away. "We heard the melody and thought, wow, this is really radio-genic," recalls Monique. "Even without vocals it was already a hit." The lyrical finishing touch came from the hands of part-time band member Beatcream guitarist Jeroen Den Hengst.

The rest of the album is more heavy, from '70s disco-styled (Something About Her) to psychedelic (Hand) to raw funk rock (the title track). Only one track is a cover, Lulu's Love Loves To Love Love. Fellow Amsterdammers Shine donated I Want You Back, an Al-Green-esque groover which comes closest to Lois Lane's old pop style.

The modern sound of the album is thanks to co-producer/songwriter Slyde Don Cher (ex-Surkus), while the renowned SweMix team is responsible for the remixes on future 12-inch club releases.

And, with a new band, album and label, the sisters are enjoying a new beginning, another 10-year plan. "This is a new musical style, not so soft anymore," underlines Monique. "Much heavier things are going on now, especially in dance, but you have to beware of forcing yourself by boosting your sound. You should watch out not to stray away to much for what you stand for. That is why we decided not to collaborate with Sonic Surfers. Their Euro dance sound doesn't suit us. We're more song-oriented. Narada Michael Walden was another option, but then the end result would have been too slick."

At the point when the band was looking for a new label deal—having been dropped from the Polydor roster—it was Arcade Europe MD André De Raaff who personally signed them. "Our collaboration dates from the time I was a music publisher at Warner Basart," says De Raaff, who still dabbles in A&R activities. "At the time they were between recording deals with WEA and Polydor, and decided to set up their own Lana Lane label. I helped to finance them then, and this time round I did it again. The difference is that this time I was there from the demo stages, whereas in the past they offered me finished product."

Out across Europe now through Arcade on the CNR label imprint, Van Der Zwaard is shopping around in the remaining territories, whereby his old partners Avex in Japan and PolyGram in the US have the first option.

Enfant Terrible Guesch Patti Takes No Water With Her Wine

by Emmanuel Legrand

PARIS - Go back in time to 1987's Etienne and its "hot" video. That was the year a European star—French singer Guesch Patti—was born. After seven years and three albums of major label stardom the singer has settled into the more controllable cult status. From EMI she has moved to indie XIII Bis Records where she plans to stay, and where she is now releasing her label debut album Blonde.

The success of Etienne, which went to number one in nine countries in Europe, had its flip side, says Patti, who explains. "Being signed to a major is flattering, but it is a lot of pressure. You're caught in a huge corporate machine. At EMI, I had to deal with three different presidents and as many A&R managers. How can you work serenely like that?"

She continues, "After the split with EMI, I took a one year-break, after which I started to work on new material. I met Dimitri Tikovoi who later introduced me to Michel Olivier and I realised I had found a team I wanted to work with. We went into a studio, recorded a four-track demo, and it led to an album that I'm totally satisfied with. It really represents what I am today."

The demo landed on the desk of Gilles Bressand, MD of indie label XIII Bis Records, who liked what he heard. Explains Patti, "With an indie, you follow a different rhythm. The ambience is different and the pressure is not the same. We have had a lot of artistic discussions. Of course, the financial support is not the same as with a major. But at least, there, I'm not asked to be the French Madonna. I have nothing against her, but it's not my cup of tea!"

Patti recorded the album Blonde in early 1995. It has the flavour of Patti's previous albums, and, with its broader mix of chanson, rock and avant garde, it is clear her musical horizon has widened. "We used the studio as a lab," says Patti.

The album was released in May in Benelux via Play It Again Sam, and in Germany, Italy, Sweden, Finland, Greece, Austria, Denmark through a licensing deal with Sony Music (on the Epic label). The first single for most countries is the dub-infused La Marquise, except for the Benelux countries where Amnésie has been chosen.

The Sony Music connection came through Patti's EMI days. She used to work with Guy Brulez, who was working with EMI Belgium at the time, and who is now heading Sony Music Europe's recently formed European repertoire division.

