Who Do We Please Or Whom Do We Please?

Grammatically speaking, we all know that “Whom do we please?” is correct (don’t we?). But if you’re in the communications business, what and how you say it is important in selecting the type of audience you want.

Three years ago, KABC RADIO decided that their audience should be adult, above-average in intellect and education, income in the upper-half of the class, more two-car families and maybe an extra bathroom in the house. We call them the “Whom” group. And to encourage this “bigger-buying” segment of Los Angeles to dial KABC RADIO 79, we inaugurated in 1960 a fresh and stimulating concept of an all-conversation format. We selected a gifted group of conversationalists (from the “Whom” category) who neither talk up nor down to our audience—but straight at them. It was and is a highly successful innovation... because we now deliver to our advertisers just about the most important group of listener-customers in Los Angeles.

Who do we please? “WHOM” (and advertisers)... that’s who.

To cross the mighty Mississippi at this point, you have a choice of three bridges — and WOC Radio. Like the bridges, WOC links five great communities (and eleven surrounding counties) with an EBI of more than 1 billion dollars. WOC — the Quint-Cities senior station — has increased its adult audience the fastest of any station, and is the only station in the area with a single-rate card.

Each of the counties within the WOC coverage area ranks in the top 18% of all the U. S. counties in gross farm income and three of the major farm machinery manufacturers are located here.

Since 1922

Ever take the PULSE of your HOOPER?

WILS did. We found our PULSE to be remarkably like our HOOPER. Both show how well Lansing likes Radio WILS... like this:

PULSE: May 1-21, 1963

6 AM-12 Noon WILS 12 Noon-7 PM

63% 58%

AUDIENCE ESTIMATE

HOOPER: Jan.-Mar. 1963

7 AM-12 Noon WILS 12 Noon-6 PM

62.3% 68.8%

SHARE OF RADIO AUDIENCE

Our PULSE audience composition showed WILS having from two to three times the adult listeners in each measured time period from 6 AM to 7 PM.

What earns this audience for WILS?

We broadcast 24 Hrs.-A-Day.

48
NEWSCASTS

We have news 48 times a day... plus editorials

GREAT D.J.'s
