EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order divides Greater London into electoral areas. By virtue of paragraph 7 of Schedule 2 to the London Government Act 1963 where a London borough does not include any part of a parliamentary constituency of which part is included in some other London borough, county borough or county district, each parliamentary constituency within the borough is to be an electoral area. Thus with two exceptions each parliamentary constituency within Greater London is an electoral area under this Order.

This Order comes into force on the day of the triennial Greater London Council elections due to be held in 1973 except that for purposes connected with those elections the Order comes into operation forthwith.
