TUESDAY, APRIL 26, 1831.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 14, 1831.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, every Wednesday, at two o'clock, till further notice.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE KING'S LEVEES, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend His Majesty's Levees at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the King's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to His Majesty. And those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Gentleman who is to present them (not the Lord in Waiting), should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, before twelve o'clock on the Monday previous to each Levee, in order that they may be submitted for the King's approbation; it being His Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levee, but in conformity with the above regulations; and further, that no person shall be admitted, on any pretence whatever, who has not been so presented.

It is particularly requested, that Gentlemen who are to be presented at the Levees will have their names distinctly written upon the card to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, in order that there may be no mistake in announcing them to the King.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, Queen's-House, St. James's, April 26, 1831.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the King's Birthday being appointed to be held on the 28th of May, Her Majesty has been pleased to postpone the Drawing-Room of May 26, until June 23.

The Queen will hold Drawing-Rooms, at St. James's-Palace, on the following days:

April	28.
May	12.
May	28.
June	23.

St. James's-Palace, April 22, 1831.

THIS day His Majesty proceeded in state from St. James's-Palace to the House of Peers, where he arrived about three o'clock; and, having alighted from the state coach, was received at the portico by the Great Officers of State and others, and proceeded to the robing-room in the customary manner.

His Majesty was there robed, and the procession moved into the House in the usual order.

His Majesty being seated upon the Throne, the Great Officers of State and others standing on the right and left, Sir Thomas Tyrwhitt, Knt. Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to deliver the following most gracious Speech to both Houses of Parliament:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I HAVE come to meet you for the purpose of proroguing this Parliament, with a view to its immediate dissolution.

I have been induced to resort to this measure for the purpose of ascertaining the sense of My People, in the way in which it can be most constitutionally and authentically expressed, on the expediency of making such changes in the Representation as circumstances may appear to require, and which, founded upon the acknowledged principles of the Constitution, may tend at once to uphold the just rights and prerogatives of the Crown, and to give security to the liberties of the People.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I thank you for the provision you have made for the maintenance of the honour and dignity of the Crown, and I offer you my special acknowledgments for the arrangements you have made for the state and comfort of My Royal Consort; I have also to thank you for the supplies which you have furnished for the public-service; I have observed with satisfaction your endeavours to introduce a strict economy into every branch of that service; and I trust that the early attention of a new Parliament, which I shall forthwith direct to be called, will be applied to the prosecution of that important object.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I am happy to inform you, that the friendly intercourse which subsists between Myself and Foreign Powers, affords the best hopes of the continuance of Peace, to the preservation of which My most anxious endeavours will be constantly directed.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

In resolving to recur to the sense of My People, in the present circumstances of the Country, I have been influenced only by a paternal anxiety for the contentment and happiness of My Subjects, to promote which I rely with confidence on your continued and zealous assistance.

Then the Lord Chancellor, by His Majesty's command, prorogued the Parliament accordingly.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION,

For dissolving the present Parliament, and declaring the calling of another.

WILLIAM, R.

WHEREAS We have thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, to dissolve this present Parliament, which stands prorogued to Tuesday the tenth day of May next: We do for that end publish this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby dissolve the said Parliament accordingly; and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for shires and burghs, of the House of Commons are discharged from their meeting and attendance on the said Tuesday the tenth day of May next: and We, being desirous and resolved, as soon as may be, to meet Our people, and to have their advice in Parliament, do hereby make known to all Our loving subjects Our Royal will and pleasure to call a new Parliament; and do hereby further declare, that, with the advice of Our Privy Council, We have given order to

Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, and Our Chancellor of Ireland, that they do respectively, upon notice thereof, forthwith issue out writs in due form, and according to law, for calling a new Parliament: and We do hereby also, by this Our Royal Proclamation under Our Great Seal of Our United Kingdom, require writs forthwith to be issued accordingly by Our said Chancellors respectively, for causing the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, who are to serve in the said Parliament, to be duly returned to, and give their attendance in, Our said Parliament; which writs are to be returnable on Tuesday the fourteenth day of June next.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this twenty-third day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, and in the first year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION,

In order to the electing and summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland.

WILLIAM, R.

WHEREAS We have in Our Council thought fit to declare Our pleasure, for summoning and holding a Parliament of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, on Tuesday the fourteenth day of June next ensuing the date hereof; in order, therefore, to the electing and summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland, who are to sit in the House of Peers in the said Parliament: We do, by the advice of Our Privy Council, issue forth this Our Royal Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holyrood-House, in Edinburgh, on Friday the third day of June next ensuing, between the hours of twelve and two in the afternoon, to nominate and choose the sixteen Peers, to sit and vote in the House of Peers in the said ensuing Parliament, by open election and plurality of voices of the Peers that shall be then present, and of the proxies of such as shall be absent (such proxies being Peers, and producing a mandate in writing, duly signed before witnesses, and both the constituent and proxy being qualified according to law), and the Lord Clerk Register, or such two of the Principal Clerks of the Session as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his name, are hereby respectively required to attend such meeting, and to administer the oaths required by law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their votes; and immediately after such election made and duly examined, to certify the names of the Sixteen Peers so elected, and to sign and attest the same in the presence of the said Peers the electors, and return such certificate into Our High Court of Chancery of Great Britain. And We do, by this Our Royal Proclamation, strictly command and require the Provost of Edinburgh, and all other the Magistrates of the said city, to take especial care to preserve the peace thereof, during the time of the said election, and to prevent all manner of riots, tumults, disorders, and violence whatsoever. And We strictly charge and command that this Our Royal Proclamation be duly published at the Market-Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the county towns of Scotland, twenty-five days, at least, before the time hereby appointed for the meeting of the said Peers to proceed to such election.

