Lee Horsley as an 1890's gunfighter who becomes the guardian of his sister's four children. Returning at 8 to 9 p.m. is 48 Hours, with Knots Landing airing at 10-11 p.m.

The CBS Friday night schedule is unchanged, with Beauty and the Beast, one of the few successes from last season, returning at 8-9 p.m., followed by the established Dallas at 9-10 p.m. and Falcon Crest at 10-11 p.m.

CBS's Saturday night leads off with Dirty Dancing. The comedy, airing at 8-8:30, is set in the mid-sixties and is about two young adults from different backgrounds who work together at a summer resort. Another new comedy, Close to Home, premieres in the 8:30-9 p.m. position. The series follows a father/daughter relationship through the daughter's teen-age years. Tour of Duty returns in its 9-10 p.m. slot, followed by West 57th at 10-11 p.m.

The Sunday night lineup remains intact from last season, as two CBS stalwarts return. 60 Minutes returns in the 7-8 p.m. time period, followed by Murder, She Wrote at 8-9 p.m. and the CBS Sunday Movie at 9-11 p.m.

Providing three of CBS's new shows, the most of any single producer, is GTG Entertainment, headed by former NBC chairman, Grant Tinker. GTG is producing Close to Home, The Van Dyke Show and TV 101. A member of the Tisch family is also providing programming to the network. Steve Tisch
