The River Hull (Navigation) Rules Order, 1957.

Made - - - - - 27th November, 1957

Laid before Parliament 3rd December, 1957

Coming into Operation 11th December, 1957

At the Court at Buckingham Palace the 27th day of November, 1957.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS no rules have been or can be made under the authority of any local Act, concerning the lights and signals to be carried, or the steps for avoiding collisions to be taken, by vessels navigating the waters of the River Hull:

And whereas the Lord Mayor Aldermen and Citizens of the City and County of Kingston upon Hull, who have authority over the waters of the River Hull, have made application for the making of new Rules concerning the lights to be carried and the steps for avoiding collisions to be taken by vessels navigating the said River, and for the revocation of the existing Rules:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred upon Her by sections 421 and 738 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894 (57 & 58 Vict. c. 60), and of all other powers enabling Her in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. The Rules concerning the navigation of the River Hull made by His late Majesty King Edward the Seventh by Order in Council dated the fifteenth day of February 1909 (S.R. & O. 1909/205), are hereby revoked.

2. The Rules set out in the Schedule to this Order are hereby made and shall have effect from the date of coming into operation of this Order.

3.—(1) This Order shall come into operation on the 11th day of December, 1957, and may be cited as the River Hull (Navigation) Rules Order, 1957.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889 (52 & 53 Vict. c. 63), shall apply to the interpretation of this Order, as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

W. G. Agnew.

SCHEDULE.

1. In interpreting these Rules the term "the river" shall include the waters of the River Hull between an imaginary line drawn across that river opposite the Northern-most limit of the City and County of Kingston upon Hull and the River Humber, and the term "the Harbour Master" shall include his assistants for the time being.

These Rules shall not operate nor shall the powers of the Harbour Master under them be exercised so as to interfere with any directions which the British Transport Commission or their Dock Master, Victoria Dock, have power to give by virtue of the Harbours, Docks and Piers Clauses Act 1847, or by any special Act relating to the British Transport Commission.

2. Every vessel passing up or down the river, shall obey the orders of the Harbour Master.

3. Vessels meeting in any part of the river shall keep to starboard so as to pass port to port. Any vessel navigated stern first shall keep to the same side of the river as it would if proceeding head first in the same direction.

4. No vessel shall proceed up or down the river when, owing to her draught of water or otherwise, such a course would, in the opinion of the Harbour Master, be likely to cause danger or an obstruction to navigation.

5. If any vessel takes the ground and may, in the opinion of the Harbour Master, become an impediment to the free navigation of the river, the owner or master of such vessel shall immediately take such steps to lighten such vessel, or otherwise to remove the obstruction as the Harbour Master shall direct, and in default thereof he may himself proceed to lighten such vessel or otherwise remove the same, and any expense incurred by him in so doing shall be forthwith paid by the person who at the time of such vessel first taking the ground was the owner or master of such vessel.

6. All vessels being towed up or down the river above the North Bridge shall be towed in a single line and not abreast of each other.

7. A vessel shall only tow at one time one vessel if the carrying capacity of the vessel being towed exceeds 300 tons.

8. Every vessel must be properly navigated in the river and not allowed to drift athwart the river or otherwise than under control.

9. Where there is no room for meeting vessels to pass, the vessel navigating against the tide shall give way to the vessel navigating with the tide.

10. Every seagoing vessel, when navigating the river, shall have her anchor and chain ready to be let go, in the event of any emergency requiring their use for the safety of such vessel or of any other vessel. Every vessel carrying an anchor shall so carry it as not to endanger any other vessel. If any vessel part from her anchor, the fact shall be reported to the Harbour Master as soon as practicable.

11. Notwithstanding anything contained in these Rules every vessel moored or about to be moored shall be subject to any orders or directions which the Harbour Master may give as to the berth or place to be occupied, the manner of mooring or unmooring, or as to removal or other matter within his jurisdiction.

12. Every vessel shall be and be kept properly and effectually moored whilst at any public or private mooring place or at any pier, wharf, jetty, staith, dolphin or landing place, and especially shall be kept effectually moored during high winds, freshes, or accumulation of ice. Every vessel shall be and be kept moored otherwise than by means of anchors except in case of emergency. No vessel shall be moored with bare wires to wooden mooring piles.

13. No vessel shall be moored in any part of the river or lie or be moored at any jetty, staith or landing place between Garrison Point and the North Bridge so as to leave a navigable channel less than 50 feet in width within three hours before or after high water.

14. No vessel shall be moored in any part of the river or lie or be moored at any jetty, staith or landing place above the North Bridge so as to leave a navigable channel less than 25 feet in width within three hours before or after high water. Vessels with more than 25 feet beam may only proceed above the North Bridge at the discretion of the Harbour Master.

15. Subject to the provisions of Rule 16, the Harbour Master may give notice for the immediate removal of any vessel, wreck or other obstruction which may at any time be moored, anchored or placed, in such a manner as to interfere with or encroach upon the free navigation of the river, and in default of such removal by the master or owner, the Harbour Master may remove the same, and any expense incurred in respect of such removal shall be forthwith paid by the person who at the time of such vessel, wreck or other obstruction being first so moored, anchored or placed, was the owner or master thereof.

16. No vessel shall, without the previous consent of the Harbour Master, be moored or placed in the river in such a position as to obstruct or interfere with the access to any wharf, pier, quay, dolphin, jetty, staith, or landing place (except while loading or unloading cargo or ballast thereat or while proceeding thereto or lying alongside thereof, for such purpose as aforesaid, or returning therefrom) or so as to obstruct or interfere with the access to any dock entrance.

17. Whenever possible twenty-four hours' notice shall be given to the Harbour Master as to the expected time of arrival or sailing of any coastwise vessel.

18. Subject to the provisions of this Rule, all vessels under way and at anchor in the river shall exhibit from sunset to sunrise the lights specified in the Collision Regulations (Ships and Sea-planes on the Water) and Signals of Distress (Ships) Order, 1953 (S.I. 1953/1557 (1953 I, p. 1157)).

Dumb vessels may exhibit (in lieu of the lights specified in such Collision Regulations) a white light distinctly visible on all sides, not less in height above the deck, and above any cargo or other obstruction on the deck:—

- (a) when at anchor than five feet;
- (b) when under way than three feet.

In any case the sternmost of any dumb vessels being towed shall exhibit a white light at the stern, and when dumb vessels are being towed in lines abreast, then the sternmost vessel of each line shall show a white light at the stern.

In this Rule the term "dumb vessel" shall include vessels used only in river and canal navigation which are not propelled by mechanical power or by sails, and sailing vessels with their masts down.

19. Every vessel under way shall proceed at a moderate speed, having due regard to the safety of moored vessels.

20. Every vessel navigating the river shall be properly manned and shall be navigated with care and caution and at a speed and in such a manner as not to endanger the lives of or cause injury to persons or endanger the safety of or cause damage to other vessels or any moorings, or to the banks, wharves or quays of the river or to other property. If any vessel shall cause damage to any such other vessel, moorings, banks, wharves, quays or other property, the master thereof shall report the matter to the Harbour Master without delay.

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order makes new Rules for the navigation of the River Hull, and revokes the existing Rules made by Order in Council on 15th February, 1909.
