BURIAL ACT 1853

Notice is hereby given that representations have been made to Her Majesty in Council by the Secretary of State for Justice that burials should be discontinued in the following places of burial and that Her Majesty in Council was pleased on 16th March 2011 to order that such representations be taken into account by a Committee of the Privy Council on 27th April 2011.

1. St Mary’s Churchyard, Edge Hill, Liverpool;
2. All Saints Churchyard, West Haddon, Northamptonshire (as shown hatched on the plan annexed hereto);
3. St James Churchyard, New Bury, Farnworth, Metropolitan District of Bolton;
4. St Mary’s Churchyard, Liss, Hampshire;
5. The Churchyard of St Mary Magdalene, Keyworth, Nottingham.

The exceptions are that: –

(a) in the places numbered 2, 3 and 4 above, in any existing earthen grave in the churchyard, the burial may be allowed of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons previously buried in that grave, but no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than one metre below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave; and

(b) in the places numbered 2 and 5 above, in any grave space in which no interment has previously taken place, the burial may be allowed of any person for whom, or any member of the family for which that grave space has been reserved and appropriated, with the exclusive right of burial there, but no part of the coffin containing the body shall be less than one metre below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.
