PRIVY COUNCIL OFFICE

At the Court at
Buckingham Palace the 15th Day of March 1995

Present,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS By the Civil Service Order in Council 1991(a) (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Order") provision was made relating to the appointment of persons to situations in Her Majesty's Home Civil Service and for regulating the conduct of Her Majesty's Home Civil Service and the conditions of service therein:

AND WHEREAS by virtue of the Transfer of Functions (Treasury and Minister for the Civil Service) Order 1995(b), certain functions exercised by the Treasury were transferred to the Minister for the Civil Service:

AND WHEREAS it is expedient to make further provision for Her Majesty's Home Civil Service in relation to the matters aforesaid:

NOW, THEREFORE, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered as follows:

Definitions

- In this Order, except where otherwise expressly provided; "the Commissioners" means the persons for the time being appointed by Her Majesty in Council to be Her Majesty's Civil Service Commissioners for the purposes of this Order; "audit" means any review carried out by or on behalf of the Commissioners of the recruitment practices and policies followed by appointing authorities in making an appointment; "public service" means any civil service of the State (other than the Service), and any public authority, or non-governmental body or institution discharging public functions, which the Minister may from time to time determine to be a public service for the purposes of this Order; "the Minister" means the Minister for the Civil Service; "secondment" means a voluntary and temporary transfer from a permanent employer for a fixed period and which does not affect the employment status of the seconded employee; "the Service" means Her Majesty's Home Civil Service; "the Senior Civil Service" means that part of Her Majesty's Home Civil Service whose members are classified by the Minister as members of the Senior Civil Service; "the transitional period" means the period commencing on the coming into force of this Order and expiring on 1st April 1996.

Selection on merit

2.—(1) Except as otherwise expressly provided by this Order, no person shall be appointed to a situation in the Service unless

- the selection for appointment is made on merit on the basis of fair and open competition; and
 - the person appointed satisfies such qualifications as may be prescribed pursuant to Article 10(d).
- (2) Notwithstanding Article 2(1)(b), a person may be appointed in accordance with Schedule 2 to this Order.

Exemptions from selection on merit

3. Article 2(1)(a) shall not apply to an appointment to any situation

- where the holder is appointed directly by the Crown;
- where the holder is appointed by a Minister of the Crown for the purpose only of providing advice to any Minister, and under which the period for which the situation is to be held terminates at the end of an Administration.

Functions of the Commissioners

4.—(1) The Commissioners shall maintain the principle of selection on merit on the basis of fair and open competition in relation to selection for appointment.

(2) The Commissioners shall prescribe and publish a recruitment code on the interpretation and application by appointing authorities of the principle of selection on merit on the basis of fair and open competition, including the circumstances in which exceptions to that principle may be permitted in accordance with Articles 6 and 7 of this Order.

(3) The Commissioners shall audit recruitment policies and practices within the Service to establish whether the recruitment code is being observed by the appointing authority.

(4) The Commissioners may require appointing authorities to publish such summary information as may be specified relating to recruitment and the use by such authorities of permitted exceptions to the principle of selection on merit on the basis of fair and open competition.

The Commissioners' approval for appointment

5.—(1) Subject to Article 5(2), no appointment except for an appointment of less than twelve months or an appointment referred to in Article 3 shall be made to any situation in the Senior Civil Service (or for the transitional period to any situation listed in Schedule 1) without the written approval of the Commissioners, whose decision shall be final. Approval may be given conditionally or unconditionally.

(2) Where pursuant to Article 5(1) the Commissioners have given approval conditionally, the relevant appointing authority may make such appointment pursuant to Schedule 2 as appears to that appointing authority to be appropriate.

