Published by Authority.

From Tuesday August 14. to Saturday August 18, 1792.

Whitehall, August 18.

HE following Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Ciergy, and Frecholders of the County of Middlesex, has been prefented to the King by John William Anderson and Harvey Christian Combe, Efgrs. Sheriff of that County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majefty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreis His Majefty was pleafed to receive very graciouly.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Addrefs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freehollers of the County of Middlefex.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

Mer Gracial S-Cereign, WE beg Leave to join in the general Voice of the People, and to declare our hearty and zealous Attachment to your Majefty's Perfon and Fimily, and to our happy Constitution, Civil and Religious, as eftablished in this Kingdom. Permit us to return your Majefty our unfeigned Thanks for your late gracious Proclamation, warning us against the mischievous Defigns of ill-disposed Perions, who are endeavouring by wicked and feditious Writings, industriously differfed through the Kingdom, to raife Jealoufies and Difcontents among the People, and inflame their Minds with Reprefentations of imagi-nary Grievances at a Time when the Country, under the Bleffing of Providence, is enjoying an unexampled State of Profperity and Happinefs. We beg Leave to affire your Majefty, that our Endeavours shall not be wanting, by every legal and conftitutional Means, to difcourage and prevent all Proceedings tending to produce Riots, Tumults, and Diforders, which are inconfiltent with the Prefervation of Public Liberty, and destructive of those in-valuable Rights and Privileges we enjoy, and which can only be effectually fecured to us by a due Obcdience to the Laws, by a fready Adherence to and firm Support of those wife and wholescome Provisions made at the Time of the Glorious Revolution, and further strengthened and confirmed to us by suble-quent Acts of the Legislature. Convinced of the Excellence of our Conftitution, we feel ourfelves in a particular Manner bound to guard againft all Attempts to diffurb the Public Peace and Tran-quillity of the Kingdom, which muft, in the moft forcible Manner, affect and injure this populous and commercial County, weaken the Credit and Importance of the Country with Foreign Nations, and lellen the Security and Happinels of the People. With these Security and Happinels of the People. ing your Majefty long to reign over a free and loyal People.

Signed, the 9th of August, 1792, by Order of the Meeting, John Wni. Anderfon, Harvey Christian Combe, Sheriff.

Whiteball, August 18.

HE following Address having been trans-mitted to the Right Honorable House to mitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundass His Majefty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him prefented to the King : Which Addreffes His Majefty was pleafed to receive very gracioully.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majefy,

The humble Address of the Grand Jury of the County of Lincoln, affembled at the Caffle of Lincoln, at the Affiizes held there the 4th of August, 1792. W E, the Grand Jury of the County of Lincoln, do humbly intreat your Majesty's gracious Acceptance of these our solemn Declarations of fincere Affection to your Sacred Perfon, of profound Re-fpect to the Dignity of your Crown, of juft Regard to the Peace and good Order of your Government. Sclected from the Body of the County to a fuperior

Share of those ineftimable Functions which form the proud proud Pre-eminence of your Majeity's English Subjects, we truft that we fhould at no Time want Motives to fulfil confcientioufly the important Duties given us in Charge; but in this our more than ordinary Attention has been directed to those Objects which the wife Vigilance of your late Proclamation has pointed to our prefent and peculiar Care.

With the ingenuous Pleafure of unquestionable Truth, we prefume to affure your Majefty of our confcientious Belief, that no feditious Publications have been industriously dispersed within the Extent of our Powers of Enquiry; that therein we know of no factious Affemblies; no Appearance of private Difcontents; no Indication of Public Alarm. From ousselves, at fuch a Period, the Offer of our Lives and Fortunes, always due to the King whom we pioufly revere, to the Country which we dearly love, were superstuous. These Offers and these Services are fitted to Times of Danger and Diftrefs. But this is a Time of true Glory to your Majefty, to us your faithful and loving Subjects, of the full Enjoyment of all the Fruits of Peace. Nor is there ought known of reafonable Fear but what Nature has blended with and made infeparable from extreme Affection. But may it pleafe All-gracious Providence long to permit your paternal Government to an happy undivided People. And when in the Dif-penfations of its fupreme Wifdom it shall remove you to an higher Throne, may loyal Subjects continue under the Protection of Princes who, defcended from your Loins, shall be emulous of all your Virtues, faithfully upholding the venerable Fabric of our Constitution, too perfect for modern Sciolists in Polity intemperately to alter, or fancifully to improve; and of that Compactness and Solidity which shall shall never be impaired by the wild Attempts of desperate Adventurers, who, were they able, would lay proftrate legal Liberty, and tear up the Foundations of Civil Security and focial Happiness. So shall it be juilified to the World, and to the fober Spirit of Legiflation, that Englishmen know better than any other People upon Earth how to value at the fame Time thefe Three great Advantages, Religion, Commerce, and Liberty.

