31	1	2	3	4	5	6	27	28	29	30	31	1	1								Collect & donate socks to those in need using our Socktober RAKtivist toolkit.							Treat someone to a pumpkin spice latte or any other fall-themed drink as a warm and cozy surprise.							Write spooky but encouraging notes and leave them in random places, like a ghost saying, "Don't be scared, you're doing great!"							Donate gently used costumes to a local shelter or community center so children and families who can't afford them can enjoy dressing up for Halloween.

Offer to help a neighbor with yard work, such as raking leaves or decorating for Halloween.							Print out or create Halloween-themed coloring pages and donate them to a local school, daycare, or hospital.							Write a thank you note with a Halloween twist (like a bat-shaped card) to someone who has made a difference in your life.							Decorate your mailbox with a fun Halloween theme and leave a small treat for your mail carrier as a thank you.							Participate in or organize a zombie walk where participants collect non-perishable food items for a local food bank.							Read or record a Halloween-themed story and share it with kids at a local library, school, or online.							Host a Halloween movie night for friends or family, complete with themed snacks and cozy blankets.
12							13							14							15							16							17							18
Make or buy Halloween-themed treats (like ghost-shaped cookies) and deliver them to a friend, neighbor, or coworker.							Participate in or organize a trick-or-treating event where instead of candy, participants collect donations for a local charity.							Take someone on a local haunted history tour or ghost walk to enjoy some spooky fun while learning about local legends.							Participate in a Halloween-themed charity run or walk, dressing up in costume to raise funds for a cause you care about.							Collect Halloween candy donations and deliver them to a local children's hospital, shelter, or food bank.							Join the RAKtivists: Unleash Spooky Acts of Kindness!							Host a virtual or in-person Halloween dance party for friends, family, or a local community center.
19							20							21							22							23							24							25
Send a Halloween-themed card to friends or family with a spooky, yet kind, message to let them know you're thinking of them.							Set up a "Scare-Free" zone at your home or in your neighborhood for younger children or those who might be frightened by Halloween decorations.							Collect Halloween candy and send it to troops overseas as a sweet reminder of home.							Leave a surprise treat bag on a neighbor's doorstep with a note that says "You've been booted!" Encourage them to pass on the spooky kindness to another neighbor.							Organize or participate in a pet costume parade, and consider asking for donations to a local animal shelter as an entry fee.							Send a mystery package filled with small Halloween goodies to a friend or family member who could use a pick-me-up.							Visit a haunted house attraction that donates proceeds to charity.
26							27							28							29							30							31							1
Carve or decorate a pumpkin and leave it anonymously on a friend's porch to brighten their day.							Purchase Halloween candy that supports a charitable organization, such as fair-trade chocolate, and hand it out to trick-or-treaters.							Surprise someone by showing up in costume with a small treat or gift, bringing Halloween fun directly to them.							Create a Halloween-themed playlist and share it with friends or coworkers to set the spooky mood.							Give out fun Halloween-themed face masks to friends or coworkers to encourage safe and festive celebrations.							On Halloween night, give out small kindness cards along with candy, encouraging trick-or-treaters to do a good deed of their own.