XIII Bis international coordinator Oriane De Torcy says promotional visits have been and will be organised in the main territories. "She has already been to Belgium, Holland and Switzerland, for interviews with radio and press," she resumes. "She will be going to Germany from July 19-21. We are focusing on Germany because it was the territory where she sold quite well and the record company there is betting on her."

Airplay is starting to catch up on several Swiss (RSR, RTN 2001) and Belgian radio stations (Radio 21, Radio 1). In France, where the album has sold over 10,000 units so far, she is mostly played by full-service stations like RMC and independent local stations. "many stations are not at ease with her music. They don't really know how to treat her," says De Torcy.

For Patti, promotion is a natural part of her job, but she says she won't compromise her music to get airplay. "I have no idea if my music is formatted for radio stations, and frankly, I don't care. That's not my problem. Of course, I like it when my songs are played by radio stations, but my interests lie elsewhere—in the album and on stage."

Being a trained dancer (who worked with Carolyn Carlson and Roland Petit) has fuelled her crave for an international career. She explains, "When you dance, you don't have boundaries. I don't understand why it shouldn't be the same with music. And don't tell me there is a language problem. I'm sick and tired of hearing that international audiences don't want to hear people sing in French. As an artist, I want to appeal to the world. It means a lot of work, but I'm ready for it."

Market Place

ALZHEIMER/SILVERSPURS

Og Myrteriet Med Den Glemte Sangen - Rec 90 (CD) (Norway)
 PRODUCER: Geir Luedy/ Alzheimer/ Silverspurs
 Four wild and wacky alternative rockers creatively chop their way through 10 bright uptempo rockers with a strong pop feel. That sense of melody combined with a deliberately unpolished approach places them firmly in the genre's major league. Contact tel: (+47) 55.323 410; fax: 55.311 875.

DILEMMA

Imbroccata - SI (CD) (Holland)
 PRODUCER: Dilemma/Jos Haagmans
 Not suffering from the "dilemma" most comparable symphonic bands are, this bunch does possess the necessary punch. Considerable stage experience is audible through tracks like The Horror Time Travel and Vampire. An added bonus is the considerable skill of the individual band members, of whom drummer/violinist Essen played with British folk rockers Iona and lead singer Butler was a eminent theatre actor. Contact Willebrod Elsing or Anja Van Hoek at tel: (+31) 10.462 1043; fax: 10.462 0809.

H.A.L.O.

Eclipsed - MNW Zone (Sweden)
 PRODUCER: E. Graham Lewis
 In order to get clearance for the use of an LFO sample on this esoteric but danceable tune, the Warp label suggested letting LFO do the remixes. The innovative approach of LFO proves to be a worthy counterpart to artist/producer (ex-Wire) Lewis' dark, ambient soundscape. Contact John Cloud at tel: (+46) 8.5413 3450; fax: 8.5413 0060.

MAMA OLIVER

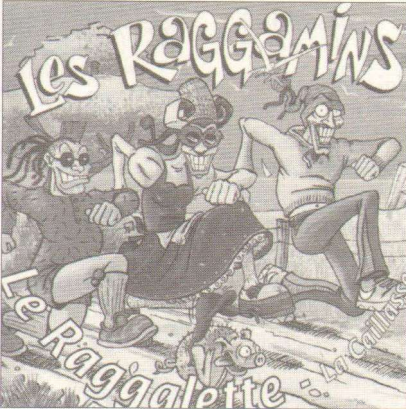

Ghosts At Home - FRW (CD) (Austria)
 PRODUCER: Friedrich Weber/Ulrike Kühlwein
 The variety encountered here is downright bewildering, ranging from the subdued roots reggae of Skeletor to the hard-hitting trance techno of East West Together, which wouldn't look out of place in the Sven Väth songbook. The material is highlighted by the vocals of Kühlwein, who also performs most of the music. Contact Friedrich Weber at tel: (+43) 1.553 9773; fax: 1.545 2077.

