This land, which forms part of common land at Birdlip is described in Schedule 1 hereto and is shown coloured pink on the map referred to in paragraph 5 below.

2. The Acquisition of Land Act 1981, requires that the Order shall be subject to special parliamentary procedure insofar as it authorises the purchase of land forming part of a common unless the Secretary of State for the Environment certifies that he is satisfied that there has been or will be given in exchange for the common land other land, which is not less in area and is equally advantageous to the persons, if any, entitled to rights of common or other rights and to the public and that the land given in exchange has been or will be vested in the persons in whom the common land was vested, subject to the like rights, trusts and incidents as attach to the common land, or that the land does not exceed 250 square yards in extent or is required for the widening or drainage of an existing highway and that the giving in exchange of other land is unnecessary, whether in the interests of the persons, if any, entitled to rights of common or other rights, or in the interests of the public.

3. Notice is hereby given that the Greater London Council in pursuance of their powers under section 277 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971 (as amended) have designated on 27th February 1986 certain land situate in the Eversley Park area of the London Borough of Enfield including the land described in the Schedule hereto, as the Highlands Conservation Area. The boundaries of the new Conservation Area are as shown on map No. AR/HB/7396/CONS/A by a solid red line.

The object of such designation is to preserve or enhance the character or appearance of an area of special architectural or historic interest as distinct from individual buildings, to control development in the areas and to stimulate and encourage measures to improve the environment.

The effect of such designation is that, subject to the provisions of section 277A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971 and the exemptions contained therein or made by virtue of any statutory provisions therein:

- (1) No building, or part of a building, which is situated within the Conservation Area shall be demolished without the written consent first obtained of either the local planning authority (the London Borough of Enfield) or the Secretary of State for the Environment.
- (2) The cutting down, topping, lopping, up-rooting, wilful damage or wilful destruction of any tree is prohibited except with the prior notification or consent of the local planning authority (the London Borough of Enfield) in accordance with section 61A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971.
- (3) There will be special control of advertisements.
- (4) Any application for planning permission for development which would, in the opinion of the local planning authority, affect the character or appearance of the Conservation Area, or for consent for demolition within the Conservation Area, shall be advertised and representations shall be taken into account when the application is considered.

Plans showing this area are available for public inspection between the hours of 9.30 a.m. and 4.30 p.m. on Mondays to Fridays at 2nd floor, Chesham House, 30 Warwick Street, London W.1.