Exceptions to selection on merit

6.—(1) Subject to Article 6(2) the Commissioners may except an appointment from the requirements of Article 2(1)(a), either individually or by cases of a class or description, where the appointment falls within one or more of the following categories

- (a) where the total period of service does not exceed five years and the appointment is justified by the needs of the Service;
- (b) where the person is appointed on secondment;
- (c) where immediately before appointment the person is the holder of a situation to which he was appointed on secondment, or under which the period of service (continuous or otherwise) does not exceed five years, and the appointment would be on an exceptional basis;
- (d) where the person has previously held a situation in the Service to which appointment was made on merit on the basis of fair and open competition and is being considered for re-instatement or re-employment;
- (e) where the person holds a situation in a public services;
- (f) where the person is, or has recently been, employed on functions which have been or are being transferred to the Crown;
- (g) where the person has reached an appropriate standard in a fair and open competition for another situation without securing appointment and there is a demonstrable shortage of suitable candidates for the relevant situation.

(2) The Commissioners may except from the requirements of Article 2(1)(a) any appointment to a situation for which their approval is required by Article 5 where they are satisfied that:

- (a) the person proposed for appointment is of proven distinction; or
- (b) that the person proposed for appointment has been assessed in fair and open competition with all other applicants for the situation, and that he is qualified to discharge all the duties of the situation effectively and, in either case, that the appointment is justified for exceptional reasons relating to the needs of the Service.

Disabled people

7. Without prejudice to their powers under Article 6 of the Commissioners may except an appointment from the requirements of Article 2(1)(a) where it appears to the relevant appointing authority that the person satisfies the relevant standard for entry into Service and has been selected for appointment under arrangements which:

- (a) provide for such selection to be made on merit on the basis of fair and open competition, but
- (b) include provision for encouragement and assistance in the process of selection (by way of guarantee of an interview or otherwise) to be given to any person who is defined as being a disabled person or as having a disability by or under any enactment relating to the employment of disabled persons.

Commissioners' Annual Report

8. The Commissioners shall publish an annual report which shall include:

- (a) summary information as to appointments requiring the Commissioners' approval under Article 5, including the number of persons appointed on the basis of each category of permitted exceptions identified Article 6(1)(c) to (g), Article 6(2) and Article 7, and
- (b) an account of the audit of recruitment policies and practices.

Exercise of the Commissioners' powers and duties

9.—(1) Any power or duty of the Commissioners under this Order may be exercised by:

- (a) the First Civil Service Commissioner, or such Commissioner as the First Civil Service Commissioner may authorise for that purpose; or
 - (b) any officer of the Commissioners authorised for that purpose by the Commissioners.
- (2) The Commissioners may from time to time and to such extent as they think fit authorise any person to perform:
- (a) any function under Article 4(3); or
 - (b) any of their functions relating to the selection and recruitment of persons prior to the exercise by them of their power of approval under Article 5; or
 - (c) any of their functions including the power of approval under Article 5 where the Commissioners have approved the arrangements for selection for particular appointments.

Functions of the Minister

10. The Minister may from time to time make regulations and give instructions:

- (a) providing for the number and grading of posts in the Service, the classification of all persons employed therein, their remuneration, expenses, allowances, holidays, hours of work, part-time and other working arrangements, retirement and redundancy, the re-instatement and re-employment of persons in the Service, the re-development of staff within the Service and the conditions of service of all persons employed in the Service;
- (b) for controlling the conduct of the Service;
- (c) relating to the recruitment of persons to situation in the Service;
- (d) prescribing the qualifications for appointment to situations in the Service including qualifications relating to age, knowledge, ability, professional attainment, aptitude and potential.

Citation etc.

11.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Civil Service Order in Council 1995 and shall come into force on 1st May 1995.

(2) The principal Order is hereby revoked except for Article 5 which is revoked with effect from 1st April 1996.

(3) Without prejudice to paragraph (4) below, nothing in the said revocation shall affect any instrument or other thing whatsoever made or done or having effect as if made or done under the principal Order, and every such instrument or thing shall continue in force and so far as it could have been made or done under this Order shall have effect as if made or done under this Order.