VIVIENNE MCKONE

Come Into My Life - Boogie Back (UK)
 PRODUCER: Vivienne McKone
 Soul/jazz diva McKone's label debut is a deliciously soulful jam, while the remixes, especially the Swing It From The Hip mix by Alex Gray and Martin Lascelles' Winter Warmer mix provide something with more of a contemporary R&B feel. Contact Pete Flatt at tel: (+44) 171.727 3458; fax: 171.221 7240.

LES RAGGAMINS

Le Raggalette - La Caillasse - Roadrunner (France)
 PRODUCER: Les Raggamins
 Most members of this band used to be part of the now-defunct Billy Ze Kick, which enjoyed huge hits with OCB and Mangez Moi Y Mangez Toi last year. This infectious track, whose title is a wordplay on ragga and galette (a Breton pancake), is likely to be a summer smash and not only at home thanks to the Tour De France. Contact Alain Verhage at tel: (+31) 20.656 6611; fax: 20.640 3204.

NEAL SCHON

Beyond The Thunder - Higher Octave (CD) (US)
 PRODUCER: Jonathan Cain/Neal Schon
 When listening to this release it's hard to believe that it's the same guitarist who started out as a child prodigy with Santana and later went on to superstardom with symphonic rock group Journey. For this instrumental effort he not only teamed up with former Santana percussionists Chepito Areas and Michael Carabello but also with ex-Journey drummer Steve Smith and keyboardist Jonathan Cain, who also co-produced. Contact Scott Bergstein at tel: (+1) 310.589 1515; fax: 310.589 1525.

SWIETLIKI

O.grod K.oncentracyjny - Music Corner (CD) (Poland)
 PRODUCER: Swietliki
 Art rock meets the vaudeville theatre on this interesting release. Marcin Swietlicki's expressive vocals are in the forefront most of the time, supported by a sparse, frequently percussion-heavy backing. Occasionally, ska and (dub) reggae elements pop up while at other times the Sonic Youth school of guitar picking prevails. Contact Piotr Praschil at tel: (+48) 12.232 142; fax: 12.373 952.

Dance Grooves

by Maria Jiménez

Report From New York Part II

■ The next stop of "Dance Grooves On The NY Roads" is at Strictly Rhythm Records, home to Reel II Real, Armand Van Helden and Barbara Tucker. Arguably the best known dance indie in the world, it has built a reputation on high quality productions of underground club music. "We have over 100 releases per year," says promotions director Tom Zino, "of which about 70% are phat underground tracks and the other 30% are smashes or dogs."

Numerous tracks have got into the pop charts and for the label "that's just fine. We don't want to sell out," states Zino, "but if an underground track crosses over, then we're not ashamed."

Having always been dedicated to the clubs and built its hits on dancefloor props, Strictly Rhythm is currently catering to the rapidly growing number of CD playing DJs with a new EP CD series. Each volume consists of two club remixes of four different songs in a specific style:

■ Volume 1: Tribal Madness features Congo from the Boss (David Morales), Sumba Lumba from Tribal Infusion (Roger Sanchez) plus two other tracks.

■ Volume 2: Wild Pitch With A Twist Of Acid includes Wink's Higher State Of Consciousness and Hardhead's New York Express.

■ Volume 3: Divas is highlighted by Barbara Tucker's I Get Lifted and the Moonwalkers' 10.000 Screamin' Faggots featuring Ultra Naté.

■ The most recent Volume 4: Back To The Church contains gospel house tracks by Morel Inc, Brotherhood Of Soul and others.

■ Although Strictly Rhythm has enjoyed more success than most dance indies, Zino points out that "house is lacking a unity right now. That's why it hasn't really broken." Part of the problem he attributes to the fact that "producers don't stick with one label. And DJs don't do their homework, they follow the big boys instead."

Artist development is an important point for the label. While most Strictly Rhythm 12" releases are on red brick labels, the blue brick ones indicate artists who are in development towards an album release. You want blue brick names? Barbara Tucker, Elan, Barbara Douglas and Truce.

■ For an overview of Strictly Rhythm, pick up two of its solid compilations, Pride 95 (a powerful 12-track mix from Little Louis Vega in honour of Gay Pride Day with a percentage of profits going to AIDS organisations) and Mega Dance Party 95 (a 37-track continual mega mix from George Morel).

