AT the Court at Brighton, the 3d of April 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend training, and to regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewardry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewardry or stewardries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia, to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas it is deemed expedient that such training and exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended, and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 31st of January 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third year of His Majesty's reign (chapter 104), intituled "An Act to continue, until the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four, the bounty to vessels employed in the Greenland Seas and Davis's Streights; and to authorise His Majesty to alter the times for the sailing of the said vessels, and any of the limitations contained in the Acts for allowing the said bounty," His Majesty is authorised by any Order or Orders in Council to be issued for that purpose, to suspend, or vary, any or either of the limitations and restrictions contained in the several Acts granting bounties to vessels employed in the fisheries carried on in the Greenland Seas and Davis's Streights, in such manner as may appear expedient, and as may be expressed and set forth in such Order or Orders in Council; And whereas by an Act, passed in the thirty-second year of His late Majesty King George the Third (chapter 22), it is enacted, "that every ship or vessel having on board one apprentice for every fifty tons burthen, every such apprentice not exceeding the age of twenty years, nor being under twelve years at the time he shall be indentured, shall be deemed properly fitted and qualified, with respect to the number and age of apprentices, to proceed on the sail fishery to the Greenland Seas and Davis's Streights, and to be entitled to the respective bounties granted by this Act;" And whereas it is expedient, that further provision should be made with respect to the number of apprentices to be taken on board ships proceeding to the said fisheries, His Majesty is pleased, by virtue of the authority vested in him by the Act first above recited, to order, and it is hereby ordered that from and after the date of this Order, British vessels employed in the fisheries in the Greenland Seas and Davis's Streights, having on board one apprentice for every one hundred tons burthen of each vessel, every such apprentice not exceeding the age of twenty years, nor being under twelve years at the time he shall be indentured, shall be deemed properly fitted and qualified, with respect to the number and age of apprentices, to proceed on the said fisheries to the Greenland Seas and Davis's Streights, and to be entitled to the respective bounties granted by law for the encouragement of the said fisheries; provided that all the other provisions of the laws for regulating the said fisheries be duly complied with: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the morning of Sunday the 2d of March last, the body of Edward Williams, Esq. was discovered on the shore, in the parish of Piddinghoe, in the county of Sussex, and that there is reason to suppose that the said Edward Williams was murdered by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually murdered the said Edward Williams), who shall discover his, or her accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.—The said reward to be paid, on conviction, by James Cook, Esq. of No. 118, North-street, Brighton.

Admiralty-Office, March 21, 1823.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Session of Noyer and Terniner and Gaol Delivery, for the trial of offences committed on the High Seas within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at the Justice-Hall, in the Old Bailey, London, on Friday the 25th day of April next, at eight o'clock in the morning.

J. W. Croker.

IN pursuance of an Order of the Honourable the House of Commons of the 26th day of March 1823, notice is hereby given, that application is now making to Parliament, and leave has been given, to bring in a Bill to alter and amend two Acts of His late Majesty's reign, for repairing the roads from the Stone's-End, in Blackman-street, in the borough of Southwark, in the county of Surrey, to Highgate, in the county of Sussex, and other roads therein mentioned; and which said several roads pass from, through, or into the several parishes of Saint George, Southwark, Newington, Camberwell, Lambeth, Streatham, Croydon, Sanderstead, Colsden, Warrington, Caterham, Godstone, Horne, Tooting, Clapham, Mitcham, Morden, Carshalton, Sutton, Battersea, Wandsworth, Wimbledon, Putney, and Kingsdon, or some of them, in the said county of Surrey, and East Grinstead, in the said county of Sussex; and notice is hereby also given, that in the said Bill to alter and amend the said Acts an increase or alteration of the existing tolls authorised by the said Acts to be collected is intended to be proposed.—Dated this 8th day of April 1823.

Grocers' Hall,
April 19, 1823.

By Authority of Parliament,

THOMAS NETTLESHIPP, Clerk of the Grocers' Company.

Trinity-House, London, April 18, 1823.