(4) The Interpretation Act 1978(c) shall apply for the interpretation of this Order and of any regulations or orders made this Order as it applies for the interpretation of an Act of Parliament, and as if for the purposes of section 16(1) of that Act this Order were an Act of Parliament and the principal Order were an Act of Parliament thereby repealed.

N. H. Nicholls

(a) The principal Order was amended by the Civil Service (Amendment) Order in Council 1994 and the Civil Service (Amendment) (No. 2) Order in Council 1994.

SCHEDULE 2

Articles 2(2) and 5(2)

APPOINTMENT BEFORE APPROPRIATE ENQUIRIES ARE COMPLETED
 AND APPOINTMENT WHERE CERTAIN QUALIFICATIONS ARE NOT SATISFIED

1.—(1) A person may be appointed to a situation in the service where it appears to the relevant appointing authority that it is necessary that the appointment be made before appropriate enquiries are completed and that there is no prima facie doubt that he satisfies all the prescribed qualifications and is otherwise suitable for appointment.

(2) It shall be a condition of any appointment made under this paragraph that the outcome of the appropriate enquiries is satisfactory, but termination of the appointment where the outcome of those enquiries is not satisfactory shall not preclude the person's further appointment in accordance with paragraph 2.

2.—(1) A person may be appointed to a situation in the Service where it appears to the relevant appointing authority that, although otherwise suitable for appointment, he does not fully satisfy the prescribed qualification as to:

- (a) health or character, but that if appointed for a trial period of service he is likely within that period to satisfy such qualifications; or
 - (b) nationality, but that if appointed his employment would be under the authority of a certificate issued under section 1 of the Aliens Employment Act 1955; or
 - (c) knowledge, ability, professional attainment, aptitude or potential, but that if appointed for a trial period of service he is likely within that period to demonstrate that he is fully able to discharge the duties of the grade.
- (2) An appointment may only be made pursuant to paragraph 2(1)(c) on an exceptional basis and where there is a shortage of qualified candidates for the situation.
- (3) It shall be a condition of any appointment made for a trial period under this paragraph that within a specified period not exceeding five years, the person demonstrates to the satisfaction of the relevant appointing authority that:
- (a) in the case of an appointment under paragraph 2(1)(a), he satisfies the relevant qualifications; and
 - (b) in the case of appointment under paragraph 2(1)(c), he is fully able to discharge the duties of the grade.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order revokes and re-enacts with substantial amendments the Civil servants Order in Council 1991.

The principal provisions of this Order are:

- (a) Article 2 provides that, except as otherwise provided in the Order, selection for appointment to the Home Civil Service will be on merit and on the basis of fair and open competition. Schedule 2 contains provision for the appointment of a person before it has been established that all prescribed qualifications are satisfied.
- (b) Article 3 provides for exemptions from the principle of selection on merit on the basis of fair and open competition.
- (c) Article 4 sets out the function of the Commissioners and provides for the issue by them of a code on the interpretation and application of the principle of selection on merit on the basis of fair and open competition, and for the audit by them of recruitment practices and policies within the Home Civil Service.
- (d) Article 5 provides for the approval by the Commissioners of appointments to the Senior Civil Service and for a transitional period pending the establishment of that Service, to appointments listed in Schedule 1.
- (e) Article 6 and 7 provide for exceptions to the principle of selection on merit on the basis of fair and open competition.
- (f) Article 8 requires the Commissions to publish an annual report.
- (g) Article 9 empowers the First Civil Service Commission or a Commissioner authorised for that purpose to exercise any power or duty of the Commissioners under the Order, and allows the delegation of any such power or duty to any officer of the Commissioners. The Commissioners may also authorise any person to perform the function of auditing recruitment practices and policies, and selection and recruitment work.