"Dance Grooves" provides dance tips and news for radio programmers on a weekly basis.

Short Takes

Compiled by Raúl Cairo

■ Symphonic pioneers Yes have revamped their line-up. Core members—singer Jon Anderson, bassist Chris Squire and drummer Alan White—have decided to stay put, while guitarist Trevor Rabin is to pursue a solo career and keyboardist Tony Kaye has joined the group's management team. Their replacements are Steve Howe and Rick Wakeman respectively.

■ Coveritis: The new album by US symphonic rock outfit Dream Theater is called A Change Of Seasons and features covers of Pink Floyd, Genesis and Elton John.

■ It's time for a re-release of Joan Jett's I Love Rock 'N' Roll, borne out by the fact that Jesus & Mary Chain has a single out called I Hate Rock 'N' Roll (Blanco Y Negro).

■ Once again U2 has teamed up with producer/composer Brian Eno to work on an album with what they call "hypothetical" film music. It could be called U2 Vs. Brian Eno and will be released late this summer. A proper U2 album is tentatively scheduled for summer 1996 release.

■ In further U2-related news, Wim Wenders is to direct the filming of the Bono-written screenplay The Million Dollar Hotel.

■ Dutch art rockers the Nits are lining up for their September release greatest hits package Nest (Columbia). It will appear in two configurations, the first being a luxury digipack and the second a box set including the CD, a video called Vest and a bonus CD Quest, which is loaded with old B-sides, live tracks and previously unreleased material. Unlike the video, Quest won't be available separately.

■ British emerging blues rockers Hoax will shortly embark on their first

US tour. Apart from a few support gigs for Buddy Guy, they will also play dates with Joe Ely, Sonny Landreth and the Chris Duarte Group.

■ The Hands On Yello DJ remix project has now got its follow-up, called The Updates. It contains the Orb's 12-minute remix of You Gotta Say Yes To Another Excess and Oliver Lieb's treatment of Desire, both previously unavailable. A parallel release of a vinyl box, which was limited to 1,000 units sold out in three days.

■ Did you know that the hilarious Dutch number one single I Wanna Be A Hippie by Technohead (Mokum/Edel) is actually a cover of the same-titled song by Richard Peel & The Lower Eastside? The original dates back to 1967 when Richard and co. were signed to Elektra, a real "hippy" label back then.

"Short Takes" offers new release and artist information for on-air use.

Records mentioned in Market Place are by acts signed to independent labels for which licensing and/or publishing rights are available, except as noted. Please send your samples to Raúl Cairo (regular product) and Maria Jiménez (dance product) at Music & Media, PO Box 9027, 1006 AA Amsterdam, Netherlands.

Breakin' & Entering

A weekly Eurochart analysis by Ramon Dahmen

Perhaps the European summer heat is affecting the charts as there is very little movement in both the Hot 100 and Top 100 this week.

The European Top 100 Albums only has two new entries in the upper half of the chart and 11 entries in total, a meager number compared to the usual weekly average of 20. The highest new entry is claimed by the chart-experienced Spanish celebrity Julio Iglesias with his latest release La Carretera (Columbia). It is the Spanish performer's seventh album to feature in the 11-year-old Top 100. His chart history starts in 1988 with Non Stop and is followed up by Raices (1989), Starry Night (1990/91), The 24 Greatest Songs (1991), Calor (1992) and Crazy in 1994/one week in 1995. Although this chronological list seems to show a hole in 1993, Iglesias did chart that year with his single Milonga Sentimental. Until now his longest reign on the chart (31 weeks) has been with his English-language album Crazy. The Spanish vocalist's latest effort has been welcomed so far by Denmark (no. 63), Holland (93), Portugal (11) and in Spain where it entered the Millward Brown Top 50 straight at number one.