[Transmitted by his Grace the Duke of Ancaster.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majefty,

The humble Address of the University of Glasgow.

WE, your Majesty's most duriful and loyal Sub-VV jects, the Lord Rector, Vice-Chancellor, Dean of Faculties, Principal, and Profeffors of the University of Glaigow, humbly beg Leave to join the general Voice of the Nation in offering to your Majesty, as the faithful Protector of our Civil and Religious Liberty, our most cordial Thanks for your gracious and paternal Attention to the Welfare and Happinefs of your People, manifefted in your late Proclamation for fupprefing feditious Publications.

As Guardians and Inftructors of Youth, it shall always be our Study to train up those who are committed to our Care in a Veneration for our excellent free Constitution, established at the Revolution, and in a zealous Attachment to your Majesty's facred Perfon, Family, and Government.

Done in the Senate House of the University, and figned in our Name, and by our Appointment, by the Vice-Chancellor, Dean of Faculties, and Clerk, this 8th Day of August, 1792.

Arch. Davidson, Vice-Chancellor. James Meek, F. F. D. Wm. Richardson, Cl. S. P. T.

[Transmitted by his Grace the Duke of Montrofe.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Recorder, and Capital Burgefies of the Borough of Bridport, in the County of Dorfet.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Recorder, and Capital Burgefles of the Borough of Bridport, beg Leave to ap-proach your Throne with Sentiments of fincere and inviolable Attachment to your Royal Perion, Family, and Government, and to express our Gratitude for the many Bloffings we now enjoy, and the pleafing Hopes we entertain, that under the Aufpices of your Majefty's continued Exertions for the Welfare and Happinels of your People, the Peace, Harmony, and Tranquillity of this our native Country will long continue uninterrupted.

We feel it our Duty at this Time to express our Abhorrence of every Measure that has a Tendency to excite Tumult and Sedition, and to affure your M. fly that we shall make it our Endeavour, as Magistrates and Individuals, to enforce Obedience to the Laws, and exert ourfelves in the Suppression of Vice and the Encouragement of good Order-within the Precincts of our Jurisdiction.

That your Majesty may long reign over a brave, free, and happy People, is our fincere and fervent Prayer.

Sealed with our Common Seal.

[Transinitted by James Watson, Esq; one of the Reprefentatives in Parliament for that Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Rofs.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Sub-VV jects, the Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of this your County of Rofs, beg Leave to approach your Throne to ex-prefs our Gratitude and Thanks for your late Royal Proclamation against the seditious and inflammatory Writings and Publications which have been for fome Time back to industriously differinated amongst your Subjects.

Filled with the most lively Sentiments of Gratitude for your Majesty's paternal Care and Attention, manifeited to vards us, in common with the Reft of your People, in the prefent Inflance, we offer your Majeity our Tribute of Thanks.

We cannot avoid expressing our Detestation and Abhorrence of those Writings, which have the avowed Tendency of unhinging our prefent happily established Constitution and Government, and of inculcating Doctrines subversive of all Civil Order and Subordination; and beg Léave to affure your Majesty that we thall, in our feveral Capacities of Magistrates or private Citizens, exert ourfelves to suppress and difcountenance all fuch within our County.

We are happy to embrace this Opportunity of expreffing to your Majefty the Sentiments of Loyalty and unfeigned Attachment to your Royal Perfon, to your Family, and Government, with which we are animated, and of affuring your Majefty that we prize too highly the Bleffings of our Conftitution, as eftablithed at the Period of the Glorious Revolution, to fuffer ourfelves to be mifled by any Schemes of Innovation which may in any Refpect infringe thereon.

May your Majefty long reign over a free and en-lightened Empire, and hand down that Conflicution, which which has to long been the Boaft of our Nation and the Envy of the World, unimpaired to your Royal Succeillor, and your latest Posterity.

Signed in our Prefence, and by our Appointment, at Dingwall, this 31ft Day of July, 1792 Years, by Hugh Munro, Prefes.