- (h) Article 10 contains amendments in consequence of the Transfer of Functions (Treasury and Minister for the Civil Service) Order 1995 which transferred certain functions of the Treasury to the Minister. (1 SI)

BURIAL ACT 1853

Notice is hereby given that a representation has been made to Her Majesty in Council by the Secretary of State for the Environment that burials should be discontinued in the churchyard of St. John the Baptist, Horrbridge, Devon and that Her Majesty in Council was pleased on 15th March 1995 to order that such representation be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on 10th May. DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORT

GOVERNMENT OFFICE FOR THE SOUTH-EAST

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1990

The Secretary of State for Transport hereby gives notice that he proposes to make an Order under section 247 of the above Act, which will authorise the stopping-up of three areas of highway land at Farmside Gardens, Hilsea, in the County of Hampshire.

If the Order is made, the stopping-up will be authorised only in order to enable the development described in the Schedule to this notice to be carried out in accordance with the planning permission granted to Hall and Tawse Partnership on behalf of Swaythling Housing Association by Portsmouth City Council on 10th December 1993, under ref. DA:A*35502/AA.

Copies of the draft Order and relevant plan may be inspected at all reasonable hours during the 28 days commencing on 20th March 1995, at Portsmouth City Council, Civic Information Desk, Civic Offices, Guildhall Square, Portsmouth, Hampshire PO1 2AL, and may be obtained, free of charge, from the Government Office for the South-East, Directorate of Transport (quoting ref. MSE/5237/0/0/35/1/156), at the address below.

During the above-mentioned period of 20 days anyone may object to the making of the Order by writing to the Secretary of State, quoting ref. MSE/5237/0/0/35/1/156, and addressing their objection to the Director (Transport), Government Office for the South-East, Room 565, Charles House, 375 Kensington High Street, London W14 8QH. In the preparation of an objection it should be borne in mind that the substance of any objection may be communicated to the applicant and other people who may be affected by it.

M. Longes, a Higher Executive Officer in the Government Office for the South-East.

SCHEDULE

External alterations (including re-cladding, replacement double glazing, provision of lean-to roof to ground floor stores); form children's play area, and provision of additional car parking and landscaping works.

General enquiries relating to this notice may be made in writing to M. Longes at the Government Office for the South-East at the address stated above or by telephoning 0171-605 9251.

Please note that formal objections will not be valid unless made in writing. (774)

Proposed Pedestrianisation of Roe Street (part), Dawson Street (part) and Brythen Street (part)

This notice supersedes the one published on 11th August 1994

The Secretary of State for Transport hereby gives notice that on the application of the Liverpool City Council, he proposes to make an Order under section 249 of the above Act, to provide for the extinguishment of any right which persons may have to use vehicles on Roe Street (part), Dawson Street (part) and Brythen Street (part).

The proposed Order will contain provisions for permitting the use of those highways by vehicles being used:

- (a) for police, ambulance or fire brigade purposes;
- (b) in connection with the laying, erection, inspection, maintenance, alteration, repair, renewal or removal in or near the said length of highway of any sewer, main, pipe, conduit, wire, cable or other apparatus for the supply of gas, water, electricity or of any telecommunication apparatus as defined in Schedule 2 to the Telecommunications Act 1984.

During 28 days from 20th March 1995, copies of the draft Order and the revised plan may be inspected at all reasonable hours at the offices of Private Street Works Section, 3rd Floor, Steers House, Canning Place, Liverpool L1 8JA, and may be obtained, free of charge, from the Department of Transport at the address stated below.

Within the above-mentioned period of 28 days, any person may by notice to the Secretary of State for Transport (quoting the Ref. GO-M(T)/5091/TCPA/2), at his address at the Government Office for Merseyside, Graeme House, Derby Square, Liverpool L2 7SU, object to the making of the Order.

ROAD TRAFFIC ACTS

AVON COUNTY COUNCIL

Avon County Council (Newry Walk and Tavistock Road, Knowle West, City of Bristol) (Southern Zone) (Prohibition of Waiting) (Prohibition of Driving) Order 199 .