Higher up the chart, we find this week's winner of the Sales Breaker Award—Dutch-signing Caught In The Act—with its debut album Caught In The Act Of Love (CNR). The teen pop band has previously scored in Europe with the single Love Is Everywhere, which charted for 17 weeks and peaked at 51. It has also claimed a position in the Border Breakers chart for seven consecutive weeks with My Arms Keep Missing You, the second release from the album. The Dutch/UK originated band is doing particularly well in the GSA territory (Germany Switzerland, Austria) in both airplay and sales terms. The album is currently charting in Germany (no. 6) and Switzerland (29).

This week's Sales Breaker Award for the Hot 100 singles goes to Danish-signing Scatman John with Scatman's World (Iceberg). The Scatter's third week on the chart is thanks to positions in Austria (8), Belgium (26), Denmark (11), Finland (1), Germany (11), Italy (5), Holland (17), Norway (6), Spain (1), Sweden (19) and Switzerland (6).

Station Reports include all new additions to the playlist. Some reports will also include "Power Play" songs, which receive special emphasis during the week. All Power Play songs are printed, whether they are reported for the first time or not. Some lists include featured new albums, as indicated by the abbreviation "AL." Within each country, stations are grouped by ranking and listed alphabetically. Rankings include: Platinum (P), Gold (G), Silver (S) and Bronze (B). All playlists must be received by Monday at 13.00 h. CET.

M&M's EHR Top 40, Adult Contemporary Europe top 25, European Dance Radio top 25, Border Breakers, Channel Crossovers, Atlantic Crossovers and Major Market Airplay charts (except the lists supplied by BDS UK and BDS Holland) are based 100% on airplay reported each week by M&M's reporter team. Participating stations are selected as reporters and "weighted" as "Platinum," "Gold," "Silver" or "Bronze" stations based on the following criteria: market population, location, weekly reach and/or average share of the available audience, policy of programming current music, retail sales influence and ability to report in a timely, consistent and accurate manner. More detailed definitions follow below. It should be noted that points awarded for airplay may vary slightly from one station to another within one of these four groups. For example, some Platinum stations are weighted slightly more or less than other Platinum stations. However, all Platinum reporters will be weighted more than Gold, Silver, or Bronze stations. Individual station classifications are subject to regular review as ratings and station policies change. Broadcasters interested in joining M&M's Reporter Roster should call or fax M&M Station Reports Manager Pieter Kops; tel: (+31) 20.669 1961; fax: 669.1951 or 1941.

Platinum (P): Leading stations/networks/dominant programmes in major markets. Most of these stations have an estimated average weekly reach of at least 1 million listeners and are regarded as having moderate to heavy level of retail influence. Gold (G): Leading stations/networks/dominant programmes in medium markets or secondary broadcasters in major markets. Most of these stations have an estimated average weekly reach of 200,000 to 1 million listeners. Stations from smaller markets usually have an above-average level of retail influence. Silver (S): Leading stations in smaller markets or secondary broadcasters in medium markets. Most of these stations have an estimated average weekly reach of 50,000 to 200,000 listeners. Stations from smaller markets usually have an above-average level of retail influence. Bronze (B): Smaller broadcast operations, individual programmes at larger stations, certain cable-only stations, and/or dayparted blocks of programming on small market stations. Most of these stations/ programmes reach between 15,000 and 50,000 listeners weekly. Small market stations have at least a moderate level of retail influence; larger stations in this group may have a low level of retail influence.

EMI, MTV Close Deal To Create Compilation Albums

by Chris Marlowe

LONDON - EMI Music and MTV Networks have signed a global video licensing agreement, granting all MTV services worldwide rights to air videos by EMI recording artists. Sony Music signed a similar agreement with MTV last year.

In addition, the two companies have announced their intention to develop two compilation albums a year for the European market, focusing on Top 20, metal and dance.

Commenting on the licensing agreement, EMI Music president/CEO Jim Fifeild says, "MTV is one of the most creative forces in the world of music today. We have seen our artists benefit from their exposure on MTV and we hope to continue finding new ways of working together."