IT having been officially notified to this Corporation, that British vessels are subject to no higher port or other charges in the ports of Russia and of Hamburgh than national vessels;

Notice is hereby given, that instructions have been issued to the Collectors of this Corporation, directing them to place vessels belonging to the Empire of Russia and the State of Hamburgh, on the same footing as British vessels, in respect of charges payable to this Corporation; and to cause such regulation to take effect on Russian vessels, on and from the 1st April 1823; on Hamburgh vessels, on and from the 1st May 1823.

By command of the Corporation,

Js. Court, Secretary.

Payment of Prizes drawn on the 9th Day of April instant, being the first Day of Drawing the second Lottery for the Year 1822.

Lottery-Office, Somerset-Place,
April 19, 1823.

THE Commissioners appointed for managing the Lotteries do hereby give notice, that numbers of tickets and shares thereof in all preceding lotteries may be examined at this Office every day (Sundays excepted), with their registers of benefits and blanks.

And the Commissioners appointed to take in the benefit tickets of the second lottery for the year 1822, do hereby give notice, that they will attend at their Office in Somerset-Place, on Tuesday the 29th instant, from ten o'clock in the forenoon to one o'clock in the afternoon, to take in and enter the benefit tickets drawn on Wednesday the 9th instant, being the first day of drawing the same lottery, to be exchanged for certificates, pursuant to the Act of Parliament in that behalf.

And for further dispatch thereof, the said Commissioners will take in and enter the tickets numbered from No. 1 to No. 2500, at one seat, and the tickets numbered from No. 2501 to No. 5000, at another seat; and the persons possessed thereof are directed to bring with their tickets separate lists thereof, marked A and B, formed in numerical order, adapted to each of the said seats, and at the bottom of each list to write the name and proper additions of the person entitled to the value of the said tickets.

And the said Commissioners also give further notice, that certificates for the value of the said tickets will be delivered out on Friday the 2d day of May next, at twelve o'clock at noon; after which the said Commissioners will take in and enter tickets in their usual monthly entry; and all persons are desired to observe, they must bring duplicates of their lists when they come for their certificates.

The Commissioners also give further notice, that a bond of indemnity must be entered into by two respectable housekeepers (to be approved by the said Commissioners), together with the person entitled to the value of any ticket or tickets which may have been lost, or to any ticket or tickets the checks of which may have been torn or destroyed, before the Commissioners can grant certificates for the same; and that in case of a lost ticket, an affidavit must also be made of the circumstances attending the loss of the same, before one of the Honourable Barons of His Majesty's Exchequer, East India-House, April 16, 1823.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That the Committee of Buying and Warehouses will be ready to receive proposals in writing, sealed up, on or before Wednesday the 14th day of May next, from such persons as may be willing to supply the Company with

Pig Lead;

And the conditions of contract may be seen on application to the Clerk of the said Committee, with whom the proposals must be left before eleven o'clock in the forenoon of the said 14th of May, after which hour the Committee will not receive any tender.

Joseph Dart, Secretary.

Royal Harbour of Ramsgate-Office, Austin-Friars, London, April 19, 1823.

A General Meeting of the Trustees for the Maintenance and Improvement of the Royal Harbour of Ramsgate will be held at this Office, on Friday the 9th day of May next, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely, to elect, nominate, and appoint such other persons as shall be thought fit to be Trustees in the room of those deceased or refusing to act.

John Kirkpatrick, Secretary.

London, April 19, 1823.