Notice is hereby given that the County Council of Avon proposes to make an Order under sections 1(1), 2(1) to (3), 4(2) of and Part IV of Schedule 9 to the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, as amended, the effect of which will be:

- to prohibit any vehicle, except pedal cycles, entering, proceeding or waiting in that length of Newry Walk which extends from Daventry Road, south-eastwards for 2.5 metres.
- to consolidate the provisions of the "County Council of Avon (Tavistock Road, Knowle, City of Bristol) (Southern Zone) (Prohibition of Driving) (Prohibition of Waiting) Order 1990", omitting the exemption for emergency vehicles which currently applies to the closure on that length of Tavistock Road which extends from Daventry Road, south-eastwards for a distance of 2.5 metres. The only exemption remaining in respect of this closure will be for pedal cycles.

Full details of the proposal are contained in the draft Order, which together with a map, a statement of the Council's reasons for proposing to make the Order and a copy of the Order to be revoked, may be inspected at the undermentioned offices (callers should report to Reception and ask for the Statutory Order Section) during normal office hours and at Filwood Public Library, Filwood Broadway, Filwood, during normal opening hours.

Objections to the proposal, together with the grounds on which they are made must be sent in writing to the County Solicitor and Clerk at the undermentioned address quoting ref. NMT/P-2-166 by 12th April 1995. Please note that all representations received may be considered in public by the County Council and that the substance of any representation together with the name and address of the person making it could become available for public inspection.

Hansard

The Official Verbatim Report of Parliamentary Proceedings

Hansard reflects opinion on all topics of the day and is of great interest to a wide range of business and professional groups. In addition to a factual word-for-word transcription of speeches in debate, it contains the answers to all Parliamentary Questions, complete Division Lists, and following each session details of the composition of the House. Proceedings up to 10 p.m. each day are reported in the issue on sale at 8.30 the following morning at the Government Bookshop in Holborn. A Weekly Edition is also published, and bound volumes are issued periodically during the session. Standing Orders can be accepted, if a suitable deposit is sent, for debates on definite subjects.

NOTICE

All Notices and Advertisements are published in the London Gazette at the risk of the Advertiser and at the discretion of the Editor. Whilst every endeavour will be made to ensure that the publication is made in accordance with the advertiser's requirements the Crown accepts no responsibility for any loss or damage howsoever arising from either a failure to meet those requirements or in respect of any errors or omissions which may inadvertently be made in respect of those requirements or in connection with any notice or advertisement.

Notices and Advertisements by Private Advertisers may be tendered at or sent direct by post to HMSO, The London Gazette Office, Room 418, Publications Centre, 51 Nine Elms Lane, London SW8 5DR, for insertion at the authorised rates of payment. All Notices and Advertisements must be pre-paid. The Office hours are from 8.30 a.m. to 4 p.m., Mondays to Fridays, inclusive. Notices and Advertisements sent direct by post must be accompanied by postal orders or cheques made payable to The London Gazette.

Advertisements purporting to be issued in pursuance of Statutes (other than under Section 27, Trustee Act, 1925 and section 28, Water Resources Act, 1963) or under Orders of Court will not be inserted unless signed or attested by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court, by a member of any body of accountants established in the United Kingdom and for the time being recognised by the Board of Trade for the purposes of Section 389 (1) of the Companies Act, 1985, or by a member of the Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators. Notices of Dissolution of Partnership which are signed by all the Partners named therein or their legal representatives will be accepted if signed or attested as above. A Notice not signed by all the Partners named therein or their legal representatives must be accompanied by a Statutory Declaration made by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court to the effect that such Notice is given in pursuance of the terms of the partnership to which it relates.

Advertisements purporting to be issued in pursuance of Section 27, Trustee Act, 1925, will not be inserted unless they are signed or attested by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court or by a duly authorised official of a London Clearing Bank or the Grant of Probate or Letters of Administration relating to the estate to which the advertisement refers is produced for inspection at the time the advertisement is submitted.

Advertisements relating to Bills before Parliament will not be inserted unless signed by a Parliamentary Agent or a Solicitor of the Supreme Court.