EMI labels include Capitol, Virgin, EMI Records (Chrysalis, SBK and EMI), EMI Classics, Angel, Blue Note, Parlophone, EMI Latin, Capitol-Nashville, I.R.S., Toshiba-EMI, EMI Electrola and Intercord.

The compilation albums are scheduled to begin this year, combining EMI's licensing experience, marketing and distribution system with MTV's international identity.

EMI International CEO Ken Berry observes, "This will provide EMI with another outlet for some of the tremendous artists that we have developed across Europe."

The EMI deal follows months of conflict between MTV and the five industry majors; EMI, Sony, PolyGram, Warner and BMG.

The record companies have traditionally dealt with MTV on an individual basis in North America and Asia, but have negotiated collectively in Europe through VPL.

MTV referred VPL last year to the European Commission claiming it was an anti-competitive cartel. A report in the Financial Times says the EC is believed to have told the five it would rule in MTV's favour unless they began individual negotiations.

The five majors have also abandoned plans to launch a rival to MTV in the US.

Soedergreen explains that a competitor had complained to the authority about centralised programming. The case was never heard, but, through what he calls a clerical error, was sent to the ministry's central committee which gave the station a week to stop broadcasts.

"The central committee is flexing its muscles. These are some drastic decisions. There's a lot of talk about liberalising the industry, and then they turn around and do just the opposite."

Soedergreen is not optimistic that the ministry will overturn its decision, as the committee has adjourned for the summer until August 22. However, Mojn has appealed to the local authority to grant a temporary broadcasting licence and is hoping that will come through in time for the station to stay on air.

While The Voice's and Radio Mojn's cases were pending, the prime minister's office held a committee meeting on June 11 to discuss all Danish media. One of their conclusions was not to recommend legislation prohibiting takeovers and consolidations of broadcast media.

Soedergreen points out that these talks were on a higher political level than the Culture Ministry, which is the operative authority. The PM's office is expected to issue a memo on the media in September.

New-Look Midem

There is also talk of launching a MIDEM Radio station which will transmit live from the fair. The station's equipment and facilities will be open to radio makers across Europe and MIDEM visitors will be able to tune in by using a special earplug.

The changes coincide with MIDEM's 30th anniversary next year, which, the organisation promises, will be celebrated in a variety of ways.

Fun, NRJ

Radio is usually listened to in the morning, at midday, in the afternoon after school and in the evening, when parents are watching TV.

Youngsters aged 10 or under tend to listen to the same station as their parents, but when they reach 10-11 they make their own choice and, in general, tune in to different stations.

George Michael Settles With Sony

At presstime an announcement by Sony Music was expected on the settlement it has reached with George Michael releasing the artist from his recording contract. It is understood that Sony will receive US$40 million from DreamWorks SKG—Michael's new US label—including US$30 million from the scheduled 1996 release of a Greatest Hits album. Sony is also to receive around 3% of sales on Michael's next two albums. Michael has allegedly cut himself a good royalty rate of 20% on his recordings for DreamWorks and is also to receive an advance of US$30 million.

Relief As Ruquier Re-signs With France Inter

To the delight of France Inter programme director Pierre Boutellier, Laurent Ruquier—who hosts Inter's flagship programme "Rien à Cirer"—has finally renewed his contract with public station for next season. Europe 1 was close to signing the French radio star but reportedly missed the boat. However, OTR hears that other former colleagues of Ruquier might well end up at Europe 1.

Is It All Change At PolyGram?

OTR hears that changes will soon occur within some PolyGram labels in France. Barclay is believed to be losing one of its two joint general managers.

Has Pirovano's Successor Been Found?

The word is that the French broadcasting authority CSA has found a replacement for Jean-Luc Pirovano as head of its radio office. An announcement is expected soon.

Marsh Heads Up New BMG Division

As predicted by Music & Media (May 20), RCA MD Jeremy Marsh has been named president of a new BMG music division in which the RCA, Arista and Deconstruction labels are grouped together. First on the agenda for Marsh will be finding a new MD at Arista, following the departure of Diana Graham at the end of March. Meanwhile, RCA marketing director Hugh Goldsmith has been promoted to become RCA's MD and Kevin Dawson moves up to become marketing director.