an action for a large debt due to the Insolvent's estate, the particulars of which and the names of the parties will be stated at the meeting; or to the accepting of a sum of money in lieu of all the debts mentioned in the Insolvent's schedule; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing on any matter or thing relating to the said debts; and on other special affairs.—Dated Helston, Cornwall, April 11, 1823.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a meeting of the Creditors of Edward Thomas, late of Bassaleg, in the County of Monmouth, Tailor, an Insolvent Debtor, who was lately discharged from His Majesty's Gaol of Monmouth, in the County of Monmouth, under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the first year of the reign of His present Majesty, for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England, and of the Act to amend the same, passed in the third year of the reign of His said Majesty, will be held on Tuesday the 6th day of May next, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Office of Mr. Prothero, in the Town of Newport, in the County of Monmouth, to approve and direct in what manner, and at what place or places the real estate of the said Insolvent shall be sold by public auction.—Dated this 16th day of April 1823.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Assignee of the estate and effects of William Yeates, formerly of Lewisham, Kent, Gentleman, and late of No. 36, Nelson-Square, Great Surrey-Street, Surrey, Searcher in the Customs, an Insolvent Debtor, who was discharged from the King's-Bench Prison, in the County of Surrey, on or about the 12th day of March 1822, under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament, passed in the first year of the reign of His present Majesty, King George the Fourth, intitled "An Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England," will on the 22d day of May next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, attend at the Office of Mr. John Burrup, Solicitor, in Berkeley-Street, in the City of Gloucester, to make a dividend out of the balance of money in his hands amongst the Creditors of the said Insolvent, whose debts are expressed in the schedule delivered by the said Insolvent; when and where the said Creditors of the said Insolvent are to come prepared to prove their respective debts, and if the said Insolvent or any of his Creditors intend to object to any debt stated admitted in the said schedule, such objections are at the said time and place to be made.—Gloucester, April 14, 1823.

THE Creditors of William Peter Coley, late of Long-Ashton, in the County of Somerset, Gentleman, an Insolvent Debtor, lately discharged out of the custody of the Keeper of His Majesty's Gaol of Ichester, by virtue of an Act of Parliament, passed in the first year of the reign of His present Majesty, are requested to meet the Assignee of the estate of the said Insolvent, on Wednesday the 30th day of April instant, at Twelve of the Clock at Noon, at the Offices of Messrs. Beran and Brittan, Attorneys at Law, Small-Street, in the City of Bristol, to take into consideration the trusts and provisions of a certain deed of arrangement and release proposed to be entered into by and between certain persons to be named at the said meeting, who claim to be entitled to the monies, funds, or share of residuary estates, given and bequeathed to the said William Peter Coley, in and by the last will and testament of Simeon Coley, his late father, deceased, and which said several persons are claimants thereto, under and by virtue of certain deeds of assignment and grants of annuity made and executed by the said William Peter Coley previous to his confinement in the said Gaol: the Trustees named and appointed in and by a certain indenture of settlement made and executed by the said William Peter Coley previous to his marriage; the Assignee of the estate of the said William Peter Coley, and the Trustees and Executors named and appointed in and by the last will and testament of the said Simeon Coley, deceased, by which said deed of arrangement and release it is intended to provide for the liquidation in the order and manner therein mentioned of the several claims and demands of the parties claiming, under and by virtue of the said deeds of assignment or grants of annuity, by and out of the monies, funds, or share of residuary estate so given and bequeathed to the said William Peter Coley, in and by the said last will and testament, and for the payment of the surplus, if any, of the said monies, funds, or share of residuary unto the said Assignee of the estate of the said William Peter Coley for the general benefit of his Creditors, which said claims and demands, monies, funds, or share of residuary estate, are the subject of a certain suit now depending in the Court of Chancery, and intended by the said deed of arrangement and release to be compromised and put an end to, the draft of which said deed of arrangement and release will be produced, read, and explained at the said meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee becoming a party to such proposed arrangement on the basis and terms contained in the said draft so to be produced as aforesaid, and to authorise and empower the said Assignee to execute such deed of arrangement and release when the same shall be completed, and all such other deeds, assignments, assurances, and releases as shall be requisite as needful for carrying the same, or the purposes thereof, into full effect, or otherwise to authorise and empower the said Assignee to take and adopt such other measures, either by suit in equity or otherwise, as shall be deemed proper at such meeting, for disputing the claims of the several parties aforesaid, or for liquidating and arranging the same in such way or manner as the said meeting shall think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing any action or actions at law or suit in equity, to recover any part of the said insolvent's estate and effects, or to submit the same to arbitration; and on other special affairs.
