Major-General Sir Augustine FitzGerald, in the room of William FitzGerald Vesey FitzGerald, now Baron FitzGerald and Vesey.

Whitehall, February 18, 1832.

The King has been pleased to grant unto Thomas Lister Parker, Esq. only surviving executor of the will of the Right Honourable John Fleming Baron De Tabley, late of Tabley-house, in the county palatine of Chester, deceased, of behalf of George Baron De Tabley, eldest son and heir of the aforesaid John Fleming Baron De Tabley, and now a minor of the age of twenty years and upwards, his royal licence and authority that he, the said George Baron De Tabley, may henceforth take and use the surname of Warren only, that he may write and subscribe the said surname of Warren before any title or titles of honour, and also bear the arms of Warren only, in compliance with a proviso contained in the last will and testament of the late Elizabeth-Harriet

Warren-Bulkeley Viscountess Bulkeley, who was the only child and heir of Sir George Warren, heretofore of Pointon, in the said county palatine of Chester, Knight of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, deceased, and widow and relict of the late Thomas-James Warren-Bulkeley Viscount Bulkeley, in Ireland, and Lord Bulkeley and Baron Beaumaris, in the county of Anglesea, in Great Britain, also deceased; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, February 21, 1832.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Hopkins-Horsley Hobday, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Gent. his royal licence and authority that he and his issue may assume, take, and use the surname of Horsley, in addition to and after that of Hobday, in compliance with a proviso and direction contained in the last will and testament of Mary Horsley, late of Henley in Arden, in the said county, spinster, deceased, as well as in testimony of his grateful respect for her memory; provided this His Majesty's concession and declaration be registered in the College of Arms, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect.

Whitehall, February 21, 1832.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Edwin Beresford Dawes, of Ashford, in the county of Kent, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, February 24, 1832.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Friday the 17th day of February instant, a large number of men assembled together in a riotous and tumultuous manner, in the parish of Aberystwith, in the county of Cardigan, and attacked the house of one James Williams, the windows of which they demolished, and afterwards destroyed the furniture, and committed various other acts of outrage;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

MELBOURNE.

CONTRACT FOR TANNED HIDES.

Navy-Office, February 16, 1832.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 29th instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying, by or before the 30th of September next, to be delivered at His Majesty's Dock-yards, according to a distribution which, together with a sample and a form of the tender, may be seen at this Office.

500 Tanned Hides;

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £400, for the due performance of the contract. G. Smith.

Navy-Office, February 17, 1832

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 1st March next, at twelve o'clock at noon, Captain Warren, C. B. will put up to sale, in His Majesty's Dock-yard at Woolwich, several lots of Old Stores,

Consisting of Junk, Paperstuff, Shakings, Hammocks, and Canvas in Rags, Iron Casks, Ballast, old Iron, &c. &c. &c.

all lying in the said Yard.

Persons wishing to view the lots, must apply to Captain Warren for notes of admission for that purpose.

Catalogues and conditions of sale may be had here and at the Yard. G. Smith.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Partnership heretofore subsisting between us the undersigned, Robert and Charles Dean, of Kelsall, in the County of Chester, as Stone-Masons, is this day dissolved by mutual consent; and that the business will in future be carried on by Robert Dean: As witness our hands this 14th day of February 1832.

Robt. Dean.

Chas. Dean.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Copartnership lately subsisting between us the undersigned, as Surgeons and Apothecaries, at No. 1, County-Terrace, Kent-Road, in the County of Surrey, is this day dissolved by mutual consent; and that all debts relating to the said Partnership are to be paid and received by the undersigned David Boast: As witness our hands this 20th day of February 1832.

David Boast.

Robert Vogan.

London, February 20, 1832.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Partnership heretofore subsisting between the undersigned, as Wholesale Grocers, was dissolved by mutual consent on the 20th day of February; and that the business will henceforth be continued by the undersigned John Hancock on his account; and that he is authorised to receive, and will pay, all outstanding debts due to and by the said dissolved Copartnership.

John Hancock.

Thos. Hogg.