Ostli Rejoins Sony In Norway

EMI Norsk MD Jan Ostli has rejoined Sony Music Norway as marketing director, reporting to MD Rune Hagberg. Forty-year-old Ostli worked for the then CBS Records in 1977 and was appointed Sony Music Norway's marketing director in 1988 before moving to EMI Norsk in 1992.

EMI Records (UK) Gets Harlow As New Marketing Director

The moving chairs at EMI continue to happen fast and furiously, with EMI Europe VP international marketing Tony Harlow moving to EMI Records (UK) to become marketing director. He replaces Ian Rammage, who is to take a sabbatical. Harlow's place at EMI's London-based headquarters will be filled by EMI Sweden promotion director Marie Dimberg.

ent musical styles, 61% to discover new bands, 51% for dance music, 50% for techno music and 45.8% for rock.

Fun Radio and NRJ emerged as the two stations young people most prefer.

Figures show 36.5% of the panel listens to Fun while 36.4% chose NRJ and 19.9% Skyrock. The interest in these stations grows with the age—47% of the 14-16 group prefers Fun and 39.4% NRJ but these figures jump to 46.8% and 45.5% respectively when it comes to the 17-19 demo.

NRJ is most liked for its musical programming while Fun is preferred because it offers the listeners a chance to enter into dialogue (the station claims that 2,000 people call every evening during the "Lovin' Fun" show).

The other reasons why listeners prefer Fun are diverse: 15.3% say it's because the station has "dialogue with youngsters," 17.1% because it "shows interest in the youth," 19% because they "like the ideas developed by the station," 19.7% because it has "the coolest hosts" and 20.6% because it "offers give-aways."

The EHR Top 40 chart is based on a weighted-scoring system. Songs score points by achieving airplay at M&M's EHR (European Hit Radio) reporting stations, that target 12-34 year old listeners with contemporary music fulltime or during specific dayparts. Stations are weighted by market size and by the number of hours per week committed to the format.
 * Indicates Europe's most Radio Active record, registering the biggest increase in chart points.

The EHR "chartbound" chart lists the total number of EHR reporting stations playing newer songs that do not yet have enough airplay points to rank among the EHR Top 40. The second number represents how many stations reported it to M&M for the first time. Songs which have received no new airplay for two consecutive weeks will be deleted from this chart, but may reappear with new airplay. In the case of a tie, songs are listed by new adds. Asterisks indicate new entries in Chartbound.

Airplay Action

EHR Top 40 commentary by Pieter Kops

D:Ream

After five weeks at number 1, Michael Jackson's Scream—his fourth chart-topper on European Hit Radio—has had to make way for Bon Jovi's latest ballad. In fact, This Ain't A Love Song has already reached saturation point and its late triumph is due to its impressive staying power on Europe's leading playlists. The US band has occupied the pole position once before, when 1994's Always reigned for eight weeks, six of which were consecutive.

British pop dance outfit D:Ream, personified by vocalist/composer Peter Cunnah, seizes the highest new entry in this week's EHR Top 40 at number 25, with Shoot Me With Your Love—the first single from a yet-to-be-issued second album. (For a review of the song, see page 8.) It marks the third time on the EHR list for D:Ream, whose biggest success on the format so far was 1994's Things Can Only Get Better, peaking at number 5 for two weeks in a row; U R The Best Thing peaked at 19 later that year.

Shoot Me With Your Love is playlisted by 27 relatively high-ranked EHR reporters, spread out over eight countries. Homeland the UK stands out as most supportive with an 82% penetration ratio, while significant numbers of stations in Italy, Germany and Greece also have the track on rotation, although the overall percentages in these territories remain relatively low. Ireland, Portugal and Turkey are represented on the roster with pioneer playlistings that count heavily as well, since they occur on key stations in those markets (2 FM/Dublin, Radio Energia/Lisbon and Radio Number One FM/Istanbul, respectively). On a major market level, Shoot Me With Your Love already enters as high as number 9 in the UK (see Major Market Airplay on page 23).