Witness Ourselves at Westminster, this twenty-third day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, and in the first year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

WILLIAM, R.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter 25th, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to fix a rate and direct the disposal of freight money for the conveyance of specie and jewels on board His Majesty's ships and vessels," it is enacted, that from and after the eighth day of April one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, all freight money to be paid for the conveyance on board any of the ships and vessels of His Majesty, of gold, silver, and jewels, or of any other article which may by special order be received on board, and for which freight shall be payable, shall be paid at such rate and be distributed and applied for such purposes, and divided to and amongst such persons in such proportions and after such manner as His Majesty, His heirs and successors should from time to time think fit to order and direct by any Proclamation or Proclamations to be issued for that purpose; in pursuance of which Act a Proclamation was on the twelfth day of July following, made and issued by His Royal Highness the then Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His said Majesty, whereby, amongst other things, a scale of rates at which freights should be payable for public and for private treasure respectively, in peace and war and for different voyages, was fixed and established; and whereas We have thought fit to order that the said rates should be altered, We have, therefore, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, deemed it expedient to issue this Our Royal Proclamation; and We do hereby ordain, declare, and command, that from and after the first day of September next, the said scale of rates so fixed shall cease and be no longer in force; and We do further declare, that from thenceforth the following rates shall be established during peace and war:

	For Crown Treasure.	For Treasure belonging to other Parties.
	per Cent.	Peace and War.
		Gold or Jewels.	Silver.
	per Ct.	per Ct.	per Ct.
Between any two ports the navigable distance between which shall not exceed six hundred leagues	$\frac{3}{4}$	$\frac{3}{4}$	1
Between any two ports the navigable distance between which shall exceed six hundred leagues, and shall be less than two thousand leagues	1	$1\frac{1}{4}$	$1\frac{1}{2}$
For any distance of two thousand leagues and upwards	1	$1\frac{1}{2}$	2

And it is further established and declared, that such freight shall be payable, clear of all deduction whatsoever; and that it shall be stipulated in the bill of lading, that the Captains and Commanding Officers of Our ships and vessels shall not be liable to any expences attending the shipment of such treasure or other articles, until the same shall be safe alongside of their respective ships or vessels; and that their liability shall cease from the moment they shall have landed the treasure at the port to which the ships carrying the treasure shall be destined.

And it is further declared, that in all other respects, save what is hereby altered, the said Proclamation of the twelfth day of July one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, and the rates and regulations thereby established, shall continue in full force.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this twenty-third day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, and in the first year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

General John Lord Crewe. Dated 26th April 1831.

Captain Alexander Roxburgh, half-pay Glengarry Fencible Infantry. Dated 26th April 1831.

Whitehall, April 19, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the evening of Friday the 15th day of April instant, a barn and shed at Chatford, in the parish of Preshute, in the county of Wilts, in the occupation of Mr. John Goodman, together with a stack of barley and a quantity of threshed barley, were wilfully and feloniously set on fire and destroyed by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said property) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Magistrates and others of the division of Marlborough and Ramsbury, to be paid on application to Mr. Woodman, Clerk to the Magistrates, Marlborough, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, April 19, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, late in the evening of Sunday the 10th day of April instant, or early on the following morning, a corn-mill, at Beighton, in the county of Dorby, the property of the Right Honourable Earl Manvers, and in the occupation of Mr. John Staniforth, was feloniously entered by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, who stole a quantity of flour, and afterwards set fire to the mill, whereby nearly the whole of the building and machinery was destroyed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said mill) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered, in the following proportions, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—£50 by Earl Manvers, £20 by Mr. Staniforth, and £30 by the Aston Association for the Prosecution of Felons.

Whitehall, April 19, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Monday the 11th day of April instant, a hay-rick and two straw-ricks standing on the premises of Mr. Good, of the parish of Hutton, near Bristol, were wilfully and feloniously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said ricks) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence. Such reward to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

MELBOURNE.

Whitehall, April 21, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about half past eight o'clock on the evening of Saturday the 16th day of April instant, two bean ricks, containing about 200 sacks of beans, belonging to Mr. Harry Hitchcock, of Manningford, in the county of Wilts, were feloniously and maliciously set on fire and destroyed by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said ricks) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

MELBOURNE.

Whitehall, April 21, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about four o'clock on the morning of Wednesday the 30th day of March last, the barn at Earl Soham Rectory, near Framlingham, in the county of Suffolk, was feloniously and maliciously set on fire and destroyed by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said barn) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Reverend J. H. Groome, Rector of Earl Soham, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.