The song that relishes the biggest chart-point gain of the week is John Michael Montgomery's I Can Love You Like That, or at least its All-4-One version. Hence the Radio Active award for the US vocal harmony quartet, which leaps up from number 9 to 6 during its fourth charting week, a 69-station roster by its side. This includes 12 first-time reports, the second-best of the week, scattered out over Europe. The song is playlisted in 20 European countries now, the support being particularly concentrated in Austria (100% acceptance level), Denmark (73%), Holland (67%), Switzerland (67%), the UK (65%), Italy (54%), Portugal (50%), Turkey (50%), Norway (43%), Spain (43%) and Germany (41%). In the GSA, it is already charting at number 5 (see Major Market Airplay).

The song with the largest number of adds is Take That's new single Never Forget, the follow-up to the five-week EHR number 1 record Back For Good (still charting at number 18). The new single—although qualifying as Most Added leader with 14 first-time reports—has not yet entered the top 40, as it has not yet yielded enough chart points. Neither does its young roster (17 stations) carry it into the Chart-bound section. In the UK, Italy and Spain, however, the song is already getting significant support.

MOST ADDED

Take That/Never Forget	(RCA)	14
All-4-One/I Can Love You Like That	(Atlantic)	12

On The Road

Border Breakers commentary by Pieter Kops

Real McCoy

The German Euro dance trio formed by Olaf (O-Jay) Jeglitza, Patricia (Patsy) Petersen and Vanessa Mason, better known as Real McCoy, enters the Border Breakers chart this week with Come And Get Your Love. Kicking off at number 23, the track is the follow-up single to Love And Devotion, the pan-European hit single that is still charting at number 10 after a three-week peak at 2—their most successful song on Border Breakers.

This "genuine" group—no, this one is not merely a front piece for a production project—enjoyed two more hits in our chart, when they operated under the old banner of MC Sar & The Real McCoy—1994's Another Night, which peaked at number 3 for three weeks (two consecutive) in 1995, and this year's Run Away, also peaking at 3, but for one week only.

On European Hit Radio, the domain covered by the EHR Top 40, the act has already hit the top 10 twice this year—first with Another Night (peaking at number 10) and second with Love And Devotion (8). The latter also did well on the sales end of the response scale, peaking at number 19 in the Eurochart Hot 100 Singles (now at 61).

At this stage, the new record by the Hansa act has crossed over to 10 stations, scattered over nine separate European countries. With the exception of Turkey, where two reporters are playlisting the track, only one station in each of those territories have put it into rotation. This roster, however, is of excellent calibre, including seven heavyweight outlets (platinum- and gold-ranked), some of which can be said to have a crucial function in breaking a single. Spanish mammoth network Cadena 40 Principales/Madrid, for instance, which is often decisive when it comes to Spain, has put the song in heavy rotation this week. In Denmark, the song has been added to the rotation set of the prominent private EHR station Radio Viborg/Viborg this week. These combined additions have given the final push that was required for Come And Get Your Love to enter the Border Breakers rundown, as the remainder of its roster had already become members of the club before. Those early believers include key stations in Italy (Italia Network: Music FM/Udine), Finland (Radio 1/Helsinki), Turkey (Radio Number One FM/Istanbul and Capital Radio 99.5/Ankara) and Russia (Radio Maximum/Perm).

The charts on this page track the border-crossing movement of product. The Border Breakers chart ranks the 25 most successful Continental European records making airplay impact outside their country of signing (airplay achieved in the original country is excluded from the calculations).

The second chart, Channel Crossovers, registers the airplay penetration of UK-signed artists in mainland Europe, while the third Top 25, the Atlantic Crossover chart, ranks the most successful Non-European artists according to airplay impact in Europe.

All three charts are non-format specific. "Country Of Signing" is not necessarily an indication of where the artist comes from but, more significantly, where he/she is signed. An increasing number of national artists are signed to "foreign" labels and M&M wants to acknowledge the crossover impact of such deals.
